Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On March 15, 2017, iHeartCommunications, Inc. (the Company) commenced exchange offers to exchange certain series of its outstanding series of debt securities (the Existing Notes) for new securities of the Company, iHeartMedia, Inc. and CC Outdoor Holdings, Inc. and concurrent consent solicitations with respect to the Existing Notes. In addition, on March 15, 2017, the Company also commenced offers (the Term Loan Offers) to amend its outstanding Term Loan D and Term Loan E borrowings under its senior secured credit facility.

As previously disclosed, the Company has engaged in discussions with certain lenders under its Term Loan D and Term Loan E facilities and certain priority guarantee noteholders (collectively, the Lenders) and counsel to certain of those Lenders in connection with the Term Loan Offers. The Company and the Lenders entered into non-disclosure agreements (NDAs) in furtherance of these discussions. The Company is making the disclosures herein in accordance with the terms of the NDAs. The discussions subject to the NDAs involved continued negotiations with respect to a potential global restructuring of the indebtedness of the Company. These discussions resulted in the exchange of term sheets between the Lenders and the Company over the course of such discussions. The Lenders' initial proposal was for an out-of-court exchange offer with a stapled pre-packaged Chapter 11 plan of reorganization, potentially through a plan or restructuring support agreement, with the following proposed distributions: (i) for holders of Term Loans D and E and priority guarantee notes of the Company, approximately $6 billion of new 5 and 7-year secured term loans or notes at recapitalized iHeart, an unspecified percentage of equity in recapitalized iHeart and potentially an unspecified percentage of equity in Outdoor; (ii) for holders of legacy notes, an unspecified percentage of pro rata distributions of new debt and equity issued to holders of Term Loans D and E and priority guarantee notes (assuming benefit only from principal property collateral and not from non-principal property collateral); (iii) for holders of 10% senior notes due 2018 and 14% notes due 2021, an unspecified percentage of equity/warrants in recapitalized iHeart and/or potentially in Outdoor; (iv) for existing iHeartMedia, Inc. equity holders, an unspecified percentage of equity/warrants in recapitalized iHeart and/or potentially in Outdoor; and (v) for management, a management incentive plan consistent with market practice. The distributions for holders of legacy notes, holders of 10% senior notes due 2018 and 14% notes due 2021, iHeartMedia, Inc. equity holders and management would not exceed $300 million in the aggregate value based upon valuation to be agreed. The Lenders' proposal also included full and mutual release from all parties to the extent allowed by law.

On October 24, 2017, the Company provided the Lenders with a counter proposal. The Company's counter proposal was for an out-of-court exchange offer with minimum participation thresholds, with the following terms: (i) the Company's receivables based credit facility would remain outstanding and/or be refinanced at closing; (ii) holders of Term Loans D and E and priority guarantee notes of the Company would receive approximately $7 billion of new first lien debt at recapitalized iHeart with a 5 to 7-year maturity and secured by substantially all assets of recapitalized iHeart, 50% of equity in recapitalized iHeart and 70% of iHeart's ownership in Outdoor (assumes public stub in Outdoor remains outstanding); (iii) holders of legacy notes would not participate in the exchange offer and the legacy notes would remain outstanding; (iv) holders of 10% notes due 2018, 14% notes due 2021 and existing iHeartMedia equity holders would receive 50% of equity in recapitalized iHeart, 30% of iHeart's ownership in Outdoor (assumes public stub in Outdoor remains outstanding) and approximately $300 million of new senior unsecured debt of recapitalized iHeart with a 7 to 9-year maturity (with such new senior unsecured debt only issued to participating debt holders); and (v) management would be entitled to a management incentive plan to be negotiated. The Company's proposal also included full and mutual releases.

Other than the aforementioned term sheets, no additional material Confidential Information (as defined in the NDAs) has been provided by the Company to the Lenders.

No agreement has been reached with respect to the above discussions and discussions remain ongoing. There can be no assurance that any agreement will be reached. Any such agreement will require the consent of additional debt holders who are not party to the negotiations, and who hold substantial percentages of the Company's debt. The
