Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously announced, effective November 20, 2017, Irene B. Rosenfeld stepped down from the position of CEO of Mondelez International, Inc. (the Company) but continues to serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors (the Board) for a transition period through March 31, 2018, at the end of which she will retire from the Company and resign from the Board.

On December 12, 2017, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the Compensation Committee) of the Board approved Ms. Rosenfeld's compensation for her service as Chairman for the period from January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018. Effective January 1, 2018, Ms. Rosenfeld will receive over the course of that period $500,000 in salary.

Upon retirement, she will also be eligible to receive continued vesting of her outstanding grants of performance share units for the 2016-2018 and 2017-2019 performance cycles. The number of shares awarded under each of these grants will be determined by the Compensation Committee based on the Company's performance on key financial goals for the relevant performance cycle and will vest on the original vesting dates after each respective performance cycle. Per plan provisions, Ms. Rosenfeld's unvested 2016 and 2017 stock option grants will also continue to vest in accordance with their original vesting schedule and will expire at the end of their full term.

There is no change to Ms. Rosenfeld's compensation for the period from November 20, 2017 through December 31, 2017, and she will receive no additional compensation for her service to the Company other than as summarized above. Because she is an employee, Ms. Rosenfeld is not eligible for any additional compensation for her service as a director.

The compensation summarized above is subject to Ms. Rosenfeld's compliance with restrictive covenants including non-compete, non-solicitation and non-disparagement and confidentiality provisions.
