Notice to the Market

Banco Bradesco S.A. ("Bradesco or Company"), in reference to the Official Letter No. 233/2016-CVM/SEP/GEA-1, on this date, informs to the Market that, in one of the surveys derived from the the so-called "Zealots Operation", three members of the Bank's Management were indicted, including its CEO.

According to the report of the Federal Police, members of the Bank's Board of Officers have maintained contact with people investigated for crimes of active corruption.

Under the mentioned survey, two Bradesco's Officers have testified to the Federal Police in São Paulo, when they clarified that they had been contacted by tax advisory office that offered to advocate a tax issue in the Administrative Board of Tax Resources "CARF". No proposal, hiring or payment have been implemented from these contacts, even because the tax pending issue was under the responsibility of renowned tax specialists.

It is important to inform that the lawsuit at CARF, object of the investigation, was tried in disfavor of Bradesco unanimously - 6 x 0, and is now submitted to the Judiciary. The Company informs that it has never promised, offered or gave undue advantage to any person, including public employees, for submission of tax affairs or of any other nature.

The indictment takes by surprise the Bradesco's Management, considering that the two Officers were heard only as witnesses and the Company's CEO even has been heard or participated in any meeting with representatives of the tax advisory office.

Bradesco reiterates its high standards of ethical conduct and reaffirms its confidence in the full operation of Justice.
