Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 29, 2006, Group 1 Automotive, Inc, and one or more of its affiliates (the "Company") entered into one or more Confidential Release and Settlement Agreements with Universal Computing Systems, Inc. and its affiliates ("Universal"), to terminate all obligations and duties under four agreements the Company had with Universal. The stores affected by the termination are Miller Toyota, Miller Honda of Culver City, Miller Honda Van Nuys, Miller Mitsubishi, Miller Infiniti, Miller Nissan Van Nuys, World Ford/Pembroke Pines, World Ford Kendall, World Ford Pensacola, Gulf Breeze Ford, David Michael Motor Cars of Freehold (Mercedes), David Michael Honda of Freehold and David Michael Volkswagen of Freehold. The Company also amended its agreement with Universal pertaining to a contract with Jim Tidwell Ford, Inc. (the "Tidwell Amendment"). The Tidwell Amendment terminated the contract with Jim Tidwell Ford and World Toyota, and assigned the remaining surviving stores (World Ford Stone Mountain, Sandy Springs Ford, Snellville Lincoln Mercury and Alpharetta Lincoln Mercury) under one contract to GPI Atlanta-F, Inc. d/b/a World Ford Stone Mountain. The aggregate amount paid to Universal and the specific terms relating to each agreement are subject to the confidentiality provisions of the agreements. However, prior to the date of termination, the Company had reserved on its books an amount sufficient to cover satisfaction of the termination obligations with Universal for each of the stores described above.
