("SCM", and together with SCM GmbH and its other subsidiaries, the "Company"), entered into an employment agreement with Sour Chhor. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Chhor will join the Company and be appointed as Executive Vice President, Worldwide Business Development and Strategy, effective as of February 1, 2008. The term of his employment and appointment is indefinite. During the first six months of his employment, Mr. Chhor's employment may be terminated by either Mr. Chhor or the Company with one month's notice effective to the end of a month. Thereafter, either party may terminate Mr. Chhor's employment with three months' notice effective to the end of a month. Mr. Chhor will be based at the Company's headquarters in Ismaning, Germany, and will report to Felix Marx, Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Mr. Chhor, 43, joins SCM from NXP Semiconductors ("NXP") – a specialty semiconductor provider for the mobile communications, consumer electronics, security, contactless payment and entertainment industries – where he served most recently as a Senior Director, Global Key Accounts from 2006 to the present and was among NXP's Top 150 Leaders. From 2001 to 2006, Mr. Chhor was General Manager of NXP's Contactless & Embedded Security Division, headed NXP's smart card and reader businesses and launched NXP's Near Field Communication cooperation with Sony. Prior to NXP, from 1998 to 2001 Mr. Chhor held a variety of management positions with Philips Semiconductors and Philips Consumer Electronics. His professional experience also includes marketing, sales, and research and development positions in the consumer electronics, telecom and broadband Internet industries. In addition, Mr. Chhor will be provided with the use of a company car or car allowance equal to EUR 900 per month.
