SUMMARY:

Bancolombia S.A. ( BANCOLOMBIA or the Bank ) reported consolidated net income of Ps. 311.1 billion for the quarter ended March 31, 2009 ( 1Q09 ) (Ps. 394.92 per share and U.S.$ 0.62 per ADR), representing an increase of 5.7% compared to the quarter ended December 31, 2008 ( 4Q08 ) and 22.6% compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2008 ( 1Q08 ).

The Bank's results in 1Q09 were mainly driven by a solid performance of revenues as net interest income totaled Ps. 985.2 billion, an increase of 23.70% as compared to 1Q08, while net fees and income from services reached a record Ps. 367.0 billion, increasing 19.6% as compared to 1Q08. The Bank's results were partially off-set by high credit cost as net provision charges totaled Ps. 339.9 billion in 1Q09, increasing 96.2% when compared to 1Q08, but decreasing 28.4% compared to 4Q08, and operating expenses that amounted to Ps. 716.7 billion, increasing 22.7% as compared to 1Q08.

During 1Q09, BANCOLOMBIA's management continued to focus on strengthening the Bank's capital position as well as its balance sheet. The Bank's efforts resulted in:

The Bank's capital position was strengthened; basic capital (tier 1) increased Ps. 573 billion, or 11.5%, as compared to the previous quarter due to higher appropriation of legal reserves and retained earnings, and additional capital (tier 2) increased Ps. 519 billion, or 40.7% as compared to 4Q08, driven by the successfully issuance and offering of subordinated notes in the local market for an aggregate principal amount of Ps. 400 billion on March 4, 2009. As a result, technical capital reached Ps. 7,337 billion while capital adequacy (Tier 1+ 2 Capital ratio) finished 1Q09 at 12.7%, up from the 11.2% presented the previous quarter.

The balance sheet was strengthened as allowances for loan losses increased to Ps. 2,351 billion by the end of 1Q09 (5.1% of total loans), while coverage, measured by the ratio of allowances for loans and accrued interest losses to past due loans (overdue more than 30 days), ended 1Q09 at 131.7%.

During 1Q09 Bancolombia continued experiencing underlying business expansion:

BANCOLOMBIA continued experiencing a favorable evolution of deposit growth during the quarter, strengthening its solid liquidity position. As of March 31, 2009, BANCOLOMBIA's deposits reached Ps. 43,515 billion, increasing 7.7% as compared to 4Q08 and 30.7% as compared to 1Q08, while the ratio of net loans to deposits (including borrowings from development banks) decreased, reaching 92% at the end of 1Q09.

The Bank's efforts have resulted in market share gains in most of its operations. According to ASOBANCARIA (Colombia's national banking association), BANCOLOMBIA's market share as of March 31, 2009, was as follows: 21.7% of total loans, up from 21.4% compared to March 31, 2008, and 19.1% of total deposits, compared to 18.3% market share at the end of 1Q08. According to ABANSA (El Salvador's national banking association), the market share of BANCOLOMBIA's subsidiary Banco Agricola as of March 31, 2009 amounted to 30.1% of total loans, up from 28.6% as of March 31, 2008, and 30.4% of deposits, compared to 29.6% as of March 31, 2008.

The Bank experienced some asset deterioration during 1Q09. Past due loans (overdue more than 30 days) increased 12.7% during the quarter. As a result, the past due loans ratio increased from 3.6% in 4Q08 to 4.0% by the end of 1Q09.

Annualized return on average shareholders' equity ( ROE ) for 1Q09 was 19.95%, a slight increase from the 19.80% annualized ROE presented in 4Q08 and 19.67% annualized ROE presented in 1Q08.

1. CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEET

1.1. Assets

As of March 31, 2009, BANCOLOMBIA's assets totaled Ps. 64,944 billion, representing an increase of 5.1% and 25.5% as compared to the figures presented at the end of 4Q08 and 1Q08 respectively.

Asset structure presented small changes during 1Q09 as follows: net loans and financial leases decreased its participation in assets to 67.0% from 68.8% in previous quarter, while net investments securities increased to 12.7% from 11.8%, and cash and equivalents increased to 10.0% from 9.1% as compared to 4Q08.

1.1.1. Loan Portfolio

As of March 31, 2009, BANCOLOMBIA's gross loans totaled Ps. 45,844 billion, increasing 2.7% as compared to 4Q08 and 20.4% as compared to 1Q08, primarily driven by the Colombian peso ( COP ) depreciation presented during 1Q09 (COP depreciated 13.4% against the U.S. dollar in 1Q09). As U.S. dollar denominated loans represented 30% of the loan book by the end of 1Q09, COP depreciation significantly impacted the COP conversion of the U.S. dollar denominated loans.

In fact, the slower pace of economic activity in the economies where the Bank operates, combined with a more selective approach towards lending, offers a more precise explanation behind the forces driving the dynamics of the loan book. COP denominated loans remained stable in 1Q09 slightly decreasing 0.2% as compared to 4Q08 while increasing 13.7% as compared to 1Q08. On the other hand, U.S. dollar denominated loans decreased 3.1% compared to 4Q08 and slightly increased 0.6% compared to 1Q08 when measured in U.S. dollars.

Likewise, loan growth per segment figures were affected by the COP depreciation in 1Q09. In particular, no significant loan growth was recorded in the Corporate and Retail and SMEs segments when measured in their original currency. However, COP denominated mortgage loans and financial leases increased 2.4% and 2.3% in 1Q09 as compared to 4Q08 respectively. The mortgage loans increase takes into account securitized mortgages as the Bank continued to sell mortgages for securitization purposes (Ps. 218.8 billion in mortgage loans were securitized in 1Q09).

1.1.2. Investment Portfolio

As of March 31, 2009, BANCOLOMBIA's net investment securities amounted to Ps. 8,269 billion, representing a 13.6% increase when compared to the figures as of December 31, 2008, and an increase of 40.2% when compared to the figures as of March 31, 2008. Net investment securities are primarily comprised of investments in debt securities which represented 97.6% of BANCOLOMBIA's net investment securities portfolio by the end of 1Q09 and 12.4% of total assets, increasing its relative size from the 11.1% of assets represented by the end of 2008.

1.2. Funding

As of March 31, 2009, BANCOLOMBIA's liabilities reached Ps. 58,866 billion, increasing 5.7% as compared to 4Q08 and 25.7% as compared to 1Q08. Liabilities denominated in COP, which represent 67.3% of total liabilities, increased 2.0% over the quarter and 18.3% as compared to 1Q08.

During the last few months, the Colombian Central Bank has begun an expansionist monetary cycle in an effort to support economic activity given the current economic slowdown and a more favorable inflationary outlook for 2009. Specifically, the Colombian Central Bank overnight lending rate has been reduced in 400 basis points since December 2008, leaving such rate at 6.00%. As a result of these measures, the Colombian monetary market's liquidity has been ample. Moreover, capital markets continue to grow deeper in the country as shown by an increasing number of successful bond issuances by Colombian companies. In fact, as of April 28, 2009 Ps. 4,984 billion (approximately U.S. dollars 2,1 billion) had been successfully issued in the local capital market in Colombia during 2009, increasing 307% as compared to the figure presented as of the same period last year.

As mentioned in previous quarterly reports, BANCOLOMBIA has maintained a focus on preserving a solid liquidity position. In fact, the Bank increased its market share of deposits within Colombia's banking system from 18.3% in March 2008 to 19.0% as of March 2009. In El Salvador, through its subsidiary Banco Agrícola, the Bank increased market share of deposits from 29.6% as March 2008 to 30.4% as of March 2009. In particular, the Bank continued to experience a positive evolution of deposit growth in 1Q09; deposits reached Ps. 43,515 billion, an increase of Ps. 3,131 billion, or 7.7% as compared to 4Q08 and an increase of 30.7% as compared to 1Q08. COP denominated deposits, 69.3% of BANCOLOMBIA's total deposits, increased 2.6% and 23.0% as compared to 4Q08 and 1Q08 respectively.

Non-interest bearing deposits decreased 11.4% over the quarter reaching Ps. 5,071 billion driven primarily by seasonal behavior of this type of deposit. On a yearly basis, non-interest bearing deposits increased 8.4% from the figure presented as of the end of 1Q08. On the other hand, interest bearing deposits growth was dynamic during the quarter increasing 10.9% as compared to 4Q08. Overall, time deposits increased their relative size in the funding mix to 50.9% from 46.2% in the previous quarter, while demand deposits decreased to 48.1% from 52.7% presented by the end of 4Q08.

Dollar denominated deposits increased 7.0% during 1Q09 as compared to 4Q08 (measured in U.S. dollars), as the Bank's off-shore banking franchises continue to benefit from underlying growth, particularly from increasing client fund inflows. As a result of the solid performance of U.S. dollar denominated deposits, U.S. dollar interbank borrowings decreased US$ 257.1 million, or 27.8% in 1Q09 as compared to 4Q08.

As of March 31, 2009, liabilities in the form of bonds or notes amounted to Ps. 3,983 billion, an increase of 9.3% as compared to 4Q08 and 50.9% as compared to 1Q08, driven by BANCOLOMBIA's dynamic activity in local capital markets. On March 4, 2009, the Bank successfully completed the issuance and offering of subordinated ordinary notes for an aggregate principal amount of Ps. 400 billion. The subscription for such notes was 1.9 times the size of the offering and their maturities were 10 years (48% of the issuance) and 15 years (52% of the issuance).

Overall, BANCOLOMBIA notes that regardless of the type of currency, the Bank has maintained a solid liquidity position.

1.3. Shareholders' equity and regulatory capital

Shareholders' equity amounted to Ps. 6,078 billion by the end of 1Q09, slightly decreasing from the Ps. 6,117 billion presented as of the end of 4Q08, due to the Ps. 491.6 billion dividend payout approved by shareholders at the annual general meeting held on March 2, 2009, although this decrease was offset by the Bank's quarterly earnings. On a yearly basis, shareholders' equity increased 23.5% as compared to the figure by the end of 1Q08.

During 1Q09, BANCOLOMBIA strengthened its capital position. Basic capital (tier 1) increased 11.5% over the quarter, due to higher appropriation of legal reserves and retained earnings, while additional capital (tier 2) increased 40.7% over the same period, driven by the issuance and offering of subordinated ordinary notes in the local market in March 2009, described above.

As a result, technical capital reached Ps. 7,337 billion while capital adequacy (tier 1+ 2 capital ratio) finished 1Q09 at 12.7% up from 11.2% presented on 4Q08.

(2) Capital adequacy is technical capital divided by risk weighted assets.

2. INCOME STATEMENT

BANCOLOMBIA reported net income of Ps. 311.1 billion for the quarter ended March 31, 2009 (Ps. 394.92 per share and U.S.$ 0.62 per ADR), representing an increase of 5.7% compared to the quarter ended December 31, 2008 and 22.6% compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2008.

Annualized ROE for 1Q09 was 19.95%, a slight increase from the 19.80% and 19.67% annualized ROE presented in 4Q08 and 1Q08 respectively.

2.1. Net Interest Income

During 1Q09, interest on loans reached Ps. 1,394 billion, decreasing 2.3% as compared to 4Q08, due to lower margins in the loan portfolio as a result of the decreasing interest rates environment in Colombia. On a yearly basis, interest on loans increased Ps. 260.8 billion in 1Q09, or 23.0% as compared to the Ps. 1,133 billion recorded in 1Q08.

Interest on financial leases reached Ps. 214.3 billion increasing 1.5% and 20.6% as compared to 4Q08 and 1Q08 respectively.

Interest on investment securities amounted to Ps 154.1 billion increasing Ps. 38.1 billion, or 32.9% in 1Q09 as compared to 4Q08 and Ps. 74.4 billion, or 93.3% as compared to 1Q08, driven by the larger debt securities portfolio (an increase of 42.0% as compared to 1Q08) and higher bond prices in Colombia which positively impacted debt securities mark to market valuation.

Overall, total interest income was Ps. 1,791 billion and interest expenses were Ps. 805.6 billion, remaining stable as compared to 4Q08. Consequently, net interest income for 1Q09 was Ps. 985.2 billion, remaining stable compared to previous quarter but 23.7% higher than net interest income presented for 1Q08.

2.2. Fees and Income from Services

During 1Q09 BANCOLOMBIA generated record net fees and income from services for a total of Ps. 367.0 billion, increasing 1.7% as compared to 4Q08, and 19.6% as compared to 1Q08, driven by the solid performance of credit and debit annual fees, fiduciary activities, collection and payments fees and commission from banking and card services and other services.

In particular, credit and debit card annual fees were Ps. 137.2 billion, up 36.5% from 1Q08. Commissions from banking services and other services were Ps. 61.7 billion, up 15.5% compared with 1Q08. Collections and payments fees were Ps. 42.9 billion, increasing 16.2% compared to 1Q08. Fiduciary activities had a solid quarter reaching Ps. 38.9 billion almost doubling the results in 1Q08 (an increase of 96.6%). Branch network services were Ps. 26.6 billion, up 11.4% from 1Q08. Pension plan administration fees were Ps. 26.2 billion, up 25.5% as compared to 1Q08. The remaining fee categories: checking, electronic services and ATM, international operations, brokerage, credit card merchant, check remittances fees had aggregated revenue of Ps. 67.3 billion, decreasing 12.2% as from 1Q08.

Fees and other service related expenses totaled Ps. 33.7 billion in 1Q09, increasing 3.1% as compared to 4Q08. On a yearly basis, fees and other service expenses increased Ps 8.6 billion, or 34.5% as compared to 1Q08, driven by the inclusion of expenses related to contact center services which used to be eliminated in the consolidation process as such services were provided by former subsidiary Multienlace S.A., a company sold during 2Q08.

The following table summarizes BANCOLOMBIA's participation in the credit card business in Colombia.

2.3. Other Operating Income

Total other operating income totaled Ps. 126.4 billion for 1Q09, decreasing 33.2% compared to 4Q08 and 6.2% when compared to the figures for 1Q08.

The combined revenue related to net foreign exchange gains and derivative financial instruments totaled Ps. 19.2 billion in 1Q09 decreasing Ps. 39.2 billion, or 67.1% as compared to 4Q08 and Ps. 36.7 billion, or 65.6% as compared to 1Q08. In particular, this combined revenue was impacted by the adoption during the second half of 2008 of certain rule changes concerning valuation methodologies for derivative instruments. These changes in valuation methodologies of derivatives were required by external circulars 025, 030, 044 and 063 issued by the Colombian Superintendency of Finance and resulted in a reduction in the carrying value of derivatives which negatively impacted the income from derivative financial instruments in Ps 98.0 billion during 4Q08. An additional reduction of Ps. 59.9 billion in the carrying value of derivatives occurred in 1Q09 which negatively impacted the income from derivative financial instruments in this period.

Communication, postage, rent and others (primarily comprised of income related to operating leases and commercial discounts) totaled Ps. 36.4 billion in 1Q09, almost twice as much as compared to 1Q08. Dividend income, primarily obtained from investments in non-subsidiaries: Protección S.A. (a Colombian pension fund administrator), Titularizadora Colombiana S.A. (an entity that specializes in securitization of assets), Redeban S.A. (an entity that specializes in managing credit, debit, voucher and private label cards transactions in Colombia) and ACH S.A (an automatic clearing house) totaled Ps. 16.6 billion, down 19.1% as compared to 1Q08. The remaining other operating income categories (i.e. gains(losses) on sales of investments on equity securities, securitization income, revenues from commercial subsidiaries and insurance income) had an aggregated revenue of Ps. 54.1 billion, decreasing Ps. 42.8 billion, or 44.1% as compared to 4Q08. This decrease is primarily due to a lower income from gains on sales of investments on equity securities recorded in 1Q09 since in 4Q08 BANCOLOMBIA recorded non-recurring gains on sales of investment securities for Ps. 55.6 billion related to the sale of the Bank's interest in Multienlace S.A, a company that provides business process outsourcing and contact center services to corporate clients. On a yearly basis, the remaining other operating income categories posted an increase of Ps. 14.3 billion, or 35.8% as compared to 1Q08 driven the solid performance of insurance income.

2.4. Provision charges

For explanation of the trends driving the current level of provisions charges, please see the section entitled "Asset Quality" in this report.

2.5. Operating expenses

During 1Q09, operating expenses totaled Ps. 716.7 billion, decreasing 2.5% as compared to 4Q08, but increasing 22.7% as compared to the figures for 1Q08, due to higher administrative and other expenses and larger personnel expenses.

Administrative and other expenses totaled Ps. 366.2 billion in 1Q09, decreasing 0.7% as compared to 4Q08 and increasing Ps. 76.7 billion, or 26.5% driven by an increase in taxes (different from income tax) and increased fees paid in connection to software development and IT upgrades.

Personnel expenses (the sum of salaries and employee benefits, bonus plan payments and compensation) totaled Ps 285.5 billion in 1Q09, decreasing 2.1% as compared to 4Q08 and increasing 16.6% as compared to 1Q08, due to the wage increases that are typically undertaken during the first quarter of each year as well as a larger number of employees at the Bank.

Despite the higher operating expenses, efficiency, measured as the ratio of operating expenses to net operating income, presented a slight improvement as this ratio decreased to 49.8% from 50.2% the previous quarter. In addition, operating expenses for 1Q09 represented 4.6% of total assets, the same figure presented as of the end of 1Q08.

2.6. Net Non-Operating Income

Total non-operating income totaled Ps. 27.2 billion in 1Q09, compared with a loss of Ps. 53.4 billion in 1Q08. The increase was driven by:

Higher non-operating income which amounted to Ps. 62.8 billion in 1Q09.

Lower non-operating expenses which totaled Ps. 30.4 billion in 1Q09, down 57.7%, due to the lower charges made in connection with pending litigation allowances.

2.7. Income Tax Expense

Income tax expense totaled Ps. 117.9 billion decreasing 24.9% as compared to 1Q08. The income tax expense decreased in 1Q09 because:

In 1Q09 BANCOLOMBIA received more non-taxable dividends than in 1Q08. These non-taxable dividends were paid by BANCOLOMBIA's subsidiaries and were taxed at the subsidiary level but not at the parent level. Additionally, during 1Q08 the Bank's income was negatively affected by higher non-deductible charges as compared to 1Q09.

3. Asset Quality

Provision charges continued to remain high due to the deterioration of asset quality. As of March, 31, 2009 past due loans ( PDLs ), that is, those overdue more than 30 days, reached Ps. 1,829.9 increasing Ps. 205.9 billion, or 12.7% as compared to PDLs by the end of 4Q08 and representing 4.0% of total loans (up from 3.6% in 4Q08), while net loan s charge-offs were Ps. 182.8 billion in 1Q09, reflecting a weakening credit environment derived from lower economic activity.

Nonetheless, addition to reserves for loan losses during 1Q09 was crucial as Bancolombia s management continued to focus on balance sheet strength. Allowances for loan losses reached Ps. 2,350.9 billion, or 5.1% of total loans, while coverage, measured by the ratio of allowances for loans and accrued interest losses to past due loans (overdue more than 30 days), ended 1Q09 at 131.7% a stronger coverage as compared with 115.2% for 1Q08.

As a result, provision charges for 1Q09 were Ps. 339.9 billion increasing 96.2% compared with 1Q08, although decreasing 28.4% as compared to 4Q08. Annualized 1Q09 provision charges represented 3.0% of average loans, compared with 4.4% and 1.8% presented in 4Q08 and 1Q08 respectively.

(1) Performing past due loans are loans upon which the Bank continues to recognize income although interest in respect of such loans has not been received. Mortgage loans cease to accumulate interest on the statement of operations when they are more than 60 days past due. For all other loans and financial leasing operations of any type, interest is no longer accumulated after they are more than 30 days past due.

- (2) Under Colombian Bank regulations, a loan is past due when it is at least 31 days past the actual due date.
