Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 8, 2013, Hi-Crush Operating LLC, a subsidiary of Hi-Crush Partners LP (the “Partnership”), entered into a six-year supply agreement for frac sand with Baker Hughes Oilfield Operations, Inc. (“Baker Hughes”). The supply agreement amends and restates the supply agreement entered into in May 2012 between Hi-Crush Operating LLC and Baker Hughes, and requires Baker Hughes to purchase minimum volumes of frac sand each month.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 10, 2013, the Partnership announced that Hi-Crush Operating LLC had entered into a settlement agreement with Baker Hughes pursuant to which Hi-Crush Operating LLC and Baker Hughes agreed to jointly dismiss the previously disclosed litigation between the parties. In connection with the settlement agreement, the parties have entered into a six-year supply agreement. The information contained in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated by reference herein.

On October 10, 2013, the Partnership issued a press release announcing the entry into a six-year supply agreement between Hi-Crush Operating LLC and Baker Hughes and the settlement of the previously disclosed litigation between such parties. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits

Forward Looking Statements

Some of the information in this Form 8-K may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Forward-looking statements give our current expectations, and contain projections of results of operations or of financial condition, or forecasts of future events. Words such as “may,” “assume,” “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “could,” “future” or “believe” and similar expressions are used to identify forward-looking statements. They can be affected by assumptions used or by known or unknown risks or uncertainties. Consequently, no forward-looking statements can be guaranteed. When considering these forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risk factors and other cautionary statements in the Partnership’s reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), including those described under Item 1A of the Partnership’s Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 and any subsequently filed Form 10-Q. Actual results may vary materially. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. You should also understand that it is not possible to predict or identify all such factors and should not consider the risk factors in our reports filed with the SEC or the following list to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from the results contemplated by such forward-looking statements include: the volume of frac sand we are able to sell; the price at which we are able to sell frac sand; the outcome of any pending litigation; changes in the price and availability of natural gas or electricity; changes in prevailing economic conditions; and difficulty collecting receivables. All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statements. The Partnership’s forward looking statements speak only as of the date made and the Partnership undertakes no obligation to update or revise its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
