Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 8, 2015, Radiant Logistics, Inc. (the “Company”, “we” or “us”) entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”), pursuant to which it acquired Service By Air, Inc. (“SBA”), a privately-held corporation based in New York, in a transaction valued at approximately $12.25 million.

At the closing, we paid to Rosalin and Joseph Poliseno (the “Shareholders”), the prior owners of SBA, $11.375 million in cash. We also paid into an escrow account an additional $0.5 million to satisfy all or any part of any indemnification claims made by us against the Shareholders, which escrow amount will be released, subject to any claims thereunder, on the 12-month anniversary of the closing date. Further, we paid an additional $0.375 million into an escrow account subject to a working capital “true-up” 120 days after closing. The transaction was financed through working capital and proceeds received under our existing credit facilities.

The Agreement contains standard and customary representations, warranties and covenants, and provides that each of the Company and the Shareholders will indemnify each other for certain losses, subject to certain time and dollar limits.

SBA provides a full range of domestic and international transportation and logistics services across North America. It services a diversified account base including manufacturers, distributors and retailers through a combination of company-owned operating locations in Lawrence, New York (JFK), Carson, California (LAX) and San Francisco, California (SFO) and forty independent agency locations across North America. Based on historic financial statements provided by its management, SBA generated approximately $130.7 million in revenues for the twelve months ended August 31, 2014. SBA will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Radiant.

The foregoing information is intended as a summary of the reported transaction and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Report and incorporated herein by reference.
