Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 24, 2016, the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Tammy Hurley as Chief Accounting Officer of the Company. Ms. Hurley (age 50) has served as the Company's Vice President Finance since March 2015. Ms. Hurley joined the Company in 2001 and has served in positions of increasing authority and responsibility in the Company's Finance department, with managerial responsibility for the Company's accounting, reporting, and financial analysis functions. Ms. Hurley is a Certified Public Accountant.

In connection with the appointment, the Company and Ms. Hurley will enter into an Executive Severance Agreement. Under this agreement, if Ms. Hurley's employment with SpartanNash terminates, other than for cause, voluntary termination by the officer other than for good reason (as defined in the executive severance agreement), retirement, death, or disability of the officer, during the 18-month period following a change in control (as defined in the Severance Agreement) of SpartanNash, then she will receive certain payments and benefits. This agreement contains a "best net" provision, providing that severance benefits will be reduced to avoid any excise taxes, or paid in full subject to Ms. Hurley paying the applicable excise taxes, whichever results in the higher payment to the executive on an after-tax basis. In no event will the Company pay or reimburse any excise taxes relating to Ms. Hurley's agreement.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Ms. Hurley and any other person pursuant to which she was selected as an executive officer. There are no transactions or proposed transactions in which Ms. Hurley has a direct or indirect material interest requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
