Item 11. Additional Information.

Section 15—“Certain Legal Matters—Litigation” of the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Delaware Actions

Following the announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement, five purported stockholder class actions were filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and challenge the transactions in connection with the Merger: Scott v. Receptos, Inc., et al., No. 11316 (filed July 20, 2015), Cacioppo v. Faheem Hasnain, et al., No. 11324 (filed July 23, 2015), Rosenberg v. Receptos, Inc., et al., No. 11325 (filed July 23, 2015), Kadin v. Receptos, Inc., et al., No. 11337 (filed July 27, 2015), and Rockaway v. Faheem Hasnain, et al., No. 11346 (filed July 28, 2015) (collectively, the “Delaware Actions”).

All the complaints bring claims against, and allege that, the members of the Receptos Board breached their fiduciary duties by agreeing to a transaction that purportedly undervalues Receptos. Among other things, plaintiffs allege that the members of the Receptos Board failed to maximize the value of Receptos to its public stockholders, negotiated a transaction in their best interests to the detriment of Receptos’ public stockholders, and agreed to supposedly preclusive deal-protection measures that unfairly deter competitive offers. Four of the complaints alleged that Celgene, Purchaser and/or Receptos aided and abetted these purported breaches of fiduciary duty, and seek, among other things: (i) an order enjoining the Offer and/or Merger; (ii) rescission of the transaction, to the extent already implemented, or, alternatively, rescissory damages; and (iii) attorneys’ fees and costs.

On August 3, 2015, the plaintiffs collectively filed an amended class action complaint asserting the same claims and adding allegations, among others, that the Schedule 14D-9 omitted to disclose allegedly material information. On August 4, 2015, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware consolidated the lawsuits under the caption In re Receptos, Inc. Stockholder Litigation, Consolidated C.A. No. 11316-CB. On August 7, 2015, the court entered an order granting the parties’ stipulation regarding expedited proceedings and set a preliminary injunction hearing for August 21, 2015.

On August 17, 2015, Receptos, each of the members of the Receptos Board, Celgene and Purchaser entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the “MOU”) with the plaintiffs in the Delaware Actions, which sets forth the parties’ agreement in principle for a settlement of those actions. As explained in the MOU, Receptos, the members of the Receptos Board, Celgene and Purchaser have agreed to the settlement solely to avoid the costs, disruption, and distraction of further litigation and without admitting any liability or wrongdoing. The MOU contemplates that the parties will seek to enter into a stipulation of settlement providing for the certification of a mandatory non opt-out class, for settlement purposes only, that includes any and all record and beneficial owners of Shares (excluding defendants, their subsidiary companies, affiliates, assigns, and members of their immediate families) during the period beginning on July 14, 2015, through the effective date of the consummation of the Merger, including any and all of their respective successors in interest, predecessors, representatives, trustees, executors, administrators, heirs, assigns or transferees, immediate and remote, and any person or entity acting for or on behalf of, or claiming under, any of them, and each of them and a global release of claims relating to the Offer as set forth in the MOU. The claims will not be released until such stipulation of settlement is approved by the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the court will approve such settlement even if the parties were to enter into such stipulation. The settlement will not affect the consideration to be received by Receptos' stockholders in connection with the Offer and the Merger.

As part of the settlement, Receptos agreed to make certain additional disclosures related to the Offer and the Merger, which are set forth in Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule 14D-9, filed with the SEC on August 18, 2015.

California Action

Another putative class action, Chapman Family Trust v. Receptos, Inc., was filed on July 30, 2015, in Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego, (Case No. 37-2015-00025537-CU-SL-CTL) against Receptos, members of the Receptos Board, Celgene and Purchaser. The amended complaint and the Chapman Family Trust complaint generally allege breaches of fiduciary duty by the members of the Receptos Board in connection with the Merger Agreement. Further, these complaints allege that Celgene and Purchaser aided and abetted the purported breaches of fiduciary duty. The plaintiffs generally seek equitable and injunctive relief, including an order enjoining the defendants from completing the proposed merger transaction, rescission of any consummated transaction, unspecified damages and attorneys' fees. On August 3, 2015, the plaintiffs filed a request for dismissal of this action.

Celgene and Purchaser believe these lawsuits are wholly without merit, and intend to vigorously defend against them if the settlement of the Delaware Actions is not consummated or if the California action is not dismissed.

Additional lawsuits may be filed against Receptos, Celgene, Purchaser and/or any of their respective directors in connection with the Merger.
