Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On June 17, 2015, CISA, a subsidiary of Allegion plc (the "Company"), committed to a restructuring plan. The Company currently expects the plan to reduce headcount in the CISA operations in Italy in conjunction with the transition of some manufacturing to a third party. The Company currently expects to record restructuring charges between $16.8 million and $19.3 million. These charges include between approximately $12.0 and $14.5 million for employee-related costs, and $4.8 million for other costs. The Company currently expects to record charges of approximately $3.1 million in the second quarter of 2015, approximately $10.2 million to $12.7 million in the second half of 2015 and approximately $3.5 million in 2016. The charges will result in cash expenditures, which are currently expected to occur primarily in 2016.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements related to the restructuring plan and its expected benefits and the restructuring charges. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's currently available information and our current assumptions expectations and projections about future events. They are subject to future events, risks and uncertainties - many of which are beyond our control - as well as potentially inaccurate assumptions, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Further information on these factors and other risks that may affect the Company's business is included in filings it makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time, including its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015 and in our other SEC filings. The Company assumes no obligations to update these forward looking statements.
