Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 17, 2019, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of HP Inc. (the “Company”) elected Yoky Matsuoka to serve as a director of the Company, effective immediately. Ms. Matsuoka currently serves as a Vice President at Google’s newly formed health care technology group.

- (d) Ms. Matsuoka will receive compensation for service as a non-employee director of the Company consistent with the compensation generally provided to other non-employee directors, as determined by the Board from time to time. Currently, non-employee directors generally receive, among other things (i) an annual cash retainer of $105,000, which, in lieu of cash, he or she may elect to receive an equivalent value of Company equity securities either entirely in the form of fully vested shares of common stock of the Company ("shares") or in equal values of fully vested shares and stock options, and an annual equity retainer of $205,000 paid at his or her election either in the form of fully vested shares or in equal values of fully vested shares and stock options, (ii) $2,000 in cash for each Board meeting attended in excess of ten per year and (iii) $2,000 in cash for each Board committee meeting attended in excess of ten meetings per committee per year. For Ms. Matsuoka’s first partial year of Board service, her annual cash retainer will be pro-rated and paid in the form of cash and her annual equity retainer will be pro-rated and paid in the form of fully vested shares. There are no arrangements or understandings between Ms. Matsuoka and any other persons pursuant to which Ms. Matsuoka was selected as a director. Ms. Matsuoka has no direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
