On January 1, 2017, UDR, Inc. (the "Company") entered into an indemnification agreement, in the form of the Company's standard form of indemnification agreement, with Joseph D. Fisher, Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer.

In general, the form of indemnification agreement provides that the Company will, to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland law and subject to certain limitations, indemnify the director and the designated officer against certain expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and settlement amounts that may be incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, criminal, civil or administrative action or proceeding to which the director and the designated officer becomes subject in connection with the director's service as a director of the Company or the designated officer's employment with the Company. The agreement provides for indemnification rights regarding both third-party claims and proceedings brought by or in the right of the Company. In addition, the agreement provides for the mandatory advancement of expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with any proceeding covered by the agreement to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland law. The agreement also establishes certain procedures and presumptions that apply in determining whether the director and the designated officer are entitled to indemnification.
