NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some information in this report may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We have based these forward-looking statements on our current beliefs, expectations and intentions as to facts, actions and events that will or may occur in the future. Such statements generally are identified by forward-looking words such as believe, plan, anticipate, continue, estimate, expect, may, will or other similar words.

A forward-looking statement may include a statement of the assumptions or bases underlying the forward-looking statement. We have chosen these assumptions or bases in good faith. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions, some of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are not a guarantee of future performance. Actual results may differ materially from information contained in the forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including, without limitation, the risk factors set forth in Item 3. Key Information Risk Factors in our annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. You should also keep in mind that any forward-looking statement made by us in this report or elsewhere speaks only as at the date on which we made it. New risks and uncertainties come up from time to time, and it is impossible for us to predict these events or how they may affect us. We have no duty to, and do not intend to, update or revise the statements in this report after the date hereof. In light of these risks and uncertainties, you should keep in mind that actual results may differ materially from any forward-looking statement made in this report or elsewhere.

Rating Action

28 JAN 2008

Rating Action: Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company

Moody's revises PLDT's foreign currency debt rating outlook to positive

Approximately US$725 million of debt securities affected

Hong Kong, January 28, 2008 --Moody's Investors Service has today affirmed Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company's ("PLDT") Ba2 senior unsecured foreign currency debt rating and changed its outlook to positive from stable. This rating action follows Moody's decision to change the outlook of Philippines' Ba3 country ceiling for foreign currency bonds to positive from stable.

At the same time, Moody's has affirmed PLDT's Baa2 local currency issuer rating with a stable outlook.

PLDT's Ba2 foreign currency debt rating is above the Philippines' country ceiling for foreign currency bonds of Ba3. The foreign currency bond ceiling incorporates foreign currency transfer risk, which is the likelihood of the government declaring a debt moratorium should it default.

As such, PLDT's foreign currency bond rating is a function of its intrinsic creditworthiness, the probability of a Philippine government default on its foreign debt (implied by its B1 rating), the likelihood that the government would declare a moratorium in the event of a default (implied by the Ba3 foreign currency ceiling) and, if it did, the chances that it would exempt a company such as PLDT.

PLDT is headquartered in Manila. Its shares are listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange and its ADRs traded in the New York Stock Exchange. PLDT is an integrated provider of fixed-line, broadband, cellular and ICT services. PLDT has approximately 30 million cellular and 1.7 million fixed-line subscribers as of December 2007 and is the country's leading telecommunications service provider. It has an approximate 58% market share for cellular telephony and 63% for fixed-line services.

PLDT's major shareholders are First Pacific and NTT/NTT DoCoMo, with effective common shareholdings of 26.3% and 20% respectively as of 22nd January 2008. The remaining common shares are publicly held.
