Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Occidental Petroleum Corporation was notified of an unsolicited "mini-tender" offer by TRC Capital Corporation (TRC) to purchase up to two million shares of the outstanding Oxy common stock, at a price of $56.25 per share. Oxy has over 800 million shares outstanding so this tender is for less than one-quarter of one percent of that amount. Oxy is in no way associated with TRC, its mini-tender offer or the offer documentation.

Oxy recommends against stockholders tendering their shares in response to this unsolicited proposal for several reasons. TRC may amend or terminate its offer in a number of situations, including as a result of a decrease in the market price of Oxy common stock and the unavailability of financing for the purchase on terms satisfactory to TRC. TRC also may reduce its offering price (the price TRC offered was a 4.27 percent discount below Oxy's closing price on March 25, 2009, the day before TRC commenced its offer). Market volatility before the expiration of the mini-tender offer may cause the value of Oxy common stock trading in the open market to be higher (as it was on the day the offer was announced) or lower than the value offered by TRC.

Oxy urges investors to:

- Obtain current market quotes for their shares of common stock,
- Consult with their financial advisors, and
- Exercise caution with respect to TRC's offer.

Oxy stockholders who already have tendered their shares are advised that they may withdraw their shares by providing the written notice described in the TRC offering documents prior to the expiration of the offer currently scheduled for Friday, April 24, 2009 at 12:01 AM Eastern.

Oxy understands that TRC has made many such mini-tender offers in the past. Mini-tender offers are third-party offers which seek to acquire less than five percent of a company's outstanding shares and thereby avoid many procedural protections and disclosure and dissemination requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) that apply to offers for more than five percent of a company's outstanding shares.

The SEC has issued "Tips for Investors" on mini-tender offers which is available at www.sec.gov/investor/pubs/minitend.htm. There, the SEC notes that: "Some bidders make mini-tender offers at below market prices, hoping that they will catch investors off guard if the investors do not compare the offer price to the current market price," and that "mini-tender offers typically do not provide the same disclosure and procedural protections that larger, traditional tender offers provide."

Oxy encourages stockbrokers and dealers as well as other market participants to review both the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) recommendations on the dissemination of mini-tender offers. These recommendations are available at www.sec.gov/divisions/marketreg/minitenders/sia072401.htm and in the Information Memo Number 01-27 issued by the NYSE on Sept. 28, 2001, which can be found on the NYSE website under "Regulation -Rules & Interpretations -Information Memos" and at http://apps.nyse.com/commdata/PubInfoMemos.nsf/AllPublishedInfoMemosNyseCom/50B427EF8270231B85256AD30067702C/\$FILE/Microsoft%20W
