ITEM 10. DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

ELECTION OF ONE DIRECTOR

The Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, and Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors will consist of not less than three persons, the exact number to be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has fixed the authorized number of directors at six. Directors are divided into three classes, each of which has two members. Each class is elected for a term of three years, so that the term of office of one class of directors expires at every annual meeting.

The Board of Directors has nominated one person for election as directors in the class whose term of office will expire at the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until his successor is elected and qualified. The nominee is Lee Cooke. The respective terms of the directors expire on the dates set forth below. If the nominee listed below is elected by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting, one vacancy will remain in the class whose term of office will expire at the 2004 annual meeting, which vacancy may be filled by the Board of Directors upon selection of a qualified candidate.

PARRIS H. HOLMES, JR. has served as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company since May 1996. Mr. Holmes served as both Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of USLD Communications Corp., formerly U.S. Long Distance Corp. ("USLD"), from September 1986 until August 1996, and served as Chairman of the Board of USLD until June 2, 1997. Prior to March 1993, Mr. Holmes also served as President of USLD. Mr. Holmes is also Chairman of the Board of Directors of Tanisys Technology, Inc., a developer, manufacturer and marketer of memory module test equipment. Mr. Holmes also serves as a Director of Sharps Compliance Corp., a provider of mail sharps disposal services for certain types of medical sharps (needles, syringes and razors) products. On December 18, 1996, the Commission filed a civil injunctive action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia alleging that Mr. Holmes failed to timely file twelve reports regarding certain 1991 and 1992 transactions in the stock of USLD as required by Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Section 16(a) requires officers and directors of such companies to file reports with the Commission regarding their personal transactions in the securities of their company. Mr. Holmes settled this action on December 18, 1996, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, by consenting to the entry of an injunction with respect to these requirements and paying a civil penalty of $50,000.

DAVID P. TUSA, CPA, has served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company since August 1999. Mr. Tusa was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of U.S. Legal Support, Inc., a provider of litigation support services with over 36 offices in 7 states, from September 1997 to August 1999. Prior to this, Mr. Tusa served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Serv-Tech, Inc., a $300 million, publicly held provider of specialty services to industrial customers in multiple industries, from April 1994 through August 1997. Additionally, Mr. Tusa was with CRSS, Inc., a $600 million, publicly held diversified services company, from May 1990 through April 1994, most recently as Corporate Controller.

KEVIN W. NYLAND has served as Vice President, Investor Relations of the Company since July 2000. Mr. Nyland was Assistant Vice President of Morgen-Walke Associates, one of the largest investor relations consulting firms in the U.S., from April 1999 to April 2000. Prior to this, from January 1998 to April 1999,

Edgar Filing: BILLING CONCEPTS CORP - Form 10-K/A

Mr. Nyland was an executive search consultant for senior-level investor relations/public relations positions for high profile Internet clients. From January 1997 to December 1997 he was Director of Investor Relations for Mercury Interactive, a Nasdaq-listed leader in the the software testing tools market. Additionally, from January 1995 to January 1997, Mr. Nyland was Vice President of the Torrance Group, a New York-based investor relations/marketing firm.

J. STEPHEN BARLEY has served as a Director of the Company since December 2000. Mr. Barley has been President of C.H.M. Consulting Inc., a private holding company based in British Columbia, Canada, providing business advice and financing to emerging technology companies, since August 1997. He also has served as President of Copper Valley Minerals, Ltd., a junior mining company located in Nevada, since June 1998. Mr. Barley was a securities and corporate finance lawyer with the law firm O'Neill & Company in Vancouver, B.C. from 1984 to 1997, where he was a partner from 1987 to 1997.

LEE COOKE has served as a Director of the Company since May 1996 and was a Director of USLD from 1991 until July 1996. He has been President and Chief Executive Officer of Habitek International, Inc., a consulting firm creating new economy enterprises globally, since 1991. Mr. Cooke has been a director of Sharps Compliance Corp., formerly known as U.S. Medical Systems, Inc., since 1992 and served as Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of that company from 1992 until 1998, when the company was reorganized and the name changed to Sharps Compliance Corp., at which time Mr. Cooke resigned as an officer.

WILLIAM H. CUNNINGHAM, PH.D., has served as a Director of the Company since January 2000. Dr. Cunningham has been Chancellor of The University of Texas System since September 1992. He was President of The University of Texas at Austin from 1985 to 1992. Dr. Cunningham also serves as a Director of Metamore Worldwide, Inc., Jefferson-Pilot Corporation and 32 funds in the John Hancock family of mutual funds and is an Advisory Director of Chase Bank of Texas (Austin), a division of Chase Manhattan Bank.

THOMAS G. LOEFFLER has served as a Director of the Company since August 1996 and has been an attorney with the law firm of Arter & Hadden since June 1993. Prior to that time, Mr. Loeffler acted as a practicing attorney and consultant. Mr. Loeffler served as a member of Congress in the United States House of Representatives from 1979 to 1987. Mr. Loeffler serves as a Director of Triad Hospitals, Inc. and is Vice Chairman of the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires that the Company's directors, executive officers and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities file with the Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders are required by Commission regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of the Section 16(a) reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2000, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, executive officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

A total of 1,300,000 shares of Common Stock are subject to the Company's 1996 Non-Employee Director Plan (the "Director Plan"). Pursuant to the terms of the Director Plan, upon election and re-election to the Board of Directors of the Company, each eligible director is granted an option to purchase 30,000 shares of Common Stock effective as of the date of such election or re-election, with vesting over a three-year period. In addition, the Company may grant discretionary options under the Director Plan. Pursuant to such authority to grant discretionary options, each outside member of the Board of Directors receives an annual stock option grant of 6,000 shares, vesting one year from the date of grant. However, for each quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors a non-employee director fails to attend, such director forfeits the rights to purchase 1,500 of the shares subject to such option.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following Summary Compensation Table sets forth certain information concerning compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and each of the Company's four other most highly compensated executive officers for fiscal 2000.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On April 5, 2000, the Board of Directors of the Company approved a restricted stock grant to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The restricted stock consists of 400,000 shares of Princeton common stock, which vests on April 30, 2003. The Company expenses the fair market value of the restricted stock grant over the three-year period ending April 30, 2003. The Company recognized $0.3 million during fiscal 2000 as compensation expense related to the stock grant. The Company estimates it will recognize $0.5 million as compensation expense related to the stock grant in 2001. Princeton eCom Corporation is a privately held company of which the Company owns approximately 42.5%.

Edgar Filing: BILLING CONCEPTS CORP - Form 10-K/A

During fiscal 2000, the Company chartered a jet airplane from a company associated with Parris H. Holmes, Jr., Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Under the terms of the charter agreement, the Company was obligated to pay annual minimum fees of $500,000 over the five years ending March 31, 2003 for such charter services. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2000, the Company paid approximately $615,000 in fees related to this agreement. During the fourth quarter of 2000, the Company terminated this contract with no future obligations.

On December 16, 1999, the Company made a $130,000 loan, with interest accruing at the rate of 8% per annum, to W. Audie Long, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of the Company until his resignation on January 15, 2001. The largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding for this loan (including interest) during fiscal 2000 was $133,162. This principal and accrued interest, aggregating $13,162, were forgiven by the Company in April 2000 in lieu of a cash bonus earned in fiscal 1999.
