INTRODUCTION

This statement amends the Schedule 13D filed on August 19, 2002, as amended on November 14, 2002, and November 27, 2002 (the "Amended Schedule 13D"), by Honeywell International Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Honeywell"), with respect to the shares of common stock, $0.01 par value ("Company Common Stock"), of Ultrak, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"). Capitalized terms used and not defined in this Amendment No. 3 shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended Schedule 13D. Except as specifically provided herein, this Amendment No. 3 does not modify any of the information previously provided on the Amended Schedule 13D.

1. ITEM 4 OF THE SCHEDULE 13D IS HEREBY AMENDED TO ADD THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On December 5, 2002, Honeywell, the Company and the Company Subsidiaries entered into an Amendment to the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Amendment").

The Asset Purchase Agreement requires the Company to deliver an executed legal non-infringement opinion with respect to U.S. Patent No. 4,974,088 (the "Lectrolarm Patent") held by Lectrolarm Custom Systems, Inc. ("Lectrolarm") to Honeywell. The Company could not satisfy this closing condition. As a result, the Company entered into a license agreement with Lectrolarm (the "Lectrolarm License") with respect to the Lectrolarm Patent. Pursuant to the terms of the Amendment, the non-infringement opinion closing condition was replaced with the requirements that the Company (i) assign the Lectrolarm License to Honeywell at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Closing") and (ii) comply with and maintain the Lectrolarm License in full force and effect through the Closing and make all required payments thereunder through the Closing, including but not limited to the $250,000 initial royalty payment due thereunder. The Amendment also provides for an increase of $2,215,000 in the deferred portion of the purchase price (the "Lectrolarm Holdback") and a corresponding decrease of $2,215,000 of the initial purchase price payable by Honeywell to the Company. As a result of the Lectrolarm Holdback, the initial purchase price decreased from $30,600,000 to $28,385,000. The Lectrolarm Holdback will be separate from the other deferred portion of the purchase price and will be disbursed by Honeywell to Lectrolarm pursuant to the terms of the Lectrolarm License in satisfaction of any royalty payments due to Lectrolarm under the Lectrolarm License. The Lectrolarm Holdback shall accrue interest at a variable rate. Upon termination of the Lectrolarm Holdback, any unused balance of the Lectrolarm Holdback, plus interest accrued thereon shall be paid to the Company and 50% of the interest, if any, that has otherwise accrued with respect to the Lectrolarm Holdback will be paid by Honeywell to the Company and the other 50% of such interest, if any, will be retained by Honeywell.

Concurrent with the execution of the Amendment and the Lectrolarm License, Victoria and Eagle Strategic Fund, Niklaus F. Zenger, George K. Broady and Myriam Hernandez each executed a letter agreement with Honeywell (the "Acknowledgment") acknowledging and agreeing that each of their respective shares of the Company are and continue to be subject to the Voting Agreements and that all references to the Asset Purchase Agreement in the Voting Agreements mean the Asset Purchase Agreement as amended to date, including the Amendment.

The foregoing descriptions of the Amendment and the Acknowledgment are qualified in their entirety by the complete text of the
