EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment Number 3 to Schedule 13D is filed by the undersigned to amend and supplement the Schedule 13D filed on June 27, 2005 (the "Original 13D"), as amended by Amendment Number 1 to Schedule 13D filed on June 30, 2005 and by Amendment Number 2 to Schedule 13D filed on June 23, 2006, relating to the common stock of EarthShell Corporation (the Original 13D, Amendment Number 1 to Schedule 13D, and Amendment Number 2 to Schedule 13D are referred to collectively herein as the "Original 13D, as amended"). The changes in the numbers of shares and percentage of outstanding shares pertain to the termination of the Merger Agreement by Renewable Products, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Stockholder, pursuant to a letter dated January 8, 2007. This Amendment Number 3 amends and restates Items 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of the Original 13D, as amended. All other Items presented in the Original 13D, as amended, remain unchanged.

The Reporting Persons are making this single, joint filing because they may be deemed to be a "group" under Section 13(d)(3) of the Act. The agreement among the Reporting Persons to file jointly (the "Joint Filing Agreement") is attached to the Original 13D as Exhibit 5. All capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the definitions assigned to them in the Original 13D, as amended.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

By a letter dated January 8, 2007, the Target terminated (the "Termination") that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 17, 2005 and amended as of February 17, 2006, among the Company, EarthShell Triangle, Inc., which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, the Target, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Stockholder, and the Stockholder (the "Merger Agreement"). As a result of the Termination, none of the Reporting Persons would be deemed to beneficially own more than five percent of the Common Stock.

On June 22, 2006, in a transaction separate from those contemplated in the Merger Agreement, the Holding Company acquired both certain preferred stock that is convertible into the Common Stock

Edgar Filing: EARTHSHELL CORP - Form SC 13D/A

(the "Series D Preferred Stock") and a warrant to purchase shares of Common Stock (the "Warrant"). Even if the Holding Company were to both convert the Series D Preferred Stock and exercise the Warrant, none of the Reporting Persons, in the absence of other transactions affecting the holdings of the Common Stock, would be deemed to beneficially own more than five percent of the Common Stock. The source of the funds paid by the Holding Company as consideration of the Series D Preferred Stock and the Warrant was capital provided by the limited partners of the Fund pursuant to capital calls.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Upon closing of the Merger Agreement, the Target would have merged with a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (as a result of which the Target would have become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company) and the Stockholder would have received certain preferred stock that is convertible into the Common Stock (the "Series C Preferred Stock"). As a result of the Termination, none of the Reporting Persons would be deemed to beneficially own more than five percent of the Common Stock.

Additionally, as described in Item 3, the Company issued to the Holding Company certain shares of the Series D Preferred Stock and the Warrant, which are convertible or exercisable (as applicable) by the Holding Company into the Common Stock.

On January 19, 2007, EarthShell Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Purchaser") and wholly-owned subsidiary of Renewable Products, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Stockholder ("RPI"), entered into a definitive agreement (the "Asset Purchase Agreement") with the Company pursuant to which, among other things, Purchaser agreed to purchase certain assets of the Company for a purchase price of $1,000,000, subject to certain purchase price offsets. Purchaser's obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement are subject to certain conditions, including the performance by the Company of certain obligations and the completion of certain procedures related to the bankruptcy of the Company, including opening the subject assets to an auction process where higher and better offers may be solicited. The Purchase Agreement superseded a non-binding letter of intent between RPI and the Company dated January 4, 2007, which contemplated that RPI, consistent with its role as a "stalking horse" bidder, would agree to purchase certain assets of the Company and provide certain debtor in possession financing. The description of the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 9 to this Schedule 13D and incorporated herein by reference.

Other than as described in the preceding paragraph, the Reporting Persons currently have no specific plans or proposals that relate to or would result in the events described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of the instructions to Schedule 13D, although the Reporting Persons reserve the right to develop such plans or proposals.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Stockholder's ability to complete the Merger was subject to various conditions. As a result of these conditions, at no point did the Reporting Persons have the right to acquire the Series C Preferred Stock. Despite these conditions, however, prior to the Termination the Reporting Persons may have been deemed to have a right to acquire beneficial ownership of the Common Stock into which the Series C Preferred Stock would have been convertible. As a result of the Termination, none of the Reporting Persons would be deemed to beneficially own more than five percent of the Common Stock.

The Reporting Persons may be deemed to have a right to acquire beneficial ownership of the Common Stock into which the Series D Preferred Stock is convertible and which are underlying the Warrant, as each such type of acquired security provides the Holding Company with the right to acquire such shares of Common Stock at any time after the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement, the closing of which occurred on June 22, 2006.

However, even if the Holding Company were to both convert the Series D Preferred Stock and exercise the Warrant, none of the Reporting Persons, in the absence of other transactions affecting the holdings of the Common Stock, would be deemed to beneficially own more than five percent of the Common Stock.

The share ownership percentages described in this Item 5 are based on the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, for the quarter ended September 30, 2006, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 20, 2006, in which the Company reported that 19,981,167 shares of Common Stock were outstanding as of September 30, 2006.

(a) The aggregate number and percentage of Common Stock that may be beneficially owned by each of the persons identified in Item 2 of the Original 13D, as amended, are provided in the following table:

Name	Aggregate Number	Percentage
The Stockholder	273,504	1.37%
The Holding Company	273,504	1.37
The Fund	273,504	1.37%
The General Partner	273,504	1.37%
Mr. Cooper[1]	550,861	2.76%
Mr. Finley[2]	300,504	1.50%
Mr. Holiday	0	0
Mr. Glennon	0	0

As described in Item 6, the Reporting Persons may have been deemed to be members of a group with the Khashoggi Holders. Based solely on the information reported by the Company in its Annual Report on Form 10-K, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 31, 2006, under the caption "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management and Related Stockholder Matters" (which, for purposes of clarity, incorporated by reference the information contained in the Schedule 14A Definitive Proxy Statement to Shareholders filed on May 1, 2006), the Reporting Persons understand that the Khashoggi Holders were the beneficial owners, as of March 31, 2006, of 13,943,542 shares of Common Stock, which is reported as representing 55.75 percent of the Common Stock then outstanding.

(e) As a result of the Termination, each of the Reporting Persons ceased to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the Common Stock effective as of January 9, 2007.

ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

As described in Item 3, the Target terminated the Merger Agreement. Upon closing of the Merger Agreement, the Company would have acquired the Target and the Stockholder would have received certain shares of Series C Preferred Stock.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company's obligation, and thus the Stockholder's ability, to complete the Merger were subject to various conditions. As a result of these conditions, at no time did the Reporting Persons have a right to acquire the Series C Preferred Stock. Despite these conditions, prior to the Termination the Reporting Persons may have been deemed to have a right to acquire beneficial ownership of the Common Stock into which the Series C Preferred Stock is convertible. As a result of the Termination, however, none of the Reporting Persons would be deemed to have a right to acquire beneficial ownership of more than five percent of the Common Stock.

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, the Company and the Stockholder signed a letter agreement with Essam Khashoggi, the Company's principal stockholder, acting on behalf of himself and his family and entities he owns or controls that hold shares or rights to acquire Common Stock (together, the "Khashoggi Holders"). The letter agreement (the "Khashoggi Lock-up Agreement"), which is included as Exhibit 4 to the Original 13D, as amended, and is incorporated herein by reference, includes certain agreements relating to possible sales of Common Stock by the Stockholder and by the Khashoggi Holders. The agreements include (i) coordination designed to reduce the adverse effect of sales of Common Stock (together with certain other transactions that the Company views as likely) on the Company's net operating loss carryforward and (ii) commitments relating to sales that may affect the other party's exercise of registration rights granted by the Company. The Khashoggi Lock-up Agreement also contained agreements regarding certain unregistered sales of Common Stock, which agreements ceased to be effective upon the Termination.

By virtue of the Khashoggi Lock-up Agreement, the Reporting Persons and the Khashoggi Holders may be deemed to be members of a group who have agreed, to the extent set forth in the Khashoggi Lock-up Agreement, to act together with respect to the disposition of Common Stock.

As described in Item 3, on June 22, 2006, in a transaction separate from those contemplated in the Merger Agreement, the Holding Company acquired both certain shares of the Series D Preferred Stock and the Warrant. Even if the Holding Company were to both convert the Series D Preferred Stock and exercise the Warrant, none of the Reporting Persons, in the absence of other transactions affecting the holdings of the Common Stock, would be deemed to beneficially own more than five percent of the Common Stock of the Company.

The descriptions contained in Items 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the terms of the Merger Agreement and the Khashoggi Lock-up Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement and the Khashoggi Lock-up Agreement, copies of which are attached to Schedule 13D as Exhibits 1 and 4 and incorporated herein by reference.
