LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

October 14, 2003

Dear Shareholder:

Performance at a Glance

The U.S. high yield corporate bond market turned in a stellar performance for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2003. High yield bonds, commonly called "junk bonds," benefited from a monetary policy aimed at stimulating economic growth in the United States through lower borrowing costs for businesses and individuals. For the 12-month reporting period, the High Yield Income Fund posted a 29.75% return that exceeded the 24.86% return of its benchmark Lehman Brothers U.S. Corporate High Yield Index (the Index), but lagged the 32.03% return of the Lipper Closed-End High Current Yield Average.

The Fund's primary investment objective is to maximize current income to shareholders. As a secondary investment objective, the Fund will seek capital appreciation, but only when consistent with its primary objective. The Fund will seek to achieve its objectives by investing primarily in corporate bonds rated below investment grade by independent rating agencies. Bonds rated below investment grade are commonly known as junk bonds and are subject to greater risk of default and higher volatility than investment-grade bonds. Furthermore, these bonds tend to be less liquid than higher-quality bonds. The Fund is diversified, and we carefully research companies to find those with attractive yields and improving credit quality.

Market Background

A REMARKABLE YEAR FOR HIGH YIELD BONDS

The high yield bond market rallied strongly during the 12-month reporting period that began September 1, 2002. High yield bonds gained on the view that a declining-interest-rate environment would succeed in boosting economic growth and ultimately result in significantly improved corporate profitability. Some firms took advantage of the drop in rates by refinancing their debt, which means they issued new bonds and used the proceeds to pay off higher-rate bonds and bank loans that would soon come due. Because junk bonds continued to yield more than better-rated bonds, demand for junk bonds remained strong among investors searching for attractive yields.

Conditions in the high yield bond market were challenging in the first few weeks of the reporting period. The fragile U.S. economic recovery, concern about the health of corporate balance sheets, and the memory of accounting scandals at certain U.S. firms encouraged a general distaste for speculative assets. That began to change in the early autumn of 2002 when a rebound in the stock market helped inspire renewed enthusiasm for high yield bonds. Investors also appreciated the efforts of certain companies to clean up their balance sheets by reducing debt, curtailing spending, and selling assets. In addition, the Federal Reserve (the Fed) cut its target for the federal funds rate by half a percentage point to 1.25% in November 2002 in an effort to strengthen the fragile economy.

The high yield bond market gained for most of the remainder of the reporting period amid further favorable developments. After selling off prior to the start of a war in Iraq, the stock market rally resumed and corporate earnings improved modestly. Economic growth accelerated in the second quarter of 2003 even though the job market remained weak. In June, the Fed provided additional support to the economy by cutting its target for the federal funds rate another quarter of a percentage point to 1%.

Our Strategy

LEVERAGE HELPED THE FUND AS BONDS RALLIED

We believe the Fund outperformed the Index for the 12-month reporting period largely because we employed leverage, which refers to the practice of taking out a relatively low-interest loan against a percentage of assets in the portfolio and using that money to purchase other investments. This strategy can materially enhance a portfolio's returns when fixed income markets rally as they did during the fiscal year.

UTILITIES AND CABLE TV BONDS AIDED THE FUND

We increased the Fund's exposure to the electric utility sector. High yield bonds in this sector generally gained in value due to the dramatic improvement in the refinancing environment. The influx of money into the high yield market, combined with low interest rates, allowed certain cash-strapped electric power generating companies to get access to new debt funding. By refinancing debt that would soon come due with new bonds offering lower rates and longer maturity dates, these firms built a "liquidity bridge" to better economic times.

We maintained what we believed to be a considerable exposure to cable television bonds. This sector of the high yield market generally rallied as investors shifted their focus from a major accounting scandal at Adelphia Communications to the industry's steady cash flows and other strengths. Among the Fund's cable television holdings were Cablevision Systems (held under CSC Holdings) and Charter Communications. Cablevision Systems' bonds rallied as the firm sold its Bravo cable network and certain other assets and used the proceeds to improve its cash position and liquidity profile. Charter Communications bonds rose in value after the firm announced its intention to buy back some of its debt.

PLAYING IT SAFE IN TELECOM

The telecommunications industry was among the largest issuers of high yield bonds in the late 1990s when there was much capital available to finance the construction of what proved to be an overcapacity of fiber optic networks. Since then the industry has struggled under a substantial amount of debt. News that WorldCom (now MCI) had inflated its profits by billions of dollars followed by its subsequent bankruptcy dealt another blow to the telecom sector in the summer of 2002. Considering these difficulties, we maintained what we believed to be a relatively conservative posture in the Fund's telecom position.

However, during the reporting period, the telecom sector was revitalized by the successful turnaround of Nextel Communications. The mobile telephone firm reduced debt, cut spending, trimmed its work force, and saw its customer base increase. Qwest Communications International also took steps to improve its financial health in December 2002 when it lowered its debt by exchanging roughly $5 billion of its bonds for new debt securities. More recently, Qwest Communications' bonds gained after the company received permission to sell the western half of its directories business, which it completed shortly after the reporting period ended.

Overall, the telecom sector posted one of the strongest returns in the high yield market for the 12 months ended August 31, 2003. We increased the Fund's telecom exposure, emphasizing bonds of Sprint and other firms rated investment grade, as well as some of the least speculative high yield bonds of Nextel Communications and Qwest Communications. The Fund's telecom holdings rallied, supporting the Fund's returns during our reporting period. However, we believe the somewhat conservative nature of our telecom exposure detracted from the Fund's relative performance to the Index because the more speculative telecom bonds contained in the Index gained the most during the 12-month period under review.

FUND HELD TOO FEW BONDS OF "FALLEN ANGELS"

The Fund's underweight exposure to the bonds of certain fallen angels detracted from its relative performance to the Index as the Fund derived less benefit than it could have from the sharp rally in these debt securities. Fallen angels are troubled firms that were originally rated investment grade but were downgraded to junk bond status. Because some fallen angels have substantial amounts of bonds outstanding, their weighting in the Index can be more than 10 times greater than the average issuer size in the Index. We believe that holding very large positions in the Fund (simply because they are so large in the Index) is not prudent from the standpoint of diversification.

Notes to Financial Statements

THE HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND, INC.

The High Yield Income Fund, Inc. (the 'Fund') was organized in Maryland on August 21, 1987 as a diversified, closed-end management investment company. The Fund's primary investment objective is to maximize current income to shareholders through investment in a diversified portfolio of high-yield, fixed-income securities rated in the medium to lower categories by recognized rating services, or nonrated securities of comparable quality. As a secondary investment objective, the Fund will seek capital appreciation, but only when consistent with its primary objective. The ability of issuers of debt securities held by the Fund to meet their obligations may be affected by economic or political developments in a specific industry or region.

Note 1. Accounting Policies

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

Security Valuation: Portfolio securities that are actively traded in the over-the-counter market, including listed securities for which the primary market is believed to be over-the-counter, are valued at market prices provided by principal market makers and pricing agents. Any security for which the primary market is on an exchange is valued at the last sales price on such exchange on the day of valuation or, if there was no sale on such day, the last bid price quoted on such day. Securities issued in private placements are valued at the bid price or the mean between the bid and asked prices, if available, provided by principal market makers. Any security for which a reliable market quotation is unavailable is valued at fair value as determined in good faith by or under the direction of the Fund's Board of Directors.

Short-term securities which mature in more than 60 days are valued at current market quotations. Short-term securities which mature in 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost.

In connection with transactions in repurchase agreements with U.S. financial institutions, it is the Fund's policy that its custodian or designated subcustodians, as the case may be under triparty repurchase agreements, take possession of the underlying collateral securities, the value of which exceeds the principal amount of the repurchase transaction including accrued interest. If the seller defaults and the value of the collateral declines, or if bankruptcy proceedings are commenced with respect to the seller of the security, realization of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited. The Fund's custodian will maintain, in a segregated account of the Fund, cash, U.S. Government securities, equity securities or other liquid, unencumbered assets marked to market daily, having a value equal to or greater than the Fund's purchase commitments with respect to certain investments.

The Fund may invest up to 20% of its total assets in securities which are not readily marketable, including those which are restricted as to disposition under securities law ('restricted securities').

Cash Flow Information: The Fund invests in securities and distributes dividends from net investment income which are paid in cash or are reinvested at the discretion of shareholders. These activities are reported in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets and additional information on cash receipts and cash payments is presented in the Statement of Cash Flows.

Accounting practices that do not affect reporting activities on a cash basis include carrying investments at value, accruing income on PIK (payment-in-kind) securities and accreting market discounts and amortizing premiums on debt obligations.

Security Transactions and Investment Income: Security transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized and unrealized gains (losses) from securities transactions are calculated on the identified cost basis. Interest income, which is comprised of stated coupon rate, original issue discount, market discount and premium, is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Expenses are recorded on the accrual basis which may require the use of certain estimates by management.

Federal Income Taxes: It is the Fund's policy to continue to meet the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required.

Edgar Filing: HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSR

Dividends and Distributions: The Fund expects to pay dividends from net investment income monthly and make distributions at least annually of net capital gains, if any. Dividends and distributions are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Income distributions and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles.

Note 2. Agreements

The Fund has a management agreement with Prudential Investments LLC ('PI'). Pursuant to this agreement, PI has responsibility for all investment advisory services and supervises the subadviser's performance of such services. PI has entered into a subadvisory agreement with Prudential Investment Management, Inc. ('PIM'). PIM furnishes investment advisory services in connection with the management of the Fund. PI pays for the services of PIM, the compensation of officers and employees of the Fund, occupancy and certain clerical and bookkeeping costs of the Fund. The Fund bears all other costs and expenses.

The management fee paid to PI is computed weekly and payable monthly, at an annual rate of .70 of 1% of the average weekly net assets of the Fund.

Notes to Financial Statements

THE HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND, INC.

PI and PIM are indirect, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Prudential Financial, Inc. ('Prudential').

Note 3. Portfolio Securities

Purchases and sales of investment securities, other than short-term investments, for the year ended August 31, 2003 aggregated $91,900,335 and $88,681,258, respectively.

Note 4. Tax Information

Distributions to shareholders are determined in accordance with United States federal income tax regulation, which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. In order to present undistributed net investment income and accumulated net realized gains (losses) on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities that more closely represent their tax character, certain adjustments have been made to undistributed net investment income and accumulated net realized gain (loss) on investments. For the year ended August 31, 2003, the adjustments were to increase accumulated net investment income by $353,325, increase accumulated net realized loss on investments by $90,360, and decrease paid-in capital in excess of par by $262,965 primarily due to the difference in the treatment of accreting market discount between financial and tax reporting and the expiration of a capital loss carryforward in the current year. Net investment income, net realized losses and net assets were not affected by this change.

For the years ended August 31, 2003 and August 31, 2002, the tax character of total dividends paid, as reflected on the Statement of Changes in Net Assets, of $6,199,416 and $6,330,687, respectively, was ordinary income.

As of August 31, 2003, the accumulated undistributed earnings on a tax basis was $515,808 (includes a timing difference of $38 for dividends payable) of taxable ordinary income.

The United States federal income tax basis of the Fund's investments and the net unrealized appreciation as of August 31, 2003, were as follows:

Tax Basis of Investments	Appreciation	Depreciation	Net Unrealized Appreciation
$ 82,895,975	$ 4,534,479	$ (4,061,364)	$473,115

The difference between book basis and tax basis was attributable to deferred losses on wash sales and differences in the treatment of premium and market discount amortization for book and tax purposes.

For federal income tax purposes, the Fund has a capital loss carryforward as of August 31, 2003 of approximately $29,314,600, of which $5,569,500 expires in 2004, $1,361,400 expires in 2007, $3,336,700 expires in 2008, $5,010,500 expires in 2009, $6,960,200 expires in 2010 and $7,076,300 expires in 2011. During the year ended August 31, 2003 the Fund had approximately $263,000 of capital loss carryforward expire. In addition, the fund will elect to treat net capital losses of approximately $868,800 incurred in the ten month period ended August 31, 2003 as having been incurred in the next year. Accordingly, no capital gains distribution is expected to be paid to shareholders until net realized gains have been realized in excess of such amounts.

Note 5. Joint Repurchase Agreement Account

The Fund, along with other affiliated registered investment companies, transfers uninvested cash balances into a single joint account, the daily aggregate balance of which is invested in one or more repurchase agreements collateralized by U.S. Treasury or federal agency obligations. As of August 31, 2003, the Fund had a 0.16% undivided interest in the repurchase agreements in the joint account. The undivided interest for the Fund represented $316,000 in principal amount. As of such date, each repurchase agreement in the joint account and the collateral therefore was as follows:

Bank of America, 1.08%, in the principal amount of $64,477,000, repurchase price $64,484,737, due 9/2/03. The value of the collateral including accrued interest was $65,766,540.

Greenwich Capital Markets, 1.10%, in the principal amount of $64,477,000, repurchase price $64,484,881, due 9/2/03. The value of the collateral including accrued interest was $65,768,753.

Merrill Lynch, 1.10%, in the principal amount of $64,477,000, repurchase price $64,484,881, due 9/2/03. The value of the collateral including accrued interest was $65,767,244.

Note 6. Borrowings

The Fund has approved a $25,000,000 uncommitted line of credit with State Street Bank & Trust Co. Interest on any such borrowings outstanding fluctuates daily, at one percentage point over the Federal Funds rate.

Edgar Filing: HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSR

The average daily balance outstanding and the maximum face amount of borrowings outstanding at any month end for the year ended August 31, 2003 was $22,286,301 and $24,500,000 respectively, at a weighted average interest rate of 2.34%.

(a) NAV and market value are published in The Wall Street Journal each Monday.

(b) Total investment return is calculated assuming a purchase of common stock at the current market price on the first day and a sale at the closing market price on the last day of each period reported. Dividends are assumed, for the purpose of this calculation, to be reinvested at prices obtainable under the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan. This amount does not reflect brokerage commissions.

(c) Less than $.005 per share.

* Effective September 1, 2001, the Fund has adopted the provisions of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide for Investment Companies and began accreting market discounts and amortizing premiums on debt securities. The effect of this change for the year ended August 31, 2002 was to decrease net investment income per share by $0.02 and increase net realized and unrealized gain (loss) per share by $0.02 and decrease the ratio of net investment income from 11.40% to 11.15%. Per share amounts and ratios for the years ended prior to August 31, 2002 have not been restated to reflect this change in presentation.

Report of Independent Auditors THE HIGH YIELD INCOME FUND, INC.

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of
The High Yield Income Fund, Inc.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the portfolio of investments, and the related statements of operations, of cash flows and of changes in net assets and the financial highlights present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The High Yield Income Fund, Inc. (the 'Fund') at August 31, 2003, the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements and financial highlights (hereafter referred to as 'financial statements') are the responsibility of the Fund's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits, which included confirmation of securities at August 31, 2003 by correspondence with the custodian, provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.
