Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard: Transfer of Listing

(a) On May 5, 2005, CNE Group, Inc. (the "Company") received notice from the American Stock Exchange ("AMEX") Staff indicating that at December 31, 2004 it did not meet certain of AMEX's continuing listing standards, specifically its (i) Stockholders' Equity being less than $6,000,000 (Section 1003(a)(iii) of the AMEX Company Guide) and (ii) financial condition has become so impaired that it appears questionable that it will be able to continue operations and/or meet its obligations as they mature (Section 1003(a)(iv) of the AMEX Company Guide).

AMEX requested the Company to submit a plan that would demonstrate to AMEX the Company's ability to regain compliance (the "Plan"), which it did on June 8, 2005. On June 13, 2005, the Staff notified the Company that it had determined that the Plan does not make a reasonable demonstration of the Company's ability to regain compliance with the continued listing standards, as required by Section 1009 of the Company Guide and, as provided by Section 1009(d) thereof, the Staff has determined to proceed with the filing of an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission to strike the Company's common stock from listing and registration on AMEX.

In accordance with Sections 1203 and 1009(d) of the Company Guide the Company has a limited right to appeal the Staff's determination at an oral hearing or one based on a written submission before a Listing Qualifications Panel within seven days after receipt of the notification of the Staff's determination. The Company intends to request an oral hearing to appeal the Staff's determination and will file this request on or before June 21, 2005, for which it will be required to pay a $5,000 fee together with the request. The Company can give no assurance that its appeal will be successful.
