Credit Facility

On November 12, 2013, PPL Capital Funding, Inc., as Borrower ("PPL Capital Funding"), and PPL Corporation, as Guarantor ("PPL Corporation"), announced they had entered into a five year, $300 million, Revolving Credit Agreement with PNC Bank National Association as Administrative Agent, Manufactures and Traders Trust as Syndication Agent, and the other Lenders party thereto (the "Credit Agreement").

The Credit Agreement allows for borrowings at market-based rates plus a spread, which is based upon PPL Capital Funding's senior unsecured long-term debt rating. In addition, PPL Capital Funding may request certain Lenders under the Credit Agreement to issue letters of credit, which issuances reduce available borrowing capacity. PPL Capital Funding intends to use this credit facility for general corporate purposes of PPL Corporation and its affiliates, including for making investments in or loans to affiliates to support infrastructure investments by PPL Corporation's operating companies. PPL Capital Funding will pay customary commitment and letter of credit issuance fees under the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement contains a financial covenant requiring PPL Capital Funding's debt to total capitalization to not exceed 70% (as calculated pursuant to the Credit Agreement), and other customary covenants. Failure to meet the covenants beyond applicable grace periods and certain other events, including the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined in the Credit Agreement), could result in acceleration of due dates of any borrowings, cash collateralization of outstanding letters of credit and/or termination of the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement also contains certain customary representations and warranties that must be made and certain other conditions that must be met for PPL Capital Funding to borrow or to cause the Issuing Lender to issue letters of credit.

Under certain conditions, PPL Capital Funding may request that the facility's principal amount be increased by up to $30 million.
