Letter from the Chairman

R. JAY GERKEN, CFA

Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer Dear Shareholder,

The U.S. economy was surprisingly resilient during the fiscal year of this report. While surging oil prices, rising interest rates, and the impact of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita threatened to derail the economic expansion, growth remained solid throughout the period. After a 3.3% advance in the second quarter of 2005, third quarter gross domestic product ( $\square GDP \square$ ) growth grew to 4.3%, marking the tenth consecutive quarter in which GDP growth grew 3.0% or more.

As expected, the Federal Reserve Board ([Fed])<sup>ii</sup> continued to raise interest rates in an attempt to ward-off inflation. After raising rates three times from June 2004 through September 2004, the Fed increased its target for the federal funds rate<sup>iii</sup> in 0.25% increments eight additional times over the reporting period. The Fed again raised rates in early November, after the Fund[s reporting period had ended. All told, the twelve rate hikes by the Fed have brought the target for the federal funds rate from 1.00% to 4.00%. This represents the longest sustained Fed tightening cycle since 1976-1979.

During the 12-month period covered by this report, the U.S. stock market generated solid results, with the S&P 500 Index<sup>iv</sup> returning 8.72%. Generally positive economic news, relatively benign core inflation, and strong corporate profits supported the market during much of the period. Looking at the fiscal year as a whole, mid-cap stocks generated superior returns, with the Russell Midcap<sup>V</sup>, Russell 1000<sup>Vi</sup>, and Russell 2000<sup>Vii</sup> Indexes returning 18.09%, 10.47%, and 12.08%, respectively. From a market style perspective, value-oriented stocks significantly outperformed their growth counterparts, with the Russell 3000 Value<sup>Viii</sup> and Russell 3000 Growth<sup>ix</sup> Indexes returning 11.96% and 8.99%, respectively.

 ${\bf Salomon\ Brothers\ Capital\ and\ Income\ Fund\ Inc.}$

During much of this fiscal year, the fixed income market confounded investors as short-term interest rates rose in concert with the Fed rate tightening, while longer-term rates, surprisingly, declined. However, due to a spike late in the period, the 10-year Treasury yield was 4.56% on October 31, 2005, versus 4.11% when the period began. Nevertheless, this was still lower than its yield of 4.62% when the Fed began its tightening cycle on June 30, 2004. Looking at the one-year period as a whole, the overall bond market, as measured by the Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Indexx, returned 1.13%.

Please read on for a more detailed look at prevailing economic and market conditions during the Fund<sub>s</sub> fiscal year and to learn how those conditions have affected Fund performance.

Special Shareholder Notice

On December 1, 2005, Citigroup Inc. ([Citigroup[]) completed the sale of substantially all of its asset management business, Citigroup Asset Management ([CAM[]), to Legg Mason, Inc. ([Legg Mason[]). As a result, the Fund[]s investment manager (the [Manager[]), previously an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Citigroup, has become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Legg Mason. Completion of the sale caused the Fund[]s existing investment management contract to terminate. The Fund[]s shareholders previously approved a new investment management contract between the Fund and the Manager which became effective on December 1, 2005.

Information About Your Fund

As you may be aware, several issues in the mutual fund industry have recently come under the scrutiny of federal and state regulators. The Fund state Manager and some of its affiliates have received requests for information from various government regulators regarding market timing, late trading, fees, and other mutual fund issues in connection with various investigations. The regulators appear to be examining, among other things, the open-end fund sresponse to market timing and shareholder exchange activity, including compliance with prospectus disclosure related to these subjects. The Fund has been informed that the Manager and its affiliates are responding to those information requests, but are not in a position to predict the outcome of these requests and investigations.

Salomon Brothers Capital and Income Fund Inc.

Important information concerning the Fund and its Manager with regard to recent regulatory developments is contained in the Notes to Financial Statements included in this report.

As previously described in proxy statements that were mailed to shareholders of the Fund in connection with the transaction, Legg Mason intends to combine the fixed-income operations of the Manager with those of Legg Mason swholly-owned subsidiary, Western Asset Management Company, and its affiliates, ([Western Asset[]]). This combination will involve Western Asset and the Manager sharing common systems and procedures, employees (including portfolio managers), investment trading platforms, and other resources. At a future date, Legg Mason expects to recommend to the Boards of Directors of the funds that Western Asset be appointed as the adviser or sub-adviser to the funds, subject to applicable regulatory requirements. The combination is also expected to result in changes to portfolio managers or portfolio management teams for a number of funds, subject to Board oversight and appropriate notice to shareholders.

The Fund has been advised by the Manager that, in anticipation of this combination, Legg Mason and Western Asset have come to a mutually beneficial agreement with a select group of portfolio managers and other investment professionals from the Manager of the Fund, including Peter Wilby. The agreement provides them the opportunity to start a new firm based in New York focusing on high yield, emerging market debt, and specialty fixed income strategies. Importantly, the group has committed to remain employed with the Manager through March 31, 2006 to assist in the orderly integration of the fixed-income operations of the Manager, including the management of the Fund, with those of Western Asset. Western Asset has also entered into a consulting agreement with the group, effective as of April 1, 2006, to ensure an effective and orderly transition of portfolio management and Board liaison responsibilities for the Funds to Western Asset.

The Board will be working with the Manager, Western Asset, and the portfolio managers to implement an orderly combination of the Manager sixed income operations and Western Asset in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders.

Salomon Brothers Capital and Income Fund Inc.

As always, thank you for your confidence in our stewardship of your assets. We look forward to helping you continue to meet your financial goals.

Sincerely,

R. Jay Gerken, CFA Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Q. What were the overall market conditions during the Fund s reporting period?

A. There was no shortage of problems for the U.S. economy to overcome during the reporting period. These included record high oil prices, rising short-term interest rates, the devastation inflicted by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, geopolitical issues, and falling consumer confidence. However, the economy proved to be surprisingly resilient during the fiscal year and the S&P 500 Index $^i$  posted an 8.72% total return for the period.

The Fed continued to raise interest rates over the period in an attempt to ward-off inflation. All told, the Fed□s 12 rate hikes have brought the target for the federal funds rate from 1.00% to 4.00%. This represents the longest sustained Fed tightening cycle since 1976-1979.

The top-performing sector within the S&P 500 Index was energy, gaining 33.71%. Other leading sectors included utilities (23.86%) and consumer staples (10.18%) . All sectors had positive returns during the period with the exception of consumer discretionary ([1.06%)) and telecommunications ([0.46%)). Among large-cap equities, value stocks continued to outperform growth stocks as measured by the performance of the S&P 500 Barra Value Indexii, which returned 10.17% and the S&P 500 Barra Growth Indexiii, which returned 7.25%. Small-cap stocks continued to outperform large-cap stocks as represented by the small-cap Russell 2000 Indexiv, which increased 12.08% and the large-cap Russell 1000 Index, which increased 10.47%.

In the fixed income markets, during the one-year period, emerging markets returned 10.54%, as represented by the JPMorgan Emerging Markets Bond Index Global ([EMBI Global])v. Although there were periods of weakness in March and July 2005, the emerging markets debt asset class generated solid results. Improving country fundamentals and strong market technicals outweighed the downward pressure exerted by Fed tightening. In addition, continued strength in commodity prices, including metals, agriculture, and oil supported many emerging market countries. The high yield market returned 3.55%, as represented by the Citigroup High Yield Market Indexvi. After a strong start, high-yield bonds fell sharply in March and April 2005 as investors became concerned over downgrades for General Motors and Ford Motor Company bonds. However, the high yield market reversed course and rallied as the uncertainty surrounding the downgrades lifted and investors searched for incremental yield. Investment grade bonds returned 1.13%, as represented by the Lehman Brothers Aggregate Bond Indexvii. In general, the investment grade bond asset class experienced lackluster performance and broad-based weakness with higher rates and wider spreads across the curve.

Due to the Fund sallocations across investment grade, high yield and emerging markets debt, please find three separate market overviews, for the period of this report included below.

Investment Grade Market Review

During the 12 months ended October 31, 2005, markets were primarily driven by Federal Reserve Board ( $\Box$ Fed $\Box$ ) $^{Viii}$  activity, employment and inflation data and rising energy costs, exacerbated near period-end by the devastating impact of Hurricane Katrina on the U.S. Gulf Coast. The Fed $\Box$ s eight  $\Box$ measured $\Box$  25-basis-pointix hikes during the period brought the federal funds rate $^x$  to 3.75% from 1.75% by the reporting period $\Box$ s end. The Fed raised rates an additional quarter point to 4.00% on November 1st, after the close of the reporting period. These measured, consecutive rate hikes exerted upward pressure on short-term bond yields, driving 2-year yields up about 183 basis points during the 12 months. However, in what Fed Chairman Alan Greenspan termed a  $\Box$ conundrum, $\Box$  yields on the long bond stayed low during the period, even declining slightly (four basis points) over the 12 months despite relinquishing all gains to end 53 basis points higher by period-end. This sharp rise in short yields and relative stagnation in longer yields resulted in the extensive yield curve flattening seen during the period.

As the market fully expected each 25-basis-point hike in the federal funds rate during the period [] thanks to the Fed[]s well-advertised intentions to raise rates at a measured pace []investors spent much of the period dissecting language from the Fed for clues on its assessment of the U.S. economy and the pace of rate hikes. The Fed reiterated throughout the year that it would increase rates []at a pace that is likely to be measured[] and, starting in June 2004, added that, []the Committee will respond to changes in economic prospects as needed to fulfill its obligation to maintain price stability.[] In its most recent statement (from the September 20th meeting), the Fed noted that core inflation remained low near the end of the period and long-term inflation expectations remained []contained[] (even if the language was downgraded from the []well contained[] language used at prior meetings).

Slowing global growth, rising inflation and surging oil prices undoubtedly restrained economic activity during the period, with Gross Domestic Product ( $[GDP]]^{xi}$  declining year-over-year to 3.8% growth in first quarter 2005 (from first quarter 2004[s 4.5% pace) and to 3.4% growth in second quarter 2005 (from second quarter 2004[s 3.5%). However, economic growth remained remarkably resilient into the third quarter, particularly after fears of a sharp slowdown in the wake of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, gaining 3.8% on an annualized basis versus 3.9% last year and consensus expectations of 3.6% growth. Although growth remained strong throughout the reporting period, fears of potential slowing, combined with increasing inflation, drove markets. Oil prices, which breached $70 per barrel before reporting period[s] end, continue to cast a pall on growth and consumer spending expectations.

This was particularly true in the latter half of the reporting period, as investors assessed the potential impact of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita on U.S. economic growth, inflation and the pace of interest rates and growth indicators turned increasingly mixed. For example, the U.S. labor market began to pick up in early 2004 and continued to improve through most of the Fund\(\sigma\) s fiscal year, although the pace of improvement remained uneven from month to month. Unemployment fell through the majority of the reporting period, declining from 5.5% in October 2004 to 4.9% in August 2005. However, employment skyrocketed, even if not as much as expected, in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, and the unemployment rate rose to 5.0% in October. Industrial production and retail sales also remained positive through most of the reporting period, even considering the volatility in the auto sector as General Motors and Ford were successively downgraded by three major statistical credit rating agencies to below investment grade. Again, however, as with employment, industrial production and retail sales data turned negative near the reporting period send as the effects of Hurricane Katrina roiled through the economy, reductions in auto production hit the market and the highly successful automotive dealer incentive packages offered through the summer came to an end.

While inflationary pressures from sustained high commodity prices began to creep into the economy, particularly near the end of the reporting period, continued strong growth and limited wage pressures are keeping long-term inflation expectations <code>[contained[]</code>. Core inflation rates, in particular, remained subdued throughout the period despite growing inflationary pressure. Specifically, Core Consumer Price Index (CPI) inflation rose only 0.1% year-over-year to 2.1% in October 2005, and core Producer Price Index (PPI) inflation edged up only 0.1% year-over-year to 1.9% in September 2005. However, both consumer and producer headline inflation rose dramatically by period end as continually high and rising energy prices and competitive pricing pressures began to be passed through to the consumer. Headline CPI inflation rose approximately 1.1% to 4.3% in October 2005 versus October 2004, and headline PPI inflation increased 1.5% to 5.9% over the same period. Pricing pressures were also seen in the core PCE deflator, the Fed[s preferred measure of inflation, which rose 0.5% versus September 2004 to 2.0% year-over-year in the latest September reading.

Emerging Markets Debt Review

Emerging markets debt returned 10.54% during the 12 months ended October 31, 2005, as represented by the EMBI Global. Strong country fundamentals and market technicals offset the downward pressure exerted by eight [measured] increases in the federal funds rate throughout the 12 months and credit contagion from the auto sector during volatility of Spring 2005. Continued progress on political and economic reform in many emerging countries, continued commodity price strength and the generally positive macro environment supported broad credit quality improvements across emerging markets during the 12 months.

Sovereign debt markets achieved positive momentum at the start of the period after recovering from depressed levels earlier in 2004 and rallied through the remainder of the year. Positive returns were supported by strong underlying country fundamentals, commodity prices strength (particularly in metals, agriculture and oil) and relatively low U.S. Treasury market volatility. Emerging market debt continued to trend positive during the first two months of 2005 despite concerns over the path of U.S. interest rates, risks of higher inflation and new bond issuance weighing on the market. However, indications of potentially more aggressive tightening (50-basis-point increments) from the Fed and increasingly prominent inflation worries led the market down in March, broadly in line with the U.S. Treasury market. Emerging debt markets remained under pressure in early April as spillover from volatile credit markets, with the highly visible troubles in the auto sector, worsened technicals.

Markets turned again by mid-April and followed a generally upward trajectory through the remainder of the reporting period as U.S. Treasury market volatility declined, the U.S. equity market recovered and country fundamentals remained broadly supportive. Although sovereign market volatility trended upward near the end of the reporting period, emerging markets proved relatively resilient, boosted by strong investor demand for greater risk assets despite the early July terrorist bombings in London, continued political noise in key emerging countries and increasing volatility in U.S. Treasuries.

Spreads tightened 157 basis points during the 12-month period ended October 31, 2005, closing at 242 basis points over U.S. Treasuries. Of note, sovereign spreads tightened 67 basis points alone during the month of June 2005 due primarily to index rebalancing with the conclusion of the Argentine bond exchange. Over the period, 12-month return volatility stood at 4.92% xii, substantially below long-term, historical levels of approximately 16%.

Performance Review

For the 12 months ended October 31, 2005, the Salomon Brothers Capital and Income Fund Inc. returned 6.85%, based on its New York Stock Exchange ([NYSE]) market price and 12.34% based on its net asset value ([NAV])xiii per share. In comparison, the Fund[s unmanaged benchmark, the S&P 500 Index, returned 8.72% and its Lipper Income and Preferred Stock Closed-End Funds Category Averagexiv increased 6.76% over the same time frame. Please note that Lipper performance returns are based on each Fund[s NAV.

During the 12-month period of this report, the Fund made distributions to shareholders totaling $1.20 per share, (which may have included a return of capital). The performance table shows the Fund\(\sigma\) s 12-month total return based on its NAV and market price as of October 31, 2005. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Q. What were the most significant factors affecting Fund performance?

d Performance as of October 31, 2005 (unaudited)
Price Per Share	12 Month Total Return
$19.69 (NAV)	12.34%
$17.19 (Market Price)	6.85%

All figures represent past performance and are not a guarantee of future results.

Total returns are based on changes in NAV or market price, respectively. Total returns assume the reinvestment of all distributions, including returns of capital, if any, in additional shares.

What were the leading contributors to performance?

A. The performance of the equity portion of the Fund was driven by both asset allocation and security selection. Energy, financials and health care were the strongest contributing sectors to Fund performance with Nexen, Total S.A., Altria Group, SpectraSite Inc., and Marathon Oil making the largest positive contributions.

We have kept our leverage levels constant over the last 12 months at $220 million, which is approximately 25% of gross assets or 33% of net assets. While the cost of our credit facility rose during the year along with short-term interest rates, we are still comfortable with our leverage ratio.

For the fixed-income portion, during the annual period, the Fund benefited from its yield curve positioning, underweight to shorter maturities in favor of the longer portion of the curve. The flattening yield curve positively impacted Fund returns. The Fund sexposure to higher yielding assets also supported returns during the period on favorable market fundamentals and technicals in non-investment grade markets.

What were the leading detractors from performance?

A. The weakest performing sectors of the equity portion of the Fund were materials, utilities and industrials. Securities that detracted the most from performance included OSI Pharmaceuticals Inc., Pfizer Inc., Lexmark International, Navistar International Corp., and Zimmer Holdings. Within the fixed income portion of the Fund, emerging markets debt was the only investment class to outperform the S&P 500 Index.

For the fixed-income portion, the portfolio $\square$ s shorter duration posture versus the benchmark early in the reporting period detracted from performance, as the longer end (10+ years) of the yield curve held up better than we expected. However, the portfolio recouped some of its early losses in the second half of the period due to its shorter duration position as rates continued to climb across all parts of the yield curve. The Fund $\square$ s allocation to investment grade corporates detracted from performance during the annual period due to market volatility predicated on idiosyncratic risk (i.e. negative auto sector headlines, M&A and LBO activity and shareholder-friendly corporate actions).

Q. Were there any significant changes to the Fund during the reporting period?

A. Last year, the Board of Directors authorized the Fund to repurchase up to 1 million shares of common stock at such times and in such amounts as management believes will enhance shareholder value, subject to review by the Fund[s Board of Directors. For the period, the Fund repurchased 581,400 shares. The NAV discount was 12.7% as of October 31, 2005. We believe this NAV discount is not justified by the Fund[s structure or performance over the period.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

The Salomon Brothers Capital and Income Fund Inc. ([Fund[]) was incorporated in Maryland on November 12, 2003 and is registered as a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended ([1940 Act[]). The Board of Directors authorized 100 million shares of $0.001 par value common stock. The Fund seeks total return with an emphasis on income by investing primarily in a portfolio consisting of a broad range of equity and fixed income securities of both U.S. and foreign issuers.

The following are significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund and are in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ([GAAP]). Estimates and assumptions are required to be made regarding assets, liabilities and changes in net assets resulting from operations when financial statements are prepared. Changes in the economic environment, financial markets and any other parameters used in determining these estimates could cause actual results to differ.

- (a) Investment Valuation. Equity securities for which market quotations are available are valued at the last sale price or official closing price on the primary market or exchange on which they trade. Debt securities are valued at the mean between the bid and asked prices provided by an independent pricing service that are based on transactions in debt obligations, quotations from bond dealers, market transactions in comparable securities and various relationships between securities. Publicly traded foreign government debt securities are typically traded internationally in the over-the-counter market, and are valued at the mean between the bid and asked prices as of the close of business of that market. When prices are not readily available, or are determined not to reflect fair value, such as when the value of a security has been significantly affected by events after the close of the exchange or market on which the security is principally traded, but before the Fund calculates its net asset value, the Fund may value these investments at fair value as determined in accordance with the procedures approved by the Fund so Board of Directors. Short-term obligations with maturities of 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value.
- (b) Repurchase Agreements. When entering into repurchase agreements, it is the Fund□s policy that its custodian or a third party custodian takes possession of the underlying collateral securities, the market value of which at least equals the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest. To the extent that any repurchase transaction exceeds one business day, the value of the collateral is marked-to-market to ensure the adequacy of the collateral. If the seller defaults, and the market value of the collateral declines or if bankruptcy proceedings are commenced with respect to the seller of the security, realization of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited.
- (c) Lending of Portfolio Securities. The Fund has an agreement with its custodian whereby the custodian may lend securities owned by the Fund to brokers, dealers and other financial organizations. In exchange for lending securities under the terms of the agreement with its custodian, the Fund receives a lender see. Fees earned by the Fund on securities lending are recorded as securities lending income. Loans of securities by the Fund are collateralized by cash, U.S. government securities or high quality money market instruments that are maintained at all times in an amount at least equal to the current market value of the loaned securities, plus a margin which varies depending on the type of securities loaned. The custodian establishes and maintains the collateral in a segregated account. The Fund has the right under the lending agreement to recover the securities from the borrower on demand.

The Fund maintains the risk of any loss on the securities on loan as well as the potential loss on investments purchased with cash collateral received from securities lending.

(d) Loan Participations. The Fund may invest in loans arranged through private negotiation between one or more financial institutions. The Fund sinvestment in any such loan may be in the form of a participation in or an assignment of the loan. In connection with purchasing participations, the Fund generally will have no right to enforce compliance by the borrower with the terms of the loan agreement relating to the loan, nor any rights of set-off against the borrower and the Fund may not benefit directly from any collateral supporting the loan in which it has purchased the participation.

The Fund will assume the credit risk of both the borrower and the lender that is selling the participation and any other persons interpositioned between the Fund and the borrower. In the event of the insolvency of the lender selling the participation, the Fund may be treated as a general creditor of the lender and may not benefit from any set-off between the lender and the borrower.

- (e) Credit, Exchange Rate and Market Risk. The Fund invests in high yield and emerging market instruments that are subject to certain credit and market risks. The yields of high yield and emerging market debt obligations reflect, among other things, perceived credit risk. The Fund investment in securities rated below investment grade typically involve risks not associated with higher rated securities including, among others, greater risk related to timely and ultimate payment of interest and principal, greater market price volatility and less liquid secondary market trading. The consequences of political, social, economic or diplomatic changes may have disruptive effects on the market prices of investments held by the Fund. The Fund investment in non-dollar denominated securities may also result in foreign currency losses caused by devaluations and exchange rate fluctuations.
- (f) Cash Flow Information. The Fund invests in securities and distributes dividends from net investment income and net realized gains, which are paid in cash and may be reinvested at the discretion of shareholders. These activities are reported in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets and additional information on cash receipts and cash payments are presented in the Statement of Cash Flows.
- (g) Security Transactions and Investment Income. Security transactions are accounted for on a trade date basis. Interest income, adjusted for amortization of premium and accretion of discount, is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Foreign dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date or as soon as practical after the Fund determines the existence of a dividend declaration after exercising reasonable due diligence. The cost of investments sold is determined by use of the specific identification method.
- (h) Foreign Currency Translation. Investment securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts based upon prevailing exchange rates on the date of valuation. Purchases and sales of investment securities and income and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts based upon prevailing exchange rates on the respective dates of such transactions.

The Fund does not isolate that portion of the results of operations resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates on investments from the fluctuations arising from changes in market prices of securities held. Such fluctuations are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments.

Net realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from sales of foreign currencies, including gains and losses on forward foreign currency contracts, currency gains or losses realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions and the difference between the amounts of dividends, interest and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Fund books and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid. Net unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses arise from changes in the fair values of assets and liabilities, other than investments in securities, at the date of valuation, resulting from changes in exchange rates.

Foreign security and currency transactions may involve certain considerations and risks not typically associated with those of U.S. dollar denominated transactions as a result of, among other factors, the possibility of lower levels of governmental supervision and regulation of foreign securities markets and the possibility of political or economic instability.

- (i) Distributions to Shareholders. Distributions from net investment income for the Fund, if any, are declared and paid on a monthly basis. Distributions of net realized gains, if any, are declared at least annually. Distributions are recorded on the ex-dividend date and are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP.
- (j) Federal and Other Taxes. It is the Fund\[ \]s policy to comply with the federal income and excise tax requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to regulated investment companies. Accordingly, the Fund intends to distribute substantially all of its taxable income and net realized gains on investments, if any, to shareholders each year. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required in the Fund\[ \]s financial statements. Under the applicable foreign tax laws, a withholding tax may be imposed on interest, dividends and capital gains at various rates.
