PART I

Item 1. Description of Business

Business Development

Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, hereinafter referred to as the Company , Team Sports , We or Us), is a holding company with one wholly owned subsidiary, Maxx Motorsports, Inc. (Maxx). Maxx, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Team Racing Auto Circuit, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (TRAC), plans to develop, own, operate and sanction an automotive racing league designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans.

Team Sports Entertainment, Inc., a Delaware corporation, was originally incorporated on July 25, 1985 as Horizon Capital Corp. It was known as Reconversion Technologies, Inc. (Reconversion) until May 1, 2000, at which time the name was changed to Logisoft Corp. On May 15, 2001, the Company changed its name from Logisoft Corp. to Team Sports Entertainment, Inc.

Keystone Laboratories, Inc. (Keystone), a Delaware corporation organized on July 20, 1987 was acquired by Reconversion on November 20, 1997. Keystone is a forensic urine drug screening and confirmatory testing laboratory.

On March 10, 2000, Reconversion acquired 100% of Logisoft Computer Products Corp. (LCP), a New York corporation, and 100% of eStorefronts.net Corp. (eStore), an affiliate of LCP, in exchange for 12,000,000 shares of Reconversion Common Stock. LCP and eStore created global and localized Internet solutions for both traditional and pure e-business companies.

On March 9, 2000, as a requirement of the purchase on March 10, 2000, Reconversion completed the sale of its wholly owned subsidiary, Keystone, for a $720,000 non-interest bearing note payable in twelve monthly payments of $60,000. Joel Holt, President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of both Reconversion and Keystone, at the time, was the purchaser. Reconversion also completed the sale of 5,500,000 shares of its Common Stock on March 9, 2000 for $5,500,000 cash. The shares sold included 2,750,000 shares from the exercise of warrants and 2,750,000 newly issued shares.

On May 15, 2001, the Company acquired all of the common stock of Maxx Motorsports, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary, TRAC, in a tax-free stock exchange for 7,750,000 shares of the Company's common stock. In addition, as a part of this agreement, the Company issued 3,300,000 shares of its common stock in exchange for the cancellation of $825,000 of Maxx's liabilities. The liabilities consisted of $450,000 for cash advances and loans made to Maxx and $375,000 for consulting fees incurred. In addition, the Company completed the sale of its wholly owned subsidiaries, LCP and eStore, to a group of its shareholders in exchange for 12,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock, which were cancelled.

Business of the Company

TRAC plans to develop, own, operate, and sanction an automotive racing league (the League) designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans. TRAC is expected to consist initially of multi-car teams, strategically positioned in major North American television markets located near major motorsport venues. Each team will represent the city or state where it is located. The initial TRAC racing season, planned to start in the second quarter of 2004, is expected to consist of a regular season race schedule, an all-star race, and a Championship Race. TRAC will incorporate the use of aerodynamically similar cars, fuel-injection engines and other innovative competition standards intended to increase parity among the teams without diminishing the entertainment value.

TRAC intends initially to enter into operating agreements (Operating Agreements) with at least six third-party operators (the Local Operators) to be identified by TRAC with respect to the local operations of a TRAC racing team, but reserves the right to operate one or two teams itself. TRAC hopes to generate revenues from:

fees Local Operators will pay to obtain the right to operate their team in its market, national television, radio and other media agreements (including rights fees and/or revenue sharing from sales of advertising time), sales of national corporate sponsorships for the League and for League events (such as the Championship Race), sales of sponsorships of the teams, championship race ticket sales,

sale of race cars,

license fees from sales of officially licensed merchandise, and fees from additional operators to obtain the right to operate additional teams that may be organized beyond the original six teams (Expansion Fees).

In addition to the rights fee payable to TRAC, TRAC expects to require each Local Operator to bear all local expenses of operating the team, including the costs of all personnel (other than drivers) necessary to operate the team. Drivers will be employees of TRAC and assigned by TRAC to the teams. TRAC expects to enter into a lease for each racing venue. TRAC expects to require the Local Operator to be responsible for performing all local operations of the team, including presenting its home races, marketing the team and selling tickets for the races, maintenance and repair of the cars, and payments under the leases for its racing venue. The rights to all local and national revenues will be owned by TRAC, but the Local Operators will be entitled to retain all or a significant portion of certain local revenues (e.g., local ticket sales and local sponsorships) and to share in certain national revenues (e.g., television and radio licensing fees, national sponsorship and merchandise licensing revenue) and in the Expansion Fees paid to TRAC.

Through standardization of racing cars, TRAC hopes to create a racing environment in which each car is capable of winning and the fans will be focused on drivers, race-day strategies and crew performance, rather than technological advantages. Our races will be shortened from the four to five hour window of current stock car races to two hours which is more consistent with traditional team sports. Our business plan contemplates that cars will be based on silhouettes of popular American muscle cars.

TRAC's league format will focus on city/regional affinities and provide a business and sports model not currently present in motorsports. We expect that our marketing and positioning efforts, our competitive standards, our visually appealing cars, and our business and sports model should appeal to a portion of the broader audience of sports fans.

TRAC has identified 26 potential markets. We expect to have 6 markets with teams for the initial race season in 2004. We will select these markets based on factors including: strength of prospective operators, size of television market, type of venue, level of anticipated civic support and national geographic balance. We hope to make Local Operator and market announcements beginning in the third quarter of 2003 and continuing until the fourth quarter of 2003.

Edgar Filing: TEAM SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10KSB

TRAC has entered into a definitive agreement with ESPN, Inc. and ESPN Productions, Inc. (together "ESPN"), dated as of April 7, 2003 (the "ESPN Agreement") to televise League races beginning with the 2004 season. The ESPN Agreement provides for the live broadcasting of at least 13 two-hour League events with TRAC hiring ESPN Productions, Inc. to produce these television events. TRAC, subject to ESPN approvals, has the right to sell national television advertising (16 units per hour per event), billboard and signage advertising and sponsorships.

In October 2001, the Company entered into an agreement with Riley & Scott Race Car Engineers ("Riley & Scott"), one of motorsports' most respected design and manufacturing companies, to develop the race cars to be used by TRAC (the "Riley & Scott Agreement"). Riley & Scott, the company that has produced championship designs in virtually every major form of motorsports, has designed and will manufacture approximately 100 cars at their manufacturing facility in Indianapolis, Indiana. The cars will be high-performance, muscle cars designed to race competitively on a variety of oval tracks. The cars were designed with high safety standards. The agreement between TRAC and Riley & Scott required payments aggregating approximately $1,500,000 during Phase I, which began in October 2001 and included design, tooling, prototype construction and aero tooling. Phase I was completed April 18, 2002. Phase II of the agreement commenced after completion of Phase I. Phase II is currently based upon production of 100 racing cars, at a cost of approximately $110,000 each, plus the cost of engines. TRAC has the right, by notice to Riley & Scott, to reduce the number of cars to be produced during Phase II, but at an increased price per car. The agreement also provides for Riley & Scott to be the sole provider of most major repair services. Phase II is expected to be funded by fees expected to be received under Operating Agreements expected to be entered into with Local Operators. Our agreement with Riley & Scott was amended effective August 2002 to modify our payment obligations and suspend Riley & Scott's delivery of race cars until further notice from us. See Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

In April 2003, TRAC engaged Raycom Sports (Raycom) to become the exclusive sales provider of all TRAC sponsorship opportunities including, media packages, car and team sponsor packages, and TRAC event and league sponsor packages (the Raycom Agreement). Raycom also will search out other sponsorship opportunities including, but not limited to, title sponsor of the series, tire sponsor, oil and gas sponsor, secondary sponsors for cars, and secondary sponsors for commercial spots.

In June 2002, TRAC engaged Moag & Company to be the exclusive broker of all team sales for a one-year term (the Moag Agreement). TRAC will attempt, through Moag & Company, to sell six teams for its inaugural race season of 2004. The Company intends to renew or otherwise extend the term of the Moag & Company engagement in June 2003; however, no assurance can be given that such a renewal or extension will be obtained.

TRAC has agreed in principle to terms with 13 racing venues in various markets throughout the United States that TRAC views as suitable for hosting TRAC racing events. The suitability of these tracks is based on the fact that they all are 0.5 mile to 2.0 miles in length and have the ability to seat 50,000 spectators. The completion of the contract terms, including times and dates are contingent upon the sale of TRAC teams in each specific market.

The terms of each of the ESPN Agreement, Riley & Scott Agreement, Raycom Agreement and Moag Agreement are described in more detail in Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

There can be no assurance that TRAC will be successful in entering into Operating Agreements with 6 Local Operators, in negotiating sponsorship arrangements, in leasing appropriate racing venues on satisfactory terms or in launching the League in 2004.

Competition

Our planned racing events will compete with other racing and sporting events for television viewership, attendance and sponsorship funding. Our racing events will compete with racing events sanctioned by other racing bodies, including:

Our $0.0001 par value per share common stock (Common Stock) is traded in the over-the-counter market and is quoted on the NASD Over The Counter Bulletin Board (OTCBB) under the symbol TSPT.OB . Prior to May 18, 2001, the Company was quoted on the OTCBB under the symbol LGST and prior to May 1, 2000, was quoted on the OTCBB under the symbol RTTK.

The following tables set forth the quarterly high and low daily bids for our Common Stock as reported by the OTCBB for the two years ended December 31, 2002. The bids reflect inter-dealer prices without adjustments for retail mark-ups, mark-downs or commissions and may not represent actual transactions.

Table of Contents

The OTCBB is a quotation service sponsored by the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) that displays real-time quotes and volume information in over-the-counter (OTC) equity securities. The OTCBB does not impose listing standards or requirements, does not provide automatic trade executions and does not maintain relationships with quoted issuers. A company traded on the OTCBB may face loss of market makers and lack of readily available bid and ask prices for its stock and may experience a greater spread between the bids and ask price of its stock and a general loss of liquidity with its stock. In addition, certain investors have policies against purchasing or holding OTC securities. Both trading volume and the market value of our securities have been, and will continue to be, materially affected by the trading on the OTCBB.

Holders

At March 20, 2003 there were 566 holders of record of the Company's Common Stock, an undetermined number of which represent more than one individual participant in securities positions with the Company.

Dividends

The Company has never paid cash dividends on its Common Stock, and intends to utilize current and future resources to implement its operating plan and then to expand its operations. Therefore, it is not anticipated that cash dividends will be paid on the Company's Common Stock in the foreseeable future.

Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

On September 1, 2002, the Company issued its senior secured convertible promissory notes (the Convertible Notes) to accredited and sophisticated investors in a private placement exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in order to fund the Company's operations through April 2003. The Convertible Notes are in the aggregate principal amount of $2,270,000 and bear interest at 8% per annum payable on December 1, March 1, June 1 and September 1. The Convertible Notes are scheduled to mature on August 31, 2003, although the Company is attempting to extend this maturity date to March 1, 2004. See Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation Going Concern Factors Liquidity. These notes are convertible at the holders' option into the Company's Common Stock, subject to certain adjustments, at the rate of one share of Common Stock for each $0.20 of outstanding principal, representing 11,350,000 shares if all Convertible Notes were so converted. The Convertible Notes are secured by a lien on all of the Company's assets. On December 6, 2002 the Company issued 908,000 unregistered shares of its Common Stock in order to pay a loan origination fee of $227,000 to the Convertible Note holders. The origination fee was converted at $.25 per share of Common Stock. Interest payments under the Convertible Notes are current as of March 1, 2003.

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

On May 15, 2001, the Company completed the acquisition of Maxx and TRAC. TRAC plans to develop, own, operate, and sanction the League designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans. TRAC will initially consist of multi-car teams, strategically positioned in major North American television markets located near major motorsport venues. Each team will represent the city or state where it is located. The initial TRAC racing season, planned to start in the second quarter of 2004, will consist of a regular season race schedule, an all-star race and a Championship Race. TRAC will incorporate the use of aerodynamically similar cars, fuel-injection engines and other innovative competition standards to increase parity among the teams without diminishing the entertainment value.

TRAC intends to initially enter into Operating Agreements with at least six Local Operators to be identified by TRAC with respect to the local operations of a TRAC racing team but reserves the right to operate one or more teams itself. Each Local Operator will pay a fee to TRAC to obtain the right to operate the team in its market. TRAC also hopes to generate revenues from national television, radio and other media agreements (including rights fees and/or revenue sharing from sales of advertising time), sales of national corporate sponsorships for the League and for League events (such as the Championship Race), sales of sponsorships of the teams and ticket sales for the Championship Race and license fees from sales of officially licensed merchandise. Finally, TRAC hopes to receive fees from additional operators to obtain the right to operate additional teams that may be organized beyond the original six teams (Expansion Fees). In addition to the rights fee payable to TRAC, TRAC expects to require each Local Operator to bear all local expenses of operating the team, including the costs of all personnel (other than drivers) necessary to operate the team. Drivers will be employees of TRAC and assigned to the teams. TRAC expects to enter into a lease for each racing venue. TRAC expects to require the Local Operator to be responsible for performing all local operations of the team, including presenting its home races, marketing the team and selling tickets for the races, maintenance and repair of the cars, and payments under the leases for its racing venue. The rights to all local and national revenues will be owned by TRAC but the Local Operators will be entitled to retain all or a significant portion of certain local revenues (e.g., local ticket sales, and local sponsorships) and to share in certain national revenues (e.g., television and radio licensing fees, national sponsorship and merchandise licensing revenue) and in the Expansion Fees paid to TRAC.

Through standardization of racing cars, TRAC hopes to create a racing environment in which each car is capable of winning and the fans will be focused on drivers, race-day strategies and crew performance, rather than technological advantages. Our races will be shortened from the 4-5 hour window of current stock car races to a 2-hour window which is more consistent with traditional team sports. Our business plan contemplates that cars will be based on silhouettes of popular American muscle cars.

TRAC's league format will put focus on city/regional affinities and provide a business and sports model not currently present in motorsports. We expect that our marketing and positioning efforts, our competitive standards, our visually appealing cars, and our business and sports model should appeal to a portion of the broader audience of sports fans.

Our cars are currently being designed and developed by Riley & Scott as described below. We have not yet entered into Operating Agreements with any team owners, although we are meeting with potential owners. Accordingly, there can be no assurances that our expectations with respect to the League or our Company's future financial obligations will be met.

TRAC has narrowed its list to 26 potential markets. We expect to have at least six markets with teams for the initial race season in 2004. We will select these markets based on factors including: strength of prospective operators, size of television market, type of venue, level of anticipated civic support and national geographic balance. We hope to make Local Operator and market announcements beginning in the third quarter of 2003 and continuing until the fourth quarter of 2003.

In April 2003, the Company entered into the ESPN Agreement, pursuant to which ESPN will provide for the live broadcasting of at least 13 two-hour League events and produce these television events. TRAC, subject to ESPN approvals, has the right to sell national television advertising (16 units per hour per event), billboard and signage advertising and sponsorships. The ESPN Agreement requires TRAC to pay expected production fees (Production Fees) of $525,000 per event in 2004 and $550,000 per event in 2005, with 6% annual increases thereafter during successive contract renewal periods, and an initial Production Fee of $375,000 payable in October 2003 for animation, graphics, music and track surveys, with $30,000 each year thereafter for upgrades. TRAC also will pay ESPN consideration for broadcasting all League events on a per event basis (Broadcast Consideration) in the 2004 and 2005 seasons aggregating to $3,460,000 each year, with increases of 5% each year thereafter. For the 2004 season, TRAC is obligated to pay ESPN $10,660,000 in Production Fees and Broadcast Consideration according to the following schedule:

October 15, 2003	$ 375,000
February 1, 2004	3,394,050
April 1, 2004	2,150,950
May 1, 2004	3,160,000

June 1, 2004	1,580,000
Total:	$ 10,660,000

Table of Contents

Payments for the 2004 season to ESPN are to be funded by sponsorship and advertising income and fees expected to be received under Operating Agreements expected to be entered into with Local Operators. The ESPN Agreement covers the 2004 and 2005 League seasons with ESPN having successive options to renew the agreement, first, through the 2007 season, second, through the 2009 season and finally, through the 2015 season. Before the expiration of the ESPN Agreement, TRAC is required to negotiate exclusively with ESPN for sixty days for broadcast rights, to make an offer to ESPN if negotiations do not result in a new ESPN agreement and to make a reoffer to ESPN if a third party offers to broadcast League events, which reoffer shall be on the same terms as those of the third party's offer. TRAC may terminate the ESPN Agreement either upon ESPN making material changes to its broadcast schedule or in the first year of the final renewal period upon payment of a $30 million termination fee to ESPN.

In October 2001, the Company entered into the Riley & Scott Agreement pursuant to which Riley & Scott has designed and will manufacture approximately 100 cars at their manufacturing facility in Indianapolis, Indiana. The cars will be high-performance, muscle cars designed to race competitively on a variety of oval tracks. The cars were designed with high safety standards. The Riley & Scott Agreement required payments aggregating approximately $1,500,000 during Phase I, which was 23 weeks and included design, tooling, prototype construction and aero tooling. Phase I was completed April 18, 2002. Phase II of the agreement commenced after completion of Phase I. Phase II is currently based upon production of 100 racing cars, at a cost of approximately $110,000 each, plus the cost of engines. TRAC has the right, by notice to Riley & Scott, to reduce the number of cars to be produced during Phase II, but at an increased price per car. The Riley & Scott Agreement also provides for Riley & Scott to be the sole provider of most major repair services. Phase II is expected to be funded by fees expected to be received under Operating Agreements expected to be entered into with Local Operators. Effective August 2002, Riley & Scott and the Company amended their agreement to revise the Company's scheduled payment obligations. Pursuant to this amendment, the Company paid Riley & Scott $500,000 in August 2002 and an aggregate amount of $300,000 in monthly payments for the period from October 1, 2002 through March 1, 2003, and Riley & Scott suspended race car production and agreed to resume production with six weeks advance notice from the Company.

Payments made under the Riley & Scott Agreement have been reclassified as production contract payments under long-term assets and aggregated to $2,395,781 at December 31, 2002. In prior fiscal periods, these amounts were categorized as inventory under current assets. The reclassification was caused by management's belief that the delivery of race cars from Riley & Scott, although planned to occur in the next 12 months, is contingent on numerous factors such as the receipt of sponsorship income and the selection of Local Operators. These contingencies reduce management's ability to determine whether some or all of the contract payments can be realized as a current asset during 2003. Further, production contract payments do not represent physical items of inventory but will become such once race cars are received from Riley & Scott and are held for sale to Local Operators by the Company. The effect of the reclassification reduces the amount of working capital available to the Company to meet current liabilities. See Going Concern Factors Liquidity discussed below.

In April 2003, TRAC entered into the Raycom Agreement pursuant to which Raycom became the exclusive sales provider of all TRAC sponsorship opportunities including, media packages, car and team sponsor packages, and TRAC event and league sponsor packages for a period to expire on July 1, 2005. TRAC is attempting to sell, through Raycom, approximately six category sponsors. The revenue from these sponsors will be distributed between the league and the teams at rates to be determined. Additionally, Raycom will search out other sponsorship opportunities including, but not limited to, title sponsor of the series, tire sponsor, oil and gas sponsor, secondary sponsors for cars, and secondary sponsors for commercial spots. Under TRAC's agreement with Raycom, TRAC will pay Raycom a sales commission equal to 12.5% of the amount that TRAC actually collects from sponsors. TRAC has agreed to pay Raycom monthly a nonrefundable advance against its sales commission in the amount of $14,000. Each sales commission payment from TRAC to Raycom will be reduced by an amount equal to the aggregate amount of such monthly advances not previously netted against sales commissions.

In June 2002, TRAC engaged Moag & Company to be the exclusive broker of all team sales for a one-year term. TRAC will attempt, through Moag & Company, to sell at least six teams for its inaugural race season of 2004. The price per team has not yet been established. However, the Company expects that $2,500,000 of the purchase price will go towards the purchase of Common Stock, $2,500,000 will go towards the purchase of nine complete cars, three complete transporters, logo design, website design and all necessary trademarks and copyrights. The remainder of the purchase price is expected to be paid over a two-year period. Under TRAC's agreement with Moag & Company, TRAC paid an initial fee of $25,000 and will pay to Moag & Company upon each sale of a team a cash fee of $400,000 and warrants to purchase $200,000 of the Company's Common Stock, based on a price per share and with an exercise price per share equal to the greater of $1.00 or the ten-day average closing price for the Common Stock (Moag Warrants). The Moag Warrants are to be for a seven-year term and become exercisable in equal installments over the first four years they are outstanding. The Company intends to renew or otherwise extend the term of the Moag & Company engagement in June 2003; however, no assurance can be given that such a renewal or extension will be obtained.

TRAC has agreed in principle to terms with 13 racing venues in various markets throughout the United States that TRAC views as suitable for hosting TRAC racing events. The suitability of these tracks is based on the fact that they all are 0.5 mile to 2.0 miles in length and have the ability to seat 50,000 spectators. The completion of the contract terms, including times and dates are contingent upon the sale of TRAC teams in each specific market.

There are certain contracts and relationships that the Company views as vital to launching the League in 2004. There can be no assurance that TRAC will be successful in entering into Operating Agreements with at least six Local Operators, in negotiating sponsorship arrangements, in leasing appropriate racing venues on satisfactory terms or in launching the League in 2004. The Company's inability to complete any of the foregoing items would materially and adversely impact the Company's ability to continue its operations or otherwise execute its plan of operations. See also Going Concern Factors Liquidity.

Going Concern Factors Liquidity

During 2002, the Company utilized cash at the beginning of the year of $4,675,744, stock subscriptions received of $350,000, warrants exercised for $37,500, and $2,270,000 from the issuance of the Convertible Notes to fund its operations. At December 31, 2002, the Company had approximately $650,305 in cash on hand. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of Convertible Notes in September 2002 funded the Company's operations through April 2003 and additional sources of liquidity will be needed to fund the Company's operations through the remainder of 2003. Management currently projects that the Company will need approximately $147,000 per month to maintain its current operations, without taking into account debt repayments, any expected payments to ESPN or Riley & Scott for race car deliveries.

The Company has not established sources of revenues sufficient to fund the development of its business, projected operating expenses and commitments for 2003. The Company's continuation as a going concern is dependent on its ability to raise additional capital to fund projected operating losses in 2003 and working capital needs until race operations commence in 2004. Consequently, the independent auditor's report on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2002 contains a qualification with respect to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Convertible Notes are scheduled to mature on August 31, 2003, although the Company is attempting to extend this maturity date to March 1, 2004. In addition, management is in the process of raising up to $1.0 million in additional funds from existing Convertible Note holders by increasing the outstanding principal amount under their notes, although no assurances can be given that such additional funding will be forthcoming or sufficient to fund the Company's operational needs. The Company expects to receive these additional funds in three equal installments on April 15, April 30 and May 31, 2003. Even with the August 2002 amendment to the Company's payment obligations under the Riley & Scott Agreement and the expected additional debt financing from the Convertible Note holders, the Company's ability to continue as a going concern beyond September 2003 is in doubt because of a lack of operating revenues and uncertainty regarding the sale of operating rights.

During 2003, the Company's only expected source of operating revenue (not including interest income) will be fees payable by Local Operators who execute Operating Agreements with TRAC. Sponsorship and advertising income is not expected in 2003 because the first racing season will begin in 2004. In the year ended December 31, 2001, the Company had $136,600 in interest income and interest income of $16,543 during the year ended December 31, 2002. In 2003, the Company expects to receive a limited amount of interest income, but such amounts are expected to be insufficient to fund the Company's operations.

The Company expects each Local Operator to pay an as yet undetermined amount for the rights under its Operating Agreement. However, the Company expects that $2,500,000 of the purchase price will go towards the purchase of Common Stock and $2,500,000 will go towards the purchase of nine complete cars, three complete transporters, logo design, website design and all necessary trademarks and copyrights. The remainder of the purchase price is expected to be paid over a two-year period. A significant portion of the purchase price payments also may be subject to tax. The sale of six teams is believed by management to mark the completion of the development phase of the Company and provide sufficient sources of revenue and capital, among other sources, to fund ongoing operations and contractual commitments. Management cannot assure you, however, that the Company will be successful in selling such teams in the planned time frame.

If the Company is unable to raise additional capital from current Convertible Note holders, sell teams to Local Operators, or otherwise arrange the extension of current obligations, it will seek to raise additional capital through the sale of its debt or equity securities. However, the Company believes that it will be extremely difficult to identify other sources of capital, and no assurances can be given that the Company will be able to raise such capital at all or on satisfactory terms.

Critical Accounting Policies

In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 (SFAS No. 142), Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. SFAS No. 142 addresses financial accounting and reporting for acquired goodwill and other intangible assets and supersedes APB Opinion No. 17, Intangible Assets. It addresses how intangible assets that are acquired individually or with a group of other assets (but not those acquired in a business combination) should be accounted for in financial statements upon their acquisition. SFAS No. 142 also addresses how goodwill and other intangible assets should be accounted for after they have been initially recognized in the financial statements. The provisions of SFAS No. 142 are required to be applied starting with fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. SFAS No. 142 is required to be applied at the beginning of an entity's fiscal year and to be applied to all goodwill and other intangible assets recognized in its financial statements at that date. Impairment losses for goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets that arise due to the initial application of SFAS No. 142 (resulting from a transitional impairment test) are to be reported as resulting from a change in accounting principle. The Company adopted SFAS No. 142 effective January 1, 2002 and does not expect to record an impairment loss as a result of the initial application of SFAS No. 142. See Note 1 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements for a more detailed discussion of critical accounting policies.

Item 7. Financial Statements

The Consolidated Financial Statements of Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. and Subsidiary, together with the report thereon of Elliott Davis LLC (Elliott Davis) dated March 5, 2003, for the year ended December 31, 2002 is set forth on pages F-1 through F-21 hereof.

Item 8. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

The Company, effective December 11, 2002, engaged Elliott Davis as its independent auditors to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002. Elliott Davis commenced its engagement with the review of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal fourth quarter and the audit of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. The decision to dismiss Guest & Company, P.C. (Guest), the Company's prior independent auditors, and to retain Elliott Davis as the Company's independent auditors was made by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

Table of Contents

The Company's auditors for the 2001 fiscal year was Guest. Neither Guest's report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 nor Elliott Davis's report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it otherwise modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the report of Elliott Davis contains a going concern qualification. See Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation - Going Concern Factors - Liquidity.

During the year ended December 31, 2001 and through the date of the Current Report on Form 8-K dated December 11, 2002, there were no disagreements between the Company and Guest on any matter of accounting principle or practice, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Guest's satisfaction, would have caused Guest to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for such years; and there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv)(B) of Regulation S-B.

The Company provided Guest with a copy of the foregoing disclosures. Attached as Exhibit 16.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K/A dated December 11, 2002 is a copy of Guest's letter, dated December 31, 2002, stating that Guest agrees with such statements.

During the two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and through March 5, 2003, the Company has not consulted with Elliott Davis regarding either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, and neither written nor oral advice was provided to the Company that Elliott Davis concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing, or financial reporting issues; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement, as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B and the related instructions to Item 304 of Regulation S-B.

Item 12. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

In July 2000, the Company entered into a bridge loan with a former Chief Executive Officer of the Company, David Wilkerson, to purchase the officer's principal residence. The residence and 533,000 shares of Company stock collateralized the amount loaned of $226,895. During the term of the loan, monthly payments of $1,647, including interest at 8.25%, were due with a balloon payment due on January 17, 2001. The loan was repaid in full in April 2001.

(ii) an option to purchase 1,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock that would vest upon the occurrence of the Bonus Event (the Bonus Option).

In the event that Mr. Miller had exercised his right to terminate his employment or he was terminated without cause, he would be entitled to act as an independent consultant to the Company and to receive $50,000 per month as payment for those services until April 30, 2003.

The Miller Employment Agreement prohibits Mr. Miller, during the term of his employment and for the two-year period following termination of his employment, without the prior consent of the Board of Directors, from (i) soliciting customers or clients of the Company for the purpose of providing services to them, or (ii) soliciting employees or independent contractors of the Company for employment or services. Mr. Miller also is prohibited from competing with the Company, without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors, during the term of his employment and for the two-year period following his termination.

The Company terminated Mr. Miller's employment effective July 25, 2002 (the Termination Date). In accordance with the terms of the Miller Employment Agreement, Mr. Miller already had received advance payment of his Base Salary through April 30, 2003. Because Mr. Miller was not employed for a period of 12 months as the Chief Executive Officer and because the Bonus Event is not expected to occur, management believes that the Bonus Option and the Cash Bonus will not vest. Moreover, the Company contends that Mr. Miller's employment was terminated for cause and that, as a result, the CEO Option and Director Option are terminated and the Base Salary was not earned after the Termination Date.

Mr. Miller has disputed the Company's contention that he was terminated for cause. The Company has attempted without success to negotiate a resolution of this matter with Mr. Miller.

Atlanta Team Operating Rights. With the knowledge and approval of the Board of Directors, the Company entered into a nonbinding Agreement in Principle with Mr. Miller (AIP No. 1) pursuant to which it agreed to negotiate with Mr. Miller to finalize definitive agreements for Mr. Miller to obtain operating rights to the Atlanta TRAC team (the Atlanta Team) for a purchase price of $10,000,000. AIP No. 1 was dated June 19, 2001 and was accepted and agreed to by Mr. Miller on August 8, 2001. Subsequently, the Company began negotiations with Mr. Miller to employ him as the Chief Executive Officer. With the knowledge and approval of the Board of Directors, the Company reduced the Atlanta Team purchase price in connection with Mr. Miller's overall employment package with the Company. The Company believes that a definitive agreement will not be executed by April 30, 2003, and therefore, AIP No. 1 will expire in accordance with its terms.

A second Agreement in Principle (AIP No. 2) on the same subject, dated August 25, 2001 was executed apparently on or about December 11, 2001, by Mr. Miller and Jon Pritchett, purportedly acting on behalf of the Company as its Chief Operating Officer. The Company contends that AIP No. 2 differs from AIP No. 1 in material respects that were not approved by the Board of Directors, that its execution was not authorized by the Company, and that it is void. Mr. Miller maintains that AIP No. 2 is an enforceable obligation of the Company. The Company has attempted without success to negotiate a resolution of this matter with Mr. Miller.

Payments to Robert Wussler

In May 2001, the Company and Robert J. Wussler, the Chairman of the Board, entered into an agreement pursuant to which Mr. Wussler agreed to assist the Company in obtaining a national television contract and to join the Board of Directors. The Company agreed to pay Mr. Wussler certain fees and to grant certain options to purchase shares of Common Stock. The Company and Mr. Wussler have agreed to terminate this agreement in exchange for a grant on April 12, 2003 of options to purchase 2,250,000 shares (immediately exercisable) at an exercise price of $1.00 per share. Mr. Wussler received $70,833.39 under the agreement prior to its termination. Mr. Wussler is not entitled to any further payments under this Agreement. Mr. Wussler will continue to serve as the Chairman of the Board.

Team Sports Entertainment, Inc.

Huntersville, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. and Subsidiary (a development stage company) as of December 31, 2002 and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall consolidated financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. and Subsidiary (a development stage company) as of December 31, 2002 and the results of their operations, changes in stockholders' equity and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. and Subsidiary (a development stage company) will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. and Subsidiary has not yet commenced operations and its total liabilities and commitments exceed current assets available to fund operations. This raises substantial doubt about Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 1. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

TEAM SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

(A Development Stage Company)

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of consolidation and basis of presentation

The 2002 consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. (Team Sports) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Maxx Motorsports, Inc. (Maxx) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Team Racing Auto Circuit, LLC (TRAC), collectively referred to as the Companies. All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Maxx, through its wholly owned subsidiary, TRAC, plans to develop, own, operate and sanction an automotive racing league (the League) designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans. Accordingly, the operations of the Companies are presented as those of a development stage enterprise, from its inception (May 15, 2001), as prescribed by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 7, Accounting and Reporting by Development State Enterprises. The Company follows the AICPA SOP 98-5, Reporting on the Costs of Start-Up Activities in accounting for its start-up activities. The operations from business activities classified as discontinued operations in the accompanying consolidated financial statements cover periods prior to May 15, 2001.

Organization and nature of business

Team Sports, a Delaware corporation, is a holding company with one wholly owned subsidiary, Maxx, a South Carolina corporation. Maxx, through its wholly owned subsidiary, TRAC, plans to develop, own, operate, and sanction the League designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans.

On May 15, 2001, Team Sports changed its name from Logisoft Corporation to Team Sports Entertainment, Inc. On May 15, 2001, Team Sports acquired all of the common stock of Maxx in a tax-free stock exchange for 7,750,000 shares of Team Sports common stock. In addition, as a part of this agreement, Team Sports issued 3,300,000 shares of its common stock in exchange for $450,000 of Maxx's liabilities and consulting fees to third parties in the amount of $375,000 that were instrumental to the transaction. Also on this date, Team Sports completed the sale of its wholly owned subsidiaries, LCP and eStorefronts, who created global and localized Internet solutions for both traditional and pure e-business companies, to a group of its shareholders in exchange for 12,000,000 shares of Team Sports common stock, which were canceled. The operations from these business segments have been classified as discontinued operations in the accompanying consolidated financial statements and cover periods prior to May 15, 2001.

Going concern

The Companies have not established sources of revenues sufficient to fund the development of business, projected operating expenses and commitments for the fiscal year 2003. The Companies do not have finalized agreements with a television network in order to obtain television time, or franchise owners to purchase the teams and run local operations. The Companies' continuation as a going concern is dependent upon their ability to raise additional capital to fund projected operating losses in 2003 and working capital needs until race operations commence as planned in 2004. The Companies are currently pursuing additional capital and the extension of current obligations and commitments that management believes would be sufficient to fund operations until the projected sale of teams could be finalized in the fall of 2003 to support operations of the league which are planned to commence in 2004. The sale of teams would mark the completion of the development phase, and at that time management anticipates sufficient sources of capital from these sales and other sources to fund ongoing operations. There can be no assurances, however, that the Companies will be successful in obtaining sufficient additional capital, extension of current obligations, or buyers for the proposed teams in the proposed time. The accompanying consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might result should the Companies be unable to continue as a going concern.

Table of Contents

NOTE 1 ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, Continued

Cash and cash equivalents

The Companies consider all cash on hand, cash in banks and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents.

Restricted cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are considered restricted if they are unable to be withdrawn without notice or penalty.

Marketable equity securities

Investments are classified into three categories as follows:

Trading securities reported at fair value with unrealized gains and losses included in earnings.

Securities available-for-sale reported at fair value with unrealized gains and losses reported in other comprehensive income.

At December 31, 2002, the Companies had no securities available-for-sale.

Held-to-maturity securities reported at amortized cost. At December 31, 2002, the Companies had no held-to-maturity securities.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for significant renewals and improvements are capitalized. Repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred. Depreciation is computed using a straight-line method for financial purposes and an accelerated method for tax purposes based upon the useful lives of the assets. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 were $25,687 and $7,608, respectively.

Race car designs (prototypes) and manufacturing equipment are stated at cost and primarily represent payments made under Phase I of the racing car design and construction as relevant. No depreciation expense has been recorded on race car designs (prototypes) as operations had not commenced as of December 31, 2002 and no race cars were in-process.

In 2002, the Companies paid-off all capital lease as agreements totaling $62,771.

Team Sports reviews quarterly its property and equipment in accordance with SFAS No. 121 Accounting for the Impairment of Long Lived Assets to determine if its carrying costs will be recovered from future operating cash flows. In cases where Team Sports does not expect to recover its carrying costs, Team Sports recognizes an impairment loss. As the operations to which the property and equipment relate have not yet commenced, no impairment loss has been recognized.

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, which supersedes prior pronouncements associated with impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. The statement establishes methodologies for assessing impairment of long-lived assets, including assets to be disposed of by sale or by other means. The adoption of this standard had no impact on the financial position of the Companies.

Production contract payments

Production contract payments consist of payments made to Riley & Scott Race Car Engineering which are to be used to purchase parts, engines, and for the production of race cars. All production contract payments consist of payments made under Phase II (see Note 5) of the Racing Car Design and Construction Agreement.

SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets has been applied to the Maxx transaction. Accordingly, goodwill is not amortized but reviewed for impairment at least annually or more frequently if impairment indicators arise. Using the estimated undiscounted cash flows approach, the Company has not recorded an impairment to goodwill as of December 31, 2002, as the operations to which the goodwill relates have not yet commenced. The amortization of goodwill prior to the adoption of SFAS No. 142 was suspended as of December 31, 2001. Goodwill of $2,810,627, net of accumulated amortization of $122,205 through December 31, 2001, has been amortized on a straight-line basis over 15 years. The net loss reported for 2001 adjusted to exclude goodwill amortization expense which is no longer required under SFAS No. 142 would have been $3,679,544 with an associated basic and diluted total net loss per share of $0.07.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from product sales is recognized when the related goods are shipped and all significant obligations have been satisfied. Revenue from services is recognized when the services are performed.

Stock option plans

Team Sports applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25 (APB No. 25), Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations, in accounting for its stock option plan. As such, compensation expense would be recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price.

SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation (SFAS No. 123), requires the Company to disclose pro forma information regarding option grants made to its employees. SFAS No. 123 specifies certain valuation techniques that produce estimated compensation charges that are included in the pro forma results below. These amounts have not been reflected in the Company's consolidated statement of operations, because APB No. 25 specifies that no compensation charge arises when the price of the employees' stock options equal the market value of the underlying stock at the grant date, as in the case of options granted to Team Sports employees, board of directors, advisory committee members, and consultants.

SFAS No. 123 pro forma numbers are as follows for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001:

	2002	2001	From Inception
Net loss, as reported	$ 3,563,238	$ 3,801,749	$ 5,984,217

Under SFAS No. 123, the fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. At December 31, 2001, the year in which all options were issued, the following weighted average assumptions were used: risk-free interest rate based on date of issuance and term between 3.83% and 4.93%, no expected dividends, a volatility factor of 138.13% and an expected life of the options of 3 to 10 years. Using these assumptions, the total value of stock options and rights to receive stock granted in 2001 was $6,111,858.

The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options that have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because Team Sports employee stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, in management's opinion the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of Team Sports options.

Deferred income taxes

Deferred income taxes are provided for temporary differences between financial and tax reporting in accordance with the liability method under the provisions of SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. A valuation allowance is recorded to reduce the carrying amounts of deferred tax assets unless management believes it is more likely than not that such assets will be realized.

Earnings (loss) per common share

Earnings (loss) per common share are calculated under the provisions of SFAS No. 128, Earnings per Share, which established new standards for computing and presenting earnings per share. SFAS No. 128 requires Team Sports to report both basic earnings per share, which is based on the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding, and diluted earnings per share, which is based on the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding plus all potential dilutive shares outstanding.

Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recent accounting pronouncements

The following is a summary of recent authoritative pronouncements that affect accounting, reporting, and disclosure of financial information by the Company.

Edgar Filing: TEAM SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10KSB

In June 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141, Business Combinations, and SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. SFAS No. 141 addresses financial accounting and reporting for business combinations and supersedes APB Opinion No. 16, Business Combinations, and SFAS No. 38, Accounting for Preacquisition Contingencies of Purchased Enterprises. All business combinations in the scope of SFAS No. 141 apply to all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001 or for which the date of acquisition is July 1, 2001, or later. The adoption of this standard has no impact on the results of operations or financial position of the Company.

SFAS No. 142 addresses financial accounting and reporting for acquired goodwill and other intangible assets and supersedes APF Opinion No. 17, Intangible Assets. It addresses how intangible assets that are acquired individually or with a group of other assets (but not those acquired in a business combination) should be accounted for in financial statements upon their acquisition. This Statement also addressed how goodwill and other intangible assets should be accounted for after they have been initially recognized in the financial statements. The provisions of this Statement are required to be applied starting with fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001. Early application is permitted for entities with fiscal years beginning after March 15, 2001, provided that the first interim financial statements have not previously been issued. This Statement is required to be applied at the beginning of an entity's fiscal year and to be applied to all goodwill and other intangible assets recognized in its financial statements at that date. Impairment losses for goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets that arise due to the initial application of this Statement (resulting from a transitional impairment test) are to be reported as resulting from a change in accounting principle. The Companies adopted this Statement on January 1, 2002 and did not record an impairment loss as a result of the initial application of this Statement.

In April 2002, The FASB issued SFAS No. 145, Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections. This statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishments of Debt and SFAS No. 64, Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements. This statement also rescinds SFAS No. 44, Accounting for Intangible Assets of Motor Carriers and amends SFAS No. 13, Accounting for Leases. This new statement requires gains and losses from extinguishment of debt to be classified as an extraordinary item only if they meet the criteria of APB Opinion No. 30, Reporting the Results of Operations-Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions, which will distinguish transactions that are part of an entity's recurring operations from those that are unusual or infrequent or that meet the criteria for classification as an extraordinary item. The adoption of the provisions of SFAS No. 145 had no impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In June 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities, which addresses financial accounting and reporting for costs associated with exit or disposal activities and nullifies Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). This Statement applies to costs associated with specific exit activities and requires a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity to be recognized and measured initially at its fair value in the period in which the liability is incurred. A liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity is incurred when the definition of a liability is met. The provisions of this statement are effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002. The provisions of this statement were adopted by the Company on January 1, 2003 with no anticipated material impact on financial position or results of operations.

In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148 Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123. This Statement amends FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this statement amends the disclosure requirements of Statement No. 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. The Company adopted this standard effective December 31, 2002 and has included the required disclosures in the notes to the consolidated financial statements. The Company has not elected the fair value treatment of stock-based compensation and the adoption of this standard has no impact on its financial position.

Other accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies that do not require adoption until a future date are not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements upon adoption.

Fair value determination

Financial instruments consist of cash, marketable securities, promissory notes receivable, accounts payable, accrued expenses and short-term borrowings. The carrying amount of these financial instruments approximates fair value due to their short-term nature or the current rates at which the company could borrow funds with similar remaining maturities.

Advertising costs

Team Sports expenses advertising costs as incurred. Team Sports recorded advertising costs of $175,225 and $284,857, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001.

Compensated absences

Team Sports accounts for compensated absences in accordance with SFAS No. 43, Accounting for Compensated Absences.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with current year presentation.

NOTE 2 ACQUISITION OF MAXX MOTORSPORTS, INC.

On May 15, 2001 Team Sports acquired all of the common stock of Maxx in a tax-free stock exchange for 7,750,000 shares of Team Sports common stock. In addition, as a part of this agreement, Team Sports issued 3,300,000 shares of its common stock in exchange for $450,000 of Maxx's liabilities and consulting fees to third parties of $375,000 that were instrumental to the transaction. Team Sports valued the 11,050,000 shares, which are restricted securities and may be sold only in compliance with Rule 144 of the Securities & Exchange Act, issued at $.25 per share near this same date.

TRAC will initially consist of multi-car teams, strategically positioned in major North American television markets located near major motorsport venues. Each team will represent the city or state where it is located. The initial TRAC racing season, planned to start in 2004, will consist of a regular season race schedule, an all-star race and a Championship Race. TRAC will incorporate the use of aerodynamically similar cars, fuel-injection engines and other innovative competition standards to increase parity among the teams without diminishing the entertainment value.

TRAC intends to initially enter into operating agreements with up to six third parties (the Local Operators) to be identified by TRAC with respect to the local operations of a TRAC racing team, but reserves the right to operate one or more teams itself. Each Local Operator will pay a fee to TRAC to obtain the right to operate the team in its market. TRAC expects to generate revenues from national television, radio and other media agreements (including rights fees and/or revenue sharing from sales of advertising time), sales of national corporate sponsorships for the League and for League events (such as the Championship Race), sales of sponsorships of the teams, ticket sales, parking and concession revenue for the races, license fees from sales of officially licensed merchandise and expansion fees. In addition to the rights fee payable to TRAC, TRAC expects to require each Local Operator to bear all local expenses of operating team, including the costs of all personnel (other than drivers) necessary to operate the team; drivers will be employees of TRAC and assigned to the teams. The rights to all local and national revenues will be owned by TRAC but the Local Operators will be entitled to retain all or a significant portion of certain local revenues (e.g. local ticket sales, parking and concession revenue and local sponsorships) and to share in certain national revenues (e.g. television and radio licensing fees, national sponsorship and merchandise licensing revenue) and in any expansion fees paid to TRAC.

Table of ContentsNOTE 5 PRODUCTION CONTRACT PAYMENTS AND COMMITMENTS

On October 22, 2001, TRAC entered into a Racing Car Design and Construction Agreement with Riley & Scott Race Car Engineering. The agreement required payments aggregating $1,515,000 during Phase I, which was 23 weeks, and included design, tooling, prototype construction and aero tooling. Phase II of the agreement commenced after completion of Phase I and was planned to be completed in 58 weeks. Phase II was based upon production of 100 racing cars, at a cost of approximately $110,000 each, plus the cost of engines. The agreement also provides for the contractor to be the sole provider of most repair service. Phase I of the agreement was completed during March 2002 and Phase II of the agreement commenced in April 2002. In August 2002, TRAC and Riley & Scott agreed upon a revised schedule based on the delay of the initial race season to 2004. This revised schedule required a $500,000 payment prior to August 31, 2002 and subsequent monthly payments of $50,000 through April 2003. Phase II of the agreement will not continue until a new production schedule has been agreed to by both Team Sports and Riley & Scott. This is scheduled to be determined after the final $50,000 payment is made in April 2003. At December 31, 2002, the Company had incurred and paid total costs of $2,395,781, which amount is included in production contract payments.

Upon termination of the agreement, Riley & Scott shall have all rights and title to all Racing Cars, components, vendored components and Spares (Post Termination Inventory) then in its possession. Riley & Scott may sell all or part of the post termination inventory in any arms length transaction in a bona fide transaction to the buyer offering the highest price. In the event that the amount realized in any such sale is less than the total amount due as of the termination date, Riley & Scott shall be entitled to money damages equal to the difference between the net proceeds of the sale and the full amount due as of the termination date plus penalties to include attorney s fees, interest on delinquent amounts, storage fees, insurance, broker s fees, and advertising expenses. In the event that the sales price of the post termination inventory exceeds Riley & Scott s cost and penalties, Team Sports would receive 75% of the excess.

NOTE 6 INCOME TAXES

Team Sports has not recorded a deferred tax benefit or expense for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, as all net deferred benefits have a full valuation allowance.

Actual income tax expense applicable to earnings before discontinued operations and income taxes is reconciled with the normally expected federal income tax as follows:

NOTE 7 CONVERTIBLE PROMISSORY NOTES

From August 16, 2002 through October 15, 2002, Team Sports issued $2,270,000 in convertible promissory notes to certain stockholders of the Company. The notes bear interest at 8% per annum, require quarterly interest payments, and mature August 31, 2003. Each note is convertible into Team Sports common stock at the rate of $.20 per share. A 10% loan origination fee was paid through the issuance of 908,000 common shares to the stockholders at $.25 per share. The loan origination fee of $227,000 is being amortized over the term of the convertible promissory notes and is included on the balance sheet as another asset net of accumulated amortization of $78,404. The notes are collateralized by all the assets of the Company. The common stock issued for the origination fees and the common stock issuable upon conversion of the convertible notes payable is restricted and may only be sold in compliance with Rule 144 of the Securities and Exchange Act.

NOTE 8 LEASES

TRAC leases property under a noncancelable operating lease. The operating lease consists of office space that will expire over the next four years.

Table of ContentsNOTE 9 COMMON STOCK OPTIONS AND WARRANTS

In April 2000, Team Sports adopted its 2000 Stock Option Plan (the Plan) and the company's Board of Directors approved the same. Team Sports shareholders approved the Plan in April 2001. The Plan was established to advance the interests of Team Sports and its stockholders by attracting, retaining and motivating key personnel. The Board of Directors, or a committee that it appoints, is authorized to grant options to purchase the common stock of Team Sports, not to exceed an aggregate of 3,000,000 shares. The Board of Directors, or a committee that it appoints, is also authorized to establish the exercise price and vesting terms of individual grants under the Plan. In 2001, the Board of Directors approved a proposal to increase the number of authorized shares available under the Plan not to exceed an aggregate of 7,500,000 shares.

Options granted under the Plan may be either incentive stock options intended to qualify as such under the Internal Revenue Code, or non-qualified stock options. Team Sports expects that most options granted pursuant to the Plan will be subject to vesting over a three or four-year period, such as 25% increments on each annual grant date anniversary, during which the optionee must continue to be an employee of Team Sports. The Board or the committee, if applicable, may choose to impose different vesting requirements or none at all. Options outstanding under the Plan have a maximum term of up to ten (10) years.

The Plan also provides that all options that are not vested will become vested upon a change in control, unless the options are either assumed or substituted with equivalent options. In addition, unvested options become vested, after a change in control, if an optionee is subject to involuntary termination other than for cause during that optionee's remaining vesting period after a change in control. The Plan further provides that all options will be forfeited 90 days after employment terminates. All options granted under the Plan in 2000 were to employees and consultants of LCP and eStorefronts, which were sold on May 15, 2001. Options to acquire 11,737 shares of Team Sports common stock were exercised during 2001 and the remaining 1,806,463 were forfeited on August 13, 2001. Options to acquire 116,250 shares had previously been forfeited.

In May 2001, Team Sports granted common stock options under the Plan to three employees as part of their employment contracts for a total of 1,000,000 shares of its common stock at an exercise price of $1.00 per share, which was above the market price at the time. Accordingly, no additional compensation expense was recorded, pursuant to APB No. 25. The options vest as follows:

	Shares
September 30, 2001	83,333
December 31, 2001	333,332
June 30, 2002	333,334
June 30, 2003	250,001
	$ 1,000,000

The options can vest sooner if certain performance criteria are met.
