Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On November 7, 2016, Brooks Automation, Inc. (“Brooks” or the “Company”) entered into a non-competition agreement with David C. Gray, Senior Vice President, Chief Strategy and New Business Officer (“the executive”). Under the terms of the non-competition agreement, the executive agrees that during the term of the agreement and for a period of 12 months following termination of the executive’s employment with the Company for any reason, the executive shall not (i) engage or invest in any business that develops, manufactures, markets or sells any products or services that are competitive with the products or services developed, manufactured, marketed or sold by the Company; or (ii) employ, hire or solicit any employee of the Company or solicit any person who was a customer of the Company within two years prior to such executive’s termination of employment for business that is competitive with the business of the Company.

On November 7, 2016, the Company also entered into a change in control agreement with Dr. Gray. The agreement provides for certain benefits if the executive is terminated without “cause” or terminates his employment for “good reason” within the two-year period following or the six month period prior to a change in control of the Company. These benefits include: (i) severance in an the amount equal to two times the sum of the executive’s then current base salary plus annual target bonus, payable in bi-weekly installments over the two-year period following termination provided the executive has timely executed a release; and (ii) a lump sum payment in an amount equal to the approximate cost of the Company’s portion of the premiums necessary to continue coverage under the executive’s medical, dental, life insurance and disability insurance plans for a two-year period following termination. If the benefits to be received by an executive under the change in control agreement would result in the imposition of an excise tax under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, the executive will receive either the full amount of benefits or have the benefits reduced to an amount that would not trigger the excise tax, whichever results in the great net amount to the executive after taxes.

On November 7, 2016, the Company also entered into a letter agreement with Dr. Gray, modifying the executive’s original offer letter to provide six months of base salary continuance, plus up to an additional six months of base salary continuance provided that such Executive has not secured comparable full time employment if the executive is terminated without “cause” or terminates his employment for “good reason”.

The foregoing description of the non-competition agreement, the change in control agreement, and the letter agreement does not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the form of non-competition agreement, the form of change in control agreement, each in the form filed as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed on June 9, 2015 and the letter agreement attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1, and incorporated herein by reference.
