Ball Corporation
Current Report on Form 8-K
Dated December 15, 2011

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 14, 2011, R. David Hoover, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Ball Corporation (the “Company”), adopted a stock trading plan in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Under Rule 10b5-1, directors, officers and other employees who are not in possession of material non-public information may adopt pre-arranged plans or contracts for the sale of Company securities under specified conditions and at specified times. Using 10b5-1 plans, individuals can gradually diversify their investment portfolios, spread stock trades out over an extended period of time to reduce market impact and avoid concerns about transactions occurring at a time when they might possess material non-public information.

Mr. Hoover adopted a 10b5-1 plan as part of his individual long-term asset diversification, tax and financial planning strategy. Specifically, his 10b5-1 plan provides for the sale of up to a total of 237,000 shares to be acquired through the exercise of his stock options scheduled to expire in April 2012 if not exercised prior to the options’ expiration dates. Any shares that are sold under Mr. Hoover’s plan will be sold on the open market at prevailing market prices and subject to minimum price thresholds specified in his plan.

Transactions under Mr. Hoover’s plan, if any, will be reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission in accordance with applicable securities laws, rules and regulations.

This current report contains forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties, and there can be no assurance that any shares will be sold under Mr. Hoover’s plan. Investors should refer to the Company’s annual and other periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for a discussion of the risks and uncertainties associated with ownership of the Company’s securities. Ball Corporation does not undertake to report Rule 10b5-1 plans that may be adopted by any officers or directors in the future, or to report any modifications or termination of any publicly announced trading plan, except to the extent required by law.
