Deutsche Bank AG Announces Pricing of Cash-Settled Equity Linked Notes Linked to the Common Stock of Voya Financial, Inc. due May 1, 2023

Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch (the “Issuer”) today announces the pricing of its public offering of $300 million of Cash-Settled Equity Linked Notes Linked to the Common Stock of Voya Financial, Inc. due May 1, 2023 (the “Notes”).

The Notes will bear interest at a rate of 1.00% per year, payable semi-annually in arrears on May 1 and November 1 of each year, beginning on May 1, 2018, and will mature on May 1, 2023. The Notes cannot be exchanged or redeemed early and will be cash-settled at maturity. The amount of cash payable on the Notes at maturity will be based on the volume-weighted average price of the common stock of Voya Financial, Inc. (“Voya”).

The threshold price (the “Threshold Price”) of the Notes will be set at a 30% premium to the initial price (the “Initial Price”) of the Notes, which will equal the arithmetic average of the volume-weighted average prices of one share of Voya common stock over the five consecutive trading days beginning on, and including, March 9, 2018. The Threshold Price and Initial Price are expected to be announced after the end of the five trading day period.

The Notes will be issued with a minimum purchase of $100,000 and in minimum denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof at an issue price of 100% of the face amount of the Notes. Settlement

About Deutsche Bank

Deutsche Bank provides commercial and investment banking, retail banking, transaction banking and asset and wealth management products and services to corporations, governments, institutional investors, small and medium-sized businesses, and private individuals. Deutsche Bank is Germany's leading bank, with a strong position in Europe and a significant presence in the Americas and Asia Pacific.

This release contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts; they include statements about our beliefs and expectations and the assumptions underlying them. These statements are based on plans, estimates and projections as they are currently available to the management of Deutsche Bank. Forward-looking statements therefore speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could therefore cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include the conditions in the financial markets in Germany, in Europe, in the United States and elsewhere from which we derive a substantial portion of our revenues and in which we hold a substantial portion of our assets, the development of asset prices and market volatility, potential defaults of borrowers or trading counterparties, the implementation of our strategic initiatives, the reliability of our risk management policies, procedures and methods, and other risks referenced in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Such factors are described in detail in our SEC Form 20-F of 20 March 2017 under the heading "Risk Factors". Copies of this document are readily available upon request or can be downloaded from www.db.com/ir.
