The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) announced on May 17, 2004 the final approval of its settlement agreement with Lucent Technologies Inc. These actions conclude the SEC's investigation into the revenue recognition issues that Lucent brought to the SEC's attention in late 2000. The SEC filed a complaint and final judgment in Federal District Court in Newark, New Jersey, on May 17, 2004 that confirms the terms of an agreement in principle that was first announced on February 27, 2003, and revised on March 17, 2004. Under the terms of the final judgment, the company will pay a $25 million civil penalty, but will not be required to make any financial restatements. Without admitting or denying any wrongdoing, Lucent consented to the settlement enjoining the company from future violations of specific provisions of the federal securities laws.
