Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

In the first quarter of 2006, The E. W. Scripps Company's (Scripps) board of directors authorized management to pursue the sale of the Shop At Home business segment. Due to the absence of a suitable buyer, Scripps announced on May 16, 2006 its intention to cease operations of the Shop At Home television network and related online retail operations on or about June 22, 2006. The television network and related online retail operations will remain in business through June 30, 2006 to allow time for the delivery of retail products purchased during the final days of sales.

Scripps is exploring programming alternatives for the five Shop At Home-affiliated television stations. The company, which intends to sell the stations, will keep them on the air after the Shop At Home broadcasts are discontinued. Scripps also expects to hold for sale the Shop At Home television production facility and related television production and broadcast equipment.

Scripps expects to incur a second quarter charge of up to $90 million, $60 million after-tax, reflecting operating losses, cash expenditures associated with ceasing operations and a partial write-down in the value of certain assets. The estimated range of amounts comprising the expected charge includes:

Operating losses	$ 20.0 - 25.0 million
Impairment of inventory, property and other assets	20.0 - 25.0
Distribution agreement and lease termination	20.0 - 25.0
Employee termination	10.0 - 15.0

Cash expenditures related to the termination of non-cancellable network distribution commitments and certain leases and employee termination benefits for Shop At Home's 660 full-time employees are expected to be disbursed through the third quarter of 2006.

Item 2.06 Material Impairments

Information regarding estimated impairment charges resulting from ceasing Shop At Home operations is provided in Item 2.05.
