Dear Fellow Stockholders:

I am pleased to invite you to join us for a Special Meeting of the stockholders of Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc. to be held on July 27, 2009 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at The Umstead Hotel and Spa, 100 Woodland Pond, Cary, North Carolina.

At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to approve the issuance and sale by Cornerstone of shares of our common stock to Chiesi Farmaceutici SpA (Chiesi) pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of May 6, 2009, by and between Chiesi and Cornerstone. The number of shares to be issued and sold to Chiesi in the proposed transaction is to be determined pursuant to the provisions of the Stock Purchase Agreement, in which we have agreed to issue and sell 11,902,741 shares, subject to adjustment. Our best estimate of the aggregate adjusted number of shares we will be required to issue to Chiesi is approximately 12,170,312. If the transaction is approved by our stockholders and consummated, in exchange for the shares to be issued by Cornerstone to Chiesi, Chiesi will (i) grant Cornerstone an exclusive 10-year license to distribute Chiesi's Curosurf[®] product in the U.S., (ii) grant Cornerstone a right of first offer, for a period of two years following the closing of the transaction, on all products and technology that Chiesi wishes to market in the U.S. and (iii) pay Cornerstone $15,465,075 in cash. Curosurf[®] is a leading product approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for the treatment of Respiratory Distress Syndrome in premature infants.

In connection with the transaction contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, Cornerstone and certain of its stockholders have entered into a series of related agreements with Chiesi pursuant to which, among other things, two entities controlled by Craig A. Collard, Cornerstone's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Steven M. Lutz, Cornerstone's Executive Vice President, Manufacturing and Trade, have agreed to sell an aggregate of 1.6 million shares of Cornerstone common stock to Chiesi for $5.50 per share in cash. After giving effect to the proposed sales of common stock by Cornerstone and by the entities controlled by Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz, Chiesi will own shares representing 51%, on a fully diluted basis, of Cornerstone's outstanding shares of common stock. Other agreements entered into in connection with the proposed issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement provide, among other things, for specified governance arrangements for the two years following the closing of the transaction and impose certain restrictions on Chiesi, Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them during that period, including restrictions on their respective purchases and sales of shares of Cornerstone common stock. Members of our executive management team have entered into new employment agreements that will take effect upon consummation of the proposed transaction that provide, among other things, for restrictions on sales of shares of Cornerstone common stock by these executives for two years. Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them also have granted Chiesi an option to purchase their remaining Cornerstone shares that is expected to become exercisable two years after the closing of the transaction. The Stock Purchase Agreement and the related agreements are described in the attached proxy statement.

The strategic alliance with Chiesi that is contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement and related contracts was approved by Cornerstone's board of directors after careful review and consideration. Our board of directors and our management team believe that the proposed transaction will bring substantial benefits to Cornerstone. In particular, we believe:

the addition to our product portfolio of Curosurf[®], an FDA-approved product with a leading market position and a proprietary manufacturing process, will further diversify our revenue base;

the addition of Curosurf[®] to our product portfolio is likely to bring us a predictable and growing source of income from a proven product;

the cash investment of $15,465,075 to be made by Chiesi will strengthen our balance sheet and help fund the development of our product line and the continued expansion of our sales force;

Table of Contents

the addition of Curosurf® to our product portfolio should help to broaden our franchise in the market for respiratory therapeutic products, thereby providing us with marketing leverage for our other existing and future product offerings;

the potential opportunity to acquire the U.S. rights to additional Chiesi products further increases the value of our franchise;

the transaction will allow us to establish a long-term relationship with a leading European pharmaceutical company; and the restrictions on our management team's ability to sell their shares of our common stock during the two-year period following the closing of the transaction should help to align the interests of our management team with those of our stockholders.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF CORNERSTONE'S ISSUANCE AND SALE OF SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK TO CHIESI PURSUANT TO THE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

We urge you to read the accompanying proxy statement, which provides important information about the matter to be voted on. Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting, please take the time to complete and sign the enclosed proxy card and return it in the appropriate envelope provided or submit a proxy over the Internet or by telephone. Principal Terms of the Transaction (Page 15)

On May 6, 2009, we entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Chiesi, in which we agreed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement, to issue and sell to Chiesi a number of shares of our common stock that is to be determined as described below. In this proxy statement, we refer to the proposed issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement as the Company Stock Sale. If the Company Stock Sale is approved by our stockholders and consummated, in exchange for the shares to be issued by Cornerstone to Chiesi, Chiesi will (i) grant

Cornerstone an exclusive 10-year license, subject to extension or early termination under specified circumstances, to distribute Chiesi's Curosurf® product in the U.S., (ii) grant Cornerstone a right of first offer on all products and technology that Chiesi wishes to market in the U.S. for a period of two years following the closing of the Company Stock Sale; and (iii) pay Cornerstone $15,465,075 in cash.

In the Stock Purchase Agreement we agreed to issue to Chiesi 11,902,741 shares of our common stock at the closing of the Company Stock Sale. The parties established the number of shares to be issued by Cornerstone based in part on Chiesi's objective of acquiring a number of shares that will represent 51% of Cornerstone's outstanding shares of common stock on a fully diluted basis. Accordingly, we have agreed that if Chiesi's ownership level immediately following the closing of these transactions (including the purchase described below from entities controlled by two of our executive officers) is below the targeted level of 51% on a fully diluted basis, Chiesi will have the right (but only during the 90-day period following the closing) to require us to issue to Chiesi the number of shares required to achieve Chiesi's targeted level of ownership, for no additional consideration. Based on the number of shares of restricted stock and stock options that were granted and forfeited after the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement, we estimate we will be required under the Stock Purchase Agreement to issue an aggregate of 12,170,312 shares of our common stock to Chiesi.

In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, an entity controlled by our President and Chief Executive Officer, Craig A. Collard, and an entity controlled by our Executive Vice President, Manufacturing and Trade, Steven M. Lutz, have agreed that, simultaneously with the closing of the Company Stock Sale, they will sell an aggregate of 1.6 million shares of Cornerstone common stock to Chiesi for $5.50 per share in cash. After giving effect to the proposed sales of shares of Cornerstone common stock by Cornerstone and by the entities controlled by Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz, Chiesi will own shares representing 51%, on a fully diluted basis, of Cornerstone's outstanding shares of common stock.

Cornerstone, Chiesi, Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them that own Cornerstone common stock have also entered into a series of other agreements in connection with the Company Stock Sale that provide for, among other things, specified governance arrangements for the two years following the closing of the Company Stock Sale and impose certain restrictions on Chiesi, Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them during that period, including restrictions on their respective purchases and sales of shares of Cornerstone common stock. Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them also have granted Chiesi an option to purchase their remaining Cornerstone shares that is expected to become exercisable two years after the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

Consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement is subject to various conditions, including the receipt of the approval of Cornerstone's stockholders.

Our Reasons for the Transaction (Page 18)

Our board of directors carefully considered the terms of the transaction and the other strategic alternatives available to our Company in deciding to enter into the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related agreements and to recommend that our stockholders vote FOR the approval of the issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi. Among others, the significant factors considered by our board of directors included the following:

the addition to our product portfolio of Curosurf®, an FDA-approved product with a leading market position and a proprietary manufacturing process, will further diversify our revenue base;

the cash investment of $15,465,075 to be made by Chiesi will strengthen our balance sheet and help fund the development of our product line and the continued expansion of our sales force;

the addition of Curosurf[®] to our product portfolio should help to broaden our franchise in the market for respiratory therapeutic products, thereby providing us with marketing leverage for our other existing and future product offerings;

the potential opportunity to acquire the U.S. rights to additional Chiesi products further increases the value of our franchise;

the transaction will allow us to establish a long-term relationship with a leading European pharmaceutical company;

the restrictions on our management team's ability to sell their shares of our common stock during the two-year period following the closing of the Company Stock Sale should help to align the interests of our management team with those of our stockholders; and the oral opinion of Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin Financial Advisors, Inc. (Houlihan Lokey) with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by Cornerstone pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, as of May 6, 2009 (which was subsequently confirmed in writing and was based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion).

The Stock Purchase Agreement and Related Agreements (Page 38)

The Stock Purchase Agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A. We encourage you to read the Stock Purchase Agreement because it is the legal document that governs the proposed issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi that you will be asked to approve at the Special Meeting.

In connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, Cornerstone and Chiesi have entered into a license and distribution agreement (the License and Distribution Agreement), pursuant to which Chiesi has granted us exclusive rights to distribute Curosurf® in the U.S. for a 10-year term. The License and Distribution Agreement is Exhibit H to the Stock Purchase Agreement. The License and Distribution Agreement will take effect on a date to be selected by Chiesi, in the third or fourth quarter of 2009. It will take effect whether or not the closing under the Stock Purchase Agreement has occurred; however, if the closing under the Stock Purchase Agreement has not occurred by October 31, 2009 or a mutually agreed-upon later date, Chiesi will have the right to terminate the License and Distribution Agreement on prior written notice. Please see the section entitled The License and Distribution Agreement, beginning on page 48 of this proxy statement, for a more detailed summary of the License and Distribution Agreement.

In connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, an entity controlled by Craig A. Collard, Cornerstone's President and Chief Executive Officer, and an entity controlled by Steven M. Lutz, Cornerstone's Executive Vice President, Manufacturing and Trade, have agreed to sell an aggregate of 1.6 million shares of Cornerstone common stock to Chiesi for $5.50 per share. The closing of that sale of shares of our common stock is conditioned upon (and is required to be completed at the same time as) the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

Cornerstone, Chiesi, Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and certain entities controlled by them that also hold shares of Cornerstone common stock have entered into various agreements which will become effective following the closing of the Company Stock Sale. Those agreements implement specified governance arrangements for the two years following the closing of the Company Stock Sale and impose certain restrictions on Chiesi, Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them during that period, including restrictions on their respective purchases and sales of shares of Cornerstone common stock. Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them that also hold shares of our common stock, Cornerstone Biopharma Holdings, Ltd., Carolina Pharmaceuticals Ltd. and Lutz Family Limited Partnership (collectively, the Founder Stockholders) also have granted Chiesi an option to purchase their remaining Cornerstone shares that is expected to become exercisable two years after the closing of the Company Stock Sale for $12.00 per share in cash. The agreements which contain these provisions are known as the Governance Agreement, which is attached to the Stock Purchase Agreement as Exhibit C, and, as amended, the Stockholders Agreement, which is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement. Please see the sections entitled The Governance Agreement, beginning on page 53 of this proxy statement, and The Stockholders Agreement, beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement, for more detailed summaries of the Governance Agreement and the Stockholders Agreement.

In connection with the governance arrangements contemplated by the Governance Agreement, we have agreed to amend and restate our bylaws to implement certain provisions of the Governance Agreement. The amended and restated bylaws are attached to the Stock Purchase Agreement as Exhibit G. Please see the section entitled The Amended Bylaws, beginning on page 64 of this proxy statement, for additional details. We also have agreed that, following the closing of the Company Stock Sale, we will call and hold another stockholders meeting for the purpose of seeking our stockholders' approval of a series of amendments to our certificate of incorporation (the Charter Amendments). We agreed with Chiesi that we would seek stockholder approval of the Charter Amendments after the closing of the Company Stock Sale because in that way Chiesi would be able to vote its newly acquired shares in favor of the Charter Amendments, making it easier to obtain the requisite stockholder approval. Please see the section entitled The Transaction Certain Corporate Governance Arrangements and Protective Provisions, beginning on page 28 of this proxy statement, and The Special Meeting Purpose of the Special Meeting, beginning on page 11 of this proxy statement, for additional details.

We have entered into two registration rights agreements, one with Chiesi and one with the Founder Stockholders, pursuant to which we have agreed to file registration statements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), covering the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by each of Chiesi and the Founder Stockholders, and to take various other actions to facilitate future public sales of their shares. The registration rights agreements will become effective following the closing of the Company Stock Sale. The registration rights agreements are attached to the Stock Purchase Agreement as Exhibit D and Exhibit E, respectively. Please see the section entitled The Registration Rights Agreements, beginning on page 58 of this proxy statement, for a more detailed summary of the registration rights agreements.

In connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, Cornerstone, Chiesi, the Founder Stockholders and other stockholders that are members of our management team have entered into a voting agreement pursuant to which the Founder Stockholders and the other management stockholders have granted irrevocable proxies to Chiesi and have agreed to vote the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by them in favor of the approval of the Company Stock Sale and in favor of the approval and adoption of the Charter Amendments. We have also entered into a voting agreement with Chiesi in which Chiesi has granted us an irrevocable proxy and has agreed to vote all of the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by it in favor of the approval and adoption of the Charter Amendments. Please see the section entitled The Voting Agreements, beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement, for a more detailed summary of the voting agreements.

We have entered into employment agreements with Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz, David Price, Joshua Franklin, Brian Dickson, M.D. and Alan Roberts (all of whom are officers of Cornerstone) that will become effective following the closing of the Company Stock Sale. Among other things, these agreements impose restrictions on sales of Cornerstone common stock by these officers for two years. Please see the section entitled The Employment Agreements, beginning on page 65 of this proxy statement, for a more detailed summary of the employment agreements.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors (Page 20)

Our board of directors has adopted a resolution declaring that the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related agreements are fair to and in the best interests of Cornerstone and our stockholders. Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor (Page 20)

On May 6, 2009, Houlihan Lokey rendered an oral opinion to our board of directors (which was subsequently confirmed in writing), as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by our Company pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement (the Chiesi Investment Consideration) as of May 6, 2009 (based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion).

Houlihan Lokey's opinion was directed to our board of directors and only addressed the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Chiesi Investment Consideration and did not address any other aspect or implication of the transaction. The summary of Houlihan Lokey's opinion in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of its written opinion, which is included as Annex F to this proxy statement and sets forth the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion. We encourage our stockholders to carefully read the full text of Houlihan Lokey's written opinion. However, neither Houlihan Lokey's opinion nor the summary of Houlihan Lokey's opinion and the related analyses set forth in this proxy statement were intended to be, and did not, constitute advice or a recommendation to our board of directors or any stockholder as to how to act or vote with respect to the transaction or related matters. See The Transaction Opinion of Our Financial Advisor, beginning on page 20 of this proxy statement, for additional details.

Date, Time and Place (Page 11). The Special Meeting of our stockholders will be held on July 27, 2009 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at The Umstead Hotel and Spa, 100 Woodland Pond, Cary, North Carolina.

Purpose of the Special Meeting (Page 11). At the Special Meeting, our stockholders will be asked to vote to approve the issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement and, if necessary, the adjournment of the Special Meeting to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the proposed issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement. Our stockholders must approve the Company Stock Sale for the Company Stock Sale to occur.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Quorum (Page 11). Our stockholders are entitled to vote at the Special Meeting if they are shown by our records to have owned shares of our common stock as of the close of business on June 25, 2009, the record date. On the record date, there were 12,836,498 shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Stockholders will have one vote at the Special Meeting for each share of our common stock that they owned as of the close of business on the record date.

The holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock must be present at a meeting to hold the meeting and conduct business. This is called a quorum. For purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, we count as present any shares that are represented by proxy or that are represented in person at the meeting. We will also count abstentions and broker non-votes for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

Vote Required (Page 11). The approval of the Company Stock Sale by our stockholders requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes cast on the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale, so long as a quorum is present. The approval of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, even if less than a quorum.

Voting at the Special Meeting; Proxies (Page 12). We are asking our stockholders to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and promptly return it in the accompanying pre-addressed envelope or to furnish a proxy over the Internet or by telephone by following the instructions contained in this proxy statement. All properly executed proxies that we receive before the vote at the Special Meeting, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies. If no direction is indicated on a properly executed proxy returned to us, then the underlying shares will be voted FOR the approval of the Company Stock Sale and FOR the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

If your shares are held in street name by a bank, brokerage firm or nominee, you should follow the instructions of your bank, brokerage firm or nominee regarding the voting of your shares. If your shares are held by your broker in street name and you do not instruct your broker as to how to vote your shares, your broker is not permitted to vote your shares for you.

You may revoke a previously given proxy at any time prior to its exercise at the Special Meeting by (i) attending the meeting and voting in person, (ii) delivering written notice of revocation of your proxy to our

Secretary at any time before voting is closed or (iii) timely submitting another signed proxy card bearing a later date or new voting instructions by telephone or over the Internet as described in the section entitled The Special Meeting Voting at the Special Meeting; Proxies, beginning on page 12.

If you hold your shares in street name and you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, the options for revoking your proxy described in the paragraph above do not apply and instead you must follow the directions provided by your broker to change your vote.

Solicitation of Proxies (Page 13). We will bear the cost and expense associated with the solicitation of proxies from our stockholders. In addition to solicitation by mail, our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies from our stockholders by telephone, Internet, facsimile or other electronic means or in person, but these persons will not receive any additional compensation for this solicitation. Brokerage houses, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians will be requested to forward soliciting materials to beneficial owners and will be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy materials to beneficial owners. Morrow & Co., LLC will assist in our solicitation of proxies.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction (Page 34)

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors to vote FOR the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale you should be aware that some of our directors and executive officers have personal interests in the Company Stock Sale that are, or may be, different from, or in addition to, your interests. These interests consist of the following:

On the record date, approximately 45% of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock was held by directors and executive officers of Cornerstone and their affiliates.

An entity controlled by Craig A. Collard, Cornerstone's President and Chief Executive Officer, and an entity controlled by Steven M. Lutz, Cornerstone's Executive Vice President, Manufacturing and Trade, have agreed to sell an aggregate of 1.6 million shares of Cornerstone common stock to Chiesi for $5.50 per share in cash. The closing of the sale of these shares of Cornerstone common stock is conditioned upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

The Founder Stockholders are party to the Stockholders Agreement with Chiesi pursuant to which, among other things, Chiesi has the option to require the Founder Stockholders to sell their remaining shares of Cornerstone common stock that are covered by the Stockholders Agreement for $12.00 per share in cash, exercisable two years after the closing of the Company Stock Sale (or earlier, under specified circumstances).

Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz, Brian Dickson, M.D., Cornerstone's Chief Medical Officer, David Price, Cornerstone's Executive Vice President, Finance, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, and Joshua Franklin, Cornerstone's Vice President, Sales and Marketing, have entered into new employment agreements with Cornerstone which will become effective upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale. Some of these employment agreements provide for the grant of options to purchase shares of our common stock to the relevant executive officer.

All of our executive officers are party to employment or restricted stock agreements which provide that all of their unvested options and restricted stock granted prior to May 28, 2009 will immediately vest upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the Company Stock Sale. For a more complete description, see The Transaction Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction, beginning on page 34.

Voting Commitments (Page 12)

On the record date, our directors, executive officers and their affiliates were entitled to vote shares of our common stock representing approximately 45% of the shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on that date. We expect that all of these shares will be voted in favor of the Company Stock Sale at the Special Meeting.

The Founder Stockholders and other members of our management team that beneficially own shares of Cornerstone common stock have entered into a voting agreement with Chiesi pursuant to which the Founder Stockholders and the management stockholders have, among other things, granted Chiesi irrevocable proxies with respect to, and agreed to vote, all of their shares of Cornerstone common stock, representing approximately 45% of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote as of the record date, in favor of the approval of the Company Stock Sale and in favor of the approval and adoption of the Charter Amendments.

Chiesi has entered into a voting agreement with Cornerstone pursuant to which Chiesi has agreed, among other things, to grant Cornerstone an irrevocable proxy with respect to, and vote, all of the shares of Cornerstone common stock it acquired in the Company Stock Sale, representing 51% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis, in favor of the approval and adoption of the Charter Amendments. The Charter Amendments will be voted on at a future stockholders meeting, and not at the Special Meeting.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Transaction (Page 35)

The proposed issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement between Cornerstone and Chiesi will not result in taxable income or gain for the stockholders that own shares of Cornerstone common stock prior to the transaction. In addition, Cornerstone's entry into the applicable agreements with Chiesi and the Company Stock Sale will not result in taxable income or gain for Cornerstone.

Conditions to Completion of the Transaction (Page 45)

The obligations of the parties to complete the Company Stock Sale are subject to the following conditions:

approval of the Company Stock Sale by Cornerstone's stockholders;

no statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, ruling, judgment, decision or injunction shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court or other governmental authority that prohibits consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement;

the waiting period applicable to the Company Stock Sale under U.S. antitrust law must have expired or been terminated; and the sale of 1.6 million shares of our common stock by entities controlled by Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz being consummated concurrently with the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

The obligations of Cornerstone to complete the closing of the Company Stock Sale are further conditioned on:

the continuing truth and correctness of Chiesi's representations and warranties (subject to the materiality standards set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement);

receipt by Cornerstone of a certificate signed on Chiesi's behalf by Chiesi's President as to the satisfaction of the conditions described in the preceding bullet point;

performance in all material respects of Chiesi's covenants and obligations under the Stock Purchase Agreement; and the actual U.S. net sales of Curosurf[®] for 2008 being within 85% of the reported U.S. net sales of Curosurf[®] for that period as provided by Chiesi.

The obligations of Chiesi to complete the Company Stock Sale are further conditioned on:

the continuing truth and correctness of Cornerstone's representations and warranties (subject to the materiality standards set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement);

receipt by Chiesi of a certificate signed on Cornerstone's behalf by Cornerstone's President as to the satisfaction of the conditions described in the preceding bullet point;

Table of Contents

performance in all material respects of Cornerstone's covenants and obligations under the Stock Purchase Agreement;

there having occurred no Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement) since May 6, 2009;

the effectiveness of new amendments to Cornerstone's bylaws as specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement;

receipt by Cornerstone of the consent of Meiji Seika Kaisha, Ltd. to the Company Stock Sale (this consent is required in order to ensure that Cornerstone will continue, after the completion of the Company Stock Sale, to have the benefits of a product license from that company); and receipt by Chiesi of a certificate of Cornerstone in the form contemplated by Section 897 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, to the effect that Cornerstone is not, and has not been within five years, a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of such Section.

If applicable law permits, either Cornerstone or Chiesi could choose to waive a condition to its obligation to complete the Company Stock Sale even though that condition has not been satisfied.

Competing Transaction Proposals (Page 43)

Subject to certain exceptions, the Stock Purchase Agreement restricts, among other things, our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party with respect to proposals by third parties to acquire a substantial interest in, or engage in other similar transactions with, Cornerstone. Notwithstanding these restrictions, the Stock Purchase Agreement provides that if, at any time before obtaining stockholder approval of the Stock Purchase Agreement, we receive an unsolicited takeover proposal (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement) that our board of directors determines in good faith to be a superior proposal (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement), we may, subject to certain conditions, terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to the superior proposal if our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its legal advisors, that failing to take such action may be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable law. If our board of directors terminates the Stock Purchase Agreement in order for Cornerstone to enter into a definitive agreement with a third party with respect to a superior proposal, as well as in certain other circumstances, we would be obligated to pay Chiesi a termination fee of $2.5 million.

Termination of the Stock Purchase Agreement; Termination Fees; Expenses (Page 46)

The Stock Purchase Agreement contains provisions addressing the circumstances under which we or Chiesi may terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement. In addition, the Stock Purchase Agreement provides that, in certain circumstances, we may be required to pay Chiesi a termination fee of $2.5 million. The Stock Purchase Agreement also provides that termination of the Stock Purchase Agreement will not relieve any party from liability arising out of any knowing or willful breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other undertakings in the Stock Purchase Agreement. Each party will bear its own expenses in connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement except that expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of this proxy statement will be borne equally by Chiesi and Cornerstone.

Regulatory Approvals (Page 35)

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), and the rules and regulations promulgated under that legislation, we and Chiesi cannot complete the Company Stock Sale until we and Chiesi notify and furnish information to the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC), and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the Antitrust Division), and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. We and Chiesi separately filed notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on June 3, 2009 and the waiting period terminated early on June 25, 2009.

A COPY OF THE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT IS INCLUDED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT AS ANNEX A. YOU ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO READ IT CAREFULLY IN ITS ENTIRETY.

Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc.

Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc. is a specialty pharmaceutical company focused on acquiring, developing and commercializing significant products primarily for the respiratory market. Our commercial strategy is to in-license or acquire rights to non-promoted or underperforming, patent-protected, branded pharmaceutical products, or late stage product candidates, and then maximize their potential value and competitive position by promoting the products using our sales and marketing capabilities and applying various life cycle management techniques to extend the period we can sell the product and related derivative products. We currently market our products only in the U.S.

We were incorporated in Delaware on July 14, 2000 as Medicept, Inc. and changed our name to Critical Therapeutics, Inc. (Critical Therapeutics), in March 2001. We completed an initial public offering of our common stock in June 2004, and our common stock is currently traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market. On October 31, 2008, we completed our merger with Cornerstone BioPharma Holdings, Inc. (Cornerstone Biopharma) pursuant to which all the outstanding shares of Cornerstone BioPharma s common stock were converted into and exchanged for shares of Critical Therapeutics common stock and all outstanding options, whether vested or unvested, and all outstanding warrants to purchase Cornerstone BioPharma s common stock were assumed by Critical Therapeutics and became options and warrants to purchase the Critical Therapeutics s common stock. Following the closing of the merger, former Cornerstone BioPharma stockholders owned approximately 70%, and former Critical Therapeutics stockholders owned approximately 30%, of our common stock, after giving effect to shares issuable pursuant to outstanding options and warrants held by Cornerstone BioPharma s stockholders immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, but without giving effect to any shares issuable pursuant to options and warrants held by Critical Therapeutics stockholders immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. In connection with the completion of the merger, on October 31, 2008, we changed our name to Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc.

We currently promote SPECTRACEF, ZYFLO CR and the ALLERX Dose Pack family of products. In addition, we have a co-promotion agreement with DEY for the exclusive co-promotion along with us of ZYFLO CR. Under the DEY agreement, we pay DEY a co-promotion fee equal to the ratio of total prescriptions written by pulmonary specialists to total prescriptions during the applicable period multiplied by a percentage of quarterly net sales of ZYFLO CR and ZYFLO, after third-party royalties. We currently generate revenues from product sales and royalties from the sale of other products that we do not actively promote. Of these, HYOMAX, BALACET 325, APAP 500 and DECONSAL have generated the most net revenues to date for us. Of our marketed products that we do not promote, only our BALACET 325 and APAP 325 products are promoted by a third party. Our product development pipeline includes two SPECTRACEF line extensions, an anticholinergic and antihistamine combination product candidate, and two extended-release antitussive and antihistamine combination product candidates.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

The Special Meeting will be held on July 27, 2009 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at The Umstead Hotel and Spa, 100 Woodland Pond, Cary, North Carolina.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

The Special Meeting has been called pursuant to the requirements of the Stock Purchase Agreement. At the Special Meeting, Cornerstone's stockholders will be asked to vote to approve the Company Stock Sale and, if necessary in order to solicit additional proxies, to adjourn the Special Meeting. We do not expect that any other business will be conducted at the Special Meeting.

If our stockholders approve the Company Stock Sale we intend to hold another special meeting of our stockholders to consider proposals to approve and adopt a series of amendments to our certificate of incorporation to implement certain governance provisions and majority stockholder rights that we have agreed to with Chiesi. Our certificate of incorporation currently requires that amendments to certain portions of our certificate of incorporation, including portions which would be changed by the Charter Amendments, be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the votes which all the stockholders would be entitled to cast in any annual election of directors. We agreed with Chiesi in the Stock Purchase Agreement to hold a separate, later special meeting of our stockholders to consider the proposal to approve and adopt the Charter Amendments because following the Company Stock Sale, Chiesi will own 51% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis and therefore stockholder approval of the Charter Amendments will be more easily obtained than if we presented the proposal to approve the Charter Amendments at the Special Meeting described in this proxy statement. You will receive separate proxy materials for the special meeting of stockholders to consider the approval and adoption of the Charter Amendments, which will describe the proposals and the special meeting in greater detail.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Quorum

Cornerstone has fixed June 25, 2009 as the record date to be used to determine which of Cornerstone's stockholders are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. As of the record date there were 12,836,498 shares of Cornerstone common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by 57 holders of record. Each holder of record of shares of Cornerstone common stock as of the close of business on the record date is entitled to cast one vote at the Special Meeting for each share the holder owns of record as of the close of business on the record date. Shares of Cornerstone common stock are the only securities eligible to be voted at the Special Meeting. Each share of our common stock is entitled to one vote.

A majority of all shares of Cornerstone's common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes (described below) are counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum exists.

If a quorum is not present, or if fewer shares of Cornerstone's common stock are voted in favor of the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale at the Special Meeting than the number of shares necessary to approve the proposal, we may seek to adjourn the Special Meeting to allow additional time for obtaining additional proxies or votes.

Vote Required

The approval of the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes cast on the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale. Any proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting to solicit additional proxies will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Cornerstone common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, even if less than a quorum.

Table of Contents

Brokers and nominees holding shares of record for customers are not entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale or the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies unless they receive specific voting instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares. If a broker or nominee holding shares of record for a customer submits a properly executed proxy, but indicates that it does not have discretionary authority to vote as to a particular matter, those shares, which are referred to as broker non-votes, will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists. A broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale or on the outcome of the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

An abstention occurs when a stockholder affirmatively instructs that a vote be withheld (by checking the `abstain` box on the proxy card) or when a stockholder who has not given a proxy is present at the Special Meeting but does not cast a ballot or submit a proxy card in person. An abstention will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists. An abstention will be treated as a vote cast and therefore will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale and against the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

Voting Commitments

As of the close of business on June 25, 2009, the record date for the Special Meeting, our directors, executive officers and their affiliates held and are entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 5,713,619 shares of Cornerstone common stock representing approximately 45% of the outstanding shares of Cornerstone common stock entitled to vote. The directors and executive officers of Cornerstone have informed us that they intend to vote all of their shares of common stock FOR the approval of the Company Stock Sale.

The Founder Stockholders and other members of our management team that beneficially own shares of Cornerstone common stock, and only with respect to certain provisions identified therein, Cornerstone, have entered into a voting agreement with Chiesi pursuant to which the Founder Stockholders and the management stockholders have, among other things, granted Chiesi irrevocable proxies with respect to, and agreed to vote, all of their shares of Cornerstone common stock, representing approximately 45% of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote as of the record date, in favor of the Company Stock Sale and the approval and adoption of the Charter Amendments.

Voting at the Special Meeting; Proxies

How to Vote. You can vote in person or by proxy. Submitting a proxy will not affect your right to attend the Special Meeting and vote in person.

If your shares are registered directly in your name, you may vote or submit a proxy as follows:

Over the Internet. Go to <http://www.proxyvoting.com/CRTX> and follow the instructions you will find there. You must specify how you want your shares voted or your Internet proxy cannot be completed and you will receive an error message. Your shares will be voted according to your instructions.

By Telephone. Call (866) 540-5760 toll-free from the U.S. or Canada and follow the instructions. You must specify how you want your shares voted and confirm your proxy at the end of the call or your telephone proxy cannot be completed. Your shares will be voted according to your instructions.

In Person at the Meeting. If you attend the Special Meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or you may vote by completing a ballot, which will be available at the meeting.

Table of Contents

If your shares are held in street name for your account by a bank, broker or other nominee, you may vote as follows:

Over the Internet or By Telephone. You will receive instructions from your broker or other nominee if you are permitted to submit a proxy and provide voting instructions over the Internet or by telephone.

By Mail. You will receive instructions from your broker or other nominee explaining how to submit a proxy and provide voting instructions for your shares.

In Person at the Meeting. Contact the broker or other nominee that holds your shares to obtain a broker's proxy card and bring it with you to the meeting. A broker's proxy is not the form of proxy enclosed with this proxy statement. You will not be able to vote shares you hold in street name at the meeting unless you have a proxy from your broker issued in your name giving you the right to vote the shares.

How Proxies will be Voted. All shares of common stock represented by proxies properly executed and received by us before or at the Special Meeting will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on the proxies. If the proxy is properly completed, signed and returned but no instructions are indicated, the shares will be voted:

FOR the approval of the Company Stock Sale; and

FOR the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or advisable, to solicit additional proxies in favor of such approval.

Revoking Your Proxy. If you grant a proxy in respect of your shares and then attend the Special Meeting, your attendance at the Special Meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of the Special Meeting, will not automatically revoke your proxy. You can, however, revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by:

delivering to Cornerstone's Secretary a written notice of revocation before the Special Meeting (or, if the Special Meeting is adjourned or postponed, before the adjourned or postponed meeting is actually held); delivering a later-dated, duly executed proxy (including a proxy by telephone or through the Internet) before the Special Meeting (or, if the Special Meeting is adjourned or postponed, before the adjourned or postponed meeting is actually held);

revoking the proxy in accordance with the telephone or Internet voting procedures described in the proxy voting instructions attached to the proxy card; or attending the Special Meeting (or, if the Special Meeting is adjourned or postponed, by attending the adjourned or postponed meeting) and voting in person at the Special Meeting.

If your shares are held in the name of a broker or nominee, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or nominee.

Solicitation of Proxies

Proxies may be solicited by mail, personal interview, telephone, facsimile and electronic mail by Cornerstone's directors, officers and employees on a part-time basis and for no additional compensation. Cornerstone will bear the costs it incurs in the solicitation of proxies under this document, including amounts paid in reimbursement to banks, brokerage firms, custodians, nominees and other for their expenses in forwarding soliciting material to the beneficial owners of Cornerstone common stock.

Cornerstone has retained Morrow & Co., LLC to assist it with the solicitation of proxies and to verify certain records related to the solicitations. Cornerstone has agreed to pay Morrow & Co., LLC a fee not to exceed $6,000, plus certain expenses, for services rendered.

Other Business

Our board of directors currently is not aware of any business to be acted upon at the Special Meeting other than as described in this document. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the Special Meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the meeting, in the absence of instructions to the contrary, persons appointed as proxies will have discretion to vote or act on those matters in accordance with our board of directors.

Appraisal Rights

Under Delaware law, our stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights with respect to the proposed issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Householding of Special Meeting Proxy Materials

Some banks, brokers and other nominee record holders may be participating in the practice of householding proxy statements. This means that only one copy of this proxy statement may have been sent to multiple stockholders in your household. We will promptly deliver a separate copy of this proxy statement to you upon written or oral request to Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc., Attention of David Price, Executive Vice President, Finance, and Chief Financial Officer, 1255 Crescent Green Drive, Suite 250, Cary, North Carolina 27518; telephone: (888) 466-6505. THE TRANSACTION

Background of the Transaction

A key component of our business strategy focuses on our in-licensing or otherwise acquiring rights to non-promoted or underperforming, patent-protected, branded pharmaceutical products, or late stage product candidates. In implementing that component of our strategy, we routinely seek out and meet with potential partners whose products may be candidates for distribution in the U.S. Pursuant to this strategy, in early November 2008, Craig A. Collard, our President and Chief Executive Officer, telephoned one of Chiesi's business managers for North America to discuss acquiring the U.S. rights to distribute one of Chiesi's products. On November 24, 2008, Cornerstone and Chiesi entered into a confidentiality agreement with respect to the data for that product. In connection with Cornerstone's evaluation of Chiesi's product, Mr. Collard, David Price, our Executive Vice President, Finance, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, Brian Dickson, M.D., our Chief Medical Officer, and Joshua Franklin, our Vice President, Sales and Marketing, met with Chiesi executives on December 3, 2008, in Parma, Italy, where the Chiesi team raised the possibility that Cornerstone might acquire the rights to distribute other Chiesi products in the U.S., including Curosurf®. In furtherance of this possibility, on January 6, 2009, Chiesi and Cornerstone entered into a second confidentiality agreement that was broader in scope than the one executed on November 24, 2008. Executives from Cornerstone and Chiesi met again on January 15 and January 22, 2009 to discuss Cornerstone acquiring rights to distribute Curosurf® in the U.S. At the January 22 meeting, Chiesi suggested that Cornerstone and Chiesi should explore potential alliances or other forms of collaboration in the U.S., including through Chiesi's acquisition of shares of Cornerstone's common stock.

During January 2009, members of Cornerstone's management held telephonic discussions with Chiesi to discuss a potential strategic alliance between the two companies. Chiesi continued to express an interest in acquiring shares of our common stock and suggested two structures in which the acquisition of shares of Cornerstone common stock might be accomplished: (i) a going-private transaction which would result in Chiesi owning 60% of the equity of Cornerstone and Cornerstone's management owning the remainder; and (ii) the issuance and sale of a sufficient number of shares of Cornerstone common stock by Cornerstone to Chiesi which would result in Chiesi owning 60% of the outstanding shares of Cornerstone common stock.

On January 27, 2009, at a meeting of our board of directors, the Cornerstone management team informed our board of Chiesi's potential interest in acquiring shares of Cornerstone common stock and described the two concepts put forth by Chiesi. After some discussion, the board determined that the management team should continue discussions with Chiesi and that Cornerstone should allow Chiesi to conduct due diligence on Cornerstone.

Cornerstone and Chiesi subsequently consulted with their respective legal advisors about issues raised in the discussions among their respective executives. Chiesi retained Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP as outside legal counsel and Cornerstone retained Clifford Chance US LLP as outside legal counsel. Together with these advisors, Cornerstone and Chiesi began considering further the potential definitive terms of a transaction.

Over the following two weeks, members of the management of Cornerstone and Chiesi conducted several telephone conversations regarding the terms of a possible transaction. During these conversations Chiesi expressed a preference for a transaction structure in which Chiesi would acquire shares of Cornerstone common stock directly from Cornerstone for cash plus the grant by Chiesi to Cornerstone of the exclusive rights to distribute Curosurf® in the U.S. Chiesi also indicated that it would be willing to incentivize Cornerstone's management team to remain at Cornerstone following the acquisition of shares of Cornerstone by Chiesi by providing them with an option to sell their shares of Cornerstone common stock to Chiesi, so long as Chiesi had a corresponding option to purchase the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by the management team.

On February 9, 2009, at a meeting of Cornerstone's board of directors, Cornerstone's management team updated the board with respect to the discussions with Chiesi's executives and the transaction structure preferred by Chiesi. The board authorized management to continue discussions for a potential transaction with Chiesi.

On February 12 and February 13, 2009, Cornerstone, Chiesi and their respective legal advisors met in New York, New York to negotiate the terms of a potential transaction that would involve the issuance and sale of shares of Cornerstone common stock to Chiesi. During the meetings Chiesi proposed a transaction structure which would result in Chiesi holding 60% of the outstanding shares of Cornerstone common stock. Specifically, Chiesi proposed to purchase (i) approximately 1.1 million shares of Cornerstone common stock from Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz for $7.00 in cash per share and (ii) approximately 15.28 million shares of Cornerstone common stock directly from Cornerstone in exchange for $47 million in cash and the grant of exclusive U.S. distribution rights for Curosurf[®] for 10 years. In addition, Chiesi clarified that the exercise prices of the put and call options over the shares of Cornerstone owned by the management team would be generated by a formula based on Cornerstone's financial performance. Chiesi also put forth proposals regarding the composition of the Cornerstone board and the governance arrangements that would take effect after Chiesi became Cornerstone's majority stockholder, which included having the right to appoint a majority of the Cornerstone board and extensive veto rights over various types of corporate transactions. Cornerstone's representatives rejected these board composition and governance proposals and made counterproposals that subsequently formed the basis for the governance provisions described elsewhere in this proxy statement.

Cornerstone's management team presented Chiesi's revised proposal to Cornerstone's board of directors at a meeting of the board held on February 16, 2009. At that meeting, the topics discussed by the directors included the extent to which the interests of Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz in the proposed transaction were in conflict with the interests of Cornerstone or the other stockholders. The directors noted among other things that the $7.00 per share price proposed to be paid to Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz was significantly higher than the price at which Cornerstone's common stock was then trading. On February 13, 2009, the closing price of Cornerstone common stock on the NASDAQ Stock Market was $3.80. The directors discussed the ways in which the proposed grant of Curosurf[®] rights could be valued for purposes of the transaction, and whether Cornerstone would be able to effectively deploy the large cash infusion that Chiesi was proposing. The directors also discussed the impact of the proposed transaction on the stockholders that would become minority stockholders, and discussed various kinds of structural and other protections that could be included in the transaction terms. Following its discussions, the board directed that Cornerstone's management should continue to explore a possible transaction with Chiesi. The board also directed Cornerstone's management team to perform diligence on Curosurf[®] and to prepare additional analyses of the transaction.

Over the next several weeks Chiesi and its advisors continued to perform financial and legal due diligence on Cornerstone, Cornerstone's team performed diligence on Curosurf[®] and Cornerstone's legal advisors prepared and provided to Chiesi's legal advisors draft transaction documents. In addition, on February 26, 2009, Cornerstone's board of directors authorized its management to retain Houlihan Lokey as Cornerstone's financial advisor.

On March 31, 2009, Chiesi's executives telephoned Cornerstone's management team to inform them that Chiesi had substantially completed its due diligence on Cornerstone. Over the next three weeks, Cornerstone's management team held telephonic discussions with Chiesi executives in which Chiesi proposed a revised transaction structure. Under the revised transaction structure prepared by Chiesi, Chiesi would: (i) purchase approximately 1.6 million shares of Cornerstone's common stock from Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz for $5.50 per share in cash and (ii) acquire approximately 11.83 million shares of Cornerstone common stock directly from Cornerstone for approximately $15.84 million in cash and a 10-year grant of the exclusive rights to distribute Curosurf[®] in the U.S. Chiesi also proposed that Cornerstone's management would be given the option to require Chiesi to purchase their shares of Cornerstone common stock in phased amounts over a period of three to four years and Chiesi would have the option to purchase the same shares over the same period. The exercise prices for these proposed put and call options would be based on Cornerstone's financial performance in the year before exercise.

Over the next three weeks, Cornerstone's and Chiesi's legal advisors negotiated definitive transaction documents incorporating the revised transaction structure.

On April 29 and April 30, 2009, representatives of Cornerstone and Chiesi and their respective legal advisors met in New York, New York to negotiate the structure of the transaction and the various corporate governance provisions contemplated by the latest drafts of the transaction documents. The parties agreed on a transaction structure similar to the one proposed by Chiesi on March 31. In the new structure, however, the put and call options over shares owned by Cornerstone's management were eliminated. Instead, Chiesi proposed that the Cornerstone shares owned by Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz and the Cornerstone shares owned by the entities controlled by them would be subject to restrictions on transfer and Chiesi would have a call option over those shares at $12.00 per share in cash, exercisable after approximately two years after the closing of the transaction. Chiesi also proposed that the shares owned by the other members of Cornerstone's management team be subject to restrictions on transfer. Following these meetings, there remained several material open issues with respect to corporate governance and certain terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, including proposed termination fees.

In the days following April 30, 2009, Cornerstone and Chiesi and their respective legal advisors held a series of conference calls to review and negotiate the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement and the other related agreements. The topics discussed included representations and warranties, closing conditions, the circumstances under which the termination fee would be payable and under what circumstances Cornerstone would be entitled to terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement to accept a superior proposal.

On May 3, 2009, Cornerstone's board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which Cornerstone's negotiating team updated the board on the status of the proposed transaction. Our directors indicated that the changes in the terms being proposed from those initially presented by Chiesi in February were generally favorable from their perspective. First, the reduction in the price per share proposed to be paid to Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz for their shares, from $7.00 to $5.50, had resulted in a price that was close to prices at which Cornerstone's shares recently had traded. Indeed, it now seemed likely that those share sales could be at a discount to market. On May 1, 2009 the closing price of Cornerstone common stock on the NASDAQ Stock Market was $6.10. This substantially addressed the directors' concerns about the fairness of this aspect of the transaction. Second, the reduction in the size of the cash infusion now proposed to be made by Chiesi helped address concerns that it might be difficult to productively invest the cash in a timely manner. Third, the reduction in Chiesi's proposed initial ownership position, from 60% to 51%, meant that current stockholders were undergoing lesser dilution of their position. Finally, the corporate governance provisions that had been negotiated appeared to provide some helpful protections for the minority stockholders after the closing of the proposed transaction. The board members told management they continued to believe that the proposed transaction, if it could be implemented, potentially offered significant strategic and financial benefits to Cornerstone. Those benefits are described below under Reasons for the Transaction. The directors noted that the proposed transaction should help Cornerstone achieve its objective of improving what some stock analysts might refer to as its quality of earnings. This was because the revenues and earnings that could be expected from Curosurf[®] were likely to be consistent, and to grow over time, and reasonably could be expected to last for the 10-year term of the proposed license. This was in contrast to some of Cornerstone's other revenue sources, which may be more variable and seasonal in nature. In the opinion of the directors, an improvement in Cornerstone's quality of earnings should enhance the value of Cornerstone and make shares of Cornerstone common stock a more attractive investment. The members of Cornerstone's board also noted that it could be difficult for Cornerstone to acquire a valuable product such as Curosurf[®] for cash, because in order to fund such a purchase, Cornerstone would have to sell a large number of its shares. In the present volatile market conditions, it was not clear that such a stock sale could be completed, and, even if the markets were to be receptive to such an offering by Cornerstone, it seemed likely that the Company's share price would suffer from the presence of such a large supply of shares. The proposed transaction with Chiesi, then, effectively accomplished in one transaction what would have been difficult to accomplish in two (a cash purchase and a funding transaction to finance the purchase). While the directors recognized that the proposed transaction involved a transfer of control to Chiesi that presumably would not occur in a public offering of Cornerstone's stock, the likelihood of success in the proposed transaction was much higher than in the alternative transaction structure. Furthermore, in previous discussions, Chiesi had made clear that a strategic relationship with Cornerstone was important to it, and it was unlikely that Chiesi would entertain a proposal for a cash purchase of Curosurf[®], contingent on Cornerstone completing the necessary financing.

Throughout May 4 and May 5, 2009, the parties continued negotiations and the parties' legal advisors worked to finalize the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related agreements. On May 6, 2009, Cornerstone's board of directors met to discuss the proposed transaction. At that board meeting, Houlihan Lokey rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by Cornerstone pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, as of May 6, 2009 (based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion) (see Opinion of Our Financial Advisor below).

Cornerstone's board of directors reconvened later on May 6, 2009 and at the reconvened meeting Clifford Chance reviewed for the board the key terms relating to the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related agreements. Following the presentation, the directors addressed questions to, and discussed the proposed transaction with, members of Cornerstone's management and Cornerstone's legal advisors. After extensive discussions, the Cornerstone board determined that the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related transactions and agreements were in the best interests of Cornerstone and its stockholders, and the directors voted to approve the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related transactions and agreements and to recommend to our stockholders that they approve the Company Stock Sale and, subsequently, the Charter Amendments.

After the meetings of the Cornerstone board adjourned on May 6, 2009, the definitive documentation for the transaction was finalized and the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related agreements were executed.

The transaction was announced prior to the opening of trading on the NASDAQ Capital Market on the morning of May 7, 2009.

Reasons for the Transaction

Our board of directors consulted with our senior management team and with our financial and legal advisors and considered a number of factors in reaching its decision to approve the issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement and in determining to recommend that our stockholders vote FOR the approval of the Company Stock Sale. Those factors included (but were not limited to) the following:

The addition to our product portfolio of Curosurf[®], an FDA-approved product with a leading market position and a proprietary manufacturing process, will further diversify our revenue base.

The addition of Curosurf[®] to our product portfolio is likely to bring us a predictable and growing source of income from a proven product.

The cash investment of $15,465,075 to be made by Chiesi will strengthen our balance sheet and help fund the development of our product line and the continued expansion of our sales force.

The addition of Curosurf[®] to our product portfolio should help to broaden our franchise in the market for respiratory therapeutic products, thereby providing us with marketing leverage for our other existing and future product offerings.

The potential opportunity to acquire the U.S. rights to additional Chiesi products further increases the value of our franchise.

The transaction will allow us to establish a long-term relationship with a leading European pharmaceutical company.

The restrictions to be imposed in connection with the proposed transaction on our management team's ability to sell their shares of our common stock during the two-year period following the closing of the Company Stock Sale should help align the interests of our management team with those of our stockholders, by creating an incentive for the management team to make the new Chiesi relationship successful in order to maximize the value of their shareholdings and by incentivizing them to stay with the Company until the sale restrictions expire.

The oral opinion of Houlihan Lokey (which was subsequently confirmed in writing) with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by Cornerstone of approximately $16 million in cash and the exclusive distribution rights for Curosurf[®] in the U.S. pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, as of May 6, 2009 (based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion).

In connection with the proposed transaction, two of our executive officers, Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz, through entities controlled by them, will sell 1.6 million shares of Cornerstone common stock to Chiesi at a price of $5.50 per share in cash, which represents a discount to the closing price of Cornerstone's common stock on May 5, 2009, the day before our board approved the Stock Purchase Agreement and the related transactions (the closing price per share on May 5, 2009 was $7.40), and a premium over the volume-weighted trading price of our common stock for the three months prior to May 6, 2009 (the volume-weighted trading price per share for that three-month period was $5.21).

Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them have entered into a series of other agreements with Chiesi, including agreements providing for (i) the grant to Chiesi of an option, exercisable during a 30-day period expected to begin two years after the closing of the Company Stock Sale, under which Chiesi can buy the respective remaining shareholdings in Cornerstone of Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and the entities controlled by them for $12.00 per share in cash; (ii) substantial restrictions on the ability of Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz and of the entities controlled by them to sell Cornerstone shares during the two years following the closing of the Company Stock Sale; and (iii) agreements to vote their shares for the approval of the Company Stock Sale and the Charter Amendments.

Cornerstone's executive management team, including Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz, have entered into new employment agreements with Cornerstone that by their terms are to take effect upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale, containing among other things provisions for performance-based compensation awards that must be approved by Cornerstone's board of directors and, therefore, by Chiesi's representatives on Cornerstone's board.

The ownership interests of the existing stockholders in Cornerstone will be materially diluted upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Following the closing of the Company Stock Sale, Chiesi will be able to exert significant influence over Cornerstone by virtue of its rights, among others, to designate for nomination one-half of Cornerstone's board of directors and to effectively veto various types of corporate action, both through its board representation and, after the implementation of the Charter Amendments, in its capacity as a stockholder.

Chiesi has agreed to various limitations on the exercise of its power as the new majority stockholder of Cornerstone, most of which will last for approximately two years, and has agreed for the same period of time to be subject to various standstill provisions, including limitations on its ability to acquire additional shares of Cornerstone's common stock during that period without the approval of Cornerstone's independent directors; but Chiesi has expressly reserved the right to compete with Cornerstone and to pursue corporate opportunities that otherwise could be attractive to Cornerstone.

The regulatory and stockholder approvals required in connection with the Company Stock Sale and the likelihood that the Company Stock Sale will be completed.

Some of the Cornerstone's executives may have interests in the Company Stock Sale that are different from, or in addition to, those of Cornerstone's other stockholders, as a result of the employment and other agreements and their holdings of shares and options to purchase shares of Cornerstone's common stock.

The significant costs involved in connection with entering into the Stock Purchase Agreement and completing the transactions contemplated thereby and potential related disruptions to the operations of Cornerstone's business.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by our board of directors, while not exhaustive, includes the material factors considered by our board of directors in determining whether to approve the Stock Purchase Agreement and recommend approval of the Company Stock Sale to our stockholders. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Stock

Purchase Agreement and the related transactions and agreements, our board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative or specific weight or values to any of these factors, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. Our board of directors considered all of the factors as a whole and considered the factors in their totality to be favorable to and supportive of its decision.

The foregoing discussion of our board of directors' considerations relating to the Company Stock Sale is forward-looking in nature. This information should be read in light of the discussions under the heading Special Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements in this proxy statement.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF CORNERSTONE'S ISSUANCE AND SALE OF SHARES TO CHIESI PURSUANT TO THE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor

On May 6, 2009, Houlihan Lokey rendered an oral opinion to our board of directors (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Houlihan Lokey's written opinion dated May 6, 2009), to the effect that, as of May 6, 2009 and based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken and other matters considered by Houlihan Lokey in preparing its opinion, the consideration to be received by Cornerstone pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement (the Chiesi Investment Consideration), was fair, from a financial point of view, to Cornerstone.

Houlihan Lokey's opinion was directed to our board of directors and only addressed the fairness from a financial point of view of the Chiesi Investment Consideration and did not address any other aspect or implication of the transaction or any related transaction. In addition, Houlihan Lokey relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final forms of any draft documents identified above would not differ in any respect from the drafts of those documents.

fairness of any portion or aspect of the transaction or any related transaction to any one class or group of Cornerstone's or any other party's security holders vis-à-vis any other class or group of Cornerstone's or any other party's security holders (including, without limitation, the allocation of any consideration amongst or within any classes or groups of security holders), (vi) whether or not Cornerstone, Chiesi, their respective security holders or any other party was receiving or paying reasonably equivalent value in the transaction or any related transaction, (vii) the solvency, creditworthiness or fair value of Cornerstone, Chiesi or any other participant in the transaction or any related transaction under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters, or (viii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount or nature of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the transaction or any related transaction, any class of those persons or any other party, relative to the Chiesi Investment Consideration or otherwise. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation was intended in matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. Houlihan Lokey assumed that those opinions, counsel or interpretations had been or would be obtained from the appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, Houlihan Lokey relied, with our consent, on the assessment by Cornerstone and our advisers, as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to Cornerstone, the U.S. Curosurf® rights and the transaction or any related transaction.

In preparing its opinion to our board of directors, Houlihan Lokey performed a variety of analyses, including those described below. The summary of Houlihan Lokey's analyses is not a complete description of the analyses underlying its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytical methods employed and the adaptation and application of these methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither a fairness opinion nor its underlying analyses is readily susceptible to summary description. Houlihan Lokey arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, methodology or factor. Accordingly, Houlihan Lokey believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, methodologies and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses, methodologies and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying Houlihan Lokey's analyses and its opinion. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the value of particular techniques.

In performing its analyses, Houlihan Lokey considered general business, economic, industry and market conditions, financial and otherwise, and other matters as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. Houlihan Lokey's analyses involved judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Cornerstone, such as the impact of competition on the business of Cornerstone and on the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of Cornerstone or the industry or in the markets generally. No company, transaction or business used in Houlihan Lokey's analyses for comparative purposes is identical to Cornerstone or the proposed Company Stock Sale and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Houlihan Lokey believes that mathematical derivations (such as determining average and median) of financial data are not by themselves meaningful and should be considered together with qualities, judgments and informed assumptions. The estimates contained in Cornerstone's analyses and the implied reference range values indicated by Houlihan Lokey's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, any analyses relating to the value of assets, businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which may depend on a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the control of Cornerstone. Much of the information used in, and accordingly the results of, Houlihan Lokey's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Houlihan Lokey's opinion was provided to our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the proposed Company Stock Sale and was only one of many factors considered by our board of directors in evaluating the proposed Company Stock Sale. Neither its opinion nor Houlihan Lokey's analyses were determinative of the consideration in the Company Stock Sale or of the views of our board of directors or management with respect to the Company Stock Sale or the consideration in the Company Stock Sale. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Company Stock Sale were determined through negotiation between Cornerstone and Chiesi, and the decision to enter into the Company Stock Sale was solely that of our board of directors.

The following is a summary of the material analyses reviewed by Houlihan Lokey with our board of directors in connection with Houlihan Lokey's opinion rendered on May 6, 2009. The order of the analyses does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Houlihan Lokey. The analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the analyses, as well as the methodologies underlying, and the assumptions, qualifications and limitations affecting, each analysis, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Houlihan Lokey's analyses.

For purposes of its analyses, Houlihan Lokey reviewed a number of financial and operating metrics, including:

Enterprise Value: generally calculated as the value of the relevant company's outstanding equity securities (taking into account its outstanding warrants and other convertible securities) based on the relevant company's closing stock price, or equity value, plus the value of minority interests, plus net debt (calculated as outstanding indebtedness, preferred stock and capital lease obligations less the amount of cash and cash equivalents on its balance sheet), as of a specified date.

Revenue: generally calculated as net revenue.

EBITDA: generally the earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization.

Unless the context indicates otherwise, enterprise values and equity values derived from the selected companies analysis described below were calculated using the closing price of our common stock and the common stock of the selected pharmaceutical companies listed below as of May 4, 2009, transaction values for the target companies derived from the selected transactions analysis described below were calculated as of the announcement date of the relevant transaction based on the estimated purchase prices paid in the selected transactions, and the estimated purchase prices paid in the selected product acquisitions listed below were calculated as of the announcement date of the relevant acquisition. Accordingly, this information may not reflect current or future market conditions. Estimates of 2009, 2010 and 2011 Revenue and EBITDA for Cornerstone were based on estimates provided by our management, and an estimate of 2008 Revenue associated with the U.S. Curosurf[®] rights was based on an estimate provided by Chiesi. Estimates of 2009, 2010 and 2011 Revenue and EBITDA for the selected pharmaceutical companies listed below were based on certain publicly available research analyst estimates for those pharmaceutical companies.

Other Matters

Houlihan Lokey was engaged by Cornerstone to provide an opinion to our board of directors regarding the fairness from a financial point of view of the Chiesi Investment Consideration. We engaged Houlihan Lokey based on Houlihan Lokey's experience and reputation. Houlihan Lokey is regularly engaged to render financial opinions in connection with mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, and for other purposes. Pursuant to the engagement letter, Cornerstone has agreed to pay Houlihan Lokey a customary fee for its services, a portion of which became payable upon the execution of Houlihan Lokey's engagement letter and the balance of which became payable upon the delivery of Houlihan Lokey's opinion, regardless of the conclusion reached therein. No portion of Houlihan Lokey's fee was contingent upon the successful completion of the transaction or the related transactions. Cornerstone has also agreed to reimburse Houlihan Lokey for certain expenses and to indemnify Houlihan Lokey, its affiliates and certain related parties against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws arising out of or relating to Houlihan Lokey's engagement.

In the ordinary course of business, certain of Houlihan Lokey's affiliates, as well as investment funds in which they may have financial interests, may acquire, hold or sell, long or short positions, or trade or otherwise effect transactions, in debt, equity, and other securities and financial instruments (including loans and other obligations) of, or investments in, Cornerstone, Chiesi, or any other party that may be involved in the transaction or any related transaction and their respective affiliates or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the transaction or any related transaction.

Houlihan Lokey and certain of its affiliates may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to Cornerstone, Chiesi and other participants in the transaction and the related transactions and certain of their respective affiliates in the future, for which Houlihan Lokey and certain of its affiliates may receive compensation.

Certain Corporate Governance Arrangements and Protective Provisions

In connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, Cornerstone, Chiesi and, solely with respect certain sections identified therein, the Founder Stockholders, entered into a Governance Agreement, dated as of May 6, 2009. The Governance Agreement contains certain governance provisions and majority stockholder and minority stockholder protections. The Governance Agreement will become effective following the closing of the Company Stock Sale and continue in effect for 24 months following the closing of the Company Stock Sale, subject to earlier termination under certain circumstances specified in the Governance Agreement. Also, in connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, Cornerstone, Chiesi and the Founder Stockholders entered into a Stockholders Agreement dated as of May 6, 2009. The Stockholders Agreement will become effective following the closing of the Company Stock Sale and (i) restricts the Founder Stockholders from transferring a certain number of shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by them and from acquiring additional shares of Cornerstone common stock for a specified period, (ii) provides Chiesi with the right to require the Founder Stockholders to sell those shares of Cornerstone common stock that may not be transferred for $12.00 per share in cash and (iii) requires the Founder Stockholders to vote the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by them in the manner specified in the Stockholders Agreement. Following is a summary of certain of the governance arrangements and protective provisions we agreed to in the Governance Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement and related agreements in connection with the Company Stock Sale.

Table of Contents

Board Composition

The Governance Agreement provides that upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale, Cornerstone's board of directors will be reconstituted to consist of Cornerstone's Chief Executive Officer, three persons who qualify as independent directors under the NASDAQ Listing Rules and four persons designated by Chiesi and that thereafter, while the Governance Agreement remains in effect:

Chiesi will be able to submit to Cornerstone's nominating committee for nomination for election to Cornerstone's board a number of persons based on Chiesi's beneficial ownership of our common stock, as follows:

- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 50% or more of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), four individuals;
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 35% or more but less than 50% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), three individuals;
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 25% or more but less than 35% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), two individuals;
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 10% or more but less than 25% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), one individual; and
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own less than 10% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), Chiesi will not have the right to designate any directors.

Cornerstone's nominating committee will nominate our Chief Executive Officer (or our most senior executive officer) and three independent directors to Cornerstone's board of directors.

If at any time the number of Chiesi-nominated directors on Cornerstone's board of directors exceeds the number provided for above, Chiesi will promptly procure the resignation or removal of the number of Chiesi-nominated directors so that the number of Chiesi-nominated directors is consistent with the number of directors Chiesi can nominate at that time.

A majority of the total authorized directors on the Cornerstone board, including at least one Chiesi-nominated director, will constitute a quorum.

Chiesi will ensure that any vacancy resulting from the departure from the board of an independent director will be filled by a person chosen by the remaining independent directors.

Cornerstone will use its best efforts to solicit votes from our stockholders, and Chiesi and the Founder Stockholders agree to vote their shares of our common stock, in favor of the election of the persons nominated by Cornerstone's nominating committee.

We will ensure that our certificate of incorporation, bylaws and any other governance agreements are consistent with the Governance Agreement.

We also agreed to submit for our stockholders' approval, after the closing of the Company Stock Sale, an amendment to our certificate of incorporation that will, among other things, provide that for so long as Chiesi and its affiliates beneficially own at least 50% of our outstanding shares of common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), the directors designated by Chiesi, as a class, will have equal voting power with the other directors, as a class.

Limitations on Additional Acquisitions of Shares of Cornerstone Common Stock by Chiesi

In the Governance Agreement, Chiesi agrees that while the Governance Agreement is in effect it will not, directly or indirectly, purchase or otherwise acquire, or propose or offer to purchase or acquire, any shares of our common stock except through acquisitions pursuant to:

The exercise of any of the call options provided for in the Stockholders Agreement;

Transactions approved by Cornerstone's board of directors and by a majority of its independent directors;

Purchases solely to maintain Chiesi's percentage ownership of shares of our common stock at 51% on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement);

Purchases in the same number of shares as Founder Stockholders sell while the Governance Agreement is in effect; or

A tender offer that will be required to be made by Chiesi for the shares of our common stock not owned by Chiesi or its affiliates, at a cash price per share at least equal to the highest per share price paid by Chiesi or any of their affiliates to acquire any shares of our common stock in the previous 18 months, promptly after Chiesi and its affiliates beneficially own 85% (or more) of the outstanding shares of our capital stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement).

Limitations on Transfer of Shares of Cornerstone Common Stock by Chiesi

Chiesi agrees that it and its affiliates will not directly or indirectly:

During the Blackout Period, sell or otherwise transfer or dispose of any shares of our common stock except pursuant to a bona fide acquisition of Cornerstone by a third party by way of merger, consolidation, stock exchange or tender offer that was not solicited by Chiesi or any of its affiliates and that is approved by the Cornerstone board and by a majority of our independent directors; or Sell or otherwise transfer any shares of our common stock to any person if immediately following the sale or transfer such person would beneficially own more than 5% of all shares of our common stock then outstanding (excluding, however, a sale to a bona fide underwriter that certifies that the shares are being acquired pursuant to a distribution and that upon completion of the distribution, no purchaser will own more than 5% of the then outstanding shares of our common stock).

Standstill Obligations Undertaken by Chiesi

In the Governance Agreement, Chiesi agrees that while the Governance Agreement is in effect neither it nor its affiliates will directly or indirectly (other than pursuant to the voting agreement entered into in connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement):

Solicit, or become a participant in any solicitation of, any proxy from any holder of shares of our common stock in connection with any vote on any matter, or agree or announce its intention to vote with any person undertaking a solicitation (other than as provided in the Governance Agreement);

Form, join or participate in any group of persons formed for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of shares of our common stock that would be required to file a statement with the

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) if such group beneficially owned 5% or more of any class of Cornerstone voting stock (other than Chiesi), unless approved by the majority of our independent directors;

Grant any proxies with respect to any shares of our common stock to any person (other than as recommended by Cornerstone's board of directors) or deposit any shares of our common stock in a voting trust or enter into any other arrangement or agreement with respect to the voting thereof;

Seek, alone or in concert with other persons, additional representation on Cornerstone's board of directors (in addition to that provided for in the Governance Agreement) or seek the removal of any member of our board of directors that is not a designee of Chiesi or a change in the composition or size of our board of directors that is inconsistent with the Governance Agreement; or

Enter into any arrangements, understandings or agreements with, or advise, finance or assist any other persons in connection with any of the foregoing.

Interested Transactions

While the Governance Agreement is in effect, any material contract or transaction between Chiesi and Cornerstone will require the approval of our independent directors.

Limitations on Transfer of Shares of Cornerstone Common Stock by the Founder Stockholders

In the Stockholders Agreement, each Founder Stockholder agrees that while the Stockholders Agreement is in effect, such Founder Stockholder will not:

directly or indirectly, transfer any of their covered shares (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) except pursuant to (i) an exempt transfer to an affiliate or by operation of descent and distribution laws, or (ii) Chiesi's call option described below; or knowingly transfer any shares of common stock in a privately negotiated transaction to a pharmaceutical company.

Any transfer or purported transfer in violation of these restrictions will be void and ineffectual, and will not be recognized by Cornerstone.

Limitations on Additional Acquisitions of Shares of Cornerstone Common Stock by the Founder Stockholders

In the Stockholders Agreement, each Founder Stockholder agrees that while the Stockholders Agreement is in effect, such Founder Stockholder will not, directly or indirectly, acquire or offer to acquire any shares or beneficial ownership of Cornerstone common stock, except through acquisitions of shares:

effected pursuant to transactions approved by the Cornerstone board or by a majority of Cornerstone's independent directors;

effected solely to maintain the Founder Stockholder's level of beneficial ownership of shares of Cornerstone common stock as of May 6, 2009; or pursuant to Cornerstone's equity compensation arrangements or the exercise of any options or warrants or similar rights granted or awarded under such arrangements.

Chiesi's Call Option on the Founder Stockholders' Shares

Under the Stockholders Agreement, Chiesi has the option, exercisable in whole but not in part on a single occasion during the 30 days beginning on the earlier of the date on which the share transfer restrictions lapse, two years after the closing of the Company Stock Sale, or the date following the termination under certain circumstances of specified Cornerstone executives' employment, to acquire all the Founder Stockholders' shares that are subject to restrictions on transfer for $12.00 per share in cash, subject to adjustment for any stock split, stock dividend, reverse stock split or similar adjustment occurring after the date of the Stockholders Agreement.

Agreement to Vote

In the Stockholders Agreement, each Founder Stockholder agrees that, at any meeting of Cornerstone stockholders called to consider a transaction in which Chiesi or its affiliate will acquire all the outstanding capital stock of Cornerstone, such Founder Stockholder will vote all shares of common stock owned by such Founder Stockholder at the applicable record date in the same proportions that the shares of common stock owned by the other stockholders (other than Chiesi and its affiliates) are voted on such matter. These obligations of the Founder Stockholders will apply only if (i) a majority of Cornerstone's directors who were not nominated by, and are otherwise independent of, Chiesi and its affiliates (other than Cornerstone) have approved the transaction to be voted on at the meeting, and has recommended that Cornerstone's stockholders vote to approve the transaction, and (ii) such approval and recommendation has not been withdrawn.

Amended Bylaws

It is a condition to the closing of the Company Stock Sale that we adopt amended and restated bylaws (the Amended Bylaws) in the form attached to the Stock Purchase Agreement as Exhibit G. Adoption of the Amended Bylaws requires the approval of Cornerstone's board of directors, and does not require stockholder approval. Following is a summary of the certain of the provisions to be included in the Amended Bylaws.

Actions Subject to Approval by the Cornerstone Board

The Amended Bylaws will provide that so long as Chiesi beneficially owns shares of our common stock constituting at least 50% of all outstanding shares of our common Stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Amended Bylaws), the following are subject to approval by the Cornerstone board:

the adoption, modification or amendment of the annual operating or capital budget for the corporation to be effective January 1 of that fiscal year;

the entry into, modification or amendment of any exclusive license, distribution or supply agreement to which Cornerstone is a party;

any capital expenditure in excess of $500,000 in any one case or $2,000,000 in the aggregate;

any expense that substantially deviates from the approved annual operating or capital budget, other than immaterial expenditures in the ordinary course of business; or the incurrence by Cornerstone of indebtedness in excess of $1,000,000 in the aggregate for borrowed money, including, but not limited to trade financing (less than 60 days) either on an individual or cumulative basis or issuing any equity security that ranks senior in liquidation preference to the equity securities outstanding as of the date of the Amended Bylaws.

Executive Compensation

The Amended Bylaws also provide that all matters relating to executive compensation will require the approval of the Cornerstone compensation committee and the ratification of the Cornerstone board.

Please see the section entitled The Amended Bylaws, beginning on page 64 of this proxy statement for a more detailed summary of the Amended Bylaws.

In connection with the Governance Agreement, we have agreed to, subject to the approval and adoption by our stockholders, amend our certificate of incorporation to implement additional majority stockholder protections. The material provisions of the Charter Amendments are described below. They will not become effective unless our stockholders approve the Charter Amendments.

Table of Contents

Charter Amendments Actions Requiring Approval of Chiesi

When the Charter Amendments are implemented, our amended certificate of incorporation will provide, among other things, that so long as Chiesi and its affiliates beneficially own Cornerstone common stock constituting not less than 40% of all outstanding common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Charter Amendments), Chiesi's approval will be required for:

any acquisition of any business or assets for an aggregate price greater than $25 million;

any sale, lease, transfer or other disposal of a business or assets of Cornerstone, other than in the ordinary course of business, for an aggregate price greater than $25 million;

any issuance of any capital stock of Cornerstone, other than pursuant to employee incentive plans or upon the exercise of any option or other similar right; or any repurchase or redemption of any capital stock of Cornerstone, other than mandatory redemptions, fair market value purchases in connection with any Cornerstone deferred compensation plan and repurchases of unvested or restricted stock pursuant to any Cornerstone compensation plan.

Charter Amendments Corporate Opportunities

When the Charter Amendments are implemented, our amended certificate of incorporation will provide, among other things, that for so long as Chiesi and its affiliates collectively beneficially own Cornerstone common stock representing not less than 50% of all outstanding common stock on a fully diluted basis (as defined in the Charter Amendments):

neither Chiesi nor any of its affiliates will have a duty to refrain from engaging in the same or similar business as Cornerstone, nor will they be liable for breach of any fiduciary duty to Cornerstone by reason of such activities;

any mutual corporate opportunity offered to any Cornerstone director or officer who is also an officer, director or employee of Chiesi shall belong to Chiesi, unless such mutual corporate opportunity was expressly offered to such person in his or her capacity as a director or officer of Cornerstone, in which case such opportunity shall not be pursued by Chiesi;

Chiesi will have no other duty to communicate corporate opportunities to Cornerstone; and Chiesi, and its affiliates, as applicable, will not be liable for breach of any fiduciary duty by reason of the foregoing.

Charter Amendments Other Provisions

When the Charter Amendments are implemented, our amended certificate of incorporation will, among other things:

no longer provide for a classified (or staggered) board of directors;

no longer include the stockholder supermajority voting provisions presently contained in the certificate of incorporation; permit, instead of prohibit, stockholders taking action by written consent; and include a provision opting out of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, an anti-takeover statute.

As described in the section entitled The Special Meeting, beginning on page 11 of this proxy statement, if our stockholders approve the Company Stock Sale, we will hold another special meeting of our stockholders to approve the Charter Amendments. You will receive separate proxy materials for the special meeting of Cornerstone stockholders where the proposal to approve and adopt the Charter Amendments will be considered. The full text of the Charter Amendments appears at Exhibit F to the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Transaction

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale, our stockholders should be aware that some of our directors and executive officers have personal interests in the Company Stock Sale that are, or may be, different from, or in addition to, your interests. Our board of directors was aware of the interests described below and considered them, among other matters, when approving the Company Stock Sale and recommending that our stockholders vote to approve the Company Stock Sale. Except as described below, to our knowledge our directors and executive officers have no material interest in the Company Stock Sale that differs from our stockholders' interests generally.

As of June 25, 2009, the record date, approximately 45% of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock was held by directors and executive officers of Cornerstone and their affiliates.

Sale of Shares of Cornerstone Common Stock by Entities Controlled by Craig A. Collard and Steven M. Lutz

Concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Chiesi, Cornerstone Biopharma Holdings, Ltd., an entity controlled by Craig A. Collard, Cornerstone's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Lutz Family Limited Partnership, an entity controlled by Steven M. Lutz, Cornerstone's Executive Vice President, Manufacturing and Trade, agreed, among other things, to sell to Chiesi 1.6 million shares of Cornerstone common stock. The closing of this sale of shares is conditioned upon the concurrent closing of the Company Stock Sale.

Stockholders Agreement

In the Stockholders Agreement, the Founder Stockholders agreed that Chiesi may require the Founder Stockholders sell the remaining shares of Cornerstone common stock that they beneficially own and are covered by the Stockholders Agreement (an aggregate of approximately 3,194,651 shares) for a price of $12.00 per share in cash, during a 30-day period expected to occur two years after the closing of the Company Stock Sale. Please see the section entitled The Stockholders Agreement, beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement, for a more detailed summary of the Stockholders Agreement.

Employment Agreements with Executive Officers

We have entered into new employment agreements that will become effective upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale with the following executive officers of Cornerstone: Mr. Collard, Mr. Lutz, Brian Dickson, M.D., Cornerstone's Chief Medical Officer, David Price, Cornerstone's Executive Vice President, Finance, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, and Joshua Franklin, Cornerstone's Vice President, Sales and Marketing. Some of these employment agreements provide for the grant of options to purchase shares of our common stock to the relevant executive officer. Please see the section entitled The Employment Agreements, beginning on page 65 of this proxy statement, for a more detailed summary of the employment agreements.

Acceleration of Stock Options and Restricted Stock

All of our executive officers are party to employment or restricted stock agreements which provide that all of their unvested options and restricted stock granted prior to May 28, 2009 will immediately vest in connection with various types of transactions. These provisions will be triggered by the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

The following table discloses the extent to which our executive officers will benefit from the acceleration of the vesting of their stock options and restricted stock. The information contained in the table is as of June 23, 2009. At Chiesi's request, in connection with Cornerstone's entry into the Stock Purchase Agreement, each of the executive officers named below have agreed to restrictions during the two-year period following the closing of the Company Stock Sale on their ability to sell shares of Cornerstone common stock.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Transaction

The following discussion is a summary of U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the Company Stock Sale. This summary is based on the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions, all in effect as of the date of this proxy statement and all subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary does not address consequences of the transactions under state, local and foreign tax laws.

The Company Stock Sale will not result in taxable income or gain for the stockholders that own shares of Cornerstone prior to the transactions. In addition, Cornerstone's entry into the applicable agreements with Chiesi and the Company Stock Sale will not result in taxable income or gain for Cornerstone.

Cornerstone and Chiesi intend to treat the consideration provided by Cornerstone to Chiesi under the agreements between the parties as not subject to U.S. federal withholding tax. Cornerstone and Chiesi have not sought a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) on this point, however, and it is conceivable that the IRS or a court could disagree with this treatment (in which case such consideration would generally be subjected to U.S. federal withholding tax at rates up to 10%, assuming the tax treaty between Italy and the U.S. applies, plus any applicable interest or penalties).

As a result of the Company Stock Sale and the sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi by certain of the Founder Stockholders, Cornerstone will undergo an ownership change within the meaning of Sections 382 and 383 of the Code. In general terms, an ownership change results from transactions increasing the ownership of one or more stockholders in the stock of a corporation by more than 50 percentage points over a period of three years or less. Sections 382 and 383 of the Code impose limitations on a corporation's ability to utilize its net operating loss carryforwards (NOLs), and tax credits if it experiences an ownership change. As of December 31, 2008, Cornerstone had approximately $162.2 million of NOLs, $154.0 million of state net economic loss carryforwards (NELs), and $1.9 million of federal tax credits. However, as a result of Cornerstone's merger with Critical Therapeutics, Inc. during 2008, Cornerstone's ability to use such NOLs and tax credits is already subject to limitations under Sections 382 and 383 of the Code. As a consequence of those limitations, Cornerstone recorded a full valuation allowance in respect of all of its NOLs, NELs and tax credits in its December 31, 2008 audited financial statements.

Regulatory Approvals

Under the HSR Act and the rules and regulations promulgated under that legislation, Cornerstone and Chiesi cannot complete the Company Stock Sale until we and Chiesi notify and furnish information to the FTC and the Antitrust Division and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Each of

Table of Contents

Cornerstone and Chiesi filed notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on June 3, 2009 and the waiting period terminated early on June 25, 2009.

Stockholder Approval Requirement

We are seeking stockholder approval of the Company Stock Sale in accordance with the NASDAQ Listing Rules. These rules are applicable to us because our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market.

Effect on Outstanding Common Stock

The issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement will have a dilutive effect on our existing stockholders' percentage ownership interest and voting power in Cornerstone. The issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi will result in Chiesi holding approximately 51% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a fully diluted basis. Through its ownership of our common stock, and the provisions of the Governance Agreement, the Amended Bylaws and, after the Charter Amendments are adopted, our amended certificate of incorporation, Chiesi will have significant influence over all of our significant corporate actions.

The following table sets forth the estimated dilutive effect on the beneficial ownership of the existing stockholders of Cornerstone upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale. The information contained in the table is based on our fully diluted equity outstanding as of June 23, 2009.

	Beneficial Ownership Pre-Closing(1),(2)		Beneficial Ownership Post Closing (1),(2)
	Number	Percent	Number	Percent
Chiesi	0	0%	13,770,312	51.0%
Cornerstone executive officers, directors and their respective affiliated entities(3)	7,150,932	48.2%	5,550,932	20.6%
Other Cornerstone Stockholders	7,679,367	51.8%	7,679,367	28.4%

(1) Does not include beneficial ownership as a result of the Voting Agreements.

(2) Beneficial ownership is calculated on a fully diluted basis that gives effect to the number of shares of Cornerstone common stock issued and outstanding plus the aggregate number of shares of common stock that Cornerstone may be required to issue pursuant to all options, warrants, rights, convertible or exchangeable securities or similar obligations then outstanding, whether or not such securities are immediately exercisable, but excluding, however, any options, warrants or other similar rights outstanding that have an exercise price equal to greater than $26.00 per share as of May 6, 2009.

(3) Includes shares held by Cornerstone Biopharma Holdings, Ltd., Carolina Pharmaceuticals Ltd. and Lutz Family Limited Partnership.

Consequences if Stockholder Approval is Not Obtained

If we do not obtain stockholder approval as described in this proxy statement, we will not complete the Company Stock Sale because doing so would not be in compliance with the NASDAQ Listing Rules, and such non-compliance could result in the delisting of our common stock from the NASDAQ Capital Market.

In addition, if we do not obtain stockholder approval of the Company Stock Sale and do not complete the Company Stock Sale, we will not receive the cash injection contemplated by Stock Purchase Agreement and Chiesi will be entitled to terminate the grant of exclusive rights to distribute Chiesi's Curosurf[®] treatment. Because completion of the Company Stock Sale is a condition to effectiveness of the other agreements we and certain related parties entered into in connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, those agreements will terminate if we do not obtain stockholder approval. Finally, if we do not obtain stockholder approval of the Company Stock Sale, we will not hold a second special meeting of the stockholders of Cornerstone to approve amendments to our certificate of incorporation as contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Table of Contents

Even if our stockholders approve the Company Stock Sale, it is possible that the transaction might not be completed. The Stock Purchase Agreement contains certain closing conditions which Chiesi and Cornerstone must satisfy or waive before the parties are obligated to consummate the issuance and sale of our common stock pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Use of Proceeds

The cash proceeds from the Company Stock Sale are expected to be used for general corporate purposes, more specifically, the continuing development of our existing product pipeline and expansion of our sales organization. In addition, we anticipate the cash proceeds will enable us to more actively pursue opportunities to in-license more pharmaceutical products, thereby further broadening our portfolio and diversifying our revenue base.

General

The Stock Purchase Agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement, Cornerstone will issue and sell 11,902,741 shares of Cornerstone's common stock to Chiesi at the closing of the Company Stock Sale and issue a number of shares of our common stock within 90 days of the closing so that as of the date of the closing Chiesi owns 51% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement). In exchange Chiesi will (i) grant Cornerstone an exclusive 10-year license to distribute and market Chiesi's Curosurf[®] product in the U.S. and (ii) pay Cornerstone $15,465,075 in cash.

The closing of the issuance and sale of shares of our common stock will occur on the second business day following the satisfaction or waiver of all the conditions set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement, as more fully described under Conditions to Closing below.

No Solicitation

Cornerstone has agreed in the Stock Purchase Agreement that until the closing of the Company Stock Sale, Cornerstone, its subsidiaries and their representatives will not, directly or indirectly, (x) solicit or encourage (including by providing information) any takeover proposal, or any inquiries that reasonably may be expected to lead to any takeover proposal, or (y) engage in any discussions or negotiations with respect to any takeover proposal or otherwise cooperate with, participate in, or facilitate any such inquiries or negotiations, or provide any confidential information relating to a takeover proposal.

This undertaking is subject to the qualification that at any time prior to obtaining stockholder approval of the Company Stock Sale, in response to a written unsolicited takeover proposal received after the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement, (i) Cornerstone may contact the person making such takeover proposal and its advisors solely for the purpose of clarifying the proposal, so as to determine whether the proposal for a takeover proposal is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, as determined by Cornerstone's board of directors in good faith and after consultation with its financial and legal advisors and (ii) if Cornerstone's board of directors in fact determines that such takeover proposal is or is reasonably likely to lead to such a superior proposal, Cornerstone's board of directors may, after providing Chiesi with not less than 72 hours written notice of its intention to take such actions, (x) furnish nonpublic information with respect to Cornerstone and its subsidiaries to the person that made such takeover proposal, subject to certain confidentiality terms, (y) disclose to Cornerstone's stockholders any information required to be disclosed under applicable law and (z) participate in discussions and negotiations regarding such proposal.

Cornerstone is required to notify Chiesi of the material terms of any written proposal that Cornerstone or any of its affiliates may receive after the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement relating to a takeover proposal and will keep Chiesi reasonably informed as to the status of and any material developments regarding any such proposal.

The Stock Purchase Agreement further provides that subject to certain exceptions, described below, neither the board of directors of Cornerstone nor any committee thereof will fail to make, withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Chiesi, recommendations to Cornerstone's stockholders that they vote in favor of the Company Stock Sale and in favor of the Charter Amendments. Subject to certain exceptions, described below, including as may be required under applicable law, neither the board of directors of Cornerstone nor any committee thereof may approve, recommend, or declare advisable any takeover proposal or authorize or permit Cornerstone to enter into any letter of intent or other contract constituting a takeover proposal (other than a confidentiality and standstill agreement to the extent permitted by, and in accordance with, the Stock Purchase Agreement), take any action or make any public statement inconsistent with the recommendations described above, or resolve, agree to take or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing actions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if prior to obtaining the stockholder approval of the Company Stock Sale, Cornerstone's board of directors in good faith, after consultation with Cornerstone's legal advisors, determines that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with the directors' duties under applicable law, the board may (i) withdraw, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Chiesi, or fail to make, the recommendations described above or recommend that Cornerstone's stockholders approve a superior proposal, (ii) cause Cornerstone to terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement and (iii) cause Cornerstone to enter into a definitive agreement providing for or implementing a superior proposal, but only (x) not less than 72 hours after providing written notice to Chiesi advising Chiesi that the board of directors of Cornerstone has received a superior proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal and identifying the person making such superior proposal, accompanied by a copy of the definitive agreement proposed to be entered into with the person making the superior proposal and (y) if Cornerstone pays a termination fee as described in Expenses; Termination Fee below.

For purposes of the Stock Purchase Agreement, a takeover proposal means any of the following (other than the transactions expressly provided for in the Stock Purchase Agreement): (i) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or similar transaction involving Cornerstone; (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of 15% or more of the fair market value of the assets (including by means of an issuance, sale or other disposition of voting securities) of Cornerstone and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or to which 15% or more of Cornerstone's revenues or earnings on a

For purposes of the Stock Purchase Agreement, a superior proposal means a bona fide written proposal for a takeover proposal made by a third party after the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement that Cornerstone's board of directors determines (after taking into account any amendments to the Stock Purchase Agreement entered into or which Chiesi irrevocably covenants to enter into and for which all internal approvals of Chiesi have been obtained prior to the date of such determination), in good faith and after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, is on terms that are more favorable to Cornerstone's stockholders than the Company Stock Sale (based upon such considerations as Cornerstone's board of directors in the exercise of its fiduciary responsibilities deems relevant), except that for the purpose of the definition of superior proposal, the references to 15% in the definition of takeover proposal and deemed to refer to 50%.

Stockholder Approval; Preparation of Proxy Statements

Cornerstone has agreed that, in accordance with applicable law and its certificate of incorporation and bylaws, it will duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of obtaining stockholder approval of the Company Stock Sale and file a proxy statement with the SEC in connection therewith.

Charter Amendments

Cornerstone has agreed that, in accordance with applicable law and its certificate of incorporation and bylaws, following the closing of the Company Stock Sale it will duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of obtaining stockholder approval of the Charter Amendments and file a proxy statement with the SEC in connection therewith.

Reasonable Best Efforts

The parties to the Stock Purchase Agreement have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to take all actions and to do all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement as promptly as practicable, including, without limitation, filings under the applicable rules and regulations of the HSR Act and the antitrust or competition laws of other jurisdictions. Each party has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to respond to any comments of the SEC or its staff, and to any request by the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the proxy statements contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement. The parties have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to prepare, execute and deliver such instruments and take or cause to be taken such actions as any other party may reasonably request and have agreed to notify and consult in good faith with the other party with respect to such filings.

Share Issuance Top-Up

The Stock Purchase Agreement provides that Chiesi will have 90 days following the closing of the Company Stock Sale to confirm that the shares of Cornerstone common stock it acquired at the closing from Cornerstone, together with the shares it purchased simultaneously from Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz, represented 51% of the outstanding shares of Cornerstone's common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis as of the completion of the closing, and will have access to Cornerstone's books and records in order to do so. If during that 90-day period Chiesi establishes that the shares it acquired represented less than the targeted 51% ownership level, Cornerstone will be required to top up Chiesi's share ownership to that level by issuing additional shares to Chiesi for no additional consideration. Fully Diluted Basis is defined as a calculation that gives effect to the number of shares of Cornerstone common stock then issued and outstanding plus the aggregate number of all shares of common stock that Cornerstone may be required to issue as of such date pursuant to all options, warrants, rights, convertible or exchangeable securities or similar obligations then outstanding, whether or not such securities are then exercisable and exchangeable but excluding, however, any options, warrants or other similar rights outstanding at the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement that have an exercise price equal to or greater than $26.00 per share.

Other Covenants

The parties to the Stock Purchase Agreement have agreed to various other covenants in the Stock Purchase Agreement. Some of the covenants are mutual while others have been made either only by Cornerstone or Chiesi. The other covenants relate to the following:

access to information, subject to attorney-client or other legal privilege or any law that reasonably would be expected to make it more difficult to obtain all requisite clearances, approvals and authorizations for the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, including under the HSR Act;

confidentiality;

obtaining consent of the other party prior to issuing a press release or making other public announcements or statements with respect to the Stock Purchase Agreement or related transaction documents or the transactions contemplated thereby, except as may be required by law or by any listing agreement with a national securities exchange or trading market (and in such case shall use all reasonable efforts to consult the other party prior to such release or statement);

contact with customers and suppliers; responsibility for, and the payment obligation in connection with transfer taxes; and notification of certain matters.

Conditions to Closing

The obligations of the parties to complete the closing of the Company Stock Sale are subject to the following mutual conditions:

approval of the Company Stock Sale by Cornerstone's stockholders;

absence of any statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, ruling, judgment, decision or injunction shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court or other governmental authority that prohibits consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement;

the waiting period applicable to the Company Stock Sale under U.S. antitrust law must have expired or been terminated; and the sale of 1.6 million shares of our common stock by entities controlled by Craig A. Collard and Steven M. Lutz being consummated concurrently with the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

The obligations of Cornerstone to complete the closing of the Company Stock Sale are further conditioned on:

the continuing truth and correctness of Chiesi's representations and warranties (subject to the materiality standards specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement);

receipt by Cornerstone of a certificate signed on Chiesi's behalf by Chiesi's President as to the satisfaction of the conditions described in the preceding bullet point;

performance in all material respects of Chiesi's covenants and obligations under the Stock Purchase Agreement at or prior to the closing of the Company Stock Sale; and the actual U.S. net sales of Curosurf® for 2008 being within 85% of the reported U.S. net sales of Curosurf® for that period as provided by Chiesi.

Table of Contents

The obligations of Chiesi to complete the closing of the Company Stock Sale are further conditioned on:

the continuing truth and correctness of Cornerstone's representations and warranties (subject to the materiality standards specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement);

receipt by Chiesi of a certificate signed on Cornerstone's behalf by Cornerstone's President as to the satisfaction of the conditions described in the preceding bullet point;

performance in all material respects of Cornerstone's covenants and obligations under the Stock Purchase Agreement at or prior to the closing of the Company Stock Sale;

there having occurred no Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement) since May 6, 2009;

the effectiveness of new amendments to Cornerstone's bylaws as specified in the Stock Purchase Agreement; receipt by Cornerstone of the consent of Meiji Seika Kaisha, Ltd. to the Company Stock Sale; and receipt by Chiesi of a certificate of Cornerstone in the form contemplated by Section 897 of the Code to the effect that Cornerstone is not, and has not been within five years, a United States real property holding corporation within the meaning of such Section.

If applicable law permits, either Cornerstone or Chiesi could choose to waive a condition to its obligation to complete the Company Stock Sale even though that condition has not been satisfied.

Termination

The Stock Purchase Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Company Stock Sale, whether before or after Cornerstone's stockholders approve the transaction, under certain circumstances. The Stock Purchase Agreement may be terminated by mutual written consent of both parties or by either party if: (i) the closing of the Company Stock Sale has not occurred by the close of business on October 31, 2009, (ii) a governmental authority has permanently enjoined, restrained or otherwise prohibited the Company Stock Sale by final and nonappealable action or (iii) the required vote at a duly held meeting of Cornerstone stockholders was not obtained.

Chiesi may terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement if:

Cornerstone's board of directors or any committee thereof (i) fails to publicly affirm its recommendation of the Company Stock Sale and the Charter Amendments within 10 business days after a takeover proposal is publicly announced and Chiesi has requested such public affirmation, (ii) fails to include its recommendation of the Company Stock Sale in the proxy statement, (iii) publicly withdraws or modifies its recommendation of the Company Stock Sale in a manner materially adverse to Chiesi or (iv) publicly approves or recommends a takeover proposal;

there is any inaccuracy of any representation or warranty of Cornerstone or any breach by Cornerstone of its covenants that would prevent the satisfaction of related conditions to closing and that remains uncured for 30 days after written notice thereof has been delivered to Cornerstone;

Cornerstone materially breaches its non-solicitation covenant; or any person or group (as defined in the Exchange Act), other than Chiesi or its affiliates, acquires beneficial ownership of more than 20% of the shares of Cornerstone common stock or more than 20% of the book value or fair market value of Cornerstone's assets and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or the right to acquire ownership of such shares or assets.

Cornerstone may terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement if:

its board of directors, in accordance with the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement and in good faith after consultation with Cornerstone's legal advisors, fails to make the recommendations contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement or recommends to the stockholders a superior proposal, causes Cornerstone to terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement and causes Cornerstone to enter into a definitive agreement regarding a superior proposal;

Table of Contents

there is any inaccuracy of any representation and warranty of Chiesi or any breach by Chiesi of its covenants that would prevent Chiesi from satisfying related conditions to closing and such inaccuracy or breach is incapable of being cured on or before October 31, 2009 or that remains uncured for 30 days after written notice thereof has been delivered to Chiesi; or all the conditions to the Chiesi's obligations to close have been satisfied or waived but Chiesi fails to cause the transaction to be consummated.

If the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated by either party, there will be no liability or obligation on the part of any party under the Stock Purchase Agreement, except no party will be relieved from liability arising out of any knowing or willful breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other undertakings set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Expenses; Termination Fee

Whether or not the Company Stock Sale is consummated and except as otherwise provided in the Stock Purchase Agreement, each party shall bear its own expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, except that the expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of the proxy statement shall be borne equally by Chiesi and Cornerstone.

Cornerstone will pay Chiesi a termination fee of $2.5 million if the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated:

by Chiesi because Cornerstone's board of directors or any committee thereof (i) fails to publicly affirm its recommendation of the Company Stock Sale and the Charter Amendments within 10 business days after a takeover proposal is publicly announced and Chiesi has requested such public affirmation, (ii) fails to include its recommendation of the Company Stock Sale in the proxy statement, (iii) publicly withdraws or modifies its recommendation of the Company Stock Sale in a manner materially adverse to Chiesi or (iv) publicly approves or recommends a takeover proposal;

by Cornerstone because its board of directors in good faith, after consultation with legal advisors and determining that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with the directors' duties under applicable law, (i) withdraws, qualifies or modifies in a manner adverse to Chiesi or fails to make its recommendation of the approval of the Company Stock Sale and the Charter Amendments, or approves or recommends an alternative transaction that is a superior proposal, (ii) causes Cornerstone to terminate the Stock Purchase Agreement and (iii) causes Cornerstone to enter into a definitive agreement providing for or implementing a superior proposal, but only after providing the specified notice Chiesi;

by Chiesi because the required vote of Cornerstone's stockholders to approve the Company Stock Sale is not obtained and prior to such termination a competing proposal has been publicly announced or made to Cornerstone and not subsequently withdrawn, and within 12 months following such termination, Cornerstone enters into a binding agreement to effect a competing proposal (and such alternative transaction is consummated) or a competing proposal with respect to Cornerstone is consummated; or by either party if Cornerstone's board of directors failed to adopt the amended bylaws even after Chiesi has requested such adoption at least 10 days prior to the termination.

If Cornerstone fails to pay any amount of any termination fee it is required to pay, and, in order to obtain such payment, Chiesi commences a suit that results in a judgment against Cornerstone for such amount, Cornerstone will have to reimburse Chiesi for all its expenses in connection with such suit, including any costs of collection, together with interest on the amount of the judgment at the highest rate permitted by applicable law from the date such fee was required to be paid.

The Stock Purchase Agreement also provides that termination of the Stock Purchase Agreement will not relieve any party from liability arising out of any knowing or willful breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other undertakings in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The following section contains a summary of the License and Distribution Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit H to the Stock Purchase Agreement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. The rights and obligations of the parties to the License and Distribution Agreement are governed by the express terms and conditions of the License and Distribution Agreement and not by this summary. This summary and the summaries of the License and Distribution Agreement elsewhere in this proxy statement may not contain all of the information about the License and Distribution Agreement that is of importance to you and are qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the License and Distribution Agreement. We encourage you to read the License and Distribution Agreement carefully and in its entirety for a more complete understanding of the License and Distribution Agreement.

General

On May 6, 2009, Chiesi and Cornerstone entered into the License and Distribution Agreement pursuant to which Chiesi will grant Cornerstone exclusive rights to distribute Curosurf[®] in the U.S. to Cornerstone for a 10-year term.

Rights Granted to Cornerstone

Pursuant to the License and Distribution Agreement, Chiesi will grant Cornerstone a non-transferable, exclusive license to import, store, handle, promote, distribute, market, offer for sale and sell Curosurf[®] in the U.S. for a 10-year term. During the term of the agreement, Cornerstone agrees to refer to Chiesi all external business opportunities relating to the sale, delivery or use of Curosurf[®] outside the scope of the license which become known to Cornerstone. Cornerstone may not grant sublicenses or enter into co-promotion agreements for Curosurf[®] without Chiesi's prior written consent. The term of the License and Distribution Agreement will commence on the applicable date whether or not the closing of the Company Stock Sale has occurred and even if the Stock Purchase Agreement has been terminated; however, if the closing of the Company Stock Sale has not occurred by October 31, 2009, Chiesi will have the right to terminate the License and Distribution Agreement with the specified notice.

Cornerstone's Obligations

In exercising its distribution rights, Cornerstone is obligated to:

purchase Curosurf[®] from Chiesi on Cornerstone's own account for resale to its customers; use commercially reasonable efforts to achieve maximum market impact and concentration throughout the U.S. Such efforts will be at least at the same level as used with Cornerstone's other similar products with similar sales potential;

provide Chiesi with written and oral reports, market information, competitive activities, sales forecasts, development of prices and other pertinent customer and industry information relating to Curosurf[®];

for at least one year after the expiration date of each lot or batch, maintain accurate records pertaining to the sale and distribution of Curosurf[®] with sufficient detail to enable the recall of such from the market, and maintain accurate records of all complaints and investigation results;

ensure that the storage and shipment of Curosurf[®] complies with regulatory requirements and occurs under the supervision of personnel having training sufficient to protect the health of consumers and purchasers. Cornerstone will maintain adequate staff sufficiently knowledgeable about Curosurf[®] to effectively (i) promote the sale of Curosurf[®], (ii) respond to customer inquiries and complaints, and (iii) respond to regulatory personnel inquiries; hold all licenses and comply with all directives, laws, rules and regulations applicable to Curosurf®. Cornerstone will comply with Chiesi's quality standards and adhere to a level at least as high as Cornerstone maintains for similar activities conducted in relation to its other products;

maintain adequate stocks to meet all reasonably foreseeable demands for Curosurf® in the U.S. without undue delay; and bear all expenses relating to the exercise of its distribution rights.

Marketing Authorization and Pharmacovigilance

Chiesi agrees to procure the transfer of the marketing authorization held by the prior U.S. licensee to Cornerstone on the specified date at Cornerstone's expense. Following the transfer date, Cornerstone will be fully responsible for maintaining or obtaining a new marketing authorization at its own expense, unless Chiesi desires a new marketing authorization, in which case, the application expenses will be borne equally between the parties.

Cornerstone must obtain Chiesi's approval prior to undertaking any study relating to Curosurf®. Chiesi will have the right to disagree with or request a modification of any proposed study. Upon request and at least once every six months, Cornerstone will provide Chiesi with written reports on the progress of such studies. In addition, Cornerstone must immediately provide to Chiesi any results from Cornerstone's studies, which Chiesi will be free to use in and outside the U.S. Chiesi is also obligated to immediately provide to Cornerstone any results from Chiesi's studies relating to Curosurf®, which results Cornerstone will be free to use in the U.S. The parties have agreed to meet at least twice a year to share, discuss and evaluate information relevant to Curosurf®.

The parties have agreed to enter into a pharmacovigilance agreement for the exchange of adverse event and safety information concerning Curosurf® within 10 weeks of May 6, 2009.

Supply and Manufacturing

Chiesi has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to produce and supply Cornerstone's entire requirement of Curosurf®, and Cornerstone has agreed to purchase Curosurf® exclusively from Chiesi, subject to the terms of the License and Distribution Agreement relating to (i) inventory allocation in the event of a shortage, (ii) timeliness of deliveries, (iii) title, (iv) possession and risk of loss and (v) non-conforming deliveries. During the term of the agreement, Chiesi and its contract manufacturer collectively will hold and maintain all licenses and permits as required to fabricate, package, label, test, store and sell Curosurf® in the U.S.

Cornerstone and Chiesi have agreed to enter into a technical agreement in which they define their respective responsibilities in relation to the current good manufacturing practice and quality matters, technical specifications, release and supply of Curosurf®.

At least quarterly, the parties will discuss in a meeting or via telephone any supply chain or other delivery issues that have arisen during the quarter.

Until a specified date, the supply price for Curosurf® will equal the greater of a specified percent of its net sales price, or the applicable floor price. The initial floor price is specified in the License and Distribution Agreement, and thereafter may be adjusted by Chiesi at specified times in accordance with evolving manufacturing and other relevant costs.

Cornerstone has agreed to pay any value added tax provided that Chiesi will use commercially reasonable efforts to procure any available exemption from or refund of value added tax.

Within a specified period after the end of each quarter, Cornerstone will deliver a report to Chiesi specifying:

the quantities of each Curosurf[®] product sold;

the gross sales and the calculation of net sales;

all quantities distributed free of charge, together with any documents evidencing such use;

the net selling price; and the total amount payable.

Any party made aware of an assertion or change in law requiring income or withholding taxes to be withheld from any payments will inform the other party within 30 days and will consult with the other party regarding the consequences. Cornerstone will be entitled to deduct and pay the applicable tax, provided that it takes all reasonable steps to allow Chiesi to take advantage of any relevant double taxation treaties to minimize withholding taxes, and Chiesi promptly provides any necessary forms, certificates or other documentation or information reasonably requested by Cornerstone.

Cornerstone retains the right to determine the prices at which Curosurf[®] purchased by Cornerstone may be sold to any third party.

Marketing

Cornerstone has agreed to provide Chiesi with its proposed annual marketing plan, which will be duly carried out by Cornerstone taking into account all of Chiesi's comments and suggestions, and will submit copies of all marketing materials relating to Curosurf[®] for prior written approval. Within a specified period after the end of each quarter, Cornerstone will send Chiesi a written report detailing the marketing activities in such quarter.

Chiesi will grant Cornerstone the right to link to the healthcare provider section of the Curosurf[®] website from the Cornerstone website and, to the extent applicable, will grant Cornerstone website access rights commensurate with those granted to physicians generally.

Intellectual Property

Chiesi or its affiliates or licensors will remain the owner of the intellectual property relating to Curosurf[®]. Cornerstone will promptly notify Chiesi of any improvements, which will be the sole property of Chiesi regardless of inventorship, and will assign, or cause to be assigned, all rights to such improvements at no cost to Chiesi. Cornerstone will provide Chiesi with reasonable support and any available relevant information in the filing and prosecution of any patent applications for improvements.

Cornerstone will promptly inform Chiesi in writing of any actual or alleged unauthorized use of Chiesi's intellectual property of which it becomes aware and provide Chiesi with any available evidence. Chiesi will have the right, but not the obligation, to enforce its rights in the intellectual property with Cornerstone's reasonable cooperation.

Cornerstone will only market and sell Curosurf[®] under the Curosurf[®] trademark. Chiesi may terminate the License and Distribution Agreement if Cornerstone takes any action which materially impairs any right, title or interest of Chiesi or its affiliate or licensors in the trademark. Chiesi will not have any rights in Cornerstone's logo and any other Cornerstone-owned trade dress included on Curosurf[®] packages, labeling and inserts. In the event Cornerstone acquires any rights relating to the trademark, it will immediately assign such to Chiesi at no cost. Cornerstone will use its best efforts to avoid any act which might endanger, destroy or similarly affect the value of the trademark or any related goodwill, and will comply with all reasonable instructions issued by Chiesi relating to the form and manner in which to use the trademark.

Chiesi will be entitled to conduct all enforcement proceedings and decide how to respond to any claim associated with the trademark. Any such efforts will be conducted at Chiesi's expense, and Cornerstone will reasonably cooperate with Chiesi. No settlement or consent judgment or other voluntary final disposition of an intellectual property suit may be entered into by either party without the prior written consent of the other party. Chiesi will execute or cause the execution of such legal papers in connection with the foregoing as may be reasonably requested by Cornerstone. In the event of any intellectual property claim, threat or suit by a third party against either Cornerstone or Chiesi, the notified party will promptly notify the other party in writing and the parties will defend in close cooperation. Such defense will be at Chiesi's expense unless the alleged infringement relates to Cornerstone's corporate logo or any other Cornerstone-owned trade dress. In the event that a conflict arises between the interests of Chiesi and Cornerstone in any intellectual property litigation, the non-funding party will have the right to be represented by counsel of its own choice and at its sole expense.

Representations, Warranties and Covenants

Each party has made certain customary representations, warranties and covenants, including representations and warranties regarding:

due organization, valid existence, good standing, corporate power and authority; and no conflicts and due authorization.

Cornerstone has made certain additional representations, warranties and covenants, including, that:

it performed an appropriate investigation to determine its interest in entering into the License and Distribution Agreement;

it will represent Curosurf® accurately and fairly and will refrain from misleading or unethical business practices;

it will conduct its business in a manner that reflects favorably on Curosurf® and the good name, goodwill and reputation of Chiesi; and it has all necessary or desirable agency consents.

Chiesi has made, or will require that its contract manufacturers make certain additional representations, warranties and covenants, including, that:

at the time of manufacture, any Curosurf® products will be free and clear of liens or encumbrances;

to its knowledge, Cornerstone's delineated purchase, sale, use, disposition, and advertisement of any Curosurf® or the trademark will not infringe on or violate any intellectual property right of any third party;

it has the right to grant the rights to Cornerstone under the License and Distribution Agreement; and it and its contract manufacturers have all necessary or desirable agency consents.

Assignment

Neither the License and Distribution Agreement nor any rights or obligations under the License and Distribution Agreement may be assigned or otherwise transferred by either party without the prior written consent of the other, except that (i) Chiesi may assign the License and Distribution Agreement to any entity controlled by, under common control with or controlling Chiesi and (ii) either party may assign the License and Distribution Agreement to any successor by means of sale of all or substantially all of the assets of such party or sale of a majority of its voting stock.

Termination

The License and Distribution Agreement has an initial term of 10 years from the transfer date. Following the initial term, the License and Distribution Agreement will automatically renew for successive one-year periods, unless terminated by a party upon six months prior written notice.

Cornerstone may terminate the License and Distribution Agreement upon 30 business days prior written notice in the event of any adverse agency action that permanently prevents Cornerstone from importing, marketing or selling Curosurf[®] in the U.S., or in the event a regulatory authority requires Cornerstone to cease selling or distributing Curosurf[®] in the U.S.

Table of Contents

If either party materially breaches the License and Distribution Agreement and such breach is not cured within 30 business days, the non-breaching party will (i) be entitled to bring action against the breaching party to recover damages arising from such breach and (ii) have the right to terminate the License and Distribution Agreement upon 30 business days written notice if it can prove a permanent material adverse effect on the economic value of the License and Distribution Agreement would result absent termination.

If the closing of the Company Stock Sale has not occurred by October 31, 2009, Chiesi will have the right to terminate the License and Distribution Agreement upon the specified notice, and if it exercises the termination right Chiesi will have the right to make employment offers to employees of Cornerstone's Curosurf® business without any interference by Cornerstone.

Upon expiry or termination of the License and Distribution Agreement, Chiesi will have the option to repurchase all Curosurf® stocks held by Cornerstone at the supply price within 30 days. If this repurchase option is not exercised, Cornerstone will be entitled to continue to sell the Curosurf® stock in the U.S. for the specified period.

THE GOVERNANCE AGREEMENT

The following section contains a summary of the Governance Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit C to the Stock Purchase Agreement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. The rights and obligations of the parties to the Governance Agreement are governed by the express terms and conditions of the Governance Agreement and not by this summary. This summary and summaries of the Governance Agreement elsewhere in this proxy statement may not contain all of the information about the Governance Agreement that is of importance to you and are qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Governance Agreement. We encourage you to read the Governance Agreement carefully and in its entirety for a more complete understanding of the Governance Agreement.

General

On May 6, 2009, Cornerstone, Chiesi and the Founder Stockholders entered into the Governance Agreement. The Governance Agreement will become effective upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale and will remain in effect for two years or until earlier termination as described below under Termination.

Further Acquisitions, and Transfers, of Cornerstone Common Stock by Chiesi

The Governance Agreement provides that while the Governance Agreement is in effect, Chiesi will not directly or indirectly acquire or offer to acquire any shares of Cornerstone common stock except (i) with the approval of the Cornerstone's board or a majority of its independent directors, (ii) as effected solely to the extent necessary to maintain the beneficial ownership of Chiesi and its affiliates at an amount equal to 51% of the shares of Cornerstone common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), (iii) pursuant to open market purchases in the same number of shares as the Founder Stockholders transfer during the same period, (iv) in order to effect the acquisition of all of the outstanding capital stock of Cornerstone by Chiesi and/or any of its affiliates, in accordance with the provisions of the Governance Agreement, and (v) pursuant to a mandatory tender offer by Chiesi that Chiesi will be required to make if Chiesi and its affiliates beneficially own 85% or more of the Cornerstone's capital stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement) to acquire all the shares of Cornerstone common stock not then owned by Chiesi or its affiliates, at a minimum cash price per share equal to the highest per share price paid by Chiesi or any of its affiliates, directly or indirectly, to acquire any share of Cornerstone common stock in the 18 months prior to the commencement of such tender offer.

While the Governance Agreement is in effect, Chiesi also will be prohibited from selling or otherwise transferring any shares of Cornerstone common stock except pursuant to a bona fide acquisition of Cornerstone by a third party through a merger, consolidation, stock exchange or tender offer that was not solicited by Chiesi or its affiliates and that was approved by the Cornerstone's board and a majority of its independent directors. Neither Chiesi nor any of its affiliates will directly or indirectly transfer any shares of Cornerstone's common stock to any person if immediately following the sale or transfer such person would beneficially own (together with such person's affiliates) a number of shares representing more than five percent of all shares of Cornerstone's common stock then outstanding, except pursuant to a sale to a bona fide underwriter that will acquire the shares pursuant to a distribution, upon completion of which, no purchaser will own in excess of five percent of all shares of Cornerstone's common stock then outstanding.

Composition of Cornerstone's Board of Directors; Voting

On the date the Governance Agreement becomes effective, the Company's board of directors will be reconstituted to consist of its chief executive officer, three independent directors under the NASDAQ rules and four persons designated by Chiesi. Thereafter, while the Governance Agreement is in effect, Chiesi will be entitled to designate for consideration for election to the Company's board of directors a number of persons based on the level of beneficial ownership by Chiesi and its affiliates of Cornerstone common stock as follows:

- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 50% or more of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), four individuals;
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 35% or more but less than 50% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), three individuals;
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 25% or more but less than 35% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), two individuals;
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own 10% or more but less than 25% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), one individual; and
- u if Chiesi and its affiliates own less than 10% of the outstanding shares of our common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), Chiesi will not have the right to designate any directors.

After the Charter Amendments take effect, the persons designated by Chiesi will be the persons identified in the amended certificate of incorporation as the Class B directors and the other directors will be the persons identified in the amended certificate of incorporation as the Class A Directors. A majority of the total authorized number of directors, including at least one Class B director, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Cornerstone's nominating committee will nominate the Company's chief executive officer and three independent directors. The nominating committee will also nominate each individual designated by Chiesi in accordance with the Governance Agreement, unless the nominating committee determines such individual lacks the proper qualifications to serve as a director or is otherwise ineligible due to a conflict of interest and accordingly notifies Chiesi to designate another individual for nomination.

Cornerstone has agreed to use its best efforts to solicit from its stockholders eligible to vote for the election of directors proxies in favor of the nominees designated in accordance with the procedures described above. In any election of directors or any stockholders meeting called for the election of directors, Chiesi and each of the Founder Stockholders agreed to cause attendance at such meetings and voting by the record holder(s) of all shares of common stock beneficially owned by them, respectively, in a manner consistent with the terms of the Governance Agreement.

Chiesi has further agreed to certain standstill obligations, pursuant to which Chiesi and certain related persons are prohibited while the Governance Agreement is in effect from:

soliciting, or becoming a participant in any solicitation of, any proxy from any holder of shares of our common stock in connection with any vote on any matter, or agree or announce its intention to vote with any person undertaking a solicitation (other than as provided in the Governance Agreement);

forming, joining or participating in any group of persons formed for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of shares of our common stock that would be required to file a statement with the SEC if such group beneficially owned 5% or more of any class of Cornerstone voting stock (other than Chiesi), unless approved by the majority of our independent directors;

granting any proxies with respect to any shares of our common stock to any person (other than as recommended by the Cornerstone board) or depositing any shares of our common stock in a voting trust or entering into any other arrangement or agreement with respect to the voting thereof; seeking, alone or in concert with other persons, additional representation on the Cornerstone board (in addition to that provided for in the Governance Agreement) or seeking the removal of any member of our board of directors that is not a designee of Chiesi or a change in the composition or size of the Cornerstone board that is inconsistent with the Governance Agreement; or entering into any arrangements, understandings or agreements with, or advising, financing or assisting any other persons in connection with any of the foregoing.

Table of Contents

Fully Diluted Basis is defined in the Governance Agreement as a calculation that gives effect to the number of shares of Cornerstone common stock then issued and outstanding plus the aggregate number of all shares of common stock that Cornerstone may be required to issue as of such date pursuant to all options, warrants, rights, convertible or exchangeable securities or similar obligations then outstanding, whether or not such securities are then exercisable and exchangeable but excluding, however, any options, warrants or other similar rights outstanding at the date of the Governance Agreement that have an exercise price equal to or greater than $26.00 per share.

Rights of First Offer

In the Governance Agreement, Chiesi and Cornerstone each have granted the other party a right of first offer, for the period that the Governance Agreement is in effect, with respect to distribution and marketing of its products within certain territories. Chiesi agreed to provide Cornerstone with a right of first offer with respect to the distribution and marketing in the U.S. of any pharmaceutical products owned or controlled by Chiesi or any of its affiliates that Chiesi makes available for distribution in the U.S. Cornerstone agreed to provide Chiesi with a right of first offer with respect to the distribution and marketing outside the U.S. of any pharmaceutical products owned or controlled by Cornerstone that Cornerstone makes available for distribution outside the U.S. Each right of offer will be available for a period of 30 days following receipt by the applicable party of written notice that a product is available for distribution in a given territory. The parties will have a specified number of days to negotiate and enter into a definitive agreement, and neither party will have any further obligations to offer rights to that product after such time.

Other Covenants

Cornerstone further agreed in the Governance Agreement to take all lawful action necessary to ensure that its organizational and governance documents are not at any time inconsistent with the provisions of the Governance Agreement. Cornerstone and Chiesi also agreed that, in the event any law, rule or regulation comes into effect that conflicts with the terms and conditions of the Governance Agreement, they will negotiate in good faith to revise the Governance Agreement to achieve the parties' original intention set forth therein.

Termination

The Governance Agreement, including each party's right of first offer on the other party's products, will terminate (i) automatically if the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms, (ii) on the second anniversary of the date of the closing of the Company Stock Sale or (iii) at the earliest of (a) such time as Chiesi and its affiliates beneficially own Cornerstone common stock constituting 100% of all outstanding common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement), (b) such time as Chiesi and its affiliates beneficially own Cornerstone common stock constituting less than 10% of all outstanding common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis, or (c) the effective time of a Change in Control (as defined in the Governance Agreement). In addition, the Governance Agreement will terminate with respect to any Founder Stockholder when such Founder Stockholder is no longer employed by Cornerstone.

General

On May 6, 2009 Cornerstone, Chiesi and the Founder Stockholders entered into the Stockholders Agreement. The Stockholders Agreement will become effective upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale and (i) restricts the Founder Stockholders from transferring a certain number of shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by them and from acquiring additional shares of Cornerstone common stock for a specified period, (ii) provides Chiesi with the right to require the Founder Stockholders to sell those shares of Cornerstone stock that may not be transferred at a specified price and (iii) requires the Founder Stockholders to vote the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by them in the manner specified in the Stockholders Agreement. On June 26, 2009, Cornerstone, Chiesi and the Founder Stockholders entered into an amendment to the Stockholders Agreement to revise the number of shares covered by the Stockholders Agreement.

Each Founder Stockholder made certain customary representations and warranties, severally but not jointly and solely with respect to such Founder Stockholder and not with respect to the other Founder Stockholders, to Chiesi, with respect to the following:

ownership of shares of Cornerstone common stock;

capacity, power and authority;

due and valid execution; enforceability;

consents and approvals; and no defaults.

Limitations on Share Transfers

Each Founder Stockholder agrees that during the two years following the closing of the Company Stock Sale (or until such earlier time as the Stockholders Agreement no longer is in effect as to the Founder Stockholder), the Founder Stockholder will not:

directly or indirectly, transfer any covered shares (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) except pursuant to (i) an exempt transfer to an affiliate or by operation of descent and distribution laws, or (ii) Chiesi's call option described below; or knowingly transfer any shares of common stock in a privately negotiated transaction to a pharmaceutical company.

Any transfer or purported transfer in violation of these restrictions will be void and ineffectual, and will not be recognized by Cornerstone. The share transfer restrictions imposed on the Founder Stockholder by the Stockholders Agreement will last no longer than two years.

Limitations on Share Purchases

Each Founder Stockholder agrees that during the two years following the closing of the Company Stock Sale (or until such earlier time as the Stockholders Agreement no longer is in effect as to the Founder

Table of Contents

Stockholder), the Founder Stockholder will not, directly or indirectly, acquire or offer to acquire any shares or beneficial ownership of common stock, except through acquisitions of shares:

effected pursuant to transactions approved by the Cornerstone board or by a majority of Cornerstone's independent directors;

effected solely to maintain the Founder Stockholder's level of beneficial ownership of shares of Cornerstone common stock as of May 6, 2009; or pursuant to Cornerstone's equity compensation arrangements or the exercise of any options or warrants or similar rights granted or awarded under such arrangements.

Chiesi's Call Option

Chiesi will have the option, exercisable in whole but not in part on a single occasion during the 30 days beginning on the earlier of the date on which the share transfer restrictions lapse, two years after the closing of the Company Stock Sale, or the date following the termination under certain circumstances of specified Cornerstone executives employment, to acquire all the Founder Stockholders' covered shares (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) for $12.00 per share in cash, subject to adjustment for any stock split, stock dividend, reverse stock split or similar adjustment occurring after the date of the Stockholders Agreement.

Agreement to Vote

Each Founder Stockholder agrees that while the Stockholders Agreement is in effect as to that Founder Stockholder, at any meeting of Cornerstone stockholders called to consider a transaction in which Chiesi or its affiliate will acquire all the outstanding capital stock of Cornerstone, such Founder Stockholder will vote all shares of common stock owned by such Founder Stockholder at the applicable record date in the same proportions that the shares of common stock owned by the other stockholders (other than Chiesi and its affiliates) are voted on such matter. These obligations of the Founder Stockholders will apply only if (i) a majority of Cornerstone's directors who were not designated by, and are otherwise independent of, Chiesi and its affiliates (other than Cornerstone) has approved the transaction to be voted on at the meeting, and has recommended that Cornerstone's stockholders vote to approve the transaction, and (ii) such approval and recommendation has not been withdrawn.

Termination

The Stockholders Agreement will terminate:

automatically, without action of any of the Founder Stockholders, Chiesi or Cornerstone, if the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms; at any time by an instrument in writing signed by all of the parties; and as to any Founder Stockholder upon the termination under certain circumstances of specified Cornerstone executives' employment with Cornerstone.

Stockholders Registration Rights Agreement

On May 6, 2009, Cornerstone and the Founder Stockholders entered into a registration rights agreement (the Stockholders Registration Rights Agreement) pursuant to which we agreed to provide registration rights, as described below, to the Founder Stockholders with respect to the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by them.

Demand Registration Rights

The Founder Stockholders are entitled to demand that Cornerstone prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement relating to the sale of their shares of Cornerstone common stock, including in an underwritten offering. The Founder Stockholders are entitled to an aggregate of two demand registrations before the expiration of the lockup restrictions in the Stockholders Agreement and three demand registrations thereafter, so long as the shares requested to be registered have a market value of at least $5 million or represent all of the shares then beneficially owned by the Founder Stockholder that initially sent Cornerstone the notice requesting such demand registration. Upon receipt of a demand notice from a Founder Stockholder, Cornerstone is required to promptly give notice of such requested registration to all other Founder Stockholders, who may elect to include their shares in such registration.

Upon receipt of a demand notice, Cornerstone must prepare and file a registration statement with the SEC as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 45 days after receipt of the notice (subject to Cornerstone's right described below to delay such filing), and use its reasonable efforts to cause the same to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable after filing. Additionally, Cornerstone is required to use reasonable efforts to keep the registration statement effective until the earlier of 24 months after the effective time of such registration statement and the date on which all the applicable securities are sold.

Cornerstone may, once in any period of 12 months, defer the filing for up to 90 days if it determines to effect a registered underwritten public offering of its common stock, or securities convertible into or exchangeable for its common stock, for Cornerstone's account in connection with a material public financing transaction that Cornerstone is proceeding to effect. Cornerstone may also decline to include securities in a demand registration if the managing underwriters advise Cornerstone and the requesting stockholders that the aggregate amount of securities requested to be included is sufficiently large to have an adverse effect on the success of any such offering.

Piggyback Registration Rights

The registration rights agreements also provide the Founder Stockholders with piggyback registration rights such that if Cornerstone proposes to file a registration statement (other than a registration statement on Form S-8 or Form S-4) in connection with a public offering of any securities of Cornerstone, Cornerstone is required to give at least 20 business days prior written notice of such proposed filing to the Founder Stockholders, and the notice must offer the Founder Stockholders the opportunity to register such number of securities as each may request. Upon receipt of such notice, the Founder Stockholders have 15 business days to specify the amount of securities to be included in the proposed registration.

In connection with an underwritten offering, if the managing underwriters advise that inclusion of the securities requested to be registered by the Founder Stockholders would have an adverse effect on the success of the offering, Cornerstone's shares (or another Cornerstone stockholder's shares, in the case of an underwritten offering that was initiated by such stockholder) have first priority, shares of the Founder Stockholders have second priority and shares of other holders have third priority.

Expenses

Cornerstone will bear all registration expenses specified in the Purchaser Registration Rights agreement as well as all other expenses incurred by it in connection with the performance of its obligations under the registration rights agreements. The Founder Stockholders will bear any underwriting discounts, commissions, or fees attributable to the sale of the applicable shares whether or not any registration statement becomes effective, and the fees and expenses of any counsel, accountants or other accountants retained or employed by the Founder Stockholders.

Termination

The Stockholders Registration Rights Agreement will terminate automatically, without action by any party thereto, if the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms. Furthermore, Cornerstone will have no further obligations pursuant to the registration rights agreements at such time as all shares of common stock that are beneficially owned by the Founder Stockholders, as applicable, have been effectively registered under Section 5 of the Securities Act and disposed of pursuant to an effective registration statement or such shares may be freely transferred without restriction under the Securities Act.

Purchaser Registration Rights Agreement

On May 6, 2009, Cornerstone and Chiesi entered into a registration rights agreement (the Purchaser Registration Rights Agreement) pursuant to which we agreed to provide registration rights to Chiesi with respect to the shares of Cornerstone common stock owned by them following the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

Demand Registration Rights

Chiesi is entitled to demand that Cornerstone prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement relating to the sale of their shares of Cornerstone common stock, including in an underwritten offering. Chiesi is entitled to request four such demand registrations at any time after the second anniversary of the date of the Company Stock Sale, so long as the shares requested to be registered have a market value of at least $50 million or represent all of the shares then beneficially owned by Chiesi.

Upon receipt of a demand notice, Cornerstone must prepare and file a registration statement with the SEC as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 45 days after receipt of the notice (subject to Cornerstone's right described below to delay such filing), and use its reasonable efforts to cause the same to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable after filing. Additionally, Cornerstone is required to use reasonable efforts to keep the registration statement effective until the earlier of 24 months after the effective time of such registration statement and the date on which all the applicable securities are sold.

Cornerstone may, once in any period of 12 months, defer the filing for up to 90 days if it determines to effect a registered underwritten public offering of its common stock, or securities convertible into or exchangeable for its common stock, for Cornerstone's account in connection with a material public financing transaction that Cornerstone is proceeding to effect. Cornerstone may also decline to include securities in a demand registration if the managing underwriters advise Cornerstone and the requesting stockholders that the aggregate amount of securities requested to be included is sufficiently large to have an adverse effect on the success of any such offering.

Piggyback Registration Rights

The registration rights agreements also provide Chiesi with piggyback registration rights such that if Cornerstone proposes to file a registration statement (other than a registration statement on Form S-8 or Form S-4) in connection with a public offering of any securities of Cornerstone, Cornerstone is required to give at least 20 business days prior written notice of such proposed filing to Chiesi, and the notice must offer Chiesi the opportunity to register such number of securities as each may request. Upon receipt of such notice, Chiesi has 15 business days to specify the amount of securities to be included in the proposed registration.

In connection with an underwritten offering, if the managing underwriters advise that inclusion of the securities requested to be registered by Chiesi would have an adverse effect on the success of the offering, Cornerstone's shares (or another Cornerstone stockholder's shares, in the case of an underwritten offering that was initiated by such stockholder) have first priority, shares of Chiesi have second priority and shares of other holders have third priority.

Expenses

Cornerstone will bear all registration expenses specified in the registration rights agreements as well as all other expenses incurred by it in connection with the performance of its obligations under the registration rights agreements. Chiesi will bear any underwriting discounts, commissions, or fees attributable to the sale of the applicable shares whether or not any registration statement becomes effective, and the fees and expenses of any counsel, accountants or other accountants retained or employed by Chiesi.

Termination

The Purchaser Registration Rights Agreement will terminate automatically, without action by any party thereto, if the Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms. Furthermore, Cornerstone will have no further obligations pursuant to the registration rights agreements at such time as all shares of common stock that are beneficially owned by Chiesi, as applicable, have been effectively registered under Section 5 of the Securities Act and disposed of pursuant to an effective registration statement or such shares may be freely transferred without restriction under the Securities Act.

Each stockholder may not:

THE AMENDED BYLAWS

The following section contains a summary of the Amended Bylaws, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit G to the Stock Purchase Agreement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. The rights and obligations of Cornerstone are governed by the express terms and conditions of the Amended Bylaws. This summary and the summaries of the Amended Bylaws elsewhere in this proxy statement may not contain all of the information about the Amended Bylaws that is of importance to you and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the complete text of the Amended Bylaws. We encourage you to read the Amended Bylaws carefully and in their entirety for a more complete understanding of the Amended Bylaws.

The Stock Purchase Agreement and the Governance Agreement contemplate that Cornerstone's bylaws will be amended to be consistent with the terms of the Governance Agreement. It is a condition to Chiesi's obligation to consummate the Company Stock Sale that the Amended Bylaws will be in effect. Adoption of the Amended Bylaws requires the approval of Cornerstone's board of directors, and does not require stockholder approval. While the Governance Agreement is in effect, the Amended Bylaws provide (i) that a majority of the total authorized number of directors and at least one Chiesi designated or nominated director shall constitute a quorum of Cornerstone's board of directors, (ii) a majority in voting power of the Cornerstone board will constitute action by the Cornerstone board, (iii) any vacancies will be filled in accordance with the Governance Agreement and (iv) all matters relating to executive compensation will require the approval of the Cornerstone compensation committee and the ratification of the Cornerstone board. In addition, so long as Chiesi beneficially owns Cornerstone common stock constituting at least 50% of all outstanding common stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Amended Bylaws) the following actions are subject to approval by the Cornerstone board of directors:

the adoption, modification or amendment of Cornerstone's annual operating or capital budget to be effective January 1 of that fiscal year;

the entry into, modification or amendment of any exclusive license, distribution or supply agreement to which Cornerstone is a party;

any capital expenditure in excess of $500,000 in any one case or $2 million in the aggregate;

any expense that deviates from the approved annual operating or capital budget, other than immaterial expenditures in the ordinary course of business; or the incurrence by Cornerstone or any of its subsidiaries of indebtedness in excess of $1 million in the aggregate for borrowed money, including, but not limited to trade financing (less than 60 days) either on an individual or cumulative basis or issuing any equity security that ranks senior in liquidation preference to the equity securities outstanding as of the date of the amendment.

Fully Diluted Basis is defined in the Amended Bylaws as a calculation that gives effect to the number of shares of Cornerstone common stock then issued and outstanding plus the aggregate number of all shares of common stock that Cornerstone may be required to issue as of such date pursuant to all options, warrants, rights, convertible or exchangeable securities or similar obligations then outstanding, whether or not such securities are then exercisable and exchangeable but excluding, however, any options, warrants or other similar rights outstanding at the date the Amended Bylaws are adopted that have an exercise price equal to or greater than $26.00 per share.

a lump sum payment in an amount equal to a pro rata payment of his target cash bonus;

if such termination did not occur during a Change of Control Period, accelerated vesting of all of his outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock by one year; and if such termination occurred during a Change of Control Period, accelerated vesting of 100% of his outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock.

The terms Cause, Good Reason and Change of Control Period are specifically defined in the Employment Agreements.

Under the terms of the Employment Agreements, each Executive agrees not to compete with Cornerstone during his employment with Cornerstone and for one year following termination of such Executive's employment. Each Executive has also agreed to a provision that prohibits him from soliciting, among others, Cornerstone's employees and customers during the term of his employment and for one year following the termination of his employment. The Employment Agreements also contain customary provisions relating to confidentiality, proprietary information and non-disparagement and provides that upon a Change of Control (as defined in each Executive's Employment Agreement), 100% of the Executive's unvested stock options and restricted stock vest.

Table of ContentsSECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS, DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The following table sets forth information regarding beneficial ownership of our common stock as of June 23, 2009 by:

Each person, entity or group of affiliated persons or entities known to us to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock;

Each of our directors;

Our President and Chief Executive Officer as of December 31, 2008, two other individuals that served as our President and Chief Executive Officer during 2008, our two most highly compensated executive officers other than our President and Chief Executive Officer who were serving as executive officers on December 31, 2008, and two additional former executive officers who would have been among our most highly compensated executive officers if they had been serving as executive officers on December 31, 2008; and

All of our directors and executive officers as a group.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the applicable rules of the SEC and includes voting or investment power with respect to shares of our common stock. Shares of common stock issuable under stock options and warrants that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of June 23, 2009 (including options that will become fully vested upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale) are deemed to be beneficially owned by the person holding the option or warrant for purposes of calculating the percentage ownership of that person but are not deemed outstanding for purposes of calculating the percentage ownership of any other person. The information set forth below is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose, and the inclusion of any shares deemed beneficially owned in this table does not constitute an admission of beneficial ownership of those shares. Unless otherwise indicated, to our knowledge, all persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares of common stock beneficially owned by them, except, where applicable, to the extent authority is shared by spouses under community property laws or such stockholder has appointed Chiesi, and its executive officers, as the stockholder's proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote the shares of common stock held by such stockholder as agreed upon in the Stockholders Voting Agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROPOSED STOCK ISSUANCE AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

A: You are receiving this proxy statement because you have been identified as a stockholder of Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc. as of June 25, 2009, the record date, and therefore you are entitled to vote at the Special Meeting of the stockholders of Cornerstone. This document serves as a proxy statement of Cornerstone, used to solicit proxies for the Special Meeting. This document contains important information about the Special Meeting and the proposals to be considered at the Special Meeting, and you should read it carefully.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the issuance and sale of shares of Cornerstone's common stock, par value $0.001 per share, to Chiesi Farmaceutici SpA, pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of May 6, 2009, between Cornerstone and Chiesi. We sometimes refer to the proposed issuance and sale of shares as the Company Stock Sale. If the Company Stock Sale is approved, following the Company Stock Sale and the closing of the sale of 1.6 million shares of our common stock by entities controlled by Craig A. Collard, our President and Chief Executive Officer, and Steven M. Lutz, our Executive Vice President, Manufacturing and Trade, Chiesi will hold 51% of our outstanding common stock on a fully diluted basis and be Cornerstone's controlling stockholder. You also may be asked to vote to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale. For more information, please see the sections entitled The Special Meeting, beginning on page 11 of this proxy statement, for additional detail.

Q: How many shares of Cornerstone common stock will Cornerstone issue and sell to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement?

A: In the Stock Purchase Agreement we agreed to issue to Chiesi 11,902,741 shares of our common stock at the closing of the Company Stock Sale. The parties established the number of shares to be issued by Cornerstone based in part on Chiesi's objective of acquiring a number of shares that will represent 51% of Cornerstone's outstanding shares of common stock on a fully diluted basis. Accordingly, we have agreed that if Chiesi's ownership level immediately following the closing of these transactions is below the targeted level of 51% on a fully diluted basis, Chiesi will have the right (but only during the 90-day period following the closing) to require us to issue to Chiesi the number of shares required to achieve Chiesi's targeted level of ownership, for no additional consideration. Based on the number of shares of restricted stock and stock options that were issued after the date the Stock Purchase Agreement was entered into, we estimate we will be required under the Stock Purchase Agreement to issue an aggregate of 12,170,312 shares of our common stock to Chiesi.

Q: Why is Cornerstone seeking to issue and sell shares of common stock to Chiesi?

A: On May 6, 2009, we, Chiesi and certain related parties entered into a number of agreements, including the Stock Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which we agreed to issue and sell shares of our common stock (in an amount presently estimated to be approximately 12,170,312 shares) to Chiesi in exchange for (i) the exclusive rights to distribute Chiesi's Curosu[®] treatment in the U.S. for a 10-year term; and (ii) a cash payment of $15,465,075. Chiesi has also agreed to grant us a right of first offer, for a period of two years following the closing of the Company Stock Sale, on all pharmaceutical products that Chiesi wishes to market in the U.S. We believe forming a strategic alliance with Chiesi through the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement is in the best interests of Cornerstone and its stockholders. For a more detailed description of the Stock Purchase Agreement and the agreements, please see the sections entitled The Stock Purchase Agreement beginning on page 38 of this proxy statement.

Q: What will happen if stockholder approval of the issuance and sale of shares of our common stock to Chiesi pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement is not obtained?

A: If we do not obtain stockholder approval for the Company Stock Sale, we will not complete the Company Stock Sale. In such event, we will not receive the cash injection contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement and Chiesi will be entitled to terminate the grant of exclusive rights to distribute Chiesi's Curosur[®] treatment. In addition, because the closing of the Company Stock Sale is a condition to effectiveness of the other agreements we and certain related parties entered into in connection with the Stock Purchase Agreement, those agreements will terminate. Finally, if we do not complete the Company Stock Sale, we will not hold a second special meeting of the stockholders of Cornerstone to approve amendments to our certificate of incorporation as contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Q: When do you expect the closing of the Company Stock Sale to occur?

A: In addition to obtaining stockholder approval at the Special Meeting, we must satisfy various other customary closing conditions before the closing of the Company Stock Sale can be completed. We expect to complete the closing promptly following satisfaction of those closing conditions, which we currently expect to occur in the third calendar quarter of 2009.

Q: What if I oppose the Company Stock Sale? Do I have appraisal rights?

A: No, under Delaware law, Cornerstone stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights with respect to the Company Stock Sale.

Q: What vote is required to approve the Company Stock Sale?

A: Approval of the Company Stock Sale requires the affirmative vote of the majority of the total votes cast on the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale so long as a quorum is present. If your shares are held by your broker in street name, and you do not vote your shares, your brokerage firm may not vote your unvoted shares on the proposed issuance. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of voting on this matter. Abstentions will have the effect of a vote against this matter.

Q: What vote is required to adjourn the Special Meeting?

A: The approval of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Cornerstone common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, even if less than a quorum. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of voting on this matter. Abstentions will have the effect of a vote against this matter.

Q: How does Cornerstone's board of directors recommend that I vote?

A: Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our stockholders vote FOR the approval of the Company Stock Sale and FOR the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the Company Stock Sale. You should read the section entitled The Transaction Reasons for the Transaction, beginning on page 18, for a discussion of the factors that our board of directors considered in deciding to approve the Stock Purchase Agreement and the various transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Q: Who can vote at the Special Meeting?

A: To be able to vote, you must have been a stockholder of record at the close of business on June 25, 2009, the record date. The number of outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the meeting as of the record date is 12,836,498. If you were a stockholder of record as of the close of business on the record date, you will be entitled to vote all of the shares that you held as of the close of business on the record date at the Special Meeting, or at any postponements or adjournments of the meeting.

You will not be able to vote shares you hold in street name at the meeting unless you have a proxy from your broker issued in your name giving you the right to vote the shares.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the Special Meeting. To do so, you must do one of the following:

Deliver to Cornerstone's Secretary a written notice of revocation before the Special Meeting (or, if the Special Meeting is adjourned or postponed, before the adjourned or postponed meeting is actually held);

Deliver to Cornerstone's Secretary a later-dated, duly executed proxy (including a proxy by telephone or through the Internet) before the Special Meeting (or, if the Special Meeting is adjourned or postponed, before the adjourned or postponed meeting is actually held);

A: If your shares are registered directly in your name, your shares will not be voted if you do not submit a proxy over the Internet or by telephone, return your proxy by mail, or vote by ballot at the Special Meeting. If your shares are held in street name, your brokerage firm may vote your shares on the matters to be presented at the Special Meeting only if you give instructions as to how you wish your shares to be voted. We encourage you to provide voting instructions to your brokerage firm by giving your proxy to your brokerage firm. This ensures that your shares will be voted at the meeting according to your instructions. You should receive directions from your brokerage firm about how to instruct your brokerage firm at the time you receive this proxy statement.

Q: How many shares must be present to hold the Special Meeting?

A: A majority of our outstanding shares of common stock must be present at the Special Meeting in order for us to validly conduct business at the meeting. This is called a quorum. For purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, we count as present any shares that are represented by proxy or that are represented in person at the meeting. For purposes of establishing a quorum, we will count abstentions and broker non-votes.

Q: When is the Special Meeting and where will it be held?

A: The Special Meeting will be held on July 27, 2009, at 10:00 a.m. local time at The Umstead Hotel and Spa, 100 Woodland Pond, Cary, North Carolina. If you wish to vote in person at the Special Meeting and your shares are held in street name by a broker or other nominee, you need to obtain a proxy from the broker or other nominee authorizing you to vote your shares held in the broker's name. That proxy is different from the proxy card provided with this proxy statement.

A: Further information about Cornerstone, such as annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information is filed with the SEC. See Where You Can Find Additional Information on page 76 of this proxy statement for more information.

If, however, any other matters properly come before the Special Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote the proxies in accordance with the majority of our board of directors.

FUTURE STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

In order to be eligible for inclusion in our proxy material for the 2010 annual meeting of stockholders, stockholders proposals must be received by us at our principal executive offices, Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc., Attn: Corporate Secretary, 1255 Crescent Green Drive, Suite 250, Cary, North Carolina 27518, no later than December 25, 2009. If the date of the 2010 annual meeting is changed by more than 30 days from the date of the first anniversary of the 2009 annual meeting, then the deadline is a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy statement for the 2010 annual meeting. We suggest that proponents submit their proposals by certified mail, return receipt requested.

In addition, our bylaws require that we be given advance notice of stockholder nominations for election to the board of directors and of other matters that stockholders wish to present for action at an annual meeting of stockholders, other than matters included in our proxy statement. The required notice must be in writing and received by our corporate secretary at our principal offices in the case of an election of directors at an annual meeting of stockholders, not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 20 days, or delayed by more than 60 days, from the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice must be so received not earlier than the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of (A) the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and (B) the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of such annual meeting was mailed or public disclosure of the date of such annual meeting was made, whichever first occurs. The date of our 2010 annual meeting of stockholders has not yet been established, but assuming it is held on May 28, 2010, in order to comply with the time periods set forth in our bylaws, appropriate notice for the 2010 annual meeting would need to be provided to our Corporate Secretary no earlier than January 28, 2010 and no later than February 27, 2010.

Section 2.1. Organization; Qualification.

(a) The Company and each of its subsidiaries is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing (to the extent such concept exists in the relevant jurisdiction) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, license, use, lease and operate its assets and properties and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. The Company has made available to Purchaser before the date of this Agreement complete and correct copies of its certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws (or corresponding organizational documents) of each of its subsidiaries (collectively, the Charter Documents). Such Charter Documents are in full force and effect and the Company is not in default of any provision thereunder.

(b) The Company and each of its subsidiaries is duly qualified or licensed to do business and in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the assets or property owned, licensed, used, leased or operated by it or the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except in such jurisdictions where the failure to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing would not have a Material Adverse Effect. For purposes of this Agreement, a Material Adverse Effect means any event, circumstance, change or effect individually or in the aggregate that has or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, assets, properties, liabilities, results of operations or financial condition of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or impairs, prevents or delays the ability of the Company to perform its obligations hereunder, other than any event, circumstance, change or effect due to (A) general economic, market or political conditions, except in the event those conditions have a materially disproportionate effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other persons operating in the same industry, (B) matters generally affecting the industry in which the Company operates, except in the event those conditions have a materially disproportionate effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other persons operating in the same industry, (C) the announcement or expectation of this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, including any termination of, reduction in or other negative impact on relationships, contractual or otherwise, with any funding sources, customers, suppliers, distributors, licensors, licensees, partners or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to the extent related to the announcement or performance of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents or the identity of Purchaser, (D) any of the requirements or limitations imposed on any party pursuant to this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents, including compliance with any covenants in this Agreement and such other Transaction Documents, (E) changes in applicable laws or regulations or in accounting policies or principles or in any interpretations of any of the foregoing, (F) any outbreak or escalation of war or armed hostilities or any act of terrorism, (G) earthquakes, hurricanes or other natural disasters or acts of God, (H) any failure by the Company to meet any published estimates or expectations as to revenues, earnings or other measures of financial or operating performance, (I) any failure by the Company to meet any projections, forecasts or budgets prepared by or on behalf of the Company, it being understood however that the factors giving rise to any such failure are not otherwise excluded by this clause (I) from the definition of Material Adverse Effect or (J) a decline in the Company's stock price, in and of itself.

Section 2.2. Capitalization.

(a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 90,000,000 shares of Common Stock and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share (Company Preferred Stock). At the close of business on May 5, 2009, (i) 12,499,370 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding (including an aggregate of 475,355 restricted shares granted under the Company Option Plans (as defined below)), (ii) no shares of Company Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding, (iii) 2,069,090 shares of Common Stock were issuable upon the exercise of options and other similar rights (the Company Stock Awards) granted under the Company's 2000 Equity Incentive Plan, 2003 Stock Incentive Plan, 2004 Stock Incentive Plan, 2005 Stock Incentive Plan and 2005 Stock Option Plan (each as amended from time to time and collectively, the Company Option Plans) and (iv) 725,633 shares of Common Stock were reserved and available for issuance pursuant to outstanding warrant agreements. All outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable, were issued in compliance with all applicable federal and state securities laws, and have not been issued in violation of any preemptive or similar rights. The Company has duly reserved 153,083 shares of Common Stock for future issuances pursuant to the Company Option Plans. Except as set forth above in this Section 2.2(a), and for changes since the date referred to above resulting from the exercise of Company Stock Awards outstanding on such date in accordance with their terms, there are no outstanding shares of capital stock or other voting securities of the Company, securities of the Company convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock or other securities of the Company or subscriptions, options, warrants, puts, calls, phantom stock rights, stock appreciation rights, stock-based performance units, agreements, understandings, claims or other commitments or rights of any type granted or entered into by the Company or any of its subsidiaries relating to the issuance, sale, repurchase or transfer of any securities of the Company or that give any person or entity the right to receive any economic benefit or right similar to or derived from the economic benefits and rights of securities of the Company. There are no outstanding obligations of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire or make any investment in (by means of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) any securities of the Company, any of the Company's subsidiaries or any other person or to vote or to dispose of any securities of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries.

(b) The Company is not a party to any contract obligating the Company, directly or indirectly, to issue additional securities and there is no circumstance or condition that may give rise to a claim by any person that such person is entitled to acquire any securities of the Company. Other than the Stockholders Voting Agreement and the Purchaser Voting Agreement, the Company is not a party to any stockholder agreements, voting agreements, voting trusts or any such other similar arrangements with respect to the transfer, voting or other rights associated with its securities and, to the Company's knowledge, there are no such agreements to which the Company is not a party.

(c) The Company has provided to Purchaser a report dated as of December 31, 2008 and updated through May 5, 2009, that sets forth with respect to all equity grants that are outstanding as of such date: (i) the name of each holder of such equity grants; (ii) the total number of shares subject to such equity grants originally issued to such holder;

(iii) the date on which such equity grants were issued; (iv) the number of shares subject to the equity grants which have vested and the number of shares that remain subject to such equity grant;

(v) the vesting schedule for such equity grants; (vi) the term of such equity grants; (vii) the purchase price per share of such equity grants; and (viii) whether such equity grant has been designated an incentive stock option as defined in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). The Company has delivered to Purchaser accurate and complete copies of (A) its standard form of grant agreement for equity grants, (B) any agreement that deviates in any material respect from the standard form of agreement for equity grants and (C) the Company Option Plans.

(d) All outstanding Company Stock Awards have been duly authorized and validly issued and were issued in compliance with all applicable federal and state securities laws.

(e) All shares of Common Stock subject to issuance upon exercise of the Company Stock Awards, upon issuance in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the instruments pursuant to which they are issuable, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

(f) The Company does not have outstanding any bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations or debt securities the holders of which have the right to vote (or convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, securities having the right to vote) on any matter.

Section 2.3. Subsidiaries.

(a) Section 2.3(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule lists each subsidiary of the Company and sets forth with respect to each such subsidiary the jurisdiction of incorporation or organization, the authorized and outstanding capital stock of such subsidiary and the owner(s) of record of such outstanding capital stock. All the outstanding shares of capital stock (or other securities having by their terms voting power to elect a majority of directors or others performing similar functions) of each such subsidiary are owned by the Company, by another wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company or by the Company and another wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, free and clear of all liens, charges, security interests, mortgages, pledges, options, preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or first offer, proxies, levies, voting trusts or agreements, or other adverse claims or restrictions on title or transfer of any nature whatsoever (collectively, Encumbrances), and are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. There are no securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock or other securities of any subsidiary of the Company, or subscriptions, options, warrants, puts, calls, phantom stock rights, stock appreciation rights, stock-based performance units, agreements, understandings, claims or other commitments or rights of any type granted or entered into by the Company or any of its subsidiaries relating to the issuance, sale, repurchase or transfer of any securities of any subsidiary of the Company or that give any person or entity the right to receive any economic benefit or right similar to or derived from the economic benefits and rights of securities of any subsidiary of the Company. Except for the capital stock of its subsidiaries, the Company does not own, directly or indirectly, any capital stock or other ownership interest in any person. The Company is not subject to any obligation or requirement to provide funds to or make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in any person.

(b) Other than the shares of capital stock set forth in Section 2.3(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, no subsidiary of the Company has outstanding securities of any kind. No subsidiary of the Company is party to any contract obligating such subsidiary, directly or indirectly, to issue any additional securities and there is no circumstance or condition that may give rise to a claim by any person that such person is entitled to acquire the securities of any such subsidiary.

(c) No subsidiary of the Company has outstanding any bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations or debt securities the holders of which have the right to vote (or convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, securities having the right to vote) on any matter.

(d) Other than the subsidiaries set forth in Section 2.3(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, neither the Company nor any subsidiary of the Company, directly or indirectly, owns any securities or other interest in any corporation, partnership, joint venture or other business association or entity.

(e) There are no obligations, contingent or otherwise, of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company to provide funds to or make an investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in any entity.

Section 2.4. Validity of New Shares. When issued and paid for in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the New Shares will be duly authorized and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of any Encumbrances other than Encumbrances (i) imposed under applicable securities laws or (ii) imposed under any of the Transaction Documents.

Section 2.5. Authority.

(a) The Company has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party and to perform and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which the Company is a party have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company and no other corporate proceedings on the part of the Company are necessary to authorize this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to which the Company is a party or to consummate transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, other than (i) the approval of the Company Stock Sale by a majority of the votes cast by all stockholders entitled to vote, as required under the rules of the NASDAQ Capital Market (the Stock Sale Approval); and (ii) the approval of the Charter Amendment by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 75% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock (the Charter Amendment Approval). This Agreement, the Amended Bylaws and each other Transaction Document to which the Company is a party has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming the accuracy of the representations made in Section 3.2, constitute valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their respective terms.

(b) The board of directors of the Company, at a meeting duly called and held, by the unanimous vote of all the directors present (i) adopted a resolution approving this Agreement, the Charter Amendment and each other Transaction Document to which the Company is a party, (ii) approved the Company Stock Sale, the other transactions contemplated hereby and the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents; (iii) determined that the Company Stock Sale is fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders; (iv) declared the Charter Amendment advisable; (v) took all actions necessary to render any anti-takeover statute or regulation inapplicable to each of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents; and (vi) resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the Company Stock Sale and the Charter Amendment.

(c) The board of directors of the Company has taken all actions so that the restrictions contained in Section 203 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) applicable to a business combination (as defined in such Section 203), and any other applicable law, will not apply to Purchaser or its affiliates with respect to the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. No other anti-takeover statute or regulation applies to this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. The Company does not have any stockholder rights plan in effect.

Section 2.6. Consents and Approvals: No Violations.

(a) The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby do not and will not require any filing or registration with, notification to, or authorization, permit, consent or approval of, or other action by or in respect of, any U.S. or non-U.S. government, regulatory or administrative authority, agency, instrumentality or commission or any court, tribunal, judicial or arbitral body or other similar authority (a Governmental Authority) other than (i) the filing of the Charter Amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the DSQS), (ii) compliance with

The Company or one of its subsidiaries, as applicable, is not (with or without the lapse of time or the giving of notice, or both) in material breach or default thereunder except for those breaches or defaults that would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect. The Company has not received any written notice or, to the Company's knowledge, threat of breach, termination, cancellation or non-renewal that is currently in effect with respect to any Company Material Contract.

Section 3.2. Authority. Purchaser has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party and to perform and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary organization action on the part of Purchaser and no other organizational proceedings on the part of Purchaser are necessary to authorize this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party or to consummate such transactions. No vote of the stockholders of Purchaser is required to approve this Agreement, any other Transaction Document to which Purchaser is a party or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. This Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by Purchaser and, assuming the accuracy of the representations made in Section 2.5, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Purchaser enforceable against it in accordance with their terms.

Section 3.3. Consents and Approvals: No Violations.

(a) The execution, delivery and performance by Purchaser of this Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which it is party and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby do not and will not require any filing or registration with, notification to, or authorization, permit, consent or approval of, or other action by or in respect of, any Governmental Authority other than (i) compliance with any applicable requirements of the HSR Act, (ii) compliance with any applicable requirements of the Exchange Act, (iii) compliance with any applicable requirements of the NASDAQ Capital Market and (iv) where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not reasonably be expected to prevent or

(b) The execution, delivery and performance by Purchaser of this Agreement and each Transaction Document to which it is a party and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby do not and will not (i) conflict with or result in any breach of any provision of the organizational documents of Purchaser, (ii) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of

(c) Purchaser is not aware of any fact relating to it or its businesses that might reasonably be expected to impair its ability to obtain, on a timely basis, all consents, orders, authorizations and approvals from Governmental Authorities necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 3.4. Information Supplied. None of the information supplied or to be supplied by Purchaser specifically for inclusion in the Proxy Statement will, at the time it is supplied, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

Section 3.5. Financing. Purchaser has funds sufficient to pay the Cash Consideration at the Closing.

Section 3.6. Curosurf.

(b) There are no suits, claims, actions, proceedings or investigations pending or, to the knowledge of Purchaser, threatened by or against Purchaser or any of its subsidiaries or other affiliates before any Governmental Authority that, if adversely determined, reasonably would be expected to result in a Curosurf MAE. Except as would not result in a Curosurf MAE, neither Purchaser nor any of its subsidiaries or other affiliates is subject to any outstanding order, writ, judgment, decree, injunction or settlement that prohibits or could impose any material restriction on execution, delivery or performance of the U.S. Curosurf Agreement.

Section 335a(a) or 21 U.S.C. Section 335a(b) or any similar law or to Purchaser's knowledge, engaged in any conduct for which debarment is mandated by 21 U.S.C. (e) Except as would not result in a Curosurf MAE, no proceedings (whether completed or pending) seeking the recall, withdrawal, suspension or seizure of any Curosurf product or pre-market approvals or marketing authorizations of Curosurf are pending, or to the knowledge of Purchaser, threatened, against Purchaser or any of its subsidiaries, nor have any such proceedings been pending at any time, since Purchaser acquired the rights to Curosurf.

(f) (i) Purchaser and each of its subsidiaries own free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances or have a valid and enforceable right to use all Intellectual Property used in the manufacture, sale and promotion of Curosurf as currently conducted (the Curosurf Intellectual Property); (ii) except as would not result in a Curosurf MAE, neither Purchaser nor any of its subsidiaries has received any notice since January 1, 2007 alleging that the conduct of the business of Purchaser has infringed or misappropriated

Section 3.7. Brokers and Other Advisors. No broker, investment banker, financial advisor or other person is entitled to any broker's, finder's, financial advisor's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as a result of any action taken by or on behalf of Purchaser.

Superior Proposal, the references to 15% in the definition of Takeover Proposal shall be deemed to refer to 50%.

(f) The Company shall notify Purchaser of, promptly, but in no event later than three business days after receipt thereof, the material terms of any written proposal that any of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or its officers, directors, or Representatives or affiliates may receive after the date hereof relating to a Takeover Proposal and shall keep Purchaser reasonably informed as to the status of and any material developments regarding any such proposal.

(g) Nothing in this Section 4.2 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall prevent the Company's board of directors from complying with Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act with respect to a Takeover Proposal or from issuing a stop, look and listen announcement or otherwise making any required disclosure to the Company stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company's board of directors, after consultation with outside legal counsel, failure to do so would be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable law, including Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A.

(h) The Company agrees that any violations of the restrictions set forth in this Section 4.2 by any Representative of the Company or any of its subsidiaries shall be deemed to be a breach of this Section 4.2 by the Company.

Section 4.3. Stockholder Approval; Preparation of Proxy Statement.

(a) The Company shall, in accordance with applicable law and its certificate of incorporation and bylaws, as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement and the date on which the Proxy Statement is cleared by the staff of the SEC, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the Stockholders Meeting) for the purpose of obtaining the Stock Sale Approval and the Charter Amendment Approval.

(b) Except to the extent expressly permitted by Section 4.2, (i) the board of directors of the Company shall recommend that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the Company Stock Sale and the Charter Amendment Approval, and (ii) the Proxy Statement shall include a statement that the board of directors of the Company has recommended that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the Company Stock Sale and the proxy statement described in Section 4.9 shall include a statement that the board of directors of the Company has recommended that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the Charter Amendment Approval (this statement and the statement in the Proxy Statement, the Recommendation). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if prior to obtaining the Stock Sale Approval, the Company's board of directors in good faith, after consultation with the Company's legal advisors, determines that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with the directors' duties under applicable law, the board may withdraw, qualify or modify, or fail to make the Recommendation. Regardless of whether the Company's board of directors withdraws, qualifies or modifies, or fails to make the Recommendation, the Company shall submit the Company Stock Sale and the Charter Amendment Approval to the Company's stockholders for their vote.

(c) The Company shall, as soon as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, but no later than within fifteen business days from the date hereof, prepare and file a preliminary proxy statement (as subsequently amended, the Proxy Statement) with the SEC and thereafter each of the Company and Purchaser shall use their reasonable best efforts to respond to any comments of the SEC or its staff, and to any request by the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement or for additional information. The Proxy Statement and any amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement will, when filed, comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act. If at any time prior to the Stockholders Meeting there shall occur any event that is required to be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement, the Company shall promptly prepare, and, after consultation with Purchaser, mail to its stockholders such an amendment or supplement. Purchaser shall cooperate fully with the Company in the preparation of the Proxy Statement, including any amendment or supplement thereto, and shall furnish the Company, promptly upon the Company's request, with all information reasonably requested by the Company for inclusion in, or otherwise in respect of, the Proxy Statement.

(d) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of the parties shall correct promptly any information provided by it to be used in the Proxy Statement, if and to the extent any such information shall be or have become false or misleading in any material respect and shall take all steps necessary to correct the same and to cause the Proxy Statement as so corrected to be disseminated to the stockholders of the Company, in each case to the extent required by applicable law or otherwise deemed appropriate by the Company.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Stockholders Meeting, with the consent of the Purchaser, may be postponed.

(f) The Company shall not be required to hold the Stockholders Meeting if this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms before that meeting is held.

Section 4.4. Access to Information; Confidentiality.

(a) The Company shall (i) provide Purchaser and its officers, directors, employees, agents, counsel, accountants, financial advisors and other representatives (together, its Representatives) with reasonable access, upon reasonable prior written notice, to the senior management, officers, facilities and books and records of the Company and its subsidiaries and (ii) furnish Purchaser and its Representatives with such financial and other information and data concerning the Company and its subsidiaries and operations of the Company and its subsidiaries as Purchaser reasonably may request in writing. Any exercise by Purchaser or its Representatives of the rights granted under this Section shall be conducted in such a manner as to avoid unreasonable interference with, or any disruption of, the business and operations of the Company and its subsidiaries and so as to avoid any significant interference with the discharge by the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries of their respective normal duties. Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries shall be required to provide access or to disclose information if doing so would in the Company's reasonable opinion jeopardize any attorney-client or other legal privilege or contravene any law in the opinion of outside antitrust counsel reasonably would be expected to make it more difficult to obtain all requisite clearances, approvals and authorizations for the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including under the HSR Act.

(b) Each party to this Agreement will hold, and will use its best efforts to cause its affiliates, and their respective Representatives to hold, in strict confidence from any person (other than any such affiliate or Representative), unless (i) compelled to disclose by judicial or administrative process (including in connection with obtaining the necessary approvals of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby of Governmental Authorities) or by other requirements of law or (ii) disclosed in an action or proceeding brought by a party to this Agreement in pursuit of its rights or in the exercise of its remedies under this Agreement, all documents and information concerning the other party or any of its affiliates furnished to it by the other party or such other party's Representatives in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, except to the extent that such documents or information can be shown to have been (A) previously known by the party receiving such documents or information, (B) in the public domain (either prior to or after the furnishing of such documents or information hereunder) through no fault of such receiving party or (C) later acquired by the receiving party from another source if the receiving party is not aware that such source is under an obligation to another party hereto to keep such documents and information confidential; provided, however, that following the Closing the foregoing restrictions will not apply to Purchaser's use of documents and information concerning the Company and its subsidiaries furnished by the Company under this Agreement. In the event the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are not consummated, upon the request of the other party, each party hereto will, and will cause its affiliates and their respective Representatives to, promptly redeliver or cause to be redelivered all copies of documents and information furnished by the other party in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and destroy or cause to be destroyed all notes, memoranda, summaries, analyses, compilations and other writings related to such documents and information or based on such documents and information prepared by the party furnished

Section 4.5. Reasonable Best Efforts to Consummate.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of the parties to this Agreement shall (and shall cause its respective subsidiaries, if any, to) use its reasonable best efforts to take all actions and to do all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable, including using its reasonable best efforts to prepare, execute and deliver such instruments and take or cause to be taken such actions as any other party shall reasonably request.

(b) Without limiting the generality of anything contained in Section 4.5(a) or elsewhere in this Agreement, each of the parties undertakes and agrees to file as soon as practicable, and in any event within fifteen business days after the date hereof, a Notification and Report Form under the HSR Act with the United States Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) and the United States Department of Justice, Antitrust Division (the Antitrust Division) and as promptly as reasonably practicable to make all other required filings under the antitrust or competition laws of other jurisdictions. Each party shall (x) promptly notify the other party of any written communication to that party or its affiliates from any Governmental Authority and, subject to applicable law, permit the other party to review in advance any proposed written communication to any of the foregoing; (y) not agree to participate, or to permit its affiliates to participate, in any substantive meeting or discussion with any Governmental Authority in respect of any filings, investigation or inquiry concerning this Agreement unless it consults with the other party in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Authority, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meeting; and (z) furnish the other party with copies of all correspondence, filings, and communications (and memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between them and their affiliates and their respective Representatives on the one hand, and any Governmental Authority or members or their respective staffs on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement.

Section 4.6. Public Announcements. The initial press release with respect to the execution of this Agreement shall be a joint press release reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and the Company. Until the Closing, neither Purchaser nor the Company nor any of their respective affiliates shall issue or cause the dissemination of any press release or other public announcements or statements with respect to this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby without the consent of the other party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, except as may be required by law or by any listing agreement with a national securities exchange or trading market (and in such case shall use all reasonable efforts to consult the other party prior to such release or statement).

Section 4.7. Contact with Customers and Suppliers. Prior to the Closing, neither Purchaser nor any affiliate, officer, director, advisor, agent, employee or other representative of Purchaser shall contact any employee, customer, supplier or other person having a commercial relationship with the Company or any subsidiary without the consent of the Company, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

Section 4.8. Transfer Taxes. The responsibility for, and the payment obligation in connection therewith, all transfer, registration, stamp, documentary, sales, use and similar Taxes (including all applicable transfer Taxes), and any penalties, interest and additions to such Taxes, and fees incurred, levied or payable in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be borne and paid by Purchaser and Purchaser will at its own expense file or other otherwise submit all necessary returns and other documentation with respect to all such Taxes and fees.

Section 4.9. Charter Amendment Approval: Filing of the Certificate of Incorporation. As promptly as practicable following the Closing, the Company shall, in accordance with applicable law and its certificate of incorporation and bylaws, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of obtaining the Charter Amendment Approval. After promptly as reasonably practicable following the Charter Amendment Approval, the Company shall duly execute and file the Charter Amendment with the DSOS in accordance with the DGCL. The preliminary proxy statement for such stockholders' meeting will be filed contemporaneously with the Proxy Statement described in Section 4.3 with the SEC and thereafter each of the Company and Purchaser shall use their reasonable best efforts to respond to any comments of the SEC or its staff, and to any request by the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to such proxy statement or for additional information. Such proxy statement and any amendments or supplements to such proxy statement will, when filed, comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act. If at any time prior to the stockholders' meeting called to obtain the Charter Amendment Approval there shall occur any event that is required to be set forth in an amendment or supplement to such proxy statement, the Company shall promptly prepare, and, after consultation with Purchaser, mail to its stockholders such an amendment or supplement. Purchaser shall cooperate fully with the Company in the preparation of such proxy statement, including any amendment or supplement thereto, and shall furnish the Company, promptly upon the Company's request, with all information reasonably requested by the Company for inclusion in, or otherwise in respect of, such proxy statement. Purchaser and its counsel shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon such proxy statement and related proxy materials and any proposed amendment or supplement to such proxy statement prior to its filing with the SEC or dissemination to the Company's stockholders, and reasonable and good faith consideration shall be given to any comments made by Purchaser and its counsel.

Section 4.10. Notification of Certain Matters. The Company shall give prompt notice to Purchaser of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (a) individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, has had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect, (b) would cause or constitute a breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein, (c) the failure of any condition precedent to Purchaser's obligations, (d) any notice or other communication from any third party alleging that the consent of such third party is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (e) any notice or other communication from any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (f) any actions, suits or proceedings, claims, arbitration, litigation or investigations commenced relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries that, if pending on the date of this Agreement, would have been required to have been disclosed pursuant to Section 2.11; provided, however, that (i) the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 4.10 shall not limit or otherwise affect any remedies available to Purchaser or prevent or cure any misrepresentations, breach of warranty or breach of covenant, and (ii) disclosure by the Company shall not be deemed to amend or supplement the Company Disclosure Schedule or constitute an exception to any representation or warranty. Under no circumstances shall a breach of this Section 4.10 cause the conditions set forth in Section 5.2(c) not to be satisfied.

Section 4.11. Share Issuance Top-Up.

(a) Purchaser may, within 90 days after the Closing, notify the Company that the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock acquired by Purchaser pursuant to the Initial Stock Sale and at the Closing under this Agreement represents less than 51% of all shares of Common Stock outstanding on a Fully Diluted Basis. Fully Diluted Basis means as of any date a calculation that gives effect to the number of shares of Common Stock then issued and outstanding plus the aggregate number of all shares of Common Stock that the Company may be required to issue as of such date pursuant to all options, warrants, rights, convertible or exchangeable securities or similar obligations then outstanding, whether or not such securities are then exercisable and exchangeable but excluding, however, any options, warrants or other similar rights outstanding at the date hereof that have an exercise price equal to or greater than $26.00 per share. TERMINATION; AMENDMENT AND EXPENSES

Section 6.1. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing Date, whether before or after receipt of the Stock Sale Approval:

- (a) by mutual written consent of Purchaser and the Company; or
- (b) by either Purchaser or the Company:
 - (i) if the Closing has not occurred by the close of business on October 31, 2009 (the Termination Date); or
 - (ii) if any Governmental Authority shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Company Stock Sale and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; or
 - (iii) the Stock Sale Approval shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at a duly held meeting of stockholders (including any adjournment thereof) at which a vote thereon was taken; or
- (c) by Purchaser:
 - (i) if the board of directors of the Company or any committee thereof shall have (1) failed to publicly reaffirm its Recommendation within ten business days after (x) a Takeover Proposal shall have been publicly announced and (y) Purchaser shall have requested in writing that the Company's board of directors do so (provided, that Purchaser may make no more than one such request in respect of each such Takeover Proposal; provided, that each such Takeover Proposal is on the same terms), (2) failed to include the Recommendation in the Proxy Statement, (3) publicly withdrawn or modified the Recommendation in a manner materially adverse to Purchaser (for this purpose, a stop, look and listen or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act shall not be deemed a withdrawal or modification of the Recommendation) or (4) publicly approved or recommended a Takeover Proposal; or any of the conditions set forth in Section 5.2(a) or Section 5.2(c) not to be satisfied, and such inaccuracy or breach shall remain uncured 30 days after written notice thereof shall have been delivered to the Company; or

(iii) there shall have been a material breach by the Company of any provision of Section 4.2; or

(iv) if any person or group (as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act), other than Purchaser or any of its affiliates acquires beneficial ownership of more than 20% of the shares of Common Stock or more than 20% of the book value or fair market value of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or the right to acquire ownership of such shares of Common Stock or assets; or

(d) by the Company:

(i) in accordance with Section 4.2(c); or

(ii) if any representation or warranty of Purchaser set forth in this Agreement shall have been inaccurate when made or become inaccurate, or if a breach of any covenant or agreement of Purchaser contained in this Agreement shall have occurred, which in any such case would cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 5.3(a) or Section 5.3(c) not to be satisfied, and such inaccuracy or breach is incapable of being cured before the Termination Date or shall remain uncured 30 days after written notice thereof shall have been delivered to Purchaser; or

(iii) if (x) all of the conditions to the obligations of Purchaser to consummate the Company Stock Sale set forth in Section 5.1 and Section 5.2 have been satisfied or (to the extent permitted hereunder) waived, other than conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at Closing but which conditions would be satisfied if the Closing were held on the date of such termination and (y) Purchaser shall have failed to cause the Company Stock Sale to be consummated.

Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Agreement, (x) the right to terminate this Agreement under Section 6.1(b)(i) shall not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill its obligations or to comply with its covenants under this Agreement has caused the delay of the Closing beyond the Termination Date and (y) the right to terminate this Agreement under Section 6.1(c)(ii) or Section 6.1(d)(ii) shall not be available to a party that then is in material breach of its obligations hereunder.

Section 6.2. Effect of Termination. If this Agreement is terminated by either the Company or Purchaser as provided in Section 6.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void except as specifically provided herein and except for Article VI, Article VII and the Confidentiality Agreement, which will survive termination, and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of Purchaser or the Company or their respective officers or directors hereunder; provided, that nothing contained in this Section 6.2 shall relieve any party from liability arising out of any knowing or willful breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other undertakings set forth in this Agreement.

Section 6.3. Fees and Expenses.

(a) Whether or not the Company Stock Sale is consummated and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, including Section 6.3(b) and Section 6.3(c), each party shall bear its own expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except that the expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of the Proxy Statement shall be borne equally by Purchaser on the one hand and the Company on the other hand. For purposes of this Section, expenses means the out-of-pocket fees and expenses of any advisors, counsel and accountants, incurred by the party or on its behalf in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) The Company agrees that:

(i) if Purchaser shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(c)(i) [Change of Recommendation], other than in a situation in which the condition set forth Section 5.3(d) would not be satisfied at Closing;

A-29

Table of Contents

- (ii) if the Company shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(d)(i) [Superior Proposal];
- (iii) if Purchaser shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(b)(iii) [Failure to Obtain Stock Sale Approval] and prior to such termination a Takeover Proposal for the Company shall have been publicly announced or made to the Company and not subsequently withdrawn, and within twelve months following the termination of this Agreement, the Company enters into a binding agreement to effect a Takeover Proposal (and the transaction provided for in such agreement subsequently is consummated), or a Takeover Proposal with respect to the Company is consummated; or
- (iv) if either party shall have terminated this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(b) and as of that date, the Company's board of directors shall have failed to take such action as would be required to cause the condition set forth in Section 5.2(g) be satisfied, and not less than ten business days prior to such termination Purchaser shall have given notice to the Company requesting that the Company's board of directors take such action;

then in each case the Company shall pay to Purchaser a fee of $2,500,000 (the Termination Fee).

(c) The Termination Fee shall be payable by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated to the Company by Purchaser, as follows:

(i) in the case of a termination described in Section 6.3(b)(i) or Section 6.3(b)(iv), within three business days after termination;

(ii) in the case of a termination described in Section 6.3(b)(ii), simultaneously with such termination; and

(iii) in the case of a termination described in Section 6.3(b)(iii), within two business days after the earlier of entering such agreement or consummation thereof of the Takeover Proposal referred to therein.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) under no circumstances shall the Company be required to pay the Termination Fee earlier than one full business day after Purchaser has provided wire transfer instructions sufficient to make the payment (and accordingly, no delay by Purchaser in providing wire transfer instructions shall affect the Company's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(d)(i)); and (ii) under no circumstances shall the Company be required to pay more than one Termination Fee.

(d) If any party fails to pay any amount due pursuant to this Section 6.3 when it is required to be paid, and, in order to obtain such payment, the party entitled to the payment commences a suit that results in a judgment against the other party for any amount payable under this Section 6.3, the defaulting party shall reimburse the prevailing party for all its expenses in connection with such suit, including any costs of collection, together with interest on the amount of the judgment at the highest rate permitted by applicable law from the date such fee was required to be paid.

AMENDED AND RESTATED
EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is entered into as of May 6, 2009 by and between Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), and Craig A. Collard (the Executive). This Agreement shall be effective on the Closing Date (as such term is defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated the same date as this Agreement, between the Company and Chiesi Farmaceutici SpA (the Effective Date)).

WHEREAS, the Executive is currently employed by the Company pursuant to the terms of an employment agreement between Cornerstone BioPharma, Inc. and the Executive dated as of March 1, 2006 (the Prior Agreement);

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue such employment relationship and enter into this Agreement, which will supersede the Prior Agreement, the Proprietary Information, Inventions, Non-competition, and Non-solicitation Agreement, dated as of March 1, 2006 between Cornerstone BioPharma, Inc. and the Executive and the Executive Retention Agreement, dated as of February 8, 2006, between Cornerstone BioPharma, Inc. and the Executive, and set forth the terms and conditions under which the Executive will continue to serve the Company and its affiliates; and

WHEREAS, the Executive wishes to continue his employment with the Company on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Term of Employment. The Company hereby agrees to employ the Executive, and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Company, upon the terms set forth in this Agreement, for the period commencing on the Effective Date (the Commencement Date) and ending on the one year anniversary of the Effective Date (the Initial Term) unless renewed or sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Section 1 or Section 4, respectively. Upon each subsequent anniversary of the Commencement Date, the term of this Agreement shall automatically extend for an additional year (such period, including the Initial Term and as it may be extended, the Employment Period) unless (i) either the Company or the Executive gives at least ninety (90) days notice of non-renewal prior to such anniversary or (ii) the Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.

2. Title; Capacity. The Executive shall serve as Chief Executive Officer and President. The Executive shall be based at the Company's office in Cary, North Carolina. The Executive shall be subject to the supervision of, and shall have such authority as is delegated to him by, the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board).

The Executive hereby accepts such employment and agrees to undertake the duties and responsibilities inherent in such position and such other duties and responsibilities as the Board shall from time to time reasonably assign to him. The Executive agrees to devote his entire business time, attention and energies to the business and interests of the Company during the Employment Period; provided, however, that the Executive may serve as a consultant or a member of an advisory board or a board of directors with the prior consent of the Board. The Executive agrees to abide by any rules, regulations, instructions, personnel practices and policies of the Company that are applicable to him and any changes therein that may be adopted from time to time by the Company.

3. Compensation and Benefits.

3.1. Salary. The Company shall pay the Executive a base salary for the year starting January 1, 2009 in accordance with its regular payroll practices at an annualized rate of $394,784, less lawful deductions. Such salary shall be subject to adjustment thereafter as determined by the Board.

3.2. Annual Target Cash Bonus. The Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual target cash bonus of up to fifty (50) percent of his then annual base salary (Target Cash Bonus). The Board (or a committee thereof) shall determine the amount of the actual award, if any, based on overall corporate performance and individual performance. Actual awards may be greater than or less than the Executive's Target Cash Bonus, depending in part upon the extent to which actual performance exceeds or falls below the performance goals. Any bonus shall be paid in a single lump sum, subject to lawful deductions, at such time as bonuses are regularly paid to senior executives of the Company, but in any event such bonus shall be paid on or before March 15 of the year following the year to which the bonus relates. Except as may be expressly provided below, Executive must be employed on the date that the bonus is paid to be eligible for any Target Cash Bonus. Each cash bonus award that may become payable shall be paid solely from the general assets of the Company.

3.3. Annual Equity Awards. The Executive hereby agrees that he shall not be eligible to receive any annual equity awards, unless otherwise approved by the Board or a committee thereof.

3.4. Fringe Benefits. The Executive shall be entitled to participate in all bonus and benefit programs (excluding the Company's Cash Bonus Program for Employees (Other than Executive Officers)) that the Company establishes and makes available to its employees or executives, if any, to the extent that the Executive's position, tenure, salary, age, health and other qualifications make him eligible to participate; provided, however, the Executive's participation is subject to the applicable terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of these plans as they may exist from time to time. The Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid vacation per year, accrued at a rate of 1.67 days per month, and, if requested in writing by the Board, such vacation time shall be taken at such times as may be approved by the Board or its designee. Accrued but unused vacation at the end of each year will not carry over to the next year.

3.5. Reimbursement of Expenses. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and other expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in connection with, or related to, the performance of his duties, responsibilities or services under this Agreement, in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, including the Executive's presentation of documentation, expense statements, vouchers and/or such other supporting information as the Company may request, provided, however, that the amount available for such travel, entertainment and other expenses may be fixed in advance by the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any particular taxable year may not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year, (ii) such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred, and (iii) the right to reimbursement is not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

3.6. Automobile. The Executive shall have full use of that motor vehicle leased by the Company the Executive is currently using, whether for business or personal uses. Both a valid driver's license and an acceptable motor vehicle record are required at all times to operate a Company vehicle. The Company shall pay, or reimburse the Executive for, the lease of financing payments, automobile insurance, taxes and title fees associated with such vehicle. Upon termination of employment with the Company, the Company shall pay, or reimburse the Executive for the balance of the remaining lease payments, and will assign and transfer title and other appropriate evidence of ownership of the vehicle to the Executive in exchange for $100.00 paid by the Executive. The Company reserves the right to change or discontinue its Company vehicle program at any time.

4. Employment Termination. The employment of the Executive by the Company pursuant to this Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following:

4.1. Expiration of the Employment Period in accordance with Section 1;

4.2. At the election of the Company, for Cause (as defined in Section 21), immediately upon written notice by the Company to the Executive;

4.3. At the election of the Executive, for Good Reason (as defined in Section 21), upon written notice by the Executive to the Company;

4.6. At the election of the Executive, without Good Reason, by providing written notice to the Company; and 4.7. At the election of the Company, without Cause, by providing written notice to the Executive.

5. Effect of Termination.

5.1. Termination for Cause. In the event the Executive's employment is terminated for Cause pursuant to Section 4.2, the Company shall pay to the Executive the compensation and benefits otherwise payable to him under Section 3 through the last day of his actual employment by the Company.

In addition, if the Executive's employment terminates as a result of his death, the Executive's estate shall receive an amount equal to a pro rata payment of the annual cash bonus, if any, paid to the Executive in the year prior to his death, payable in a lump sum, less lawful deductions, within ten (10) calendar days following the effective date of the Release required by Section 5.6, but not later than ninety (90) days following termination of employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the ninetieth (90th) day following the Executive's termination from employment occurs in the calendar year following the year of the Executive's termination, then the payment shall be made no earlier than January 1 of such subsequent calendar year. No other benefits are payable upon the Executive's termination pursuant to Section 4.5.

5.4. Termination Without Cause or for Good Reason and not during a Change of Control Period. If the Executive's employment is terminated without Cause pursuant to Section 4.7, or for Good Reason pursuant to Section 4.3 and such termination does not occur during a Change of Control Period, the Company shall:

(i) pay the Executive a lump sum payment equal to one and a half (1.5) times his annualized base salary, less lawful deductions, payable within ten (10) calendar days following the effective date of the Release required by Section 5.6, but not later than ninety (90) days following termination of employment. 1(b)(9)(v)(B), reimbursements may not be made beyond the period of time during which the Executive would be entitled (or would, but for such arrangement, be entitled) to COBRA continuation coverage under a group health plan of the Company;

(iii) pay the Executive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to a pro rata payment of the Target Cash Bonus for which he was eligible, less lawful deductions; such payment shall be paid within ten (10) calendar days following the effective date of the Release required by Section 5.6, but not later than ninety (90) days following termination of employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the ninetieth (90th) day following the Executive's termination from employment occurs in the calendar year following the year of the Executive's termination, then the payment shall be made no earlier than January 1 of such subsequent calendar year; and

(iv) accelerate vesting of all the Executive's outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock by one year.

5.5. Termination Without Cause or for Good Reason during a Change of Control Period. If the Executive's employment is terminated without Cause pursuant to Section 4.4, or for Good Reason pursuant to Section 4.4 and such termination occurs during a Change of Control Period, the Company shall:

(iv) accelerate vesting of one hundred (100) percent of all of the Executive's outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock.

5.6 Release of Claims as a Condition of Payment. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company's obligation to provide the payments and benefits under Sections 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, and 5.5 is conditioned upon the Executive s, or the Executive s estate, execution of a severance agreement and full release of all claims against the Company and all affiliated persons and entities, drafted by and satisfactory to

The Release shall include clauses covering confidentiality, non-disparagement, cooperation, and non-admissions, among other terms, all in a form acceptable to the Company. If the Executive chooses not to execute such a release or fails to comply with those Sections, then the Company s obligation to compensate the Executive ceases on the effective termination date except as to base salary up through the termination date. The Release shall be provided to the Executive within thirty (30) days of the Executive s separation from service and the Executive must execute it within the time period specified in the Release (which shall not be longer than forty-five (45) days from the date of receipt). Such Release shall not be effective until any applicable revocation period specified therein has expired.

6. Vesting of Stock Upon a Change of Control. One hundred (100) percent of the Executive s outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock will vest on a Change of Control (as defined in Section 21).

7. Non-Compete.

(a) During Executive s employment with the Company and for a period of time (as defined in Section 7(g) below) following the cessation thereof (whether voluntary or involuntary and regardless of the reason for, or party initiating, the termination), the Executive will not engage in any of the following on his own behalf or in any capacity on another s behalf:

(c) The Executive agrees that, if requested by the Company in writing, he will give notice to the Company of each new business activity he plans to undertake during the non-competition period, at least ten (10) business days prior to beginning any such activity. (e) The Executive acknowledges that the restrictions contained in this Section are necessary for the protection of the business and goodwill of the Company and in light of, among other things, the highly competitive market in which the Company operates. The Executive agrees that any breach of this Section will cause the Company substantial and irrevocable damage and therefore, in the event of any such breach, in addition to such other remedies which may be available, the Company shall have the right to seek specific performance and injunctive relief without posting a bond.

(f) If the Executive violates the provisions of this Section 7, he shall continue to be held by the restrictions set forth in this Section, until a period equal to the period of restriction has expired without any violation.

(g) The terms of this Section 7 shall remain in effect as follows:

(iii) In the event of termination pursuant to Sections 5.1, 5.2, 5.3 of this Agreement, the Executive will not engage in any of the above-listed activities for a period of one (1) year.

8. Proprietary Information and Developments.

Company and only on a need-to-know basis and will use the same solely for purposes of performing Executive's duties and responsibilities on behalf of Company as described in Section 2 hereof, unless otherwise permitted by prior written approval of an officer of the Company. (c) The Executive agrees that his obligations set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) above also extend to such types of information, know-how, records and tangible property of customers of the Company or suppliers to the Company or other third parties who may have disclosed or entrusted the same to the Company or to the Executive in the course of the Company's business.

8.2. Developments.

(a) The Executive will make full and prompt disclosure to the Company of all inventions, discoveries, processes, methods, developments, software, and works of authorship, whether or not patentable or copyrightable, which are created, made, conceived or reduced to practice by the Executive or under his direction or jointly with others during his employment by the Company, whether or not during normal working hours or on the premises of the Company (all of which, along with all improvements, modifications, and derivative works thereof and thereto and all proprietary know-how and other information associated therewith, are collectively referred to in this Agreement as Developments).

Upon each subsequent anniversary of the Commencement Date, the term of this Agreement shall automatically extend for an additional year (such period, including the Initial Term and as it may be extended, the Employment Period) unless (i) either the Company or the Executive gives at least ninety (90) days notice of non-renewal prior to such anniversary or (ii) the Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.

2. Title; Capacity. The Executive shall serve as Chief Medical Director and in such other position as the Company or its Board of Directors (the Board) may determine from time to time. 5.6 Release of Claims as a Condition of Payment. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company's obligation to provide the payments and benefits under Sections 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, and 5.5 is conditioned upon the Executive's, or the Executive's estate, execution of a severance agreement and full release of all claims against the Company and all affiliated persons and entities, drafted by and satisfactory to counsel for the Company (the Release) and the Executive's compliance with Sections 7 and 8 of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause the Executive to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A, the Company shall, upon the specific request of the Executive, use its reasonable business efforts to in good faith reform such provision to comply with Section 409A; provided, that to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to the Executive and the Company of the applicable provision shall be maintained, and the Company shall have no obligation to make any changes that could create any additional economic

The Company shall timely use its reasonable business efforts to amend any plan or program in which the Executive participates to bring it in compliance with Section 409A. 23.2 Separation from Service. A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination also constitutes a Separation from Service within the meaning of Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a termination, termination of employment, separation from service or like terms shall mean Separation from Service.

Upon each subsequent anniversary of the Commencement Date, the term of this Agreement shall automatically extend for an additional year (such period, including the Initial Term and as it may be extended, the Employment Period) unless (i) either the Company or the Executive gives at least ninety (90) days notice of non-renewal prior to such anniversary or (ii) the Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.

2. Title; Capacity. The Executive shall serve as Vice President, Sales and Marketing and in such other position as the Company or its Board of Directors (the Board) may determine from time to time. The Executive hereby accepts such employment and agrees to undertake the duties and responsibilities inherent in such position and such other duties and responsibilities as the President and Chief Executive Officer or his designee shall from time to time reasonably assign to him. The Executive agrees to devote his entire business time, attention and energies to the business and interests of the Company during the Employment Period; provided, however, that the Executive may serve as a consultant or a member of an advisory board or a board of directors with the prior consent of the Board. The Executive agrees to abide by any rules, regulations, instructions, personnel practices and policies of the Company that are applicable to him and any changes therein that may be adopted from time to time by the Company.

3. Compensation and Benefits.

3.1. Salary. The Company shall pay the Executive a base salary for the year starting January 1, 2009 in accordance with its regular payroll practices at an annualized rate of $222,600, less lawful deductions. Such salary shall be subject to adjustment thereafter as determined by the Board.

3.2. Annual Target Cash Bonus. The Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual target cash bonus of up to thirty-five (35) percent of his then annual base salary (Target Cash Bonus). Table of Contents Target Cash Bonus, depending in part upon the extent to which actual performance exceeds or falls below the performance goals. Any bonus shall be paid in a single lump sum, subject to lawful deductions, at such time as bonuses are regularly paid to senior executives of the Company, but in any event such bonus shall be paid on or before March 15 of the year following the year to which the bonus relates. Except as may be expressly provided below, the Executive must be employed on the date that the bonus is paid to be eligible for any Target Cash Bonus. Each cash bonus award that may become payable shall be paid solely from the general assets of the Company.

3.3. Annual Target Equity Awards. The Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual target equity award in the form of an option to purchase, in whole or in part, up to fifty thousand (50,000) shares of common stock of the Company in each of the year 2010, 2011 and 2012. The Board (or a committee thereof) shall determine the amount of the actual equity award, if any, based on overall corporate performance and individual performance. Each grant of options under Sections 3.3 and 3.4 shall vest over a four-year period, 25% per year, pursuant to the terms of the terms of the Company Stock Plan.

3.4. Grant of Options. Effective as of the date hereof, the Executive shall be granted an option to purchase, in whole or in part, fifty thousand (50,000) shares common stock. The option shall be on such terms and conditions as are described on Appendix A hereto.

3.5. Fringe Benefits. The Executive shall be entitled to participate in all bonus and benefit programs (excluding the Company's Cash Bonus Program for Employees (Other than Executive Officers)) that the Company establishes and makes available to its employees or executives, if any, to the extent that the Executive's position, tenure, salary, age, health and other qualifications make him eligible to participate; provided, however, the Executive's participation is subject to the applicable terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of these plans as they may exist from time to time. The Executive shall be entitled to three (3) weeks of paid vacation per year, accrued at a rate of 1.25 days per month until the Executive has completed four (4) years of service with the Company or any of its subsidiaries at which time vacation shall accrue at 1.67 days per month (four (4) weeks per year), and, if requested in writing by the Chief Executive Officer, such vacation time shall be taken at such times as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer or his designee. Accrued but unused vacation at the end of each year will not carry over to the next year.

3.6. Reimbursement of Expenses. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and other expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in connection with, or related to, the performance of his duties, responsibilities or services under this Agreement, in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, including the Executive's presentation of documentation, expense statements, vouchers and/or such other supporting information as the Company may request, provided, however, that the amount available for such travel, entertainment and other expenses may be fixed in advance by the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any particular taxable year may not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year, (ii) such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred, and (iii) the right to reimbursement is not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

3.7. Car Allowance. The Executive will receive a monthly car allowance in the amount of $850. Both a valid driver's license, an acceptable motor vehicle record and personal automobile insurance are required at all times to operate a personal motor vehicle on Company business. If the Company determines in accordance with Sections 409A and 416(i) of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder, in the Company's sole discretion, that the Executive is a Key Employee of the Company on the date the Executive's employment with the Company terminates and that a delay in benefits provided under this Agreement is necessary to comply with Code Section 409A(A)(2)(B)(i), then any severance payments and any continuation of benefits or reimbursement of benefit costs provided by this Agreement, and not otherwise exempt from Section 409A, shall be delayed for a period of six (6) months following the date of termination of the Executive's employment (the "409A Delay Period"). In such event, any severance payments and the cost of any continuation of benefits provided under this Agreement that would otherwise be due and payable to the Executive during the 409A Delay Period shall be paid to the Executive in a lump sum cash amount in the month following the end of the 409A Delay Period. 24. Parachutes. If all, or any portion, of the payments provided under this Agreement, either alone or together with other payments and benefits which the Executive receives or is entitled to receive from the Company or an affiliate, would constitute an excess parachute payment within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, the payments and benefits provided under this Agreement shall be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion thereof shall fail to be tax-deductible under Section 280G of the Code.

Upon each subsequent anniversary of the Commencement Date, the term of this Agreement shall automatically extend for an additional year (such period, including the Initial Term and as it may be extended, the Employment Period) unless (i) either the Company or the Executive gives at least ninety (90) days notice of non-renewal prior to such anniversary or (ii) the Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.

The Executive agrees to abide by any rules, regulations, instructions, personnel practices and policies of the Company that are applicable to him and any changes therein that may be adopted from time to time by the Company.

3. Compensation and Benefits.

3.1. Salary. The Company shall pay the Executive a base salary for the year starting January 1, 2009 in accordance with its regular payroll practices at an annualized rate of $225,000, less lawful deductions. Such salary shall be subject to adjustment thereafter as determined by the Board.

By way of clarification, any change in ownership of the outstanding capital stock of the Company, including but not limited to, the fact that the Company is no longer registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, shall not constitute a good reason within the context of this Agreement.

If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause the Executive to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A, the Company shall, upon the specific request of the Executive, use its reasonable business efforts to in good faith reform such provision to comply with Section 409A; provided, that to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to the Executive and the Company of the applicable provision shall be maintained, and the Company shall have no obligation to make any changes that could create any additional economic cost or loss of benefit to the Company. The Company shall timely use its reasonable business efforts to amend any plan or program in which the Executive participates to bring it in compliance with Section 409A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no liability with regard to any failure to comply with Section 409A so long as it has acted in good faith with regard to compliance therewith.

and not otherwise exempt from Section 409A, shall be delayed for a period of six (6) months following the date of termination of the Executive's employment (the 409A Delay Period). In such event, any severance payments and the cost of any continuation of benefits provided under this Agreement that would otherwise be due and payable to the Executive during the 409A Delay Period shall be paid to the Executive in a lump sum cash amount in the month following the end of the 409A Delay Period. (c) in the event the number of persons Purchaser is entitled to designate pursuant to Section 3.1(c), based on Beneficial Ownership levels as of the applicable Nominee Calculation Date, falls below four persons, the Nominating Committee of the Board shall nominate for election to the Board at the annual meeting the number of directors equal to the difference between four and the number of persons Purchaser is entitled to designate; and

If the Nominating Committee determines that any individual designated by Purchaser does not satisfy the criteria set forth in the preceding sentence, the Nominating Committee will promptly notify Purchaser of such determination and Purchaser will be entitled to designate another individual for nomination.

(c) Subject to Section 2.1(e), the Company shall file the registration statement in respect of a Demand Registration as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 45 days after receiving a Demand Notice (the Required Filing Date) on Form S-1 or S-3 or any similar or successor to such forms under the Securities Act, or, if they are not available, any form for which the Company then qualifies, and which form shall be available for the sale of the Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended methods of distribution thereof, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the same to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable after such filing; provided, that the Company shall not be obligated to effect a Demand Registration pursuant to Section 2.1(a) (i) within 180 days after the effective date of a previous Demand Registration and (ii) unless the Demand Notice is for a number of Registrable Securities with an expected market value that is equal to at least $50,000,000 as of the date of such Demand Notice or is for one hundred percent of Registrable Securities.

(d) With respect to any Demand Registration, subject to the availability of a registration statement on Form S-3, the Company shall, upon written request from Purchaser, agree to effect a Shelf Registration, and, thereafter, shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after the filing thereof.

(e) The Company may defer the filing (but not the preparation) of a registration statement required by this Section 2.1 until after the Required Filing Date (i) for a period not to exceed 90 days, if, at the time the Company receives the Demand Notice, there exists a Material Disclosure Event, or (ii) for a period not to exceed 90 days, if, prior to receiving the Demand Notice, the Company had determined to effect a registered underwritten public offering of Company Common Stock, or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Company Common Stock, for the Company's account in connection with a material public financing transaction and the Company had taken substantial steps (including selecting a managing underwriter for such offering, if applicable) and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to effect such offering. A deferral of the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(e) shall be lifted, and the requested registration statement shall be filed forthwith, if, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (i) of the preceding sentence, the Material Disclosure Event is publicly disclosed or otherwise ceases to exist, or, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence, the proposed registration for the Company's account is abandoned or the filing of a registration statement with respect to any such proposed registration is delayed by more than 30 days from the time of receipt of the applicable Demand Notice. In order to defer the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(e), the Company shall promptly (but in any event within 10 days), upon determining to seek such deferral, deliver to Purchaser a certificate signed by an executive officer of the Company stating that the Company is deferring such filing pursuant to this Section 2.1(e), a general statement of the reason for such deferral and an approximation of the anticipated delay. Within 20 days after receiving such certificate, Purchaser may withdraw such Demand Notice by giving notice to the Company; if withdrawn, the Demand Notice shall be deemed not to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement and the Company shall pay all expenses of such withdrawn Demand Registration in accordance with Section 2.7. The Company may defer the filing of a particular registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(e) only once in any period of 12 consecutive months; provided, that any deferral pursuant to clause (i) of the first sentence of this Section 2.1(e) shall be deemed to be a Suspension Period for purposes of Section 2.6 and shall be subject to the limitations and obligations during Suspension Periods set forth in Section 2.6.

(f) No securities to be sold for the account of any Person (including the Company), other than Purchaser shall be included in a Demand Registration if the managing underwriters (or, in an offering that is not underwritten, a nationally recognized investment bank) shall advise the Company and Purchaser in writing that the aggregate amount of such securities requested to be included in any offering pursuant to such Demand Registration is sufficiently large to have an adverse effect on the success of any such offering, based on market conditions or otherwise (an Adverse Effect). Furthermore, if the managing underwriters (or such investment bank) shall advise the Company and Purchaser that, even after exclusion of all securities of other Persons pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, the amount of Registrable Securities proposed to be included in such Demand Registration by Purchaser is sufficiently large to cause an Adverse Effect, the Registrable Securities of Purchaser to be included in such Demand Registration shall equal the number of shares which Purchaser is so advised can be sold in such offering without an Adverse Effect; provided, that the Company shall not include any Registrable Securities of any executive officer, director or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries if the managing underwriters (or such investment bank) shall advise the Company and Purchaser that the participation of any such persons may have an Adverse Effect; provided, further that if the number of Registrable Securities to be included in the Demand Registration is less than 80% of the number requested to be so included, Purchaser may withdraw such Demand Notice by giving notice to the Company; if withdrawn, the Demand Notice shall be deemed not to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement and the Company shall pay all expenses of such withdrawn Demand Registration in accordance with Section 2.7; provided, however, that if the holders of a majority of the remaining Registrable Securities covered by such Demand Notice desire to proceed with such Demand Registration, the Company shall proceed forward with such Demand Registration and the Demand Notice shall be deemed to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement by the remaining holders.

(g) Purchaser may withdraw Registrable Securities from a Demand Registration at any time and Purchaser shall have the right to cancel a proposed Demand Registration of Registrable Securities pursuant to this Section 2.1(g). Upon such cancellation, the Company shall cease all efforts to secure registration and such Demand Registration shall not be counted as a Demand Registration under this Agreement for any purpose and the Company shall pay the expenses of such cancelled Demand Registration in accordance with Section 2.7.

(h) In any registration requested pursuant to this Section 2.1, the Company shall not register securities other than Registrable Securities for sale for the account of any Person (including the Company), unless permitted to do so by the written consent of Purchaser.

Table of ContentsSection 2.2 Piggyback Registrations.

(a) Whenever the Company proposes to register any of its equity securities under the Securities Act (other than a registration statement on Form S-8 or on Form S-4 or any similar successor forms), whether for its own account or for the account of one or more stockholders of the Company, the Company shall each such time give prompt written notice at least 20 business days prior to the anticipated filing date of the registration statement relating to such registration to Purchaser, which notice shall set forth Purchaser's rights under this Section 2.2 and shall offer Purchaser the opportunity to include in such registration the number of Registrable Securities of the same class or series as those proposed to be registered as Purchaser may request, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2(a), 2.2(b) and 2.2(c). Upon the request of Purchaser made within 15 business days after the receipt of notice from the Company (which request shall specify the number of Registrable Securities, if any, intended to be registered by Purchaser), the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of all Registrable Securities that the Company has been so requested to register by Purchaser to the extent necessary to permit the disposition of the Registrable Securities so to be registered; provided, that (i) if such registration involves an Underwritten Offering, Purchaser must sell all Registrable Securities to the underwriters selected by the Company on the same terms and conditions as apply to the Company, as applicable, and (ii) if, at any time after giving notice of its intention to register any securities pursuant to this Section 2.2(a) and prior to the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with such registration, the Company shall determine for any reason not to register such securities, the Company shall give notice to Purchaser and, thereupon, shall be relieved of its obligation to register any Registrable Securities in connection with such registration. No registration effected under this Section 2.2 shall relieve the Company of its obligations to effect a Demand Registration to the extent required by Section 2.1. There shall be no limitation on the number of Piggyback Registrations that the Company shall be required to effect under this Section 2.2.

(b) At any time prior to the effective date of the registration statement relating to such registration, Purchaser may revoke such Piggyback Registration request by providing a notice to the Company revoking such request.

(c) If a Piggyback Registration is in respect of an Underwritten Offering and was initiated by the Company, and if the managing underwriters advise the Company that the inclusion of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.2 would cause an Adverse Effect, then the Company shall be required to include in such registration statement, to the extent of the amount of securities that the managing underwriters advise may be sold without causing such Adverse Effect, (A) first, the securities the Company proposes to sell; (B) second, the Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by Purchaser thereof; and (C) third, any other securities requested to be included in such registration; provided, that the Company shall not include any Registrable Securities of any executive officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than the Stockholders) if such managing underwriters advise the Company and the requesting Stockholders that the participation of any such individual may have an Adverse Effect. If, as a result of the provisions of this Section 2.2(c), any Stockholder shall not be entitled to include all Registrable Securities in a registration that such Stockholder has requested to be so included, such Stockholder may withdraw such Stockholder's request to include Registrable Securities in such registration statement.

(d) If a Piggyback Registration is in respect of an Underwritten Offering and was initiated by a security holder of the Company (other than a Stockholder), and if the managing underwriters advise the Company that the inclusion of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the registration statement would cause an Adverse Effect, the Company shall include in such registration statement, to the extent of the amount of securities that the managing underwriters advise may be sold without causing such Adverse Effect, (A) first, the Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by any Stockholder thereof, pro rata among the Stockholders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities requested to be registered by each such Stockholder; and (B) second, any other securities requested to be included in such registration (including securities to be sold for the account of the Company); provided, that the Company shall not include any Registrable Securities of any executive officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than Purchaser) if such managing underwriters advise the Company and Purchaser that the participation of any such individual may have an Adverse Effect. If, as a result of the provisions of this Section 2.2(d), Purchaser shall not be entitled to include all Registrable Securities in a registration that Purchaser has requested to be so included, Purchaser may withdraw its request to include Registrable Securities in such registration statement.

(e) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the provisions of Sections 2.2(c) and 2.2(d) shall not apply to a Piggyback Registration that is a Shelf Registration.

Section 2.3 SEC Forms. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause any Demand Registrations to be registered on Form S-3 (or any successor form), if applicable, once the Company becomes eligible to use Form S-3. If the Company is not then eligible under the Securities Act to use Form S-3, such Demand Registrations shall be registered on the form for which the Company then qualifies. The Company shall use its best efforts to become and remain eligible to use Form S-3. All such registration statements shall comply with applicable requirements of the Securities Act, and, together with each prospectus included, filed or otherwise furnished by the Company in connection therewith, shall not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

Section 2.4 Holdback Agreements.

(a) The Company agrees (i) not to effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, except pursuant to Excluded Registrations, during the seven days prior to the effective date of any registration statement in connection with a Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration and thereafter until the date on which all of the Registrable Securities subject to such registration statement have been sold (not to exceed 90 days, as required by the underwriters managing the offering) and (ii) if requested by the managing underwriters, to use reasonable efforts to cause each director and executive officer to agree not to effect any public sale or distribution (including sales pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act) of any such securities during such period (except as part of such underwritten registration, if otherwise permitted); provided, that the foregoing described holdback shall not apply to the extent that the managing underwriters of such offering otherwise agree or, in the event a registration statement does not relate to an Underwritten Offering, if the holders of a majority of such Registrable Securities consent thereto.

(b) If Purchaser notifies the Company in writing that it intends to effect an underwritten sale of Company Common Stock registered pursuant to a Shelf Registration, the Company agrees (i) not to effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for its equity securities, during the seven days prior to and during the 90-day period beginning on the filing of the prospectus supplement with respect to such offering, other than pursuant to Excluded Registrations or to the extent that the managing underwriters of such offering otherwise agree and (ii) if requested by the managing underwriters, to use reasonable efforts to cause each director and executive officer to agree not to effect any public sale or distribution (including sales pursuant to Section 144) of any such securities during such period (except as part of such underwritten registration, if otherwise permitted).

(c) Purchaser agrees, in the event of an Underwritten Offering by the Company (whether for the account of the Company or otherwise), not to effect any public sale or distribution of any Registrable Securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such Registrable Securities, including any sale pursuant to Rule 144 (except as part of such Underwritten Offering), during the seven days prior to and ending up to 90 days after the date of the final prospectus, subject in each case to such extensions as are customary to permit the publication of research in compliance with Rule 2711(f) of the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. as incorporated in the FINRA Rules (or any similar successor rule thereto); provided, that each other stockholder of the Company and each executive officer of the Company is subject to substantially the same restrictions.

Section 2.5 Registration Procedures. Whenever Purchaser has requested that any Registrable Securities be registered pursuant to this Agreement, the Company shall use its best efforts to effect the registration and the sale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof as promptly as is practicable, and pursuant thereto the Company shall as expeditiously as possible:

(a) prepare and file with the SEC by the Required Filing Date a registration statement on the appropriate form under the Securities Act with respect to such Registrable Securities and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective as soon as practicable after the initial filing thereof; provided, that as far in advance as practicable before filing such registration statement or any amendment or supplement thereto, the Company shall furnish to Purchaser copies of reasonably complete drafts of all such documents prepared to be filed (including exhibits and documents that are to be incorporated by reference into the registration statement, amendment or supplement), and Purchaser shall have the opportunity to object to any information contained therein and the Company shall make any corrections or other amendments reasonably requested by Purchaser with respect to such information prior to filing any such registration statement, amendment or supplement;

(b) except in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the SEC such amendments, post-effective amendments, and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for a period of not less than 180 days (or such lesser period as is necessary for the underwriters in an Underwritten Offering to sell unsold allotments) and comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement during such period in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement;

(c) in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all Registrable Securities subject thereto for a period ending on the earlier of (i) 24 months after the effective date of such registration statement and (ii) the date on which all the Registrable Securities subject thereto have been sold pursuant to such registration statement;

(d) furnish to Purchaser and the underwriters, if any, of the securities being registered such number of copies of such registration statement, each amendment and supplement thereto, the prospectus included in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus and any summary prospectus), any documents incorporated by reference therein and such other documents as Purchaser or underwriters reasonably may request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by Purchaser or the sale of such securities by such underwriters (it being understood that, subject to this Section 2.5 and the requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, the Company consents to the use of the prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto by Purchaser and the underwriters in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Securities covered by the registration statement of which such prospectus, amendment or supplement is a part);

(e) use its best efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Securities under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as Purchaser or the managing underwriters reasonably request; use its reasonable best efforts to keep each such registration or qualification (or exemption therefrom) effective during the period in which such registration statement is required to be kept effective; and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable Purchaser to consummate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by Purchaser in such jurisdictions; provided, that the Company shall not be required to (i) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to qualify but for this subparagraph or (ii) consent to general service of process in any such jurisdiction;

(f) promptly notify Purchaser and each underwriter, if any, in writing (i) when a prospectus or any prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment has been filed and, with respect to a registration statement or any post-effective amendment, when the same has become effective; (ii) of the issuance by any state securities or other regulatory authority of any order suspending the qualification or exemption from qualification of any of the Registrable Securities under state securities or blue sky laws or the initiation or threat of initiation of any proceedings for that purpose; and (iii) if such registration statement or related prospectus, at the time it or any amendment thereto became effective or at any time such prospectus is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, contained an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, upon the discovery by the Company of such material misstatement or omission or of the happening of any event as a result of which the Company believes there would be such a material misstatement or omission; provided, that, in the case of clause (iii), promptly after delivery of such notice, the Company shall, as the case may be, (x) prepare and file with the SEC a post-effective amendment to such registration statement and use its best efforts to cause such amendment to become effective so that such registration statement, as so amended, shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading or (y) prepare and furnish a supplement or amendment to such prospectus so that, as thereafter deliverable to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities, such prospectus shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(g) permit Purchaser to participate in the preparation of such registration statement or related prospectus and promptly incorporate any information furnished to the Company by Purchaser that, in the reasonable judgment of Purchaser and its counsel, should be included if Purchaser, in its sole and exclusive judgment, might reasonably be deemed to be an underwriter or a controlling person of the Company (within the meaning of the Securities Act);

(h) make reasonably available senior management of the Company, as selected by Purchaser, to assist in the marketing of the Registrable Securities covered by such registration, including the participation of such members of the Company's senior management in road show presentations and other customary marketing activities, including one-on-one meetings with prospective purchasers of the Registrable Securities to be sold in the Underwritten Offering and otherwise to facilitate, cooperate with, and participate in each proposed offering contemplated herein and customary selling efforts related thereto, in each case to the same extent as if the Company were engaged in a primary registered offering of its capital stock; provided, that such assistance does not unduly interfere with the normal operations of the Company in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice;

(i) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, including the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, and make generally available to the Company's security holders an earnings statement satisfying the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 thereunder, as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than 30 days after the end of the 12-month period beginning with the first day of the Company's first fiscal quarter commencing after the effective date of a registration statement, which earnings statement shall cover said twelve (12)-month period; provided, that such requirement shall be deemed satisfied if the Company timely files complete and accurate information on Forms 10-Q, 10-K and 8-K under the Exchange Act as required thereby and otherwise complies with Rule 158 under the Securities Act;

(j) in the case of an Underwritten Offering, if requested by the managing underwriters or Purchaser, promptly incorporate in a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment such information as the managing underwriters or Purchaser reasonably requests to be included therein, including with respect to the Registrable Securities being sold by Purchaser, the purchase price being paid therefor by the underwriters and with respect to any other terms of the Underwritten Offering of the Registrable Securities to be sold in such offering, and promptly make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment;

(k) as promptly as practicable after filing with the SEC of any document that is incorporated by reference into a registration statement (in the form in which it was incorporated), deliver a copy of each such document to Purchaser;

(l) cooperate with Purchaser and the managing underwriters to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing securities sold under any registration statement, which certificates

(m) promptly make available for inspection by Purchaser and any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to any registration statement, and any attorney, accountant or other agent or representative retained by Purchaser or underwriter (collectively, the Inspectors), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company (collectively, the Records), as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise their due diligence responsibility, and cause the Company's officers, directors, employees and independent accountants to supply all information requested by any such Inspector in connection with such registration statement; provided, that, unless the disclosure of such Records is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in the registration statement or the release of such Records is ordered pursuant to a subpoena or other order from a court of competent jurisdiction, the Company shall not be required to provide any information under this subparagraph (m) if (i) the Company reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that to do so would cause the Company to forfeit an attorney-client privilege that was applicable to such information or (ii) if either (A) the Company has requested and been granted from the SEC confidential treatment of such information contained in any filing with the SEC or documents provided supplementally or otherwise or (B) the Company reasonably determines in good faith that such Records are confidential and so notifies the Inspectors in writing, unless prior to furnishing any such information with respect to clause (ii) Purchaser agrees to enter into a confidentiality agreement in customary form and subject to customary exceptions; and provided, further that Purchaser agrees that it shall, upon learning that disclosure of such Records is sought in a court of competent jurisdiction, give notice to the Company and allow the Company, at its expense, to undertake appropriate action and to prevent disclosure of the Records deemed confidential;

(n) furnish to Purchaser and underwriter, if any, a signed counterpart of (i) an opinion or opinions of counsel to the Company and updates thereof (which counsel and which opinions shall be reasonably satisfactory to the underwriters and Purchaser) addressed to them covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in Underwritten Offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by Purchaser and underwriters or their counsel, (ii) a comfort letter or comfort letters and updates thereof from the Company's independent public accountants addressed to them, each in customary form and covering such matters of the type customarily covered by comfort letters by underwriters in connection with primary Underwritten Offerings;

(p) provide a transfer agent and registrar for all Registrable Securities registered hereunder not later than the effective date of the registration statement related thereto;

(q) use its best efforts to cause Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be registered with or approved by such other government agencies or authorities as may be necessary to enable the sellers thereof to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities;

(r) cooperate with Purchaser and each underwriter, if any, participating in the disposition of such Registrable Securities and their respective counsel in connection with any filings required to be made with FINRA;

(s) as may be required in connection with the initial filing of any registration statement, and during the period when the prospectus is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, promptly file all documents required to be filed

(t) notify Purchaser promptly of any written comments by the SEC or any request by the SEC for the amending or supplementing of such registration statement or prospectus or for additional information;

(u) if applicable, enter into an underwriting agreement for such offering, such agreement to contain such representations and warranties by the Company and such other terms and provisions as are customarily contained in underwriting agreements with respect to that offering, including indemnities and contribution to the effect and to the extent provided in Section 2.9 and the provision of opinion of counsel and accountants' letters to the effect and to the extent provided in Section 2.5(n) and enter into any other such customary agreements and take all such other actions as Purchaser or the underwriters, if any, reasonably request in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities. Purchaser shall be party to any such underwriting agreement, and the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, the Company to and for the benefit of such underwriters shall also be made to and for the benefit of Purchaser;

(v) make every reasonable effort to prevent the entry of any order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement and, in the event of the issuance of any such stop order, or of any order suspending or preventing the use of any related prospectus or suspending the qualification of any security included in such registration statement for sale in any jurisdiction, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts promptly to obtain the withdrawal of such order;

(w) provide a CUSIP number for all Registrable Securities not later than the effective date of the registration statement with respect thereto;

(x) in connection with an Underwritten Offering make such representations and warranties to Purchaser of such Registrable Securities and the underwriters with respect to the Registrable Securities and the registration statement as are customarily made by issuers to underwriters in primary Underwritten Offerings and deliver such documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested by each seller of Registrable Securities covered by the registration statement and by the underwriters to evidence compliance with such representations and warranties and with any customary conditions contained in the underwriting agreement or other agreement entered into by the Company; and

(y) advise Purchaser, promptly after it shall receive notice or obtain knowledge thereof, of the issuance or threat of issuance of any stop order by the SEC suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose and promptly use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order or to obtain its withdrawal at the earliest possible moment if such stop order should be issued.

Section 2.6 Suspension of Disposition. Purchaser agrees by acquisition of any Registrable Securities that, upon receipt of any notice (a Suspension Notice) from the Company of the happening of any Material Disclosure Event, Purchaser shall promptly discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities until receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus, or until it is advised in writing by the Company (the Advice) that the use of the prospectus may be resumed, and has received copies of any additional or supplemental filings that are incorporated by reference in the prospectus, and, if so directed by the Company, Purchaser shall deliver to the Company all copies, other than permanent file copies then in its possession, of the prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. In the event the Company shall give any Suspension Notice, the time period regarding the effectiveness of registration statements set forth in Sections 2.5(b) and 2.5(c) hereof shall be extended by the number of days during the period from and including the date of the giving of the Suspension Notice to and including the date when each seller of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement shall have received the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus or the Advice (such period, a Suspension Period). The Company shall use its best efforts and take such actions as are reasonably necessary to render the Advice as promptly as practicable and shall as promptly as practicable after the expiration of the Suspension Period prepare a post-effective amendment or supplement to the registration statement or the prospectus or any document incorporated therein by reference, or file any required document so that, as thereafter delivered to purchasers of the Registrable Securities included therein, the prospectus will not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be entitled to more than two Suspension Periods during any consecutive 12-month period, which Suspension Periods shall have durations of not more than 90 days each; provided, that a Suspension Period shall automatically expire upon the public disclosure of the information to which the Material Disclosure Event relates. The fact that a Suspension Period is in effect under this Section 2.6 shall not relieve the contractual obligations of the Company as set forth in Section 2.5 or in any SEC rules to file timely reports and otherwise file material required to be filed under the Exchange Act.

Section 2.7 Registration Expenses. The Company shall pay all out-of-pocket fees and expenses incident to any Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration, including all expenses incident to the Company's performance of or compliance with this Article 2, all registration and filing fees, all internal fees and expenses of the Company (including any allocation of salaries of employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or other general overhead expenses of the Company and its subsidiaries or other expenses related to the preparation of financial statements or other data normally prepared by the Company and its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business and expenses of its officers and employees performing legal or accounting duties), all fees and expenses associated with filings required to be made with the FINRA (including, if applicable, the reasonable fees and expenses of any qualified independent underwriter as such term is defined in Schedule E of the By-Laws of the FINRA, and of its counsel) or with any other applicable governmental authority, as may be required by the rules and regulations of the FINRA or such other governmental authority, fees and expenses of compliance with securities or blue sky laws (including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel in connection with blue sky qualifications of the Registrable Securities), rating agency fees, printing expenses (including expenses of printing certificates for the Registrable Securities in a form eligible for deposit with Depository Trust Company and of printing prospectuses if the printing of prospectuses is requested by a holder of Registrable Securities), messenger, duplicating, distribution and delivery expenses, the expense of any annual audit or quarterly review, the expense of any liability insurance, the fees and expenses incurred in connection with any listing or quotation of the Registrable Securities, fees and expenses of counsel for the Company and its independent certified public accountants (including the expenses of any special audit or cold comfort letters required by or incident to such performance), the fees and expenses of any special experts retained by the Company in connection with such registration and the reasonable fees and expenses of any one counsel for Purchaser shall be paid for by the Company, which counsel shall be selected by Purchaser. Any underwriting discounts, commissions, or fees attributable to the sale of the Registrable Securities shall be borne by Purchaser whether or not any registration statement becomes effective, and the fees and expenses of any counsel, accountants, or other persons retained or employed by Purchaser (other than as set forth in the preceding sentence) shall be borne by Purchaser.

Section 2.8 Underwritten Offering.

(a) At the request of Purchaser, the offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Demand Registration including pursuant to a Shelf Registration, shall be in the form of an Underwritten Offering. Purchaser shall select (i) the investment banking firm or firms to manage the Underwritten Offering and (ii) counsel to Purchaser; provided, that, in the case of clause (i), such selection shall be subject to the consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Purchaser may not participate in any Underwritten Offering pursuant to this Agreement unless Purchaser (x) agrees to sell Registrable Securities on the basis provided in any underwriting agreement described above as agreed upon by the Company and accepts the underwriters selected in accordance with the procedures described in this Section 2.8. and (y) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreements; provided, that Purchaser shall not be required to make any representations or warranties in connection with any such registration other than representations and warranties as to (i) Purchaser's ownership of the Registrable Securities to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances created by Purchaser, (ii) Purchaser's power and authority to effect such transfer, and (iii) such matters pertaining to Purchaser's compliance with securities laws as may be reasonably requested; provided, further that any obligation of Purchaser to indemnify any Person pursuant to any such underwriting agreement shall be limited to the net amount received by Purchaser from the sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to such registration (which amounts shall include the amount of cash or the fair market value of any assets in exchange for the sale or exchange of such Registrable Securities or that are the subject of a distribution); provided, further that this Section 2.8(a) shall not require Purchaser to agree to any lock up agreement, market standoff agreement or holdback agreement other than those permitted by Section 2.4.

(b) If Registrable Securities are to be sold in a Underwritten Offering, the Company agrees to include in the registration statement, or in the case of a Shelf Registration, a prospectus supplement, to be used all such information as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters for the marketing and sale of such Registrable Securities.

Section 2.9 Indemnification.

(a) In connection with each Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser, the officers, directors and agents and employees of Purchaser, each Person who controls Purchaser (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) and the directors, officers, agents and employees of each such controlling Person, from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, judgment, costs (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) (collectively, Losses), arising out of or based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any registration statement or prospectus, or in any amendment or supplement thereto, or in any preliminary prospectus, or arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as the same are based upon information furnished to the Company by or on behalf of Purchaser for use therein.

(b) In connection with each Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration and each offering of Registrable Securities proposed to be made pursuant to such Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration, Purchaser shall furnish to the Company in writing such information as the Company reasonably requests for use in connection with each applicable registration statement and prospectus. Purchaser agrees to indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, the Company, its directors, officers, agents or employees, each Person who controls the Company (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) and the directors, officers, agents or employees of such controlling Person, from and against any and all Losses, as incurred, arising out of or based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in such registration statement or prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto, or in any preliminary prospectus, or arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission is based upon any information so furnished in writing by or on behalf of Purchaser to the Company expressly for use in such registration statement or prospectus.

(c) If any Person shall be entitled to indemnity hereunder (an indemnified party), such indemnified party shall give prompt notice to the party from which such indemnity is sought (the indemnifying party) of any claim or of the commencement of any proceeding with respect to which such indemnified party seeks indemnification or contribution pursuant hereto; provided, that the delay or failure to so notify the indemnifying party shall not relieve the indemnifying party from any obligation or liability except to the extent that the indemnifying party has been prejudiced by such delay or failure. The indemnifying party shall have the right, exercisable by giving written notice to an indemnified party promptly after the receipt of written notice from such indemnified party of such claim or proceeding, to assume, at the indemnifying party's expense, the defense of any such claim or proceeding, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party; provided, that (i) an indemnified party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such claim or proceeding and to participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party unless: (A) the indemnifying party agrees to pay such fees and expenses; (B) the indemnifying party fails promptly to assume the defense of such claim or proceeding or fails to employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party; or (C) the named parties to any proceeding (including impleaded parties) include both such indemnified party and the indemnifying party, and such indemnified party shall have been advised by counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to it that are inconsistent with those available to the indemnifying party or that a conflict of interest is likely to exist among such indemnified party and any other indemnified parties (in which case the indemnifying party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such action on behalf of such indemnified party); and (ii) subject to clause (C) above, the indemnifying party shall not, in connection with any one such claim or proceeding or separate but substantially similar or related claims or proceedings in the same jurisdiction, arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances, be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one firm of attorneys (together with appropriate local counsel) at any time for all of the indemnified parties, or for fees and expenses that are not reasonable. Whether or not such defense is assumed by the indemnifying party, such indemnified party shall not be subject to any liability for any settlement made without its consent. The indemnifying party shall not consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such indemnified party of a release, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party, from all liability in respect of such claim or litigation for which such indemnified party would be entitled to indemnification hereunder.

(d) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 2.9 is unavailable to an indemnified party in respect of any Losses (other than in accordance with its terms), then each applicable indemnifying party, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such Losses, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party, on the one hand, and such indemnified party, on the other hand, in connection with the actions, statements or omissions that resulted in such Losses as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of such indemnifying party, on the one hand, and indemnified party, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether any action in question, including any untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact, has been taken by, or relates to information supplied by, such indemnifying party or indemnified party, and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent any such action, statement or omission. The amount paid or payable by a party as a result of any Losses shall be deemed to include any legal or other fees or expenses incurred by such party in connection with any investigation or proceeding. The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 2.9(d) were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the second immediately preceding sentence. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 2.9(d), Purchaser shall not be required to contribute any amount which is in excess of the amount by which the total proceeds received by Purchaser from the sale of the Registrable Securities (net of all underwriting discounts and commissions) exceeds the amount of any damages that such indemnifying party has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

Section 2.10 Rule 144. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to file in a timely fashion all reports and other documents required to be filed by it under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and that it will take such further action as Purchaser may reasonably request, all to the extent required from time to time to enable Purchaser to sell Registrable Securities without registration under the Securities Act pursuant to (i) Rule 144 or (ii) any similar rule or regulation hereafter adopted by the Commission. Upon the request of Purchaser, the Company will deliver to Purchaser a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements.

No delay in asserting or exercising a right under this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of that right.

Section 3.6 Amendment. Subject to applicable law and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, this Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified at any time; provided, that no such amendment, supplement or modification shall be effective unless it is set forth in a written instrument duly executed by each of the parties hereto.

Neither this Agreement nor any right, interest or obligation under this Agreement may be assigned by any party to this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other parties to this Agreement and any attempt to do so will be void. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement is binding upon, inures to the benefit of and is enforceable by the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and assigns.

Any and all process may be served in any action, suit or proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement by complying with the provisions of Section 3.3. This Agreement may be executed manually or by facsimile, in any number of counterparts, all of which will constitute one and the same instrument, and will become effective when a counterpart shall have been executed and delivered by each party to the other parties (except that parties that are affiliates need not deliver counterparts to each other in order for this Agreement to be effective).

Section 3.13 Remedies. The parties hereto agree that if any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, irreparable damage would occur, no adequate remedy at law would exist and damages would be difficult to determine, and that the parties shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or equity to which the parties may be entitled. REGISTRATION RIGHTS

Section 2.1 Demand Registrations.

(a) If on or after the Effective Date, the Company shall receive a notice from a Stockholder that the Company effect a Demand Registration (a Demand Notice), for all or any portion of the Registrable Securities specified in such Demand Notice, specifying the intended method of disposition thereof, then the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to effect within 60 days of such Demand Notice, subject to the restrictions of this Section 2.1, the registration under the Securities Act of the Registrable Securities for which the Stockholder has requested registration under this Section 2.1, all to the extent necessary to permit the disposition (in accordance with the intended methods thereof as specified in the Demand Notice) of the Registrable Securities so to be registered.

(b) Subject to the provisions of this Section 2.1, each Stockholder shall be entitled to request an aggregate of two Demand Registrations before the expiration of the Lockup Restrictions and three Demand Registrations thereafter.

(c) Subject to Section 2.1(f), the Company shall file the registration statement in respect of a Demand Registration as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 45 days after receiving a Demand Notice (the Required Filing Date) on Form S-1 or S-3 or any similar or successor to such forms under the Securities Act, or, if they are not available, any form for which the Company then qualifies, and which form shall be available for the sale of the Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended methods of distribution thereof, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the same to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable after such filing; provided, that the Company shall not be obligated to effect a Demand Registration pursuant to Section 2.1(a) (i) within 180 days after the effective date of a previous Demand Registration and (ii) unless the Demand Notice is for a number of Registrable Securities with an expected market value that is equal to at least $5,000,000 as of the date of such Demand Notice or is for one hundred percent of Registrable Securities of the stockholder that initially sent the Demand Notice (the Demanding Stockholder) that such Stockholder then is permitted to sell under the Lockup Restrictions.

(d) With respect to any Demand Registration, subject to the availability of a registration statement on Form S-3, the Company shall, upon written request from a requesting Stockholder, agree to effect a Shelf Registration, and, thereafter, shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after the filing thereof.

(e) Upon receipt of any Demand Notice, the Company shall promptly (but in any event within 10 days) give written notice of such proposed Demand Registration to all other Stockholders, who shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to the Company within 20 days of their receipt of the Company's notice, to elect to include in such Demand Registration such portion of their Registrable Securities as they may request, so long as such Registrable Securities are proposed to be disposed of in accordance with the method or methods of disposition requested pursuant to Section 2.1(a). All other Stockholders requesting to have their Registrable Securities included in a Demand Registration in accordance with the preceding sentence shall be deemed to be a requesting Stockholder for purposes of Section 2.1(b).

(f) The Company may defer the filing (but not the preparation) of a registration statement required by this Section 2.1 until after the Required Filing Date (i) for a period not to exceed 90 days, if, at the time the Company receives the Demand Notice, there exists a Material Disclosure Event, or (ii) for a period not to exceed 90 days, if, prior to receiving the Demand Notice, the Company had determined to effect a registered underwritten public offering of Company Common Stock, or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Company Common Stock, for the Company's account in connection with a material public financing transaction and the Company had taken substantial steps (including selecting a managing underwriter for such offering, if applicable) and is proceeding with reasonable diligence to effect such offering. A deferral of the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(f) shall be lifted, and the requested registration statement shall be filed forthwith, if, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (i) of the preceding sentence, the Material Disclosure Event is publicly disclosed or otherwise ceases to exist, or, in the case of a deferral pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding sentence, the proposed registration for the Company's account is abandoned or the filing of a registration statement with respect to any such proposed registration is delayed by more than 30 days from the time of receipt of the applicable Demand Notice. In order to defer the filing of a registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(f), the Company shall promptly (but in any event within 10 days), upon determining to seek such deferral, deliver to each requesting Stockholder a certificate signed by an executive officer of the Company stating that the Company is deferring such filing pursuant to this Section 2.1(f), a general statement of the reason for such deferral and an approximation of the anticipated delay. Within 20 days after receiving such certificate, the Demanding Stockholder may withdraw such Demand Notice by giving notice to the Company; if withdrawn, the Demand Notice shall be deemed not to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement and the Company shall pay all expenses of such withdrawn Demand Registration in accordance with Section 2.7. The Company may defer the filing of a particular registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.1(f) only once in any period of 12 consecutive months; provided, that any deferral pursuant to clause (i) of the first sentence of this Section 2.1(f) shall be deemed to be a Suspension Period for purposes of Section 2.6 and shall be subject to the limitations and obligations during Suspension Periods set forth in Section 2.6.

(g) No securities to be sold for the account of any Person (including the Company), other than a requesting Stockholder, shall be included in a Demand Registration if the managing underwriters (or, in an offering that is not underwritten, a nationally recognized investment bank) shall advise the Company and the requesting Stockholders in writing that the aggregate amount of such securities requested to be included in any offering pursuant to such Demand Registration is sufficiently large to have an adverse effect on the success of any such offering, based on market conditions or otherwise (an Adverse Effect). Furthermore, if the managing underwriters (or such investment bank) shall advise the Company and the requesting Stockholders that, even after exclusion of all securities of other Persons pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, the amount of Registrable Securities proposed to be included in such Demand Registration by requesting Stockholders is sufficiently large to cause an Adverse Effect, the Registrable Securities of the requesting Stockholders to be included in such Demand Registration shall equal the number of shares which the requesting Stockholders are so advised can be sold in such offering without an Adverse Effect and such shares shall be allocated pro rata among the requesting Stockholders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by each such requesting Stockholder; provided, that the Company shall not include any Registrable Securities of any executive officer, director or employee of the Company (other than the Stockholders) or any of its subsidiaries if the managing underwriters (or such investment bank) shall advise the Company and the requesting Stockholders that the participation of any such persons may have an Adverse Effect; provided, further that if the number of Registrable Securities owned by the Demanding Stockholder to be included in the Demand Registration is less than 80% of the number requested to be so included, the Demanding Stockholder may withdraw such Demand Notice by giving notice to the Company; if withdrawn, the Demand Notice shall be deemed not to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement and the Company shall pay all expenses of such withdrawn Demand Registration in accordance with Section 2.7; provided, however, that if the holders of a majority of the remaining Registrable Securities covered by such Demand Notice desire to proceed with such Demand Registration, the Company shall proceed forward with such Demand Registration and the Demand Notice shall be deemed to have been made for all purposes of this Agreement by the remaining holders.

(h) Any requesting Stockholder may withdraw such Stockholder's Registrable Securities from a Demand Registration at any time and any Demanding Stockholder shall have the right to cancel a proposed Demand Registration of Registrable Securities pursuant to this Section 2.1(h). Upon such cancellation, the Company shall cease all efforts to secure registration and such Demand Registration shall not be counted as a Demand Registration under this Agreement for any purpose and the Company shall pay the expenses of such cancelled Demand Registration in accordance with Section 2.7.

(i) In any registration requested pursuant to this Section 2.1, the Company shall not register securities other than Registrable Securities for sale for the account of any Person (including the Company), unless permitted to do so by the written consent of the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be sold in such registration.

Section 2.2 Piggyback Registrations.

(a) Whenever the Company proposes to register any of its equity securities under the Securities Act (other than a registration statement on Form S-8 or on Form S-4 or any similar successor forms), whether for its own account or for the account of one or more stockholders of the Company, the Company shall each such time give prompt written notice at least 20 business days prior to the anticipated filing date of the registration statement relating to such registration to all Stockholders, which notice shall set forth the Stockholders' rights under this Section 2.2 and shall offer the Stockholders the opportunity to include in such registration the number of Registrable Securities of the same class or series as those proposed to be registered as the Stockholders may request, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.2(a), 2.2(b) and 2.2(c). Upon the request of a Stockholder made within 15 business days after the receipt of notice from the Company (which request shall specify the number of Registrable Securities, if any, intended to be registered by the Stockholder), the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of all Registrable Securities that the Company has been so requested to register by the Stockholder to the extent necessary to permit the disposition of the Registrable Securities so to be registered; provided, that (i) if such registration involves an Underwritten Offering, the Stockholder must sell such Stockholder's Registrable Securities to the underwriters selected by the Company on the same terms and conditions as apply to the Company, as applicable, and (ii) if, at any time after giving notice of its intention to register any securities pursuant to this Section 2.2(a) and prior to the effective date of the registration statement filed in connection with such registration, the Company shall determine for any reason not to register such securities, the Company shall give notice to the Stockholder and, thereupon, shall be relieved of its obligation to register any Registrable Securities in connection with such registration. No registration effected under this Section 2.2 shall relieve the Company of its obligations to effect a Demand Registration to the extent required by Section 2.1. There shall be no limitation on the number of Piggyback Registrations that the Company shall be required to effect under this Section 2.2.

(b) At any time prior to the effective date of the registration statement relating to such registration, a Stockholder may revoke such Piggyback Registration request by providing a notice to the Company revoking such request.

(c) If a Piggyback Registration is in respect of an Underwritten Offering and was initiated by the Company, and if the managing underwriters advise the Company that the inclusion of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the registration statement pursuant to this Section 2.2 would cause an Adverse Effect, then the Company shall be required to include in such registration statement, to the extent of the amount of securities that the managing underwriters advise may be sold without causing such Adverse Effect, (A) first, the securities the Company proposes to sell; (B) second, the Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by any Stockholder thereof, pro rata among such Stockholders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities requested to be registered by each such Stockholder; and (C) third, any other securities requested to be included in such registration; provided, that the Company shall not include any Registrable Securities of any executive officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than the Stockholders) if such managing underwriters advise the Company and the requesting Stockholders that the participation of any such individual may have an Adverse Effect. If, as a result of the provisions of this Section 2.2(c), any Stockholder shall not be entitled to include all Registrable Securities in a registration that such Stockholder has requested to be so included, such Stockholder may withdraw such Stockholder's request to include Registrable Securities in such registration statement.

(d) If a Piggyback Registration is in respect of an Underwritten Offering and was initiated by a security holder of the Company (other than a Stockholder), and if the managing underwriters advise the Company that the inclusion of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the registration statement would cause an Adverse Effect, the Company shall include in such registration statement, to the extent of the amount of securities that the managing underwriters advise may be sold without causing such Adverse Effect, (A) first, the Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by any Stockholder thereof, pro rata among the Stockholders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities requested to be registered by each such Stockholder; and (B) second, any other securities requested to be included in such registration (including securities to be sold for the account of the Company); provided, that the Company shall not include any Registrable Securities of any executive officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than the Stockholders) if such managing underwriters advise the Company and the requesting Stockholders that the participation of any such individual may have an Adverse Effect. If, as a result of the provisions of this Section 2.2(d), any Stockholder shall not be entitled to include all Registrable Securities in a registration that such Stockholder has requested to be so included, such Stockholder may withdraw such Stockholder's request to include Registrable Securities in such registration statement.

(e) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the provisions of Sections 2.2(c) and 2.2(d) shall not apply to a Piggyback Registration that is a Shelf Registration.

Section 2.3 SEC Forms. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause any Demand Registrations to be registered on Form S-3 (or any successor form), if applicable, once the Company becomes eligible to use Form S-3. If the Company is not then eligible under the Securities Act to use Form S-3, such Demand Registrations shall be registered on the form for which the Company then qualifies. The Company shall use its best efforts to become and remain eligible to use Form S-3. All such registration statements shall comply with applicable requirements of the Securities Act, and, together with each prospectus included, filed or otherwise furnished by the Company in connection therewith, shall not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

Section 2.4 Holdback Agreements.

(a) The Company agrees (i) not to effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, except pursuant to Excluded Registrations, during the seven days prior to the effective date of any registration statement in connection with a Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration and thereafter until the date on which all of the Registrable Securities subject to such registration statement have been sold (not to exceed 90 days, as required by the underwriters managing the offering) and (ii) if requested by the managing underwriters, to use reasonable efforts to cause each director and executive officer to agree not to effect any public sale or distribution (including sales pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act) of any such securities during such period (except as part of such underwritten registration, if otherwise permitted); provided, that the foregoing described holdback shall not apply to the extent that the managing underwriters of such offering otherwise agree or, in the event a registration statement does not relate to an Underwritten Offering, if the holders of a majority of such Registrable Securities consent thereto.

(b) If any Stockholders notify the Company in writing that they intend to effect an underwritten sale of Company Common Stock registered pursuant to a Shelf Registration, the Company agrees (i) not to effect any public sale or distribution of its equity securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for its equity securities, during the seven days prior to and during the 90-day period beginning on the filing of the prospectus supplement with respect to such offering, other than pursuant to Excluded Registrations or to the extent that the managing underwriters of such offering otherwise agree and (ii) if requested by the managing underwriters, to use reasonable efforts to cause each director and executive officer to agree not to effect any public sale or distribution (including sales pursuant to Section 144) of any such securities during such period (except as part of such underwritten registration, if otherwise permitted).

(c) Each Stockholder agrees, in the event of an Underwritten Offering by the Company (whether for the account of the Company or otherwise), not to effect any public sale or distribution of any Registrable Securities, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such Registrable Securities, including any sale pursuant to Rule 144 (except as part of such Underwritten Offering), during the seven days prior to and ending up to 90 days after the date of the final prospectus, subject in each case to such extensions as are customary to permit the publication of research in compliance with Rule 2711(f) of the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. as incorporated in the FINRA Rules (or any similar successor rule thereto); provided, that each other stockholder of the Company and each executive officer of the Company is subject to substantially the same restrictions.

Section 2.5 Registration Procedures. Whenever any Stockholder has requested that any Registrable Securities be registered pursuant to this Agreement, the Company shall use its best efforts to effect the registration and the sale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof as promptly as is practicable, and pursuant thereto the Company shall as expeditiously as possible:

(a) prepare and file with the SEC by the Required Filing Date a registration statement on the appropriate form under the Securities Act with respect to such Registrable Securities and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective as soon as practicable after the initial filing thereof; provided, that as far in advance as practicable before filing such registration statement or any amendment or supplement thereto, the Company shall furnish to the selling Stockholders copies of reasonably complete drafts of all such documents prepared to be filed (including exhibits and documents that are to be incorporated by reference into the registration statement, amendment or supplement), and any such Stockholder shall have the opportunity to object to any information contained therein and the Company shall make any corrections or other amendments reasonably requested by such Stockholder with respect to such information prior to filing any such registration statement, amendment or supplement;

(b) except in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the SEC such amendments, post-effective amendments, and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for a period of not less than 180 days (or such lesser period as is necessary for the underwriters in an Underwritten Offering to sell unsold allotments) and comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement during such period in accordance with the intended methods of disposition by the sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement;

(c) in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the SEC such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all Registrable Securities subject thereto for a period ending on the earlier of (i) 24 months after the effective date of such registration statement and (ii) the date on which all the Registrable Securities subject thereto have been sold pursuant to such registration statement;

(d) furnish to each Stockholder selling Registrable Securities and the underwriters, if any, of the securities being registered such number of copies of such registration statement, each amendment and supplement thereto, the prospectus included in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus and any summary prospectus), any documents incorporated by reference therein and such other documents as such Stockholder or underwriters reasonably may request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by such Stockholder or the sale of such securities by such underwriters (it being understood that, subject to this Section 2.5 and the requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, the Company consents to the use of the prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto by each such Stockholder and the underwriters in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Securities covered by the registration statement of which such prospectus, amendment or supplement is a part);

(e) use its best efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Securities under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as any Stockholder thereof or the managing underwriters reasonably request; use its reasonable best efforts to keep each such registration or qualification (or exemption therefrom) effective during the period in which such registration statement is required to be kept effective; and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable each such Stockholder to consummate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by such Stockholder in such jurisdictions; provided, that the Company shall not be required to (i) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to qualify but for this subparagraph or (ii) consent to general service of process in any such jurisdiction;

(f) promptly notify each Stockholder of such Registrable Securities and each underwriter, if any, in writing (i) when a prospectus or any prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment has been filed and, with respect to a registration statement or any post-effective amendment, when the same has become effective; (ii) of the issuance by any state securities or other regulatory authority of any order suspending the qualification or exemption from qualification of any of the Registrable Securities under state securities or blue sky laws or the initiation or threat of initiation of any proceedings for that purpose; and (iii) if such registration statement or related prospectus, at the time it or any amendment thereto became effective or at any time such prospectus is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, contained an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, upon the discovery by the Company of such material misstatement or omission or of the happening of any event as a result of which the Company believes there would be such a material misstatement or omission; provided, that, in the case of clause (iii), promptly after delivery of such notice, the Company shall, as the case may be, (x) prepare and file with the SEC a post-effective amendment to such registration statement and use its best efforts to cause such amendment to become effective so that such registration statement, as so amended, shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading or (y) prepare and furnish a supplement or amendment to such prospectus so that, as thereafter deliverable to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities, such prospectus shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit a material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(g) permit (i) any selling Stockholder that, in such Stockholder's sole and exclusive judgment, might reasonably be deemed to be an underwriter or a controlling person of the Company (in each case, within the meaning of the Securities Act) and (ii) any selling Stockholder holding, or representing Stockholders of, a majority of the Registrable Securities included in such registration statement, to participate in the preparation of such registration statement or related prospectus and promptly incorporate any information furnished to the Company by such Stockholder that, in the reasonable judgment of such Stockholder and its counsel, should be included;

(h) make reasonably available senior management of the Company, as selected by the Stockholders of a majority of the Registrable Securities included in such registration, to assist in the marketing of the Registrable Securities covered by such registration, including the participation of such members of the Company's senior management in road show presentations and other customary marketing activities, including one-on-one meetings with prospective purchasers of the Registrable Securities to be sold in the Underwritten Offering and otherwise to facilitate, cooperate with, and participate in each proposed offering contemplated herein and customary selling efforts related thereto, in each case to the same extent as if the Company were engaged in a primary registered offering of its capital stock; provided, that such assistance does not unduly interfere with the normal operations of the Company in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice;

(i) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, including the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, and make generally available to the Company's security holders an earnings statement satisfying the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 thereunder, as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than 30 days after the end of the 12-month period beginning with the first day of the Company's first fiscal quarter commencing after the effective date of a registration statement, which earnings statement shall cover said 12 month period; provided, that such requirement shall be deemed satisfied if the Company timely files complete and accurate information on Forms 10-Q, 10-K and 8-K under the Exchange Act as required thereby and otherwise complies with Rule 158 under the Securities Act;

(j) in the case of an Underwritten Offering, if requested by the managing underwriters or any selling Stockholder, promptly incorporate in a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment such information as the managing underwriters or such selling Stockholder reasonably requests to be included therein, including with respect to the Registrable Securities being sold by such selling Stockholder, the purchase price being paid therefor by the underwriters and with respect to any other terms of the Underwritten Offering of the Registrable Securities to be sold in such offering, and promptly make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment;

(k) as promptly as practicable after filing with the SEC of any document that is incorporated by reference into a registration statement (in the form in which it was incorporated), deliver a copy of each such document to each selling Stockholder;

(l) cooperate with the selling Stockholders and the managing underwriters to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing securities sold under any registration statement, which certificates shall not bear any restrictive legends unless required under applicable law, and enable such securities to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the managing underwriters or such selling Stockholders may request and keep available and make available to the Company's transfer agent prior to the effectiveness of such registration statement a supply of such certificates;

(m) promptly make available for inspection by any selling Stockholder and any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to any registration statement, and any attorney, accountant or other agent or representative retained by any such selling Stockholder or underwriter (collectively, the Inspectors), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company (collectively, the Records), as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise their due diligence responsibility, and cause the Company's officers, directors, employees and independent accountants to supply all information requested by any such Inspector in connection with such registration statement; provided, that, unless the disclosure of such Records is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in the registration statement or the release of such Records is ordered pursuant to a subpoena or other order from a court of competent jurisdiction, the Company shall not be required to provide any information under this subparagraph (m) if (i) the Company reasonably determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that to do so would cause the Company to forfeit an attorney-client privilege that was applicable to such information or (ii) if either (A) the Company has requested and been granted from the SEC confidential treatment of such information contained in any filing with the SEC or documents provided supplementally or otherwise or (B) the Company reasonably determines in good faith that such Records are confidential and so notifies the Inspectors in writing, unless prior to furnishing any such information with respect to clause (ii) such selling Stockholder requesting such information agrees to enter into a confidentiality agreement in customary form and subject to customary exceptions; and provided, further that each selling Stockholder agrees that it shall, upon learning that disclosure of such Records is sought in a court of competent jurisdiction, give notice to the Company and allow the Company, at its expense, to undertake appropriate action and to prevent disclosure of the Records deemed confidential;

(n) furnish to each selling Stockholder and underwriter, if any, a signed counterpart of (i) an opinion or opinions of counsel to the Company and updates thereof (which counsel and which opinions shall be reasonably satisfactory to the underwriters and the Stockholders of a majority of the Registrable Securities covered by the registration statement) addressed to them covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in Underwritten Offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the Stockholders of a majority of the Registrable Securities covered by the registration statement and underwriters or their counsel, (ii) a comfort letter or comfort letters and updates thereof from the

(s) as may be required in connection with the initial filing of any registration statement, and during the period when the prospectus is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, promptly file all documents required to be filed with the SEC pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act;

The selling Stockholders shall be parties to any such underwriting agreement, and the representations and warranties by, and the other agreements on the part of, the Company to and for the benefit of such underwriters shall also be made to and for the benefit of such selling Stockholders;

(y) advise each selling Stockholder, promptly after it shall receive notice or obtain knowledge thereof, of the issuance or threat of issuance of any stop order by the SEC suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose and promptly use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order or to obtain its withdrawal at the earliest possible moment if such stop order should be issued.

Section 2.6 Suspension of Disposition. Each Stockholder agrees by acquisition of any Registrable Securities that, upon receipt of any notice (a Suspension Notice) from the Company of the happening of any Material Disclosure Event, such Stockholder shall promptly discontinue such Stockholder's disposition of Registrable Securities until such Stockholder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus, or until it is advised in writing by the Company (the Advice) that the use of the prospectus may be resumed, and has received copies of any additional or supplemental filings that are incorporated by reference in the prospectus, and, if so directed by the Company, such Stockholder shall deliver to the Company all copies, other than permanent file copies then in such Stockholder's possession, of the prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. In the event the Company shall give any Suspension Notice, the time period regarding the effectiveness of registration statements set forth in Sections 2.5(b) and 2.5(c) hereof shall be extended by the number of days during the period from and including the date of the giving of the Suspension Notice to and including the date when each seller of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement shall have received the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus or the Advice (such period, a Suspension Period). The Company shall use its best efforts and take such actions as are reasonably necessary to render the Advice as promptly as practicable and shall as promptly as practicable after the expiration of the Suspension Period prepare a post-effective amendment or supplement to the registration statement or the prospectus or any document incorporated therein by reference, or file any required document so that, as thereafter delivered to purchasers of the Registrable Securities included therein, the prospectus will not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be entitled to more than two Suspension Periods during any consecutive 12-month period, which Suspension Periods shall have durations of not more than 90 days each; provided, that a Suspension Period shall automatically expire upon the public disclosure of the information to which the Material Disclosure Event relates. The fact that a Suspension Period is in effect under this Section 2.6 shall not relieve the contractual obligations of the Company as set forth in Section 2.5 or in any SEC rules to file timely reports and otherwise file material required to be filed under the Exchange Act.

Section 2.7 Registration Expenses. The Company shall pay all out-of-pocket fees and expenses incident to any Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration, including all expenses incident to the Company's performance of or compliance with this Article 2, all registration and filing fees, all internal fees and expenses of the Company (including any allocation of salaries of employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or other general overhead expenses of the Company and its subsidiaries or other expenses related to the preparation of financial statements or other data normally prepared by the Company and its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business and expenses of its officers and employees performing legal or accounting duties), all fees and expenses associated with filings required to be made with the FINRA (including, if applicable, the reasonable fees and expenses of any qualified independent underwriter as such term is defined in Schedule E of the By-Laws of the FINRA, and of its counsel) or with any other applicable governmental authority, as may be required by the rules and regulations of the FINRA or such other governmental authority, fees and expenses of compliance with securities or blue sky laws (including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel in connection with blue sky qualifications of the Registrable Securities), rating agency fees, printing expenses (including expenses of printing certificates for the Registrable Securities in a form eligible for deposit with Depository Trust Company and of printing prospectuses if the printing of prospectuses is requested by a holder of Registrable Securities), messenger, duplicating, distribution and delivery expenses, the expense of any annual audit or quarterly review, the expense of any liability insurance, the fees and expenses incurred in connection with any listing or quotation of the Registrable Securities, fees and expenses of counsel for the Company and its independent certified public accountants (including the expenses of any special audit or cold comfort performance), the fees and expenses of any special experts retained by the Company in connection with such registration and the reasonable fees and expenses of any one counsel for all Stockholders participating in such registration shall be paid for by the Company, which counsel shall be selected by the Stockholders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be registered in such offering. Any underwriting discounts, commissions, or fees attributable to the sale of the Registrable Securities shall be borne by the Stockholders pro rata on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities so registered whether or not any registration statement becomes effective, and the fees and expenses of any counsel, accountants, or other persons retained or employed by any Stockholder (other than as set forth in the preceding sentence) shall be borne by such Stockholder.

letters required by or incident to such

Section 2.8 Underwritten Offering.

(a) At the request of the Stockholders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be registered in any Demand Registration, the offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Demand Registration including pursuant to a Shelf Registration, shall be in the form of an Underwritten Offering. The Stockholders of a majority of the Registrable Securities to be so registered shall select (i) the investment banking firm or firms to manage the Underwritten Offering and (ii) counsel to the requesting Stockholders; provided, that, in the case of clause (i), such selection shall be subject to the consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. No Stockholder may participate in any Underwritten Offering pursuant to this Agreement unless such Stockholder (x) agrees to sell such Stockholder's Registrable Securities on the basis provided in any underwriting agreement described above as agreed upon by the Company and accepts the underwriters selected in accordance with the procedures described in this Section 2.8. and (y) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting agreements; provided, that no such Stockholder shall be required to make any representations or warranties in connection with any such registration other than representations and warranties as to (i) such Stockholder's ownership of his, her or its Registrable Securities to be transferred free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances created by such Stockholder, (ii) such Stockholder's power and authority to effect such transfer, and (iii) such matters pertaining to such Stockholder's compliance with securities laws as may be reasonably requested; provided, further that any obligation of such Stockholder to indemnify any Person pursuant to any such underwriting agreement shall be several, not joint and several, among such Stockholders selling Registrable Securities, and such liability shall be limited to the net amount received by such Stockholder from the sale of his, her or its Registrable Securities pursuant to such registration (which amounts shall include the amount of cash or the fair market value of any assets in exchange for the sale or exchange of such Registrable Securities or that are the subject of a distribution), and the relative liability of each such Stockholder shall be in proportion to such net amounts; provided, further that this Section 2.8(a) shall not require any Stockholder to agree to any lock up agreement, market standoff agreement or holdback agreement other than those permitted by Section 2.4.

(b) If Registrable Securities are to be sold in a Underwritten Offering, the Company agrees to include in the registration statement, or in the case of a Shelf Registration, a prospectus supplement, to be used all such information as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters for the marketing and sale of such Registrable Securities.

Section 2.9 Indemnification.

(a) In connection with each Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each Stockholder, the officers, directors and agents and employees of each of them, each Person who controls each such Stockholder (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) and the directors, officers, agents and employees of each such controlling Person, from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, judgment, costs (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) (collectively, Losses), arising out of or based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any registration statement or prospectus, or in any amendment or supplement thereto, or in any preliminary prospectus, or arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as the same are based upon information furnished to the Company by or on behalf of such Stockholder for use therein.

(b) In connection with each Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration and each offering of Registrable Securities proposed to be made pursuant to such Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration, each Stockholder shall furnish to the Company in writing such information as the Company reasonably requests for use in connection with each applicable registration statement and prospectus. Each Stockholder agrees to indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, the Company, its directors, officers, agents or employees, each Person who controls the Company (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) and the directors, officers, agents or employees of such controlling Person, from and against any and all Losses, as incurred, arising out of or based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in such registration statement or prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto, or in any preliminary prospectus, or arising out of or based upon any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission is based upon any information so furnished in writing by or on behalf of such Stockholder to the Company expressly for use in such registration statement or prospectus.

(c) If any Person shall be entitled to indemnity hereunder (an indemnified party), such indemnified party shall give prompt notice to the party from which such indemnity is sought (the indemnifying party) of any claim or of the commencement of any proceeding with respect to which such indemnified party seeks indemnification or contribution pursuant hereto; provided, that the delay or failure to so notify the indemnifying party shall not relieve the indemnifying party from any obligation or liability except to the extent that the indemnifying party has been prejudiced by such delay or failure. The indemnifying party shall have the right, exercisable by giving written notice to an indemnified party promptly after the receipt of written notice from such indemnified party of such claim or proceeding, to assume, at the indemnifying party's expense, the defense of any such claim or proceeding, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party; provided, that (i) an indemnified party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such claim or proceeding and to participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such indemnified party unless: (A) the indemnifying party agrees to pay such fees and expenses; (B) the indemnifying party fails promptly to assume the defense of such claim or proceeding or fails to employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party; or (C) the named parties to any proceeding (including impleaded parties) include both such indemnified party and the indemnifying party, and such indemnified party shall have been advised by counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to it that are inconsistent with those available to the indemnifying party or that a conflict of interest is likely to exist among such indemnified party and any other indemnified parties (in which case the indemnifying party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such action on behalf of such indemnified party); and (ii) subject to clause (C) above, the indemnifying party shall not, in connection with any one such claim or proceeding or separate but substantially similar or related claims or proceedings in the same jurisdiction, arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances, be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one firm of attorneys (together with appropriate local counsel) at any time for all of the indemnified parties, or for fees and expenses that are not reasonable. Whether or not such defense is assumed by the indemnifying party, such indemnified party shall not be subject to any liability for any settlement made without its consent. The indemnifying party shall not consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such indemnified party of a release, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party, from all liability in respect of such claim or litigation for which such indemnified party would be entitled to indemnification hereunder.

(d) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 2.9 is unavailable to an indemnified party in respect of any Losses (other than in accordance with its terms), then each applicable indemnifying party, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such Losses, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party, on the one hand, and such indemnified party, on the other hand, in connection with the actions, statements or omissions that resulted in such Losses as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of such indemnifying party, on the one hand, and indemnified party, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether any action in question, including any untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact, has been taken by, or relates to information supplied by, such indemnifying party or indemnified party, and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent any such action, statement or omission. The amount paid or payable by a party as a result of any Losses shall be deemed to include any legal or other fees or expenses incurred by such party in connection with any investigation or proceeding. The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 2.9(d) were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the second immediately preceding sentence. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 2.9(d), an indemnifying party that is a Stockholder shall not be required to contribute any amount which is in excess of the amount by which the total proceeds received by such Stockholder from the sale of the Registrable Securities sold by such Stockholder (net of all underwriting discounts and commissions) exceeds the amount of any damages that such indemnifying party has otherwise been required to pay by reason of such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

Section 2.10 Rule 144. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to file in a timely fashion all reports and other documents required to be filed by it under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and that it will take such further action as the Stockholders may reasonably request, all to the extent required from time to time to enable the Stockholders to sell Registrable Securities without registration under the Securities Act pursuant to (i) Rule 144 or (ii) any similar rule or regulation hereafter adopted by the Commission. Upon the request of a Stockholder, the Company will deliver to such Stockholder a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements.

Section 3.5 Waiver. Subject to applicable law and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any party to this Agreement may, at any time prior to termination of this Agreement, extend the time for performance of any obligation under this Agreement of any other party or waive compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement by any other party. No such extension or waiver shall be effective unless set forth in a written instrument duly executed by the party granting such extension or waiver. Section 3.6 Amendment. Section 3.7 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as set forth in Section 2.9, the terms and provisions of this Agreement are intended solely for the benefit of each party hereto and their respective successors or permitted assigns, and it is not the intention of the parties to confer third-party beneficiary rights upon any other Person.

without the prior written consent of the other parties to this Agreement and any attempt to do so will be void. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement is binding upon, inures to the benefit of and is enforceable by the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 3.9 GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REGARD FOR ANY OF THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

Section 3.10 CONSENT TO JURISDICTION AND SERVICE OF PROCESS; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE DELAWARE CHANCERY COURT SITTING IN THE COUNTY OF NEW CASTLE, OR IF SUCH COURT SHALL NOT HAVE PROPER JURISDICTION, OF THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT SITTING IN DELAWARE, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT THEREOF, IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE BROUGHT ONLY IN SUCH COURTS (AND WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO ASSERT ANY OBJECTION BASED ON FORUM NON CONVENIENS OR ANY OTHER OBJECTION TO VENUE THEREIN OR JURISDICTION THEREOF); PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT SUCH CONSENT TO JURISDICTION IS SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSE REFERRED TO IN THIS SECTION 3.10 AND SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO BE A GENERAL SUBMISSION TO THE JURISDICTION OF SAID COURTS OR IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE OTHER THAN FOR SUCH PURPOSE. Any and all process may be served in any action, suit or proceeding arising in connection with this Agreement by complying with the provisions of Section 3.3. Such service of process shall have the same effect as if the party being served were a resident in the State of Delaware and had been lawfully served with such process in such jurisdiction. The parties hereby waive all claims of error by reason of such service. Nothing herein shall affect the right of any party to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise proceed against the other in any other jurisdiction to enforce judgments or rulings of the aforementioned courts. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY WAIVES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 3.10.

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable under any present or future law, (a) such provision will be fully severable, (b) this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof, (c) the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect and will not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom and (d) in lieu of such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision, there will be added automatically as a part of this Agreement a legal, valid and enforceable provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible and the parties hereto shall cooperate in good faith to formulate and implement such provision.

Section 3.12 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed manually or by facsimile, in any number of counterparts, all of which will constitute one and the same instrument, and will become effective when a counterpart shall have been executed and delivered by each party to the other parties (except that parties that are affiliates need not deliver counterparts to each other in order for this Agreement to be effective).

Section 3.13 Remedies. The parties hereto agree that if any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, irreparable damage would occur, no adequate remedy at law would exist and damages would be difficult to determine, and that the parties shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or equity to which the parties may be entitled. Except as otherwise provided herein, all remedies available under this Agreement, at law or otherwise, shall be deemed cumulative and not alternative or exclusive of other remedies. The exercise by any party of a particular remedy shall not preclude the exercise of any other remedy.

1. Except as Chiesi may otherwise agree in writing, neither Chiesi nor any of its affiliates shall have a duty to refrain from engaging, directly or indirectly in the same or similar business activities or lines of business as the Corporation. 3. In the event that a director or officer of the Corporation who is also a director, officer or employee of Chiesi acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter which may be a corporate opportunity for both the Corporation and Chiesi (a Mutual Corporate Opportunity), such director or officer shall to the fullest extent permitted by law have fully satisfied and fulfilled his fiduciary duty with respect to such Mutual Corporate Opportunity, and the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by law waives and renounces any claim that such Mutual Corporate Opportunity constituted a corporate opportunity that should have been presented to the Corporation, if such director or officer acts in a manner consistent with the following policy: a Mutual Corporate Opportunity offered to any person who is an officer or director of the Corporation, and who is also an officer, director or employee of Chiesi, shall belong to Chiesi, unless such Mutual Corporate Opportunity was expressly offered to such person in his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Corporation (a Cornerstone Opportunity), in which case such Cornerstone Opportunity shall not be pursued by Chiesi.

ARTICLE I

STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1.1. Place of Meetings. All meetings of stockholders shall be held at such place as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer or, if not so designated, at the principal office of the corporation.

Section 1.2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting shall be held on a date and at a time designated by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the President (if the President shall be a different individual than the Chief Executive Officer) (which date shall not be a legal holiday in the place where the meeting is to be held). If no annual meeting is held in accordance with the foregoing provisions, a special meeting may be held in lieu of the annual meeting, and any action taken at that special meeting shall have the same effect as if it had been taken at the annual meeting, and in such case all references in these Bylaws to the annual meeting of the stockholders shall be deemed to refer to such special meeting.

Section 1.3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the President (if the President shall be a different individual than the Chief Executive Officer) or at the request in writing of stockholders owning at least fifty percent (50%) in amount of the entire capital stock of the corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Section 1.4. Notice of Meetings. Except as otherwise provided by law, notice of each meeting of stockholders, whether annual or special, shall be given not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given to stockholders, any notice shall be effective if given by a form of electronic transmission consented to (in a manner consistent with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware) by the stockholder to whom the notice is given. The notices of all meetings shall state the place, date and time of the meeting and the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxyholders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting. The notice of a special meeting shall state, in addition, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. If notice is given by mail, such notice shall be deemed given when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, directed to the stockholder at such stockholder's address as it appears on the records of the corporation. If notice is given by electronic transmission, such notice shall be deemed given at the time specified in Section 232 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

Section 1.5. Voting List. The Secretary shall prepare, at least 10 days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, for a period of at least 10 days prior to the meeting: (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with notice of the meeting, or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the corporation. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present.

Section 1.6. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the holders of a majority in voting power of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person, present by means of remote communication in a manner, if any, authorized by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion, or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A quorum, once established at a meeting, shall not be broken by the withdrawal of enough votes to leave less than a quorum.

5.1 Responsibility for Manufacturing. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Chiesi shall use commercially reasonable efforts to produce and supply to Cornerstone its entire requirements of the Product for use in the Field of Use for sale in the Territory in response to Purchase Orders (as defined below). Cornerstone will purchase exclusively from Chiesi the Product for use in the Field of Use for sale in the Territory. During the Term, Chiesi, and its contract manufacturer, collectively shall hold and maintain all licenses and permits, for the Term of this Agreement, as are required to fabricate, package, label, test and store the Products in the Territory, and sell the Products to Cornerstone.

5.2 Technical Agreement. Upon execution of this Agreement, the Parties shall promptly, and in no event later than ten (10) weeks after the Effective Date, enter into a separate technical agreement, whereby the Parties will define their respective responsibilities in relation to the cGMPs and quality matters, technical specifications, release and the supply of the Product (the Technical Agreement). The Technical Agreement shall include examples of the Certificate of Analysis and Certificate of Compliance.

5.3 Forecasting and Ordering.

5.3.1 Rolling Forecasts. Cornerstone shall submit to Chiesi by the first day of each Calendar Month during the Term, a forecast of Products that Cornerstone anticipates ordering from Chiesi, including samples, for each of the following [](Rolling Forecast). The first [] months of each Rolling Forecast shall be considered as binding, the quantities indicated for the months from the [] up to the [] month can be varied by Cornerstone by no more than +/- [] percent ([]%) compared to the previous Rolling Forecast, while the quantities indicated for the months from the [] up to the [] month can be varied by Cornerstone by no more than +/- [] percent ([]%) compared to the previous Rolling Forecast, while the quantities indicated for the months after the [] month can be freely varied by Cornerstone compared to the previous Rolling Forecast. Each Purchase Order shall be placed by Cornerstone with Chiesi by e-mail and shall set forth, for each Product, the quantity ordered (in full batch quantities) and delivery date. Chiesi agrees to confirm such Purchase Orders within [] Business Days of receipt, in whole or in part, such confirmation not to be unreasonably withheld. To the extent that any Purchase Order is so confirmed by Chiesi, then such Purchase Order shall be filled and delivered in accordance with its terms and the terms of this Agreement. The Parties agree to discuss in good faith any Purchase Orders not so confirmed by Chiesi. If Chiesi notifies Cornerstone that it is unable to fill a Purchase Order that has previously been so confirmed, Chiesi shall indicate the portion of such Purchase Order that it cannot supply by the requested delivery date and specify alternate delivery dates.

5.4 Terms of Orders. The terms of this Agreement are hereby incorporated by reference into each order of Product submitted by Cornerstone and accepted by Chiesi. In the event of any conflict between a Rolling Forecast or Purchase Order or other written instructions and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

5.5 Packaging. Cornerstone shall be entitled to define its requirements regarding the inner and outer packaging of the Product as long as technically feasible as further detailed in the Technical Agreement, it being understood that major outer packaging requirements shall require prior approval by Chiesi. In addition, should Cornerstone wish to change the artwork of the packaging during the Term, then Chiesi shall implement such changes as long as technically feasible, and Cornerstone shall reimburse Chiesi for the related expenses, including expenses for already ordered and paid relevant materials prior to the above changes that cannot be used for other purposes. Should Chiesi request changes to the artwork, for technical reasons or otherwise, then Chiesi shall implement such changes and shall fully bear the related expenses. Furthermore, in the event that any Regulatory Authorities impose changes to the artwork, then the Parties shall equally share the related expenses; provided, however, that Cornerstone shall reimburse Chiesi for the expenses related to materials already ordered and paid prior to the above changes and such materials cannot be used for other purposes providing that the imposed changes by any Regulatory Authority were not as a direct result of an issue involving Chiesi or their contract manufacturers.

5.6 Inspection of Facilities. At its discretion, Chiesi shall inspect, or have inspected, the facilities of any of Chiesi's contract manufacturers of the Products to determine compliance of such contract manufacturer with the Regulatory Requirements associated with the fabrication packaging, labeling, testing and storage of the Product. Subject to the terms of the Technical Agreement, Chiesi shall share the results of any such audit with Cornerstone. 5.7 Records. Chiesi shall, or shall require its contract manufacturer to, maintain accurate books and records pertaining to the manufacture and release of the Products, as required by the Regulatory Requirements, including all of the manufacturing and analytical records, all records of shipments of Products, and all data relating to Products and complaints Chiesi has received therefor, for the time periods required by the Regulatory Requirements. The Products supplied by Chiesi to Cornerstone shall be (a) in finished pharmaceutical form, (b) conform to relevant Specifications and all Applicable Laws and regulations, and (c) be packaged in a version suitable for the market (e.g., English language packaging and labeled in a manner as required

5.9.4 Shelf Life. Subject to Applicable Laws, the remaining shelf life of the Product supplied by Chiesi to Cornerstone shall be at least equal to [] months at the time of receipt by Cornerstone or any of its designees; provided, however, that, to the extent Chiesi has Product available with a remaining Shelf Life of longer than [] months, Chiesi shall exercise reasonable efforts to supply Cornerstone with such Product. In the event that, for any reason, the remaining shelf life of Product supplied is less than [] months at the time of receipt by Cornerstone or any of its designees, then Cornerstone may elect, at its discretion, to accept such Product notwithstanding such fact. To the extent possible, Product which is purchased in a single order shall be delivered by Chiesi in a single shipment unless Cornerstone directs that such Product should be delivered to more than one location.

5.10.2 Title; Risk of Loss. Title, possession and risk of loss shall pass to Cornerstone upon delivery of Product to Cornerstone's designated carrier; provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall in any manner limit Cornerstone's rights under Section 5.11. If any Product is rejected by Cornerstone after shipment under this Agreement, and such Product is to be returned to Chiesi, then title to and risk of loss with respect to such rejected Products shall pass from Cornerstone to Chiesi when such Products are placed in the possession of the carrier for return to Chiesi or for shipment on behalf of Chiesi to a destination designated by Chiesi.

5.11 Acceptance of Delivery. All Claims for failure of any delivery of Product to conform to the Specifications or for a short delivery, must be made by Cornerstone in writing within [] following receipt of delivery of such Product, or in the case of latent or inherent defects not detectable by inspection upon receipt of the Product, within [] as of the date of discovery. 5.12 Limitation. For the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice to the provisions of Article 10, Chiesi's responsibility is limited to the shipment of goods for the above-mentioned replacement or replenishment only, it being however understood that in case Cornerstone fails to notify Chiesi within the above deadlines, Cornerstone's rights under this Section shall be forfeited; provided, however, a recall of the Product shall be governed by Section 5.16 of this Agreement. Failure to make timely claims in the manner prescribed shall constitute acceptance of the delivery and no further claims after such [] period may be made by Cornerstone against Chiesi and no returns shall be accepted by Chiesi after such date.

5.13 Independent Testing. If a dispute arises between Cornerstone and Chiesi concerning the defective quality or short delivery as set out in Section 5.11 above, and reasons thereof, of the Product, and said dispute is not resolved within twenty (20) Business Days from the receipt by Chiesi of the notification mentioned in Section 5.11 above, the Parties shall within thirty (30) days appoint an independent first class laboratory to undertake the relevant testing and its findings shall be conclusive and binding upon the Parties. In the event of a recall of the Product, Cornerstone will notify Chiesi in accordance with the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, and Chiesi will cooperate with those recall activities relating to the Product as reasonably required by Cornerstone.

5.16.1 Cornerstone or its designated agent shall have the responsibility for handling customer returns of the Product. Chiesi shall provide Cornerstone or its designated agent with such assistance as Cornerstone may reasonably require to handle such Product returns.

5.16.2 To the extent that a recall or return results from, or arises out of, a failure by Chiesi (or its contract manufacturer) to manufacture and supply the Product in accordance with the Specifications, Applicable Laws and/or cGMP, at Cornerstone's option, Chiesi shall be responsible for the documented out-of-pocket expenses of such recall or return and shall either (i) reimburse Cornerstone for the price that Cornerstone paid to Chiesi for manufacturing the Product which are the subject of the recall, including the actual costs incurred in shipping, applicable transit charges, insurance premiums, duties, taxes paid or any other out-of-pocket charges incurred in connection with delivery of such Product to Cornerstone or its designee, or (ii) use its commercially reasonable efforts to replace the recalled or returned Product with new Products at no charge to Cornerstone. Such audit shall be conducted exclusively for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of reports delivered by Cornerstone to Chiesi pursuant to Section 6.4 and the accuracy of Cornerstone's determination of the amounts payable or paid by Cornerstone to Chiesi hereunder. The accountant shall sign a confidentiality agreement prepared by Cornerstone and shall then have the right to examine the records kept pursuant to this Section 6.5.1 and report to Chiesi the findings (but not the underlying data) of such examination of records. The accountant shall provide a draft copy of the report to Chiesi and Cornerstone for review and comment, and each of Chiesi and Cornerstone shall have thirty (30) days after receipt of that report to review and comment on the report which comments shall be provided to the accountant and to each other. The final report shall be provided simultaneously to Chiesi and Cornerstone by the independent certified public accountant within twenty (20) days after the accountant's receipt and consideration of such comments. In the event that an audit has been initiated by Chiesi, the records that have been the subject of the audit shall be kept until the later of (i) the expiry of any time period set out in Section 6.5.2 for the payment or credit of any amounts owing or (ii) the resolution of any dispute arising from the audit. 6.5.2 Adjustments. Cornerstone shall pay to Chiesi within forty-five (45) days after the delivery of the accountant's report pursuant to Section 6.5.1 any amounts determined by the accountant to be payable by Cornerstone to Chiesi. 6.6 Withholding Taxes. (a) Chiesi and Cornerstone agree that all payments due to Chiesi from Cornerstone hereunder shall be made by Cornerstone free and clear of, and without deduction for, any Income or Withholding Taxes, except as otherwise provided in Section 6.3 and this Section 6.6. amounts to which Chiesi or its Affiliates may be entitled, to the extent that such assistance does not cause Cornerstone or its Affiliates to incur any liability in respect of any of the taxes asserted to be due or other cost or expense. destroy or similarly affect the value of the goodwill pertaining to the Trademark nor do any act which might support a petition to cancel any registration relating to the Trademark or cause the applicable registrar to require a disclaimer of exclusive rights in such Trademark nor assist any other person or other entity directly or indirectly in such act. Cornerstone will immediately execute any documents presented to it by Chiesi to confirm Chiesi's ownership of all such rights.

8.4.4 Cornerstone shall ensure that each reference to and use of the Trademark by Cornerstone is in a manner approved by Chiesi and accompanied by the acknowledgement as follows: Curosurf is a registered trademark of Chiesi Farmaceutici S.p.A.

8.4.5 Cornerstone shall comply with all reasonable instructions issued by Chiesi relating to the form and manner in which the Trademark shall be used in connection with the marketing of the Product by Cornerstone and to discontinue, upon notice from Chiesi, any practice relating to the use of the Trademark which in Chiesi's reasonable opinion would adversely affect the rights or interest of Chiesi in such Trademarks. Cornerstone shall not alter the packaging of the Products or conceal, obscure, remove or otherwise interfere with the Trademark or other markings including an indication of the source of origin which may be placed on the Product for Chiesi. Cornerstone shall ensure that the Product is promoted, distributed, handled, marketed, stored on its (or its designee's) premises, and shipped to its customers, in such a manner that would not depreciate the goodwill associated with the Trademark used in association with the Product.

8.4.6 Chiesi will be entitled to conduct all enforcement proceedings relating to the Trademark and shall at its sole discretion decide what action, if any, to take in respect of any infringement or alleged infringement of the Trademark or passing-off or any other claim or counter-claim brought or threatened in respect of the use or registration of the Trademark. Any such proceedings shall be conducted at Chiesi's expense and for its own benefit. At Chiesi's written request to Cornerstone and Chiesi's expense, Cornerstone shall reasonably cooperate with Chiesi in such efforts. Chiesi shall at its own discretion decide any settlement for any such proceedings or claims. Cornerstone shall be notified of such proceedings involving the Trademark regardless of request for cooperation in such efforts within twenty (20) business days.

8.4.7 If Chiesi elects not to exercise its right pursuant to Section 8.4.6, Chiesi shall promptly notify Cornerstone in writing of its election, and of the circumstance of such infringement. In such event Cornerstone shall have the right, but not the obligation, to take any and all action, at its own cost and expense, to obtain a discontinuance of the alleged infringement and/or to bring suit against such infringer.

8.4.8 No settlement or consent judgment or other voluntary final disposition of a suit under this Article 8 may be entered into by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. Chiesi shall execute or cause the execution of such legal papers in connection with the foregoing as may be reasonably requested by Cornerstone.

8.4.9 In the event of any claim, threat or suit by a Third Party against either Cornerstone or Chiesi alleging infringement by the Product of any patents or other Intellectual Property Rights of such Third Party, the Party receiving such notice shall promptly notify the other Party in writing of such fact, and the Parties shall defend in close cooperation with each other against such claim, threat or suit. Such defense shall be at Chiesi's cost and expense unless the alleged infringement relates to Cornerstone's corporate logo or any other Cornerstone-owned trade dress the Parties agree to include on the packages, labeling and inserts related to the Product.

8.4.10 In the event that a conflict arises between the interests of Chiesi and Cornerstone in any litigation described in this Article 8, the Party that is not funding the litigation shall have the right to be represented by counsel of its own choice and at its sole expense.

8.4.11 Cornerstone shall not sell, market, distribute or use for any purpose any Product or marketing, packaging or labeling materials related to the Product which are damaged, defective or otherwise fail to meet the specification or quality standards or the trademark usage requirements of this Agreement. Furthermore, during the Term, and after its termination for any reason whatsoever, Cornerstone shall not use any trademark or trade name identical with or confusingly similar to the Trademark and shall not apply, before any authority of any country, for the registration of any internet domain name (nor any other creative expression that may be the subject of registration), containing, in any form or graphic character, the name Chiesi and/or the Trademark used hereunder (and/or any other denomination confusingly similar to the aforesaid names).

8.5 No Other Rights. Other than the right to purchase Product from Chiesi as permitted by this Agreement and the limited license to the Trademark, Cornerstone shall not acquire any rights to or under any Chiesi Intellectual Property. Except as set forth herein and therein, Cornerstone shall have no right to use the trade names, trademarks or other intellectual property of Chiesi except as provided in writing in advance by Chiesi. Upon termination of this Agreement, Cornerstone will discontinue all use of the Chiesi name, Trademark and the Chiesi Intellectual Property and discontinue all representation that it is or was an authorized representative of Chiesi. This Section 8.5 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9

REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

9.1 Mutual Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Each Party represents, warrants and covenants that:

9.1.1 it is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation and has the corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement;

9.1.2 the execution of this Agreement and the performance thereof have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on its part and do not conflict with the terms or conditions of any agreement to which such Party is subject;

9.1.3 when executed and delivered by it, this Agreement will constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of it, enforceable against it in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement; and 9.1.4 it shall perform its obligations under this Agreement in compliance with all Applicable Laws.

9.2 Additional Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Cornerstone.

9.2.1 Cornerstone represents, warrants and covenants that: (a) it has duly investigated the Know-How in order to determine its interest in entering into this Agreement; (b) it shall represent the Product accurately and fairly and shall refrain from misleading or unethical business practices; (c) it shall conduct its business in a manner that reflects favorably on the Product and the good name, goodwill and reputation of Chiesi; (d) it shall avoid deceptive or unethical practices, including disparagement of the Product and (e) it shall not make any representations, warranties or guarantees to customers or other Third Parties or to the trade with respect to the Specifications, features or capabilities of the Product that are inconsistent with the literature or documentation provided by Chiesi.

9.2.2 To its knowledge, Cornerstone (i) is not debarred, (ii) is not in the process of being debarred, (iii) has not been threatened with debarment and (iii) does not use the services of any persons who have been, or are in the process of being, debarred under 21 U.S.C. § 335a(a) of the Act or any comparable law. Furthermore, neither Cornerstone nor, to its knowledge, any of its officers, employees, or consultants has been convicted of an offense under (i) either a federal or state law that is cited in 21 U.S.C. § 335(a) as a ground for debarment, denial of approval, or suspension, or (ii) any other law cited in any comparable Applicable Law as a ground for debarment, denial of approval or suspension.

9.2.3 Cornerstone has all Agency consents necessary or desirable in performance of its obligations hereunder and the commercial sale of the Product in the Territory.

9.2.4 Cornerstone will not market the Product outside the Field of Use or outside the Territory nor will it sell the Product to any Third Party for sale or distribution outside the Field of Use or outside the Territory.

Agreement, the Act and all Applicable Laws; (ii) be in accordance with and conform to any applicable standards specified by the United States Pharmacopeia and Pharmacopeia Forum and the European Pharmacopeia and Pharmacopeial Forum and (iii) from and after the time delivered by Chiesi hereunder, be free from any material that would cause the Product to be adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Act.

9.3 Additional Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Chiesi.

9.3.1 Chiesi represents, warrants and covenants, or shall require that its contract manufacturers represent, warrant and covenant, that the Products at the time of manufacture shall be free and clear of any lien or encumbrance. Chiesi further represents, warrants and covenants that, to its knowledge, the purchase, sale, use, disposition, and advertisement of any Product or the Trademark by Cornerstone will not infringe on or violate any patent, design, copyright, trademark, trade secret, or other right of any Third Party, provided that said activities are not performed in contravention of this Agreement. Chiesi has the right to grant the rights to Cornerstone contemplated in this Agreement in the Territory.

9.3.2 To its knowledge, Chiesi has not used, in any capacity associated with or related to the manufacture of the Products, the services of any persons who have been, or are in the process of being, debarred under 21 U.S.C. § 335a(a) or (b) or any comparable Regulatory Act. Furthermore, neither Chiesi nor, to its knowledge, any of its officers, employees, or consultants has been convicted of an offense under (i) either a federal or state law that is cited in 21 U.S.C. § 335(a) as a ground for debarment, denial of approval, or suspension, or (ii) any other law cited in any comparable Applicable Law as a ground for debarment, denial of approval or suspension.

9.3.3 Chiesi has, and its contract manufacturer(s) has, all Agency consents necessary or desirable in performance of its obligations hereunder and the manufacture of the Product for commercial sale in the Territory.

9.3.5 The manufacture, generation, processing, packaging, distribution, transport, treatment, storage, disposal and other handling of any Product by Chiesi, its Affiliates or its contract manufacturer(s) until delivery to a carrier or freight forwarder shall (i) be in accordance with and conform to the Specifications, cGMPs and Chiesi quality policies and guidelines; (ii) be in accordance with and conform to any applicable standards specified by the United States Pharmacopeia and Pharmacopeia Forum and the European Pharmacopeia and Pharmacopeial Forum, (iii) otherwise conform to any provisions of the Regulatory Requirements not reflected in cGMPs, and (iv) be free from defects in materials and workmanship and shall not be adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Act; provided, however, that the representations and warranties provided in this Section 9.3.5 do not apply to any Product to the extent that, after shipment by Chiesi, occurrences affecting or altering the Product after they are delivered to the carrier, or actions taken or failed to be taken after the Product was shipped, result in the Product failing to conform to Specifications.

9.4 Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT, ALL WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS, AND REPRESENTATIONS, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, ARISING BY LAW, CUSTOM, PRIOR ORAL OR WRITTEN STATEMENT BY THE PARTIES, OR OTHERWISE (INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT) ARE HEREBY OVERRIDDEN, EXCLUDED AND DISCLAIMED.

importation, storage, handling, promotion, distribution, marketing, sale, use or consumption of the Product, (ii) Cornerstone's breach of its representations, warranties or covenants under this Agreement, the Technical Agreement or Pharmacovigilance Agreement, or (iii) the negligence or willful misconduct or wrongdoing of Cornerstone or any person for whose actions or omissions Cornerstone is legally liable, except, in each case, to the extent that such Losses arise as a result of an item for which Chiesi is obligated to indemnify Cornerstone pursuant to Section 10.1.

10.2 Indemnification by Chiesi. Chiesi hereby agrees to defend Cornerstone and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assigns from and against any and all Claims of a Third Party and to indemnify and hold Cornerstone and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assigns, harmless from and against any and all Losses to the extent arising from any such Claims of a Third Party for (i) Chiesi's breach of its representations, warranties or covenants under this Agreement, the Technical Agreement or Pharmacovigilance Agreement, or (ii) the negligence or willful misconduct or wrongdoing of Chiesi, its contract manufacturer(s) of the Product, or any person for whose actions or omissions Chiesi is legally liable, except, in each case, to the extent that such Losses arise as a result of an item for which Cornerstone is obligated to indemnify Chiesi pursuant to Section 10.1.

10.3 Indemnification Procedures. No indemnity may be claimed by or given to the Party seeking to rely on such indemnity:

10.3.1 unless the Party claiming indemnity shall have promptly notified the other Party of the relevant potential Loss upon becoming aware of such potential Loss except to the extent the failure to provide such notice does not materially prejudice the Party providing such indemnity's ability to defend or contest any suit or claim relating to such potential Loss;

10.3.2 where the Party seeking indemnification has made any admission or offer or any settlement without the prior written consent of the indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and

10.3.3 unless the Party seeking indemnification has allowed the indemnifying Party to assume full control of all proceedings in relation to any such potential Loss within thirty (30) days of having been given notice of such proceedings; provided, that (i) the Party seeking indemnification shall have the right to appoint independent counsel at its own cost to participate therein and (ii) no compromise or settlement may be effected by the indemnifying Party without the prior written consent of the other Party.

10.4 Insurance. During the Term and for a period of [] ([)] months thereafter, the Parties shall obtain and/or maintain product liability insurance in such amounts as are reasonable given (i) their responsibilities and liabilities under this Agreement and (ii) such amounts as may be reasonable and customary within the industry in respect of the Product and country the subject of this Agreement. On request, either Party shall provide the other Party with a certificate of such insurance policy.

10.5 Limitation on Liability. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS AND THE FURTHER OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, EXCEPT FOR EACH PARTY'S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE 10, AND SUBJECT TO ANY EXPRESS PROVISION TO THE CONTRARY, NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, STATUTORY, TREBLE, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY CLAIM FOR DAMAGES BASED UPON LOST PROFITS OR LOST BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY EXCEPT WHERE SUCH DAMAGES ARE THE RESULT OF EITHER PARTY'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT.

CONFIDENTIALITY

11.1 Confidential Information. Each Party acknowledges that the other Party may disclose certain information, data or know-how which the disclosing Party treats confidentially and identifies as confidential or which the recipient knows or should have reason to believe is so treated by the disclosing Party (the Confidential Information). If either Party discloses such Confidential Information to the other, the receiving Party will (a) use at least the same degree of care to maintain the secrecy of such Confidential Information as the receiving Party uses to maintain the secrecy of its own confidential information, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care and (b) use the Confidential Information only to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement.

11.2 Disclosure. The receiving Party will not disclose the Confidential Information of the disclosing Party to any person except those of the receiving Party's employees or agents that require access thereto to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement and have been made aware of the confidentiality obligations herein, and, in the case of Chiesi, [] for the purposes of the [] Settlement Agreement. If the receiving Party learns of an actual or potential unauthorized use or disclosure of the disclosing Party's Confidential Information, the receiving Party will promptly notify the disclosing Party and, at the disclosing Party's request, provide the disclosing Party with reasonable assistance to recover its Confidential Information and to prevent subsequent unauthorized uses or disclosures of such Confidential Information. Each Party acknowledges that (a) the unauthorized use or disclosure of any Confidential Information of the disclosing Party will cause irreparable damage for which it will not have an adequate remedy at law and (b) the disclosing Party will be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief in such cases.

11.3 Limitations. Neither Party will have any confidentiality obligation with respect to the Confidential Information of the disclosing Party that (a) the receiving Party independently knew or develops without using such Confidential Information of the disclosing Party, (b) the receiving Party lawfully obtains from another person under no obligation of confidentiality or (c) is or becomes publicly available other than as a result of an act or omission of the receiving Party or any of its employees or agents.

11.4 Terms of Agreement. Except as set forth below, no announcement or other disclosure, public or otherwise, concerning the financial or other terms of this Agreement shall be made, either directly or indirectly, by either Party to this Agreement, except as may be legally required, without first obtaining the written approval of the other Party as to the nature and text of such announcement or disclosure, such approval and agreement not to be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the above, the Parties shall be free to publicly disclose information contained in such press release that has been previously approved for disclosure by the other Party, without further approvals from the other Party hereunder, to the extent there have been no material additions or changes thereto.

11.5 Publication of Data. Any publication of clinical and scientific data relevant to the Product, generated under the terms of this Agreement, will be jointly planned and agreed upon in advance.

11.6 Confidentiality Term. All confidentiality provisions set out herein shall remain in full force and effect during the Term and for a period of [] years from the date of termination hereof.

ARTICLE 12

TERM AND TERMINATION

12.1 Term. This Agreement shall become effective on the Effective Date and shall remain in force for ten (10) years starting from the Transfer Date (Term). Thereafter, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one year periods, unless earlier terminated by a Party upon six (6) months prior written notice.

12.2 Termination upon Adverse Agency Action. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, Cornerstone may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) Business Days prior written notice in the event that any Agency takes any action, or raises any objection, that permanently prevents Cornerstone from importing, marketing or selling the Product in the Territory. Cornerstone shall not thereafter be obliged to 12.3 Termination upon Regulatory Authority Action. In the event that a Regulatory Authority requires Cornerstone to cease selling or distributing the Product in the Territory, Cornerstone will have the right to terminate the Agreement upon thirty (30) Business Days' prior written notice. Cornerstone shall not thereafter be obliged to purchase any Product other than that contained in binding forecasts pursuant to Section 5.3.1 that have been submitted on or before the date of Cornerstone's notice.

12.4 Termination upon Default or Breach. In the event that either Party materially breaches this Agreement, the breaching party shall have the opportunity to cure such breach within (i) thirty (30) Business Days or (ii) a reasonably longer period if such breach is not capable of cure within thirty (30) Business Days, in each case after receipt of written notice of such breach. If the breach is not cured by the breaching party within the applicable cure period, the non-breaching party shall be entitled to bring action against the breaching party to recover damages (other than indirect, inconsequential or punitive damages) arising from such breach. The non-breaching party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) Business Days' written notice (following the expiration of all cure periods) if it can prove that the consequences of the breaching party's breach or default have a material adverse effect on the economic value of this Agreement to such Party and that, absent termination, such material adverse effect will be permanent in nature.

12.5 Termination upon Cancellation of the Equity Transaction. In the event that the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement do not close by the earlier of (i) October 31, 2009 or (ii) any mutually agreed upon extension thereof, Chiesi shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon [] months' written notice to Cornerstone. Cornerstone agrees that, upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 12.5, Chiesi has the right to offer employment to the Employees and that Cornerstone will not interfere with Chiesi's attempts to hire the Employees nor will it attempt to retain the Employees for employment in other areas of Cornerstone's business.

12.6 Effects of Expiration or Termination. Upon expiry or termination of this Agreement, for any reason whatsoever:

12.6.1 Cornerstone shall promptly cease selling the Product (except Product currently in stock, subject to Section 12.6.5) and using the Know-How and the Trademark;

12.6.2 Cornerstone shall promptly relinquish and return free of charge to Chiesi all pharmacological, toxicological and clinical original data in its possession and all technical information, and Know-How or material relating to the Product; provided, however, that Chiesi shall reimburse Cornerstone for reasonable out-of-pocket costs in connection with such return in the event of termination of this Agreement by Cornerstone pursuant to Sections 12.2, 12.3 or 12.4;

12.6.3 Cornerstone shall promptly transfer free of charge to Chiesi, or to a company designated by Chiesi, any and all IND(s), Marketing Authorization Application(s) and Marketing Authorization held by Cornerstone; provided, however, that Chiesi shall reimburse Cornerstone for reasonable out-of-pocket costs in connection with such transfer in the event of termination of this Agreement by Cornerstone pursuant to Sections 12.2, 12.3 or 12.4;

12.6.4 the liabilities of the Parties hereunder in respect of matters outstanding at the time of such termination shall not be in any way affected;

12.6.5 Chiesi shall have the option to repurchase all stocks of the Product, held by Cornerstone within thirty (30) days of termination, in good and marketable condition at Supply Price to Cornerstone. If the said option to repurchase the above stock of the Product is not exercised by Chiesi, Cornerstone shall be entitled to continue to sell the above stock of the Product in the Territory during the period of [] ([)] months after termination but not thereafter; and 12.6.6 Sections 8.4.3, 8.4.11 and 12.4 and Articles 10, 11 and 13 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

12.7 Accrued Rights. Any termination of this Agreement shall be without prejudice to the rights and remedies of either Party with respect to any of the provisions of this Agreement or arising out of breaches prior to such termination and shall not relieve either of the Parties of any obligations or liability accrued hereunder prior to such termination including indemnity obligations and confidentiality obligations, nor rescind or give rise to any right to rescind anything done or payments made or other consideration given hereunder prior to the time of such termination and shall not affect in any manner any vested rights of either Party arising out of this Agreement prior to such termination or expiration.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

13.1 No Restriction On Activities. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, nothing provided herein shall in any way limit the Parties from entering into any other business venture or restrict Chiesi from entering into similar marketing or sales agreements with other persons or entities for the sale and distribution of other products or services.

Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement is binding upon, inures to the benefit of and is enforceable by the Parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and assigns.

13.6 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. The terms and provisions of this Agreement are intended solely for the benefit of each Party hereto and their respective successors or permitted assigns, and it is not the intention of the Parties to confer third-party beneficiary rights upon any other person.

13.7 Governing Law; Jurisdiction. Any and all rights, liabilities and any disputes relating to this Agreement shall be construed under and governed by the laws of Italy. In the event of any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to or in connection with any provision of this Agreement or breach thereof, the Parties shall try to settle those conflicts amicably between themselves. Should they fail to agree, the matter in dispute shall be finally and exclusively referred to the courts in England having jurisdiction.

13.8 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter and supersedes all previous agreements, whether written or oral, with respect to such subject matter other than the Confidentiality Agreement between the Parties dated January 6, 2009. No modification or alteration shall be binding unless in writing and signed by both Parties.

13.11 Severability. WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, (i) Purchaser and two stockholders of the Company are entering into a stock purchase agreement (the Initial Stock Purchase Agreement), dated the same date as this Agreement; and (ii) the Company and Purchaser are entering into a stock purchase agreement (the Company Stock Purchase Agreement), also dated the same date as this Agreement;

WHEREAS, each Stockholder is the record and beneficial owner of the number of shares of the Common Stock (the Shares) set forth opposite such Stockholder's name on Schedule A hereto; such Shares, as they may be adjusted by stock dividend, stock split, recapitalization, combination or exchange of shares, merger, consolidation, reorganization or other change or transaction of or by the Company, together with all additional Shares that may be acquired after the date hereof by such Stockholder (beneficially or of record), including Shares issuable upon the exercise of options to purchase Shares (as the same may be adjusted as aforesaid), being also referred to herein as Shares ; and

WHEREAS, as a condition to the willingness of Purchaser to enter into the Company Stock Purchase Agreement, Purchaser has required that the Stockholders enter into this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

Section 1. Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Constructive Sale means with respect to any security, a short sale with respect to such security, entering into or acquiring an offsetting derivative contract with respect to such security, entering into or acquiring a futures or forward contract to deliver such security or entering into any other hedging or other derivative transaction that has the effect of either directly or indirectly materially changing the economic benefits or risks of ownership.

Transfer means, with respect to any security, the direct or indirect assignment, sale, transfer, tender, exchange, pledge, hypothecation, or the grant, creation or suffrage of a lien, security interest or encumbrance in or upon, or the gift, placement in trust, or the Constructive Sale or other disposition of such security (including transfers by testamentary or intestate succession or otherwise by operation of law) or any right, title or interest therein (including, but not limited to, any right or power to vote to which the holder thereof may be entitled, whether such right or power is granted by proxy or otherwise), or the record or beneficial ownership thereof, the offer to make such a sale, transfer, Constructive Sale or other disposition, and each agreement, arrangement or understanding, whether or not in writing, to effect any of the foregoing.

Section 2. Transfer and Voting Restrictions With Respect to the Shares.

(a) At all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and expiring on the Expiration Date, each Stockholder shall not, except as the result of the death of such Stockholder or as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, Transfer any of the Shares unless the person to which such Shares are being Transferred shall have executed and delivered a counterpart of this Agreement

(b) Each Stockholder understands and agrees that if, while this Agreement is in effect, such Stockholder attempts to Transfer, vote or provide any other person with the authority to vote any of the Shares other than in compliance with this Agreement, the Company shall not, and the Stockholder hereby unconditionally and irrevocably instructs the Company to not, (i) permit any such Transfer on its books and records, (ii) issue a new certificate representing any of the Shares or (iii) record such vote, in each case, unless and until such Stockholder shall have complied with the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, while this Agreement is in effect, each Stockholder will not commit any act that could restrict or affect such Stockholder's legal power, authority and right to vote all of the Shares then owned of record or beneficially by such Stockholder or otherwise prevent or disable such Stockholder from performing any of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except for this Agreement and as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, each Stockholder will not enter into any voting agreement with any person or entity with respect to any of the Shares, grant any person or entity any proxy (revocable or irrevocable) or power of attorney with respect to any of the Shares, deposit any of the Shares in a voting trust or otherwise enter into any agreement or arrangement with any person or entity limiting or affecting such Stockholder's legal power, authority or right to vote the Shares in favor of the approval of the Company Stock Sale or the Charter Amendment.

Each Stockholder agrees not to commit or agree to take, or permit, any action inconsistent with the foregoing.

(b) If such Stockholder is the beneficial owner, but not the record holder, of the Shares, such Stockholder agrees to take all actions necessary to cause the record holder and any nominees to vote all of the Shares in accordance with Section 3(a).

Section 4. Grant of Irrevocable Proxy.

(a) Except as set forth in Section 4(f) hereof, each Stockholder hereby irrevocably (to the fullest extent permitted by law) grants to, and appoints, Purchaser and each of its executive officers and any of them, in their capacities as officers of Purchaser (the Grantees), as such Stockholder's proxy and attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution and re-substitution), for and in the name, place and stead of such Stockholder, to vote the Shares, to instruct nominees

(c) No Other Agreement or Proxy. As of the date hereof and for so long as this Agreement remains in effect, except for this Agreement or as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, such Stockholder has and will have full legal power, authority and right to vote all of the Shares then owned of record or beneficially by such Stockholder, in favor of the approval and authorization of the Proposed Transactions without the consent or approval of, or any other action on the part of, any other person or entity (including, without limitation, any governmental entity). forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party. Such waiver shall not be deemed to apply to any term or condition other than that which is specified in such waiver. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

Section 10. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REGARD FOR ANY OF THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

Section 11. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION AND SERVICE OF PROCESS; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE DELAWARE CHANCERY COURT SITTING IN THE COUNTY OF NEW CASTLE, OR IF SUCH COURT SHALL NOT HAVE PROPER JURISDICTION, OF THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT SITTING IN DELAWARE, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT THEREOF, IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE BROUGHT ONLY IN SUCH COURTS (AND WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO ASSERT ANY OBJECTION BASED ON FORUM NON CONVENIENS OR ANY OTHER OBJECTION TO VENUE THEREIN OR JURISDICTION THEREOF); PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT SUCH CONSENT TO JURISDICTION IS SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSE REFERRED TO IN THIS SECTION 11 AND SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO BE A GENERAL SUBMISSION TO THE JURISDICTION OF SAID COURTS OR IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE OTHER THAN FOR SUCH PURPOSE.

Section 12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed manually or by facsimile, in any number of counterparts, all of which will constitute one and the same instrument, and will become effective when a counterpart shall have been executed and delivered by each party to the other parties (except that parties that are affiliates need not deliver counterparts to each other in order for this Agreement to be effective).

Section 13. No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is not intended, and shall not be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, or to otherwise create any third-party beneficiary hereto.

Section 14. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions hereof or the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction. If the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction declares that any term or provision hereof is invalid or unenforceable, the parties hereto agree that the court making such determination shall have the power to limit the term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases, or to replace any invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision, and this Agreement shall be enforceable as so modified. In the event such court does not exercise the power granted to it in the prior sentence, the parties hereto agree to replace such invalid or unenforceable term or provision with a valid and enforceable term or provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such invalid or unenforceable term.

Section 15. Specific Performance; Injunctive Relief. The parties hereto acknowledge that the Company shall be irreparably harmed and that there shall be no adequate remedy at law for a violation of any of the covenants or agreements of Purchaser set forth in this Agreement. Purchaser accordingly agrees that, in addition to any other remedies that may be available to the Company, as applicable upon any such violation, such party shall have the right to enforce such covenants and agreements by specific performance, injunctive relief or by any other means available to such party at law or in equity without posting any bond or other undertaking.

Section 16. Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly delivered (i) four business days after being sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (ii) one business day after being sent for next business day delivery, fees prepaid, via a reputable nationwide overnight courier service, in each case to the intended recipient to the address provided for such party in the Company Stock Purchase Agreement, including to the persons designated therein to receive copies.

Section 17. Attorneys Fees. In any action at law or suit in equity to enforce this Agreement or the rights of any of the parties hereunder, the prevailing party in such action or suit shall be entitled to receive its reasonable attorneys fees and all other reasonable costs and expenses incurred in such action or suit.

Section 18. Assignment and Successors. No party may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its performance obligations under this Agreement, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise without the prior written consent of the other parties, except that the Company, without obtaining the consent of any other parties hereto, shall be entitled to assign this Agreement or all or any of its rights or obligations hereunder to any one or more of its affiliates. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any purported assignment of rights or delegation of performance obligations in violation of this Section 18 shall be null and void.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE STOCKHOLDERS

Each Stockholder represents and warrants, severally but not jointly and solely with respect to such Stockholder and not with respect to the other Stockholder, to Purchaser as follows:

Section 2.1. Ownership of Shares. As of the date of this Agreement, such Stockholder is the lawful record and beneficial owner of the number of shares of Common Stock set forth next to such Stockholder's name on Exhibit A free and clear of all liens, charges, security interests, mortgages, pledges, options, preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or first offer, proxies, levies, voting trusts or agreements, or other adverse claims or restrictions on title or transfer of any nature whatsoever (collectively, Encumbrances), other than restrictions on transfer imposed under applicable securities laws.

Section 2.2. Authority. Such Stockholder is either (a) an individual with the requisite legal capacity and authority or (b) an entity with the requisite partnership or limited liability company power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by such Stockholder and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by each other party hereto, constitutes legal, valid and binding obligations of such Stockholder, enforceable against such Stockholder in accordance with its terms.

Section 2.3. Consents and Approvals; No Violations.

(a) The execution, delivery and performance by such Stockholder of this Agreement and the consummation by such Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not require any filing or registration with, notification to, or authorization, permit, consent or approval of, or other action by or in respect of, any U.S. or non-U.S. government, regulatory or administrative authority, agency, instrumentality or commission or any court, tribunal, judicial or arbitral body or other similar authority (a Governmental Authority) other than where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits or to make such filings or notifications would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Company Stock Purchase Agreement).

(b) The execution, delivery and performance by such Stockholder of this Agreement and the consummation by such Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not (i) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, amendment, cancellation, acceleration or loss of benefits or the creation or acceleration of any right or obligation under or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of such Stockholder under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, loan, credit agreement, lease, license, permit, concession, franchise, purchase order, sales order, contract, agreement or other instrument, understanding or obligation, whether written or oral (a contract), to which such Stockholder is a party or by which any of its properties or assets may be bound or (ii) violate any law applicable to such Stockholder or any of his properties or assets, except in each such case as would not reasonably be expected to prevent or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

ARTICLE III

LIQUIDITY AND TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

Section 3.1. Ownership of Shares; Legend.

(a) Each certificate representing any of the shares of Common Stock held by a Stockholder shall bear the following legend in addition to any other legend required under applicable law:

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF A STOCKHOLDERS AGREEMENT BY AND AMONG THE COMPANY AND THE PERSONS SPECIFIED THEREIN, A COPY OF WHICH AGREEMENT IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE COMPANY. THE SALE, TRANSFER OR OTHER DISPOSITION OF THE SECURITIES IS SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF SUCH AGREEMENT AND THE SECURITIES ARE TRANSFERABLE ONLY UPON PROOF OF COMPLIANCE THEREWITH.

(b) A notation will be made in the appropriate transfer records of the Company with respect to the restrictions on Transfer of the shares of Common Stock referred to in this Agreement.

(c) It shall be a condition precedent to any Exempt Transfer of shares of Common Stock to any Person who is not a party to this Agreement that such Person agree in writing to be bound by the obligations of such Person's transferor under this Agreement and for all purposes thereafter the definition of Stockholder as used in this Agreement shall include transferees. If the transferee acquires its shares pursuant to an Exempt Transfer, upon consummation of such Exempt Transfer in accordance with this Agreement the transferee will succeed to the rights of the transferor under this Agreement.

Section 3.2. Limitations on Transfers of Common Stock During the Blackout Period.

(a) During the Blackout Period, no Stockholder shall, directly or indirectly, Transfer any Covered Shares except (i) pursuant to an Exempt Transfer or (ii) as permitted or required pursuant to any other provision of this Article III.

(b) During the Blackout Period, no Stockholder shall knowingly Transfer any shares of Common Stock in a privately negotiated transaction to a pharmaceutical company.

(c) Following the Blackout Period, there shall be no further restriction on Transfers of Shares of Common Stock by any Stockholder. Any Transfer or purported Transfer in violation of the foregoing restrictions shall be void and of no effect and shall not be recognized by the Company.

Section 3.3. Purchaser's Call Option.

(a) Purchaser shall have an option (the Call Option), exercisable in whole but not in part on a single occasion during the Call Option Period applicable to any Stockholder and such Stockholder's affiliates, to acquire all the Covered Shares then owned by such Stockholder and such Stockholder's affiliates, for a price per Covered Share equal to the Per Share Option Price on the terms set forth in this Section 3.3.

(b) The Call Option may be exercised by Purchaser by delivery of a notice (the Call Option Notice) to the Stockholders stating (i) that Purchaser is exercising the Call Option; and (ii) the date (the Call Option Closing Date) on which the sale of Covered Shares pursuant to the Call Option is to occur (which shall be a Business Day not less than 5 Business Days and not more than 15 Business Days after the later of (x) the date of the Call Option Notice, or (y) the first date on which all applicable governmental and third party permits, approvals and notices applicable to the exercise of the Call Option have been given or obtained, and all legally required waiting periods have expired). Purchaser and the Stockholders will use reasonable best efforts (and cause the Company to use its reasonable best efforts) to obtain and give all applicable governmental permits, approvals and notices required for the exercise of the Call Option as promptly as reasonably practicable.

(c) Delivery of a Call Option Notice shall create a binding obligation on the part of Purchaser to purchase all the Covered Shares from the recipients of the Call Option Notice for a purchase price, payable in full in cash at the closing of the sale, equal to the aggregate Per Share Option Price of the Covered Shares, and a binding obligation on the part of such recipient to sell those shares for that price. The closing of the purchase and sale of the shares shall take place at the principal business offices of the Company at 10:00 AM local time on the Call Option Closing Date. At the closing, each selling Stockholder shall deliver (1) one or more stock certificates, duly endorsed or with duly executed stock powers attached, conveying the requisite number of shares to Purchaser or its nominee, duly authorized and validly issued, free and clear of all Encumbrances (other than restrictions imposed under applicable securities laws or this Agreement), and (2) a certificate representing that the selling Stockholder is transferring good and marketable title to such shares (or interests therein) free of all such Encumbrances. Purchaser shall pay the applicable purchase price to each selling Stockholder at the closing against delivery of the stock certificates by certified or bank check or, if requested by the selling Stockholder, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified by the selling Stockholder.

(d) If any Covered Shares in respect of which a Call Option is exercised are Beneficially Owned pursuant to an unexercised but immediately exercisable stock option, so long as the Per Share Option Price is greater than the exercise price per share of the option, then at or prior to the applicable Call Option Closing Date, the applicable selling Stockholder shall exercise such option in accordance with the applicable stock option plan and stock option agreement governing such stock option and the Purchaser shall purchase such underlying shares for delivery at the closing of the Call Option exercise. Any purported exercise of the Call Option with respect to Covered Shares that are subject to a stock option shall be invalid unless the Per Share Option Price is at least equal to the exercise price per share of the option and the stock option is immediately exercisable.

Section 3.4. Limitations on Purchases of Additional Common Stock. Each Stockholder agrees that, during the Blackout Period, such Stockholder shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase or otherwise acquire, or propose or offer to purchase or acquire, any shares of Common Stock or any Beneficial Ownership thereof, whether by tender offer, market purchase, privately negotiated purchase, merger or otherwise, except through acquisitions of shares of Common Stock (i) effected pursuant to transactions approved by the Company's board of directors or by a majority of the independent directors on the Company's board of directors; (ii) effected solely to the extent necessary to maintain the Stockholder's level of Beneficial Ownership of the shares of Common Stock as of the date hereof; and (iii) pursuant to the Company's equity compensation arrangements or the exercise of any options or warrants or similar rights granted or awarded under such arrangements.

ARTICLE IV

VOTING

Section 4.1. Agreement to Vote. Each Stockholder agrees that, at any meeting of the stockholders of the Company called to consider a transaction in which Purchaser or its affiliate will acquire all the outstanding capital stock of the Company, such Stockholder shall vote all shares of Common Stock owned by such Stockholder at the applicable record date set for such meeting in the same proportions that the shares of Common Stock Beneficially Owned by the other stockholders of the Company (other than Purchaser and its affiliates) are voted on such matter. The Stockholders obligations under this Section 4.1 shall apply only if (i) the directors of the Company who were not designated by, and are otherwise independent of, Purchaser and its affiliates (other than the Company) shall have approved the transaction to be voted on at the meeting, and shall have recommended that the Company's stockholders vote to approve the transaction, by the affirmative vote of a majority of such directors; and (ii) such approval and recommendation shall not have been withdrawn.

Section 5.3. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the exhibits, annexes and schedules hereto, constitute the sole and entire agreement among the parties to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, and supersede all prior and contemporaneous representations, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Section 5.4. Waiver. Subject to applicable law and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any party to this Agreement may, at any time prior to the Closing, extend the time for performance of any obligation under this Agreement of any other party or waive compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement by any other party. No such extension or waiver shall be effective unless set forth in a written instrument duly executed by the party granting such extension or waiver. No delay in asserting or exercising a right under this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of that right.

Section 5.5. Amendment. Subject to applicable law and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, this Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified at any time; provided, that no such amendment, supplement or modification shall be effective unless it is set forth in a written instrument duly executed by the Company, Purchaser and by each Stockholder whose rights or obligations are altered thereby.

Section 5.6. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. The terms and provisions of this Agreement are intended solely for the benefit of each party hereto and their respective successors or permitted assigns, and it is not the intention of the parties to confer third-party beneficiary rights upon any other person.

Section 5.7. Assignment: Binding Effect. Except as otherwise expressly provided; this Agreement, neither this Agreement nor any right, interest or obligation under this Agreement may be assigned by any party to this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other parties to this Agreement and any attempt to do so will be void. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement is binding upon, inures to the benefit of and is enforceable by the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 5.8. Governing Law. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REGARD FOR ANY OF THE CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES THEREOF THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

Section 5.9. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION AND SERVICE OF PROCESS; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE DELAWARE CHANCERY COURT SITTING IN THE COUNTY OF NEW CASTLE, OR IF SUCH COURT SHALL NOT HAVE PROPER JURISDICTION, OF THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT SITTING IN DELAWARE, AND ANY APPELLATE COURT THEREOF, IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, AND AGREES THAT ANY SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING SHALL BE BROUGHT ONLY IN SUCH COURTS (AND WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO ASSERT ANY OBJECTION BASED ON FORUM NON CONVENIENS OR ANY OTHER OBJECTION TO VENUE THEREIN OR JURISDICTION THEREOF); PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT SUCH CONSENT TO JURISDICTION IS SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSE REFERRED TO IN THIS SECTION 5.9 AND SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO BE A GENERAL SUBMISSION TO THE JURISDICTION OF SAID COURTS OR IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE OTHER THAN FOR SUCH PURPOSE. Any and all process may be served in any action, suit or proceeding arising in connection with this

Agreement by complying with the provisions of Section 5.2. Such service of process shall have the same effect as if the party being served were a resident in the State of Delaware and had been lawfully served with such process in such jurisdiction. The parties hereby waive all claims of error by reason of such service. Nothing herein shall affect the right of any party to serve process in any other manner permitted by law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise proceed against the other in any other jurisdiction to enforce judgments or rulings of the aforementioned courts. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY WAIVES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 5.9.

Section 5.10. Remedies. The parties hereto agree that if any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, irreparable damage would occur, no adequate remedy at law would exist and damages would be difficult to determine, and that the parties shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or equity to which the parties may be entitled. Except as otherwise provided herein, all remedies available under this Agreement, at law or otherwise, shall be deemed cumulative and not alternative or exclusive of other remedies. The exercise by any party of a particular remedy shall not preclude the exercise of any other remedy.

Section 5.11. Invalid Provisions. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable under any present or future law, (a) such provision will be fully severable, (b) this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof, (c) the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect and will not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom and (d) in lieu of such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision, there will be added automatically as a part of this Agreement a legal, valid and enforceable provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision as may be possible and the parties hereto shall cooperate in good faith to formulate and implement such provision.

Section 5.12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed manually or by facsimile, in any number of counterparts, all of which will constitute one and the same instrument, and will become effective when a counterpart shall have been executed and delivered by each party to the other parties (except that parties that are affiliates need not deliver counterparts to each other in order for this Agreement to be effective).

Section 5.13. Effectiveness; Termination. This Agreement shall become effective as of the Closing Date (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated the same date as this Agreement, among the Company and Purchaser). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement shall terminate automatically, without action of any of the Stockholders, Purchaser or the Company, if the Company Stock Purchase Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 6.1 thereof. AMENDED AND RESTATED

This AMENDED AND RESTATED EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is entered into as of May 6, 2009, by and between Cornerstone Therapeutics Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), and David Price (the Executive). This Agreement shall be effective on the Closing Date (as such term is defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated the same date as this Agreement between the Company and Chiesi Farmaceutici SpA (the Effective Date).

WHEREAS, the Executive is currently employed by the Company pursuant to the terms of an employment agreement between Cornerstone BioPharma, Inc. and the Executive dated as of August 20, 2008 (the Prior Agreement);

WHEREAS, the Company desires to continue such employment relationship and enter into this Agreement, which will supersede the Prior Agreement and set forth the terms and conditions under which the Executive will continue to serve the Company and its affiliates; and

WHEREAS, the Executive wishes to continue his employment with the Company on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Term of Employment. The Company hereby agrees to employ the Executive, and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Company, upon the terms set forth in this Agreement, for the period commencing on the Effective Date (the Commencement Date) and ending on the one year anniversary of the Effective Date (the Initial Term) unless renewed or sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Section 1 or Section 4, respectively. Upon each subsequent anniversary of the Commencement Date, the term of this Agreement shall automatically extend for an additional year (such period, including the Initial Term and as it may be extended, the Employment Period) unless (i) either the Company or the Executive gives at least ninety (90) days notice of non-renewal prior to such anniversary or (ii) the Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.

2. Title; Capacity. The Executive shall serve as Executive Vice President, Finance, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Assistant Secretary and in such other position as the Company or its Board of Directors (the Board) may determine from time to time. The Executive shall be based at the Company's office in Cary, North Carolina. The Executive shall be subject to the supervision of, and shall have such authority as is delegated to him by, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company or his designee.

The Executive hereby accepts such employment and agrees to undertake the duties and responsibilities inherent in such position and such other duties and responsibilities as the President and Chief Executive Officer or his designee shall from time to time reasonably assign to him. The Executive agrees to devote his entire business time, attention and energies to the business and interests of the Company during the Employment Period; provided, however, that the Executive may serve as a consultant or a member of an advisory board or a board of directors with the prior consent of the Board. The Executive agrees to abide by any rules, regulations, instructions, personnel practices and policies of the Company that are applicable to him and any changes therein that may be adopted from time to time by the Company.

3. Compensation and Benefits.

3.1. Salary. The Company shall pay the Executive a base salary for the year starting January 1, 2009 in accordance with its regular payroll practices at an annualized rate of $288,791, less lawful deductions. Such salary shall be subject to adjustment thereafter as determined by the Board.

3.2. Annual Target Cash Bonus. The Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual target cash bonus of up to thirty-five (35) percent of his then annual base salary (Target Cash Bonus). The Board (or a committee thereof) shall determine the amount of the actual award, if any, based on overall corporate performance and individual performance. Actual awards may be greater than or less than the Executive's Target Cash Bonus, depending in part upon the extent to which actual performance exceeds or falls below the performance goals. Any bonus shall be paid in a single lump sum, subject to lawful deductions, at such time as bonuses are regularly paid to senior executives of the Company, but in any event such bonus shall be paid on or before March 15 of the year following the year to which the bonus relates. Except as may be expressly provided below, the Executive must be employed on the date that the bonus is paid to be eligible for any Target Cash Bonus. Each cash bonus award that may become payable shall be paid solely from the general assets of the Company.

3.3. Annual Target Equity Awards. The Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual target equity award in the form of an option to purchase, in whole or in part, up to fifty thousand (50,000) shares of common stock of the Company in each of the year 2010, 2011 and 2012. The Board (or a committee thereof) shall determine the amount of the actual equity award, if any, based on overall corporate performance and individual performance. Each grant of options under Sections 3.3 and 3.4 shall vest over a four-year period, 25% per year, pursuant to the terms of the terms of the Company Stock Plan.

3.4. Grant of Options. Effective as of the date hereof, the Executive shall be granted an option to purchase, in whole or in part, fifty thousand (50,000) shares common stock. The option shall be on such terms and conditions as are described on Appendix A hereto.

3.5. Fringe Benefits. The Executive shall be entitled to participate in all bonus and benefit programs (excluding the Company's Cash Bonus Program for Employees (Other than Executive Officers)) that the Company establishes and makes available to its employees or executives, if any, to the extent that the Executive's position, tenure, salary, age, health and other qualifications make him eligible to participate; provided, however, the Executive's participation is subject to the applicable terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of these plans as they may exist from time to time. The Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid vacation per year, accrued at a rate of 1.67 days per month, and, if requested in writing by the Chief Executive Officer, such vacation time shall be taken at such times as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer or his designee. Accrued but unused vacation at the end of each year will not carry over to the next year.

3.6. Reimbursement of Expenses. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and other expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in connection with, or related to, the performance of his duties, responsibilities or services under this Agreement, in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, including the Executive's presentation of documentation, expense statements, vouchers and/or such other supporting information as the Company may request, provided, however, that the amount available for such travel, entertainment and other expenses may be fixed in advance by the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any particular taxable year may not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year, (ii) such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred, and (iii) the right to reimbursement is not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

3.7. Car Allowance. The Executive will receive a monthly car allowance in the amount of $850. Both a valid driver's license, an acceptable motor vehicle record and personal automobile insurance are required at all times to operate a personal motor vehicle on Company business. The Company reserves the right to change or discontinue its vehicle reimbursement program at any time.

4. Employment Termination. The employment of the Executive by the Company pursuant to this Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following:

4.1. Expiration of the Employment Period in accordance with Section 1;

4.2. At the election of the Company, for Cause (as defined in Section 21), immediately upon written notice by the Company to the Executive;

4.3. At the election of the Executive, for Good Reason (as defined in Section 21), upon written notice by the Executive to the Company;

In addition, if the Executive's employment terminates as a result of his death, the Executive's estate shall receive an amount equal to a pro rata payment of the annual cash bonus for which he would have been eligible, less lawful deductions, within ten (10) calendar days following the effective date of the Release required by Section 5.6, but not later than ninety (90) days following termination of employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the ninetieth (90th) day following the Executive's termination from employment occurs in the calendar year following the year of the Executive's termination, then the payment shall be made no earlier than January 1 of such subsequent calendar year. No other benefits are payable upon the Executive's termination pursuant to Section 4.5.

5.4. Termination Without Cause or for Good Reason and not during a Change of Control Period. If the Executive's employment is terminated without Cause pursuant to Section 4.7, or for Good Reason pursuant to Section 4.3 and such termination does not occur during a Change of Control Period, the Company shall:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the ninetieth (90th) day following the Executive's termination from employment occurs in the calendar year following the year of the Executive's termination, then the payment shall be made no earlier than January 1 of such subsequent calendar year; and

(iv) accelerate vesting of all of the Executive's outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock by one year.

5.5. Termination Without Cause or for Good Reason during a Change of Control Period. If the Executive's employment is terminated without Cause pursuant to Section 4.4, or for Good Reason pursuant to Section 4.4 and such termination occurs during a Change of Control Period, the Company shall:

(iv) accelerate vesting of one hundred (100) percent of all of the Executive's outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock.

5.6 Release of Claims as a Condition of Payment. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company's obligation to provide the payments and benefits under Sections 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, and 5.5 is conditioned upon the Executive's, or the Executive's estate, execution of a severance agreement and full release of all claims against the Company and all affiliated persons and entities, drafted by and satisfactory to counsel for the Company (the Release) and the Executive's compliance with Sections 7 and 8 of this Agreement. The Release shall include clauses covering confidentiality, non-disparagement, cooperation, and non-admissions, among other terms, all in a form acceptable to the Company. If the Executive chooses not to execute such a release or fails to comply with those Sections, then the Company's obligation to compensate the Executive ceases on the effective termination date except as to base salary up through the termination date.

6. Vesting of Stock Upon a Change of Control. One hundred (100) percent of the Executive's outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock will vest on a Change of Control (as defined in Section 21).

7. Non-Compete.

(b) During Executive's employment with the Company and for a period of one (1) year following the cessation thereof (whether voluntary or involuntary and regardless of the reason for, or party initiating, the termination), Executive will not engage in any of the following on his own behalf or in any capacity on another's behalf, directly or indirectly:

(e) The Executive acknowledges that the restrictions contained in this Section are necessary for the protection of the business and goodwill of the Company and in light of, among other things, the highly competitive market in which the Company operates. The Executive agrees that any breach of this Section will cause the Company substantial and irrevocable damage and therefore, in the event of any such breach, in addition to such other remedies which may be available, the Company shall have the right to seek specific performance and injunctive relief without posting a bond.

(f) If the Executive violates the provisions of this Section 7, he shall continue to be held by the restrictions set forth in this Section, until a period equal to the period of restriction has expired without any violation.

Executive shall sign all papers, including, without limitation, copyright registration applications, patent applications, declarations, oaths, formal assignments, assignment of priority rights, and powers of attorney, which the Company may deem necessary or desirable in order to protect its rights and interests in any Development. The Executive shall further execute and deliver all such instruments and take all other actions as in the opinion of the Company and its counsel shall be appropriate to vest in the Company (or in such person as the Company may specify) all right, title and interest in said Developments and any patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets and other intellectual property rights associated therewith.

(d) Whenever requested to do so by the Company, both during and after his employment with the Company, and at the expense of the Company, the Executive shall cooperate fully and assist the Company in the defense or prosecution of any claims or actions now in existence or which may be brought in the future in connection with (i) any litigation commenced by the Company against third parties, (ii) any litigation commenced by a third party against the Company and (iii) any administrative hearing or administrative proceeding involving the Company. (f) The Executive hereby waives and quitclaims to the Company any and all claims, of any nature, which the Executive now or may hereafter have for infringement, misappropriation, or other violation of any Development assigned hereunder to the Company.

(g) The Executive acknowledges and agrees that all original works of authorship which are created by the Executive (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of Executive's employment and which are protectable by copyright are works made for hire, as that term is defined in the United States Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. You have requested that Houlihan Lokey Howard & Zukin Financial Advisors, Inc. In connection with this Opinion, we have made such reviews, analyses and inquiries as we have deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances. Among other things, we have:

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all data, material and other information furnished, or otherwise made available, to us, discussed with or reviewed by us, or publicly available, and do not assume any responsibility with respect to such data, material and other information. In addition, management of the Company has advised us, and we have assumed, that the financial projections reviewed by us have been reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management as to the future financial results and condition of the Company and the U.S. Curosurf® Rights, and we express no opinion with respect to such projections or the assumptions on which they are based. As you are aware, we are not experts in the design, manufacture, marketing, suitability, financial performance or profitability of pharmaceutical and related products or obtaining applicable regulatory and other approvals in connection therewith and, consequently, with your consent, we relied on the views of the Company's and Chiesi's management with respect to all such matters. In addition, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final forms of any draft documents identified above will not differ in any respect from the drafts of said documents.

Furthermore, in connection with this Opinion, we have not been requested to make, and have not made, any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties or liabilities (fixed, contingent, derivative, off-balance-sheet or otherwise) of the Company, Chiesi or any other party, nor were we provided with any such appraisal or evaluation. We did not estimate, and express no opinion regarding, the liquidation value of any entity. We have undertaken no independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities, to which the Company or Chiesi is or may be a party or is or may be subject, or of any governmental investigation of any possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which the Company or Chiesi is or may be a party or is or may be subject.

We have not undertaken, and are under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this Opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring after the date hereof. We are not expressing any opinion as to what the value of the New Shares actually will be when issued pursuant to the Company Stock Sale or the price or range of prices at which the New Shares may be purchased or sold at any time.

This Opinion is furnished for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Company Stock Sale and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent. This Opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on Houlihan Lokey's part to any party. This Opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to the Board of Directors of the Company, any security holder or any other person as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Transaction.

In the ordinary course of business, certain of our affiliates, as well as investment funds in which they may have financial interests, may acquire, hold or sell, long or short positions, or trade or otherwise effect transactions, in debt, equity, and other securities and financial instruments (including loans and other obligations) of, or investments in, the Company, Chiesi, or any other party that may be involved in the Transaction and their respective affiliates or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the Transaction.

Houlihan Lokey and certain of its affiliates may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to the Company, Chiesi and other participants in the Transaction and certain of their respective affiliates in the future, for which Houlihan Lokey and such affiliates may receive compensation.
