Item 1.01 Execution of a Material Definitive Agreement

Effective October 30, 2010, the Company entered into a Release and Severance Agreement (the Severance Agreement) with William H. Osborne pursuant to which Mr. Osborne agreed to resign as President, Chief Executive Officer and director of Federal Signal Corporation (the Company), and the Company will pay Mr. Osborne substantially the same severance benefits as would have been payable under Mr. Osborne s employment agreement with the Company for a termination without cause. The severance benefits payable to Mr. Osborne under the Severance Agreement include payment of $110,500 per month for the next twelve consecutive months, which amount equals his current monthly base salary plus one-twelfth of his 2010 target annual incentive bonus, and a lump-sum amount equal to $548,565, the amount of his unpaid 2010 target short-term incentive plan bonus prorated based upon his employment separation date. Mr. Osborne is also entitled to receive COBRA medical, dental and prescription drug insurance coverage at the active employee rate until the earlier of the expiration of eighteen months from his separation date or the date he becomes eligible to receive other insurance coverage. The Company will also (i) continue Mr. Osborne s automobile allowance at the current rate of $1,150 per month for a period of twelve consecutive months and (ii) pay up to $50,000 for executive outplacement services as and when incurred by Mr. Osborne prior to December 31, 2011. The Severance Agreement also contains mutual claims releases and non-disparagement agreements by the Company and Mr. Osborne, and includes non-competition and non-solicitation covenants by Mr. Osborne for a period of 18 months after his separation date.

The foregoing description of the Severance Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Severance Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Report, and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

Mr. Osborne s employment agreement with the Company was terminated upon the effectiveness of Mr. Osborne s resignation and the execution and delivery of the Severance Agreement. The material terms of Mr. Osborne s employment agreement were initially described in the Company s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 18, 2008, which agreement was subsequently amended to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. The information provided in Item 1.01 above is also incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Martin's severance benefits in the event of such a termination will be those provided to Tier I executives. This Plan was previously filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 10.GG to the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008.

Termination and Severance Upon a Change in Control: The Company and Mr. Martin have entered into an Executive Change-in-Control Severance Agreement (Tier 1) consistent with the agreements executed with the Company's other named executive officers that provide for certain payments in the event of a "qualifying termination" of his employment after a "Change in Control" of the Company. The form of Executive Change-in-Control Severance Agreement was previously filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2010.

Other Benefits: Mr. Martin's compensation package also includes a monthly car allowance, eligibility to participate in the Company's non-qualified Savings Restoration Plan and eligibility to participate in the Company's standard benefit package including group health benefits, 401(k) plan and other benefits.

Additionally, the Company also announced on November 1, 2010 that Jennifer L.
