Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

On December 7, 2010, at a special meeting of shareholders of Aaron's, Inc. (the Company), the shareholders of the Company approved, among other things, a proposal to amend and restate the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to (a) effect a reclassification of each outstanding share of Common Stock, par value $0.50 per share (the Nonvoting Common Stock) into one share of Class A Common Stock (the Class A Common Stock) and to rename the Class A Common Stock as Common Stock (the Common Stock), (b) to eliminate certain obsolete provisions relating to the Company's prior dual-class common stock structure, and (c) to amend the number of authorized shares to be 225,000,000 total shares of Common Stock (the aggregate of the number of authorized shares of Nonvoting Common Stock and Class A Common Stock prior to the approval of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation). Following receipt of shareholder approval at the special meeting, the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia and are now effective.

As a result of the reclassification of shares of Nonvoting Common Stock into shares of Class A Common Stock and the other changes described above and effected by the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, shares of the combined class now titled Common Stock have one vote per share on all matters submitted to the Company's shareholders, including the election of directors. The former Nonvoting Common Stock did not entitle the holders thereof to any vote except as otherwise provided in the Company's Articles of Incorporation or required by law. In addition, holders of the new Common Stock will all vote as a single class of stock on any matters subject to a shareholder vote. Holders of the former Class A Common Stock and the Nonvoting Common Stock were previously entitled to separate class voting rights in certain circumstances as required by law, and those class voting rights were eliminated with the share reclassification.

The holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends and other distributions in cash, stock or property of the Company as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Company out of legally available funds. Prior to the reclassification, the Company's Articles of Incorporation permitted the payment of a cash dividend on the Nonvoting Common Stock without paying any dividend on the Class A Common Stock or the payment of a cash dividend on the Nonvoting Common Stock that was up to 50% higher than any dividend paid on the Class A Common Stock. Cash dividends could not be paid on the Class A Common Stock unless equal or higher dividends were paid on the Nonvoting Common Stock.

The conversion had no other impact on the economic equity interests of holders of Common Stock, including with regards to liquidation rights or redemption, regardless of whether holders previously held shares of Nonvoting Common Stock or Class A Common Stock.

Effective December 13, 2010, all shares of the Common Stock will begin trading as a single class on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol AAN. As a result of the conversion, trading of the Nonvoting Common Stock under the ticker symbol AAN was suspended following the close of the New York Stock Exchange on December 10, 2010. The CUSIP number of the Common Stock is the same as the prior Class A Common Stock, 002535300.
