(e) Executive Severance Benefit Decisions.

KB Home (the Company) has made certain decisions regarding the application of its Policy Regarding Stockholder Approval of Certain Severance Payments (the Policy), which was adopted by the Management Development and Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Company's Board of Directors on July 10, 2008 and filed as an exhibit to a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 15, 2008. The Policy provides that the Company will obtain stockholder approval before paying the severance benefits described in the Policy to a designated executive officer (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) under a future severance arrangement in excess of 2.99 times the executive officer's then-current base salary and target bonus. The Company has determined that the Policy applies to Jeff J. Kaminski and Brian J. Woram, executives who were hired after the adoption of the Policy. In addition, the Company has decided that the Policy applies to executives hired after adoption of the Policy who are eligible for change in control benefits, whether by employment agreement, corporate policy or corporate benefit. Messrs. Kaminski and Woram agree with and accept the foregoing positions of the Company with respect to the Policy and agree to be bound by them. The Company's management will seek confirmation and acceptance of these positions from the Committee, which it expects to receive. In addition, management intends to review, and discuss with the Committee and the Board of Directors, the Company's change in control severance benefit contained in Section 4.2 of its Change in Control Severance Plan, which provides to certain executives an additional gross-up payment to compensate for any Internal Revenue Code Section 280G excise tax imposed on payments made under the Change in Control Severance Plan.
