As discussed in Williams' Form 10-Q for the first quarter 2002, certain operations were reclassified to reflect the following transactions and/or changes in management subsequent to the filing of Williams Annual Report on Form 10-K filed March 7, 2002:

As part of this filing, Williams has reflected the reclassification of these operations in Exhibit 99(b) below. Any segment information included in those exhibits for Petroleum Services, Williams Energy Partners, Exploration & Production and International have been restated to reflect the above transactions and/or changes in management.
