Item 8.01 Other Events.

Medicis Pharmaceutical Corporation (Medicis) today announced that the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, in an order filed April 16, 2008, granted Medicis' motion to dismiss a complaint for declaratory judgment filed by IMPAX Laboratories, Inc. (IMPAX) on January 15, 2008 and vacated the April 11, 2008 hearing on the matter. IMPAX was seeking a declaratory judgment that Medicis' U.S. Patent No. 5,908,838 related to SOLODYN® is invalid and is not infringed by IMPAX's filing of an Abbreviated New Drug Application (ANDA) seeking U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approval to market a generic version of SOLODYN®.

The Court ruled that IMPAX has not shown a controversy of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the issuance of a declaratory judgment. The Court further noted that even if plaintiff's showing were sufficient to give rise to standing, the Court would, under the circumstances presented...decline to exercise jurisdiction over the instant action as exercising discretionary jurisdiction would promote the premature filing of declaratory judgment actions and reduce the incentive for potential infringers to communicate with patentees before filing suit.

The Court has dismissed IMPAX's challenge to Medicis' patent. To Medicis' knowledge IMPAX's ANDA remains on file with the FDA.
