CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders:

We are pleased to present the Annual Report of The Taiwan Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005.

On August 31, 2005, the Fund's net asset value ("NAV") per share was US$14.76. The Fund's NAV increased by 15.8% in U.S. dollar terms and increased by 11.1% in New Taiwan ("NT") dollar terms for the fiscal year. During the same period, the Taiwan Stock Exchange Index (the "TAIEX") increased by 8.8% in U.S. dollar terms and increased by 4.6% in NT dollar terms. The U.S. dollar appreciated by 3.8% against the NT dollar during this period. The Fund outperformed the TAIEX by 6.4% in U.S. dollar terms during the fiscal year.

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN FUND INC - Form N-CSR

At the Board Meeting held on 18 July, I was honored to be elected the Chairman of the Board. On behalf of the Board, I thank my predecessor, S. Y. Wang, for his leadership in the past years. We continue to benefit from his advice, as he remains a Director of the Board. I would also like to express my appreciation for the services of David Dean, Jack Tang and Professor Lawrence Lau, who retired as Directors of the Board at the January Board meeting. A warm welcome is extended to new Directors, Christina Liu and Blair Pickerell, who were elected at the January 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Thank you for your continued support of The Taiwan Fund, Inc. and we look forward to sharing with you results of The Taiwan Fund, Inc. over the longer term.

Sincerely,

/s/ Harvey Chang

REPORT OF THE INVESTMENT MANAGER

INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE

The Fund's net asset value ("NAV") increased by 15.8% in U.S. dollar terms and increased by 11.1% in New Taiwan ("NT") dollar terms for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005. During the same period, the Taiwan Stock Exchange Index (the "TAIEX") increased by 8.8% in U.S. dollar terms and increased by 4.6% in NT dollar terms. The Fund outperformed the TAIEX by 7.0% in U.S. dollar terms during the year.

Based on the performance-attribution report generated by FactSet (an investment research service), the Fund's positive performance relative to the TAIEX for the 2005 fiscal year was attributed to both sector allocation and stock selection. The portfolio benefited from our overweight positions in the integrated circuit ("IC") design and handset sectors and overweight positions in such stocks as Honhai Precision and Mediatek.

ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN FUND INC - Form N-CSR

The global economy is expected to grow by 3.5% in 2005, slowing from 4.1% growth recorded in 2004. The United States, China and Japan have raised their 2005 GDP growth targets in the past months. We expect monetary and liquidity conditions to support continued growth of the global economy in the coming quarters. As the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development ("OECD") leading indicators have been trending downward since 2004, we expect them to bottom out and then begin to improve in the coming months.

Despite damage caused by Hurricane Katrina, the U.S. economy appears to be fundamentally solid. We believe that an increase in capital spending plans by U.S. corporations and improvement in business confidence will further support U.S. economic growth in 2005, albeit at a decreasing pace. Hurricane Katrina could potentially have some slightly negative impact on the U.S. economy in the third quarter of 2005, but the damages could be only a short-term effect. If we consider the stimulus from the rebuilding of the damaged area, the overall GDP impact could be neutral for 2005 and 2006 GDP growth may not be affected. The U.S. government's move to release some of its oil reserves to help ease the supply situation may signal that the U.S. government is "drawing the line" on oil prices at current levels. This may ease concerns about a further oil price hike, which would likely impede economic growth. U.S. real GDP growth is forecast to be 3.6% in 2005 and 3.4% in 2006, and such growth would likely be driven by both domestic demand and exports.

Despite the expected slowdown of the global economy, the United States and Chinese will likely remain the principal engines of global growth. Healthy growth rates are also expected in other Asian emerging markets. The China economy is expected to grow moderately by 9.0% in 2005 and 8.5% in 2006, mainly driven by strong domestic demand and exports against the backdrop of ongoing efforts by the Chinese government to prevent the economy from expanding too quickly. As inflation uncertainty has resurfaced with recent higher oil prices, future interest-rate increases are unpredictable and may hamper the pace of the global economic recovery. Nevertheless, we believe that the global economy has enough strength to continue expanding at approximately 3.5% in 2005 and approximately 3.2% in 2006.

Taiwan's economic growth appears to have bottomed out in the first quarter of 2005 and a recovery appears on track. Economic data showed that Taiwan is undergoing a mild recovery. We expect a modest recovery in export growth coupled with a steady increase in consumption and resilient investment to support economic expansion at 4.1% in the second half of 2005. Trade growth is expected to increase mildly in the second half of 2005 and we expect exports to return to a modest upward trend with the global technology recovery. Export growth is expected to be 7.9%, and import growth is expected to be 9.9% in 2005. Taiwan's consumer price index is expected to increase by 2.0% in 2005, mainly due to increasing oil prices and weather-induced spikes in fresh food prices.

For 2006, we anticipate that Taiwan's economic fundamentals will remain resilient, supporting expansion of both domestic and external demand. The Central Bank is likely to continue to raise rates gradually into the first half of 2006, amid an expected modest economic recovery and rising inflationary pressure. The spillover effect of persistently high oil prices will probably become more evident in the fourth quarter of 2005 and weigh on both business and consumers through early 2006. Investment by Taiwanese companies could slow, but the outlook remains favorable due to economic links between China and Taiwan, strong domestic demand and exports as well as the healthy outlook for the U.S. and Chinese economies. We anticipate Taiwan's GDP to grow 4.0% in 2006. However, if the U.S. economy slows down unexpectedly or if China imposes additional macro-economic cooling measures, then this would have an adverse impact on Taiwan. Another uncertainty that could unsettle the market would be a renewed surge in oil prices.

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN FUND INC - Form N-CSR

Despite high oil prices, the global economy is expected to continue to grow moderately in the coming year, and we believe Taiwan will remain a favorable market for long-term investment. After some slowing in the current year, corporate earnings growth is expected to return to positive territory in 2006. Taiwan companies' competitive strengths -- which include their quality engineers, close relations with their customers and lower-cost production facilities in China -- will underpin the positive longer-term outlook for the stock market.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Despite concern over higher oil prices and monetary tightening in the past year, Taiwan equities performed well and continued to gain ground. The TAIEX rose by 4.6% (in NT dollar terms). This rise was helped by a strong demand for industrial cyclical products in 2004/early 2005, as strong demand for technology products continued in the past year. The TAIEX rise was also partially attributable to foreign inflows after the second phase of Morgan Stanley Capital International's ("MSCI") re-weighting of the MSCI Emerging Market Index at the end of May 2005. MSCI increased the LIF (Limited Investability Factor) from 75% to 100% in the second phase re-weighting, with Taiwan becoming the country with the largest weighting (more than 20% in May 2005) within the MSCI Emerging Market Index. The MSCI re-weighting fueled investors' buying interest, and that in turn benefited Taiwan's large market capitalization stocks. The technology sector enjoyed the highest return and received the majority of both foreign and domestic buying interest. Foreigners bought approximately US$19 billion of Taiwan shares in the past year due to the MSCI re-weighting and the recovery in the technology sector. Foreigners currently own approximately 28% of the Taiwan stock market.

Politics are expected to have minimal impact on the stock market in the near-term future. County and local mayoral elections in December 2005 are expected to have little impact on the stock market, and Taiwan politics will likely remain gridlocked until March 2008 when a Presidential election is scheduled.

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN FUND INC - Form N-CSR

The valuation of Taiwan's stock market appears to be attractive. The dividend yield is 4%. The market forward PER (price to earnings ratio) is 12.8 times and the market PBR (price to book ratio) is 1.7 times. Taiwan securities are trading at lower valuations than most Asian market securities, and Taiwan's stock market has a moderate upside potential in the next two quarters.

In line with moderate global economic growth in 2006 and continuing recovery of technology demand, we expect 14% year-on-year corporate earnings growth in 2006 for our stock universe, against a 5% decline in 2005.

High oil prices have weighed on our outlook in 2006. The Taiwan government has tried to limit increases in domestic energy prices, so the rises in world oil prices have so far had a moderate impact on growth and inflation. High oil prices could exert an indirect effect by weakening global economic growth, with that weakness hitting overseas demand for Taiwanese products. Sectors most adversely impacted include shipping, airlines, plastics and petrochemicals. Slowdown in U.S. consumer demand may trim demand for Taiwanese electronic goods, car parts and container shipping capacity. The slowdown in growth of Taiwan's two major export markets (the United States and China) indicates that Taiwan's 2006 export growth would only be moderate, as U.S. economic expansion will likely start to decelerate moderately into 2006, and the growth of China's economy is likely to be moderate.

After seeing 2.1% appreciation in 2005 in the Reminbi ("RMB"), China's currency, global investors are anticipating further appreciation. The inflow of hot money into Taiwan is expected as a play on China and further appreciation in the RMB. This expected inflow would be positive for the liquidity of the Taiwan market and will drive the domestic reflation theme further. The NT dollar is likely to appreciate by a lesser percentage than the RMB due to weakness in exports and lower-than-expected GDP growth in the first half of 2005. RMB appreciation is negative for downstream electronics industries with production facilities in China, which would have to export at a higher price. However, it is positive for traditional industries such as auto, cement, rubber and construction materials due to stronger domestic demand driven by a stronger local currency.

We expect technology to remain the main growth sector in the coming year. Hardware company valuations are still reasonable at 12.5 times anticipated 2006 earnings. We are positive on new product launches, which include Microsoft's Longhorn, 3G handsets and next-generation game consoles. We expect 2006 will be a healthy year for the semiconductor industry due to recovery of global semiconductor capital expenditures from restraint in 2005, a reasonable 2006 global economic outlook and new product launches driving PC demand. The market may continue its rebound for a few months due to seasonal strong demand for technology products, easing of high oil prices and improvement in cross-strait relations.

In the short term, PC seasonal demand exists ahead of the year-end. Strong growth and seasonal demand should combine to drive outperformance of PC related shares in the fourth quarter of 2005. Our strategy is to increase our exposure in high-beta stocks, which should offer reasonable returns if cautiously invested. In addition, there is more good news from the technology sector—rising utilization rates in most semiconductor companies; strong demand for notebook PCs, handsets and LCD panels; as well as the coming peak season of consumer electronics products. Most technology companies continue to deliver stronger-than-expected sales and are issuing positive outlooks for the coming two quarters. Therefore, we expect that share prices of technology companies should continue outperforming in the coming months. We plan to increase our exposure to semiconductor, handset and consumer electronics-related shares. Our main focus will be technology stocks with good value and expected stable earnings growth in 2006.

We will remain underweight in the material sectors, such as steel, petrochemical, paper and textile, in the coming quarters. Weakening of demand for materials from China as it strengthens its austerity measures to cool down its economy and the demand/supply imbalance (resulting from increase in capacity of commodity sectors in the past two years) may pose a threat to corporate earnings growth in the commodity sector in the coming quarters.

We will continue to be underweight in the financial sector. Financial sector earnings growth is expected to slow, as consumer lending may fall moderately in 2006 in the face of rising interest rates and relatively high oil prices. Financial stocks are good proxy for domestic consumption and asset reflation themes; but slow consolidation progress, flattening of the yield curve and lackluster loan growth (7% in 2005 vs. 10% in 2004) could result in the financial sector underperforming in the coming year.

Despite our positive long-term outlook on the Taiwan market, we expect that the market will range trade in 2006 as gains in the technology sector might be offset by declines in other sectors. We will use a bottom-up approach with a focus on stock picking in 2006. Against a backdrop of softening commodity prices, improving cross-strait relations and possible further RMB appreciation, we have identified four themes for picking stocks in 2006 -- secular growth stocks, new product development, cash dividend yield and China concept shares.

SECULAR GROWTH STOCKS

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN FUND INC - Form N-CSR

We will identify growth stocks in the technology sector. We expect technology sector earnings to rise by more than 18% in 2006 after declining approximately 15% in 2005. Technology stock valuations still appear to be reasonable. Technology stock earnings appeared to bottom in the second quarter of 2005 and could be on a recovery path through the second half of 2006. IC Insights projects that global semiconductor capital expenditures will fall 6% and is forecasted to be 24% of sales in 2005. A drop in capital expenditures during 2005 and 2006 would lead to a stronger rebound in the semiconductor industry in 2006 and 2007. In addition to global economic growth and capacity growth, inventory adjustment also drives the technology stock cycle and earnings. Inventories in the U.S. electronics supply chain are reasonably lean. With inventories down to a healthier level, profit margins should begin to improve, which is a catalyst of share price movement.

NEW PRODUCTS IN 2006

The new-product theme will drive demand in the following sectors: (1) 3G handset (third generation mobile phone technology service), (2) cell phones priced at less than US$50, (3) digital home (wireless/broadband), (4) game console upgrades and (5) PCs with Longhorn CPUs. For handsets, integrating high-resolution cameras, bluetooth, wireless LAN and VOIP to handset chipset solutions would help to sustain growth momentum in 2006. Demand for high-end 0.13, 0.11 and 0.09 micron technology products could drive growth momentum for semiconductor companies. If the Notebook PC upgrade cycle continues over the next four to six quarters, market share gain could accelerate its growth momentum. Notebooks will be 36% of PC sales by the end of 2005 and will eventually account for 50% of PC sales. We believe that the rising demand for transistor-liquid crystal display ("TFT-LCD") TVs will serve as the key catalyst for the sector and more affordable prices will continue to stimulate demand in 2006 and beyond. It is projected that a compound annual growth rate for the TFT-LCD TV segment will be 41% in the next three years. In the longer-term, the TFT-LCD industry is expected to double its growth to reach US$42 billion in 2007.

HIGH CASH YIELD

The 4% dividend yield of the Taiwan securities market is relatively high among Asian securities markets. Many stocks, including telecommunications, auto and certain technology stocks, could provide high dividend yield. Since we expect the market to range trade in 2006, we anticipate increasing investments in stocks able to deliver stable earnings and good yield. Taiwan securities' high dividend yield, which exceeds the 10-year bond yield of 1.8%, should provide good downside support.

CHINA CONCEPT SHARES

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN FUND INC - Form N-CSR

If Taiwan opens up to tourists from China, we expect domestic demand to increase. Following the meetings between Taiwan's opposition party leaders, Lien Chan and James Soong with China's president Hu Jintao, cross-strait relations appear to be heading in a favorable direction, although the exact timing of any major breakthrough is difficult to predict. The improvement of the geopolitical climate is enhancing the environment for industries such as tourism, retail, property, financials and transportation. Other potential beneficiaries of this investment theme in 2006 would be companies with exposure to China's domestic demand such as the retail, auto and cement industries.

To conclude, we expect investors to receive reasonable rewards from certain sectors' positive results. In the year ahead, we intend to maintain exposure in high-beta stocks to take advantage of these diverse themes and achieve better investment returns. We will continue to strive to achieve superior performance through a process of bottom-up stock selection. We are confident that the Taiwanese stock market and healthy economic conditions will provide significant investment opportunities for investors in the foreseeable future.

Thank you for your support and we look forward to presenting our strategy again in coming reports.

Sincerely,

/s/ Victor Shih

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Taiwan Fund, Inc. (the "Fund"), a Delaware corporation, is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Act"), as a diversified closed-end management investment company.

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN FUND INC - Form N-CSR

The Fund is not permitted to invest directly in the securities of Republic of China ("ROC") companies. Therefore, it invests through a contractual securities investment trust fund arrangement. This arrangement was established by means of the Securities Investment Trust, Investment Management and Custodian Contract ("Management Contract") among HSBC Investments (Taiwan) Limited ("Adviser"), the International Commercial Bank of China (Custodian) and the Fund. Under the Management Contract the Adviser manages and invests the assets of the Fund and the Custodian holds the assets. The Fund is the sole beneficiary of the assets held under the Management Contract and, as required by ROC regulations, its interest in the assets is evidenced by units of beneficial interest.

The Fund concentrates its investments in the securities listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange. Because of this concentration, the Fund may be subject to additional risks resulting from future political or economic conditions in Taiwan and the possible imposition of adverse governmental laws of currency exchange restrictions affecting Taiwan.

The policies described below are consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Security Valuation. All securities, including those traded over-the-counter, for which market quotations are readily available are valued at the last sales price prior to the time of determination of the Fund's net asset value per share or, if there were no sales on such date, at the closing price quoted for such securities (but if bid and asked quotations are available, at the mean between the last current bid and asked prices, rather than such quoted closing price). In certain instances where the price determined above may not represent fair market value, the value is determined in such manner as the Board of Directors may prescribe. Foreign securities may be valued at fair value according to procedures approved by the Board of Directors if the closing price is not reflective of current market values due to trading or events occurring in the foreign markets between the close of the established exchange and the valuation time of the Fund. In addition, substantial changes in values in the U.S. markets subsequent to the close of a foreign market may also affect the values of securities traded in the foreign market. The value of foreign securities may be adjusted if such movements in the U.S. market exceed a specified threshold. Short-term investments, having a maturity of 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value, with accrued interest or discount earned included in interest receivable.

Repurchase Agreements. In connection with transactions in repurchase agreements, it is the Fund's policy that its custodian take possession of the underlying collateral securities, the fair value of which exceeds the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest, at all times. If the seller defaults, and the fair value of the collateral declines, realization of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited.

Foreign Currency Translation. The financial accounting records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. dollars. Investment securities, other assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated into U.S. dollars at the current exchange rate. Purchases and sales of securities, income receipts and expense payments are translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate on the dates of the transactions.

Reported net realized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions represent net gains and losses from disposition of foreign currencies, currency gains and losses realized between the trade dates and settlement dates of security transactions, and the difference between the amount of net investment income accrued and the U.S. dollar amount actually received. The effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates on investments in securities are not segregated in the Statement of Operations from the effects of changes in market prices of those securities, but are included in realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments in securities.

19

Forward Foreign Currency Transactions. A forward foreign currency contract ("Forward") is an agreement between two parties to buy or sell currency at a set price on a future date. The Fund may enter into Forwards in order to hedge foreign currency risk or for other risk management purposes. Realized gains or losses on Forwards include net gains or losses on contracts that have matured or which the Fund has terminated by entering into an offsetting closing transaction. Unrealized appreciation or depreciation of Forwards is included in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities and is carried on a net basis. The portfolio could be exposed to risk of loss if the counterparty is unable to meet the terms of the contract or if the value of the currency changes unfavorably. As of August 31, 2005 the Fund had no open Forwards.

Indemnification Obligations. Under the Trust's organizational documents, its Officers and Directors are indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of their duties to the Trust. In addition, in the normal course of business the Trust enters into contracts that provide general indemnifications to other parties. The Trust's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Trust that have not yet occurred.

Taxes. As a qualified regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code, the Fund is not subject to income taxes to the extent that it distributes all of its investment company taxable income and net realized capital gains for its fiscal year. In addition to federal income tax for which the Fund is liable on undistributed amounts, the Fund is subject to federal excise tax on undistributed investment company taxable income and net realized capital gains. The Schedule of Investments includes information regarding income taxes under the caption "Income Tax Information." The Fund is organized in Delaware and as such is required to pay Delaware an annual franchise tax. Also, the Fund is currently subject to a Taiwan security transaction tax of 0.3% on equities and 0.1% on mutual fund shares of the transaction amount.

The Fund's functional currency for tax reporting purposes is the New Taiwan dollar.

Investment Income. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except where the ex-dividend date may have passed; certain dividends from foreign securities are recorded as soon as the Fund is informed of the ex-dividend date.

Taiwanese companies typically declare dividends in the Fund's third fiscal quarter of each year. As a result, the Fund receives substantially less dividend income in the first half of its year. Interest income, which includes accretion of original discount, is accrued as earned.

Dividend and interest income generated in Taiwan is subject to a 20% withholding tax. Stock dividends received (except those which have resulted from capitalization of capital surplus) are taxable at 20% of the par value of the stock dividends received.

Distributions to Shareholders. The distributable income from the assets held under the Management Contract, which is limited to cash dividends and interest income received, may be distributed to the Fund only once in each year at the Fund's discretion and is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Realized capital gains and stock dividends may also be distributed to the Fund. Within the above limitations the Fund will, under current ROC regulations, be able to remit out of the ROC the proceeds of income and capital gains distributions, unit redemptions and other distributions of assets held under the Management Contract.

The Fund distributes to shareholders at least annually, substantially all of its taxable ordinary income and expects to distribute its taxable net realized gains. Certain foreign currency gains (losses) are taxable as ordinary income and, therefore, increase (decrease) taxable ordinary income available for distribution. Pursuant to the Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan (the "Plan"), shareholders may elect to have all distributions automatically reinvested in Fund shares. (See the summary of the Plan.) Shareholders who do not participate in the Plan will receive all distributions in cash paid by check in U.S. dollars. Income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles.

These differences are primarily due to differing treatments for foreign currency transactions, losses deferred due to wash sales and excise tax regulations. Permanent book and tax basis differences relating to shareholder distributions will result in reclassifications to paid in capital. Reclassifications recorded at August 31, 2005 were ($1,292,731) from undistributed Net Investment Income, ($6,636,962) from Accumulated Gain (Loss) and $7,929,693 to Paid in Capital.

Security Transactions. Security transactions are accounted for as of the trade date. Gains and losses on securities sold are determined on the basis of identified cost.

Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. PURCHASES AND SALES OF SECURITIES

For the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, purchases and sales of securities, other than short-term securities, aggregated $177,081,201 and $179,205,235, respectively.

3. FEES AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

Management Fee. As the Fund's investment adviser, HSBC Investments (Taiwan) Limited receives a fee that is computed daily at an annual rate of 1.30% of the Fund's average net assets. The basic fee is subject to a performance adjustment (up to a maximum of 0.30%) based on the Fund's investment performance as compared to the Taiwan Stock Exchange Index over a rolling 36-month period.

For the year ended August 31, 2005, the management fee, including the performance adjustments, was equivalent to an annual rate of 1.03% of average net assets, excluding the following one-time charge. During the period, the basic fee included a one-time charge of approximately $535,000 as a further revision to performance fee adjustments for the fiscal years prior to 2000. The management fee including this charge is equivalent to an annual rate of 1.26% of average net assets.

Directors Fees. No director, officer or employee of the Adviser or its' affiliates will receive any compensation from the Fund for serving as an officer or director of the Fund. The Fund pays each of its directors who is not a director, officer or employee of the Adviser an annual fee of $15,000 plus $2,000 for each Board of Directors' meeting or Audit Committee meeting attended, and $2,000 for each meeting attended by telephone. On April 18, 2005, the Board of Directors approved increasing the fee from $1,000 to $2,000 for each meeting attended by telephone. On July 18, 2005, the Board of Directors approved an increase in the annual fee from $10,000 to $15,000 effective September 1, 2005. In addition, the Fund will reimburse each of the directors for travel and out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with Board of Directors' meetings.

Administration Fees. State Street Bank and Trust Company ("State Street") provides, or arranges for the provision of certain administrative and accounting services for the Fund, including maintaining the books and records of the Fund, and preparing certain reports and other documents required by federal and/or state laws and regulations. The Fund pays State Street a fee at the annual rate of 0.11% of the Fund's average daily net assets up to $150 million, 0.08% of the next $150 million, and 0.05% of those assets in excess of $300 million, subject to certain minimum requirements. Effective May 1, 2005, the Fund also pays State Street $130,000 per year for certain legal administration services, including corporate secretarial services and preparing regulatory filings.

4. FUND SHARES

At August 31, 2005, there were 20,000,000 shares of $0.01 par value capital stock authorized, of which 16,365,572 were issued and outstanding.

5. DISTRIBUTIONS

The Fund made a distribution of $498,168 from ordinary income during the year ended August 31, 2005. As of August 31, 2005, the components of distributable earnings on a tax basis were

5. DISTRIBUTIONS - continued

$856,258 of Undistributed Ordinary Income, $0 of Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gain, $49,438,279 of Unrealized Appreciation, ($61,467,359) of accumulated capital losses, and ($49,616) of other temporary adjustments.

The difference between book basis and tax basis unrealized appreciation and depreciation is attributable primarily to the tax deferral of losses on wash sales.

6. PRIOR PERIODS RESTATEMENT

On August 31, 2004, the Fund restated its statement of changes in net assets for the year ended August 31, 2003 and its financial highlights for the years ended August 31, 2000 through 2003 to reflect correction of errors in the calculation of management fee performance adjustments recorded by the Fund during these years and prior. The incorrect performance adjustments were calculated based on average net assets of the Fund over a period different than the period over which average net assets of the Fund should have been calculated as stipulated in the management contract and resulted in overpayments being made to the investment adviser. The cumulative effect at September 1, 1999, and the yearly net effect, of these corrections on net assets, net asset value per share and the ratio of expenses were as follows:

	NET ASSETS	NAV PER SHARE	EXPENSE RATIO
	-----	-----	-----
Cumulative effect at September 1, 1999	$1,088,492	$0.06	n/a
Effect on Year Ended August 31, 2000	58,392	0.01	(0.02%)

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors and Shareholders
The Taiwan Fund, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of The Taiwan Fund, Inc., including the Fund's investments, as of August 31, 2005, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of August 31, 2005 by correspondence with the custodian and brokers, or by other appropriate auditing procedures where replies from brokers were not received. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Taiwan Fund, Inc. as of August 31, 2005, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

SUMMARY OF DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT AND

CASH PURCHASE PLAN

WHAT IS THE DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT AND CASH PURCHASE PLAN?

The Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan (the "Plan") offers shareholders of The Taiwan Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") a prompt and simple way to reinvest their dividends and capital gains distributions in shares of the Fund. The Fund will distribute to shareholders, at least annually, substantially all of its net income and expects to distribute annually its net realized capital gains. EquiServe Trust Company, N.A. (the "Plan Administrator"), a federally chartered trust institution and a wholly owned subsidiary of Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc., acts as Plan Administrator for shareholders in administering the Plan. The Plan also allows you to make optional cash investments in Fund shares through the Plan Administrator.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE IN THE PLAN?

If you own shares in your own name, you can elect to participate directly in the Plan. If you own shares that are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, or other nominee, you should contact your nominee to arrange for them to participate on your behalf.

WHAT DOES THE PLAN OFFER?

The Plan has two components; reinvestment of dividends and capital gains distributions, and a voluntary cash purchase feature.

REINVESTMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND CAPITAL GAINS DISTRIBUTIONS

If you choose to participate in the Plan, your dividends and capital gains distributions will be promptly invested for you, automatically increasing your holdings in the Fund. If the Fund declares a dividend or capital gains distribution payable in cash, you will automatically receive shares purchased by the Plan Administrator on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise on the open market.

If a distribution is declared which is payable in shares or cash at the option of the shareholder and if on the valuation date (generally the payable date) the market price of shares is equal to or exceeds their net asset value, the Fund will issue new shares to you at the greater of the following: (a) net asset value per share or (b) 95% of the market price per share. If the market price per share on the valuation date is less than the net asset value per share, the Fund will issue new shares to you at the market price per share on the valuation date.

All reinvestments are in full and fractional shares, carried to three decimal places. In the case of foreign (non-U.S.) shareholders, reinvestment will be made net of applicable withholding tax.

VOLUNTARY CASH PURCHASE OPTION

Plan participants have the option of making investments in Fund shares through the Plan Administrator. You may invest any amount from $100 to $3,000 semi-annually. The Plan Administrator will purchase shares for you on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise on the open market on or about February 15 and August 15. If you hold shares in your own name, you should deal directly with the Plan Administrator. Checks should be made payable to "Computershare". The Plan Administrator will not accept cash, traveler's checks, money orders, or third party checks for voluntary cash purchases. We suggest you send your check to the following address to be received at least two business days before the investment date: Computershare, c/o The Taiwan Fund, Inc. at P.O. Box 43010, Providence, RI 02940-3010. The Plan Administrator will return any cash payments received more than thirty days prior to February 15 or August 15, and you will not receive interest on uninvested cash payments. If you own shares that are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, or other nominee, you should contact your nominee to arrange for them to participate in the cash purchase option on your behalf.

26

IS THERE A COST TO PARTICIPATE?

Each participant will pay a pro rata portion of brokerage commissions payable with respect to purchases of shares by the Plan Administrator on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise on the open market. Otherwise, there is no charge to participants for reinvesting dividends and capital gains distributions, since the Plan Administrator's fees are paid by the Fund. Brokerage charges for purchasing shares through the Plan are expected to be less than the usual brokerage charges for individual transactions, because the Plan Administrator will purchase stock for all participants in blocks, resulting in lower commissions for each individual participant.

For purchases from voluntary cash payments, participants are charged a service fee of $.75 for each investment and a pro rata share of the brokerage commissions.

Brokerage commissions and service fees, if any, will be deducted from amounts to be invested.

WHAT ARE THE TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR PARTICIPANTS?

You will receive tax information annually for your personal records and to help you prepare your federal income tax return. The automatic reinvestment of dividends and capital gains distributions does not relieve you of any income tax which may be payable on dividends or distributions.

If the Fund issues shares upon reinvestment of a dividend or capital gains distribution, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the amount reportable in respect of the reinvested amount of the dividend or distribution will be the fair market value of the shares received as of the payment date, which will be reportable as ordinary dividend income and/or long term capital gains. The shares will have a tax basis equal to such fair market value, and the holding period for the shares will begin on the day after the payment date. State, local and foreign taxes may also be applicable.

ONCE ENROLLED IN THE PLAN, MAY I WITHDRAW FROM IT?

You may withdraw from the Plan without penalty at any time by calling the Plan Administrator at 1-800-426-5523, by accessing your Plan account at the Plan Administrator's website, www.computershare.com/equisherve or by written notice to the Plan Administrator.

If you withdraw, you will receive, without charge, stock certificates issued in your name for all full shares, or, if you wish, the Plan Administrator will sell your shares and send you the proceeds, less a service fee of $2.50 and less brokerage commissions. The Plan Administrator will convert any fractional shares you hold at the time of your withdrawal to cash at the current market price and send you a check for the proceeds.

All sale requests having an anticipated market value of $100,000.00 or more are expected to be submitted in written form. In addition, all sale requests within thirty (30) days of an address change are expected to be submitted in written form.
