Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 31, 2007, Smith Micro Software, Inc. (the Company) and TEL Acquisition Corp. (Acquisition Co.), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Ecutel Systems, Inc. (Ecutel), John J. McDonnell, Jr. and the Principal Stockholders of Ecutel listed on the signature page thereto. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Ecutel will be merged with and into Acquisition Co. (the Merger), and Acquisition Co. will be the surviving corporation in the Merger and will continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Delaware as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company after the Merger. The completion of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions. The Board of Directors of each of the Company and Ecutel approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement.

The aggregate merger consideration to be paid by the Company in connection with the Merger is $8,000,000 in cash, of which $1,000,000 will be withheld as security for satisfaction of certain indemnification obligations pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the Merger Agreement attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties that each of the Company and Ecutel made to the other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. The disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts at the time they were made or otherwise.
