Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

As previously disclosed in Akorn, Inc.'s (Akorn) Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 9, 2009, which is incorporated herein by reference, Akorn entered into a Credit Agreement (Credit Agreement) with its wholly-owned subsidiary Akorn (New Jersey), Inc. (Akorn NJ), and together with Akorn, each a Borrower and together the Borrowers), General Electric Capital Corporation (GE Capital), as agent for the several financial institutions from time to time party to the Credit Agreement (collectively, the Lenders and individually each a Lender) and for itself as a Lender, and GE Capital Markets, Inc. Pursuant to the Credit Agreement, among other things, the Lenders agreed to extend loans to Borrowers under a revolving credit facility (including a letter of credit subfacility) up to an aggregate principal amount of $25,000,000 or whatever lower figure is supported by the collateral borrowing base rules set forth in the Credit Agreement.

On February 19, 2009, GE Capital informed the Borrowers that it is applying a reserve against availability in the amount of $5,041,121, which, at least for the time being, effectively restricts the Borrowers' borrowings under the Credit Agreement to the current balance outstanding as of February 19, 2009. GE Capital advised that it was applying this reserve due to concerns about financial performance, including the Borrowers' prospective compliance with the EBITDA covenant in the Credit Agreement for the quarter that will end March 31, 2009.

This information is not deemed to be filed for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, and such information is not incorporated by reference into any registration statements or other document filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, regardless of the general incorporation language contained in such filing, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference to this filing.
