The purpose of the acquisition of Common Stock of the Issuer by the Reporting Persons is to profit from the appreciation in the market price of the Common Stock through the assertion of shareholder rights. The Reporting Persons expect to actively assert shareholder rights, in the manner described below, with the intent to influence the policies of the Issuer. The Reporting Persons plan to engage in discussions with the Issuer's management and Board of Directors to try to maximize short and long-term value of the Issuer's assets which the Reporting Persons do not believe is adequately reflected in the current market price of the Issuer's Common Stock, irrespective of current economic conditions.

In the future the Reporting Persons may, without limitation: (a) communicate and discuss their views with other shareholders, including discussions concerning the election of directors to the Board of Directors; (b) make proposals to the Issuer's Board of Directors and management; (c) seek representation on the Issuer's Board of Directors; and/or (d) solicit proxies or written consents from other shareholders of the Issuer with respect to representation on the Board of Directors or other proposals for shareholder action.

The Reporting Persons may make further purchases of shares of Common Stock. The Reporting Persons may dispose of any or all of the shares of Common Stock held by them, although they have no current intention to do so. Except as noted in this Schedule 13D, the Reporting Persons do not have any specific plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any of the matters referred to in clauses (a) through (g), inclusive, of Item 4 of this Schedule 13D. The Reporting Persons may, at any time and from time to time, review or reconsider their position and formulate specific plans or proposals with respect thereto.
