RULES 12B-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 by the prescribed filing date of March 16, 2005 because the Registrant has not been able, without unreasonable effort or expense, to complete the preparation of the financial statements of the Registrant for the year ended December 31, 2004 on or before March 16, 2005. The Registrant is unable to complete the preparation of its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 on or before March 16, 2005 because the Registrant is currently evaluating two adjustments to its financial statements.

First, from approximately 1999 through 2002, the Registrant entered into various long-term operating leases that provided for escalating lease payments. Historically, the Registrant had recognized the expense associated with these operating leases based on the annual cash outflows required. Under generally accepted accounting principles, however, the Registrant is required to recognize the annual amount of lease expense using the straight-line method over the term of the lease.

Second, the Registrant has determined that the state income tax rate the Registrant has used to determine its income tax provision and establish the related deferred tax liability in previous financial statements is incorrect and is currently evaluating the effect of the application of the incorrect rate.

These two adjustments will result in the recognition of additional expense and related deferred liabilities. The Registrant is in the process of analyzing both of these issues and, at this time, is unable to determine whether it will be necessary to restate its financial results for any prior periods.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant anticipates that its net loss attributable to common stockholders for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, will significantly exceed its net loss attributable to common stockholders for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, primarily as a result of gains recognized in 2003 upon the sale of television stations and increased preferred stock dividends in 2004 and the two adjustments discussed in Part III above. The Registrant's previously reported net loss attributable to common stockholders for the first nine months of 2004 was $167.0 million compared to a net loss attributable to common stockholders for the first nine months of 2003 of $94.5 million.

This notification of late filing contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Registrant to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by forward-looking statements. Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and that undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the dates on which they were made. The adjustments described above are subject to change based upon completion of the review by the Registrant and its independent registered public accounting firm. The Registrant undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements or to make any other forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise unless required to do so by the securities laws. Investors are referred to the full discussion of risks and uncertainties associated with forward-looking statements contained in the Registrant's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
