In the following discussion, all share amounts reflect a 20 for 1 reverse stock split effected as of March 17, 2007.

During the Company's 2006 fiscal year, Mr. Michael A. Littman, the managing member of the Company's majority shareholder at the time, Ponce Acquisition, LLC, a Colorado limited liability company ("Ponce Acquisition"), performed legal services for, and made cost advances on behalf of, the Company. Such services were rendered in connection with bringing the Company current in its reporting obligations under the Exchange Act and obtaining a quotation for the Common Stock on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board (the "OTCBB"). On January 30, 2007, the Company issued a promissory note (the "Note") to Mr. Littman in the principal amount of $434,385 to evidence these legal fees and cost advances. The Note was paid in full from the proceeds of the 2007 Transaction (as described below).

On January 31, 2007, the Company issued 7,500,000 shares of Common Stock to Ponce Acquisition for an aggregate offering price of $15,000. Keating (Keating) was appointed the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, President, Secretary, Treasurer and a director of the Company, and Jeff L. Andrews and Margie L. Blackwell were appointed directors of the Company.

Keating is the father of Timothy J. Keating, the managing member of Keating Investments, LLC, which in turn is the managing member of KI Equity. Additionally, Jeff L. Andrews and Margie L. Blackwell are members of Keating Investments, LLC. At the time of the appointments of Keating, Jeff L. Andrews and Margie L. Blackwell, KI Equity was the controlling shareholder of the Company.

On March 26, 2007, the Company issued 7,500,000 shares of Common Stock to KI Equity for an aggregate offering price of $75,000. The proceeds from this sale were used for working capital to pay expenses to maintain the reporting status of the Company. Also on March 26, 2007, the Company issued 1,600,000 shares of its Common Stock to Keating, who at the time of the issuance was the sole officer and a director of the Company, for services rendered to the Company valued at $16,000.

The shares of Common Stock issued to KI Equity and Keating in March of 2007 were issued pursuant to the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. As such, these shares are restricted shares, and the holder thereof may not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of such shares without registration under the Securities Act or an exemption therefrom. The Company granted demand and piggyback registration rights to KI Equity and Keating with respect to the above shares; however, these registration rights were terminated on July 7, 2008, as disclosed under Item 1.02 of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The Management Agreement was terminated on July 7, 2008, as disclosed under Item 1.02 of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On July 7, 2008, after the closing of the Change in Control disclosed under Item 5.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, the Company issued an aggregate of 31,437,000 shares of Common Stock to the Investors for an aggregate offering price of $562,500. The Board has not adopted formal standards to apply when it reviews, approves or ratifies any related party transaction. However, traditionally, the Board has followed the following standards: (i) all related party transactions must be fair and reasonable to the Company and on terms comparable to those reasonably expected to be agreed to with independent third parties for the same goods and/or services at the time they are authorized by the Board, and (ii) all related party transactions should be authorized, approved or ratified by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors who have no interest, either directly or indirectly, in any such related party transaction.

Director Independence

Item 11. Description of Registrant's Securities to be Registered.

The Articles of Incorporation of the Company, as amended (the Articles), authorize the issuance of 250,000,000 shares of Common Stock and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.0001 par value (the Preferred Stock).

Each record holder of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters properly submitted to the shareholders of the Company for their vote. Cumulative voting for the election of directors is not permitted by the Articles. The Articles provide that any action to be taken by the shareholders of the Company which, pursuant to statute, requires the vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, may be acted upon by the vote or concurrence of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the shares, class or series entitled to vote thereon.

The holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock are entitled to such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board out of legally available funds, subject to preferential dividend rights, if any, of the holders of Preferred Stock. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company, the holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive, ratably, the net assets of the Company available to shareholders after distribution is made to the holders of Preferred Stock, if any, who are given preferred rights upon liquidation. To the extent that additional shares of the Company's Common Stock are issued, the relative interests of then existing shareholders may be diluted.

The Articles provide the Board with the authority to determine the designations, powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the Preferred Stock, and establish different series of Preferred Stock and variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series thereof in accordance with Colorado law. The holders of any series of Preferred Stock shall have no voting power whatsoever, except for such voting powers with respect to the election of directors or other matters as may be stated in the resolutions of the Board creating any such series of Preferred Stock.

Item 12. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article 109 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act (the CBCA) permits the Company to indemnify any officer, director, employee or agent (any such person, a Proper Person) against expenses, fines, penalties, settlements or judgments arising in connection with a legal proceeding to which such person was a party, to the extent that such person's actions were in good faith, were believed to be in the Company's best interest and were not unlawful. Indemnification is mandatory with respect to a Proper Person who was wholly successful in defense of a proceeding.

The circumstances under which indemnification is granted in connection with an action brought on the Company's behalf are generally the same as those mentioned above. However, with respect to actions against directors or officers, indemnification may be granted only with respect to reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of the action. In these actions, the person to be indemnified must have acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed was in the Company's best interest; the person must not have been adjudged liable to the Company; and the person must not have received an improper personal benefit.

The Articles provide that the Company shall indemnify any person who is or was a director of the Company to the maximum extent provided by Colorado law. The Articles also provide that the Company shall indemnify any person who is or was an officer, employee or agent of the Company, and who is not a director of the Company, to the maximum extent provided by law, or to a greater extent if consistent with law and if provided by resolution of the Company's shareholders or directors, or in a contract.

The Articles authorize the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Company and who while a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Company, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary or agent of any other foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan, against any liability asserted against or incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under provisions of Colorado law.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company has been informed that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, this indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

This summary of the circumstances in which such indemnification is provided for is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Articles and the Bylaws of the Company, which are filed as exhibits hereto and incorporated herein by this reference, and to the relevant provisions of the CBCA.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On July 7, 2008, subsequent to the Closings, the Board, in accordance with the Colorado Business Corporation Act (the "CBCA"), unanimously adopted the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the "Amended Bylaws"), which became effective immediately upon their adoption by the Board. A summary of the amendments is as follows:

At any meeting of the Company's shareholders, unless a greater number is required by the CBCA, the Amended Bylaws establish that one-third of the shares entitled to be cast by shareholders on any matter constitutes a quorum. Previously, a quorum was determined only with reference to relevant provisions contained in the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

The Amended Bylaws provide that the Board shall comprise a number of directors fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. Previously, the number of directors serving on the board was fixed at three.

The Amended Bylaws clarify that each of the Company's outstanding shares of capital stock is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a shareholder vote, unless otherwise required by the CBCA or the Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended.

The Amended Bylaws clarify that shareholder proxies may be in any written, electronic or other form permitted under the CBCA.

Instead of a unanimous written consent, and the Amended Bylaws provide that any action required to be taken, or which may be taken at a meeting of shareholders, may be taken without a meeting and by a written consent executed by shareholders holding not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all of the shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Under the Amended Bylaws, any or all of the shareholders may participate in any annual or special shareholders meeting by, or the meeting may be conducted through the use of, any means of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting may hear each other during the meeting. Any shareholder participating in any meeting by such means shall be deemed present at that meeting.

The Amended Bylaws permit the Company to issue uncertificated as well as certificated shares of stock.

The Amended Bylaws provide for implementation of indemnification of the Company's directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries and agents (Proper Persons) permitted by Colorado law subject to certain customary requirements and exclusions. Additionally, the Company may, but is not required to, provide advancement of reasonable expenses incurred by any Proper Person in defending certain actions, suits or proceedings. Previously, the Bylaws provided only that the Company had the power to provide indemnification.

The Amended Bylaws clarify that, while the Board has the right to amend the Company's Amended Bylaws, the Board's right is subject to the shareholders' superior right to amend the Company's Amended Bylaws.

The foregoing description of the changes to the Bylaws is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amended Bylaws which is attached as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated herein by reference.
