It meets at least quarterly with the auditors and reviews their periodic reports. The Committee discusses with the auditors the scope and plan for the audit and includes management in its review of accounting and financial controls, assessment of business risks and legal and ethical compliance programs.

Based on its review of the audited financial statements for fiscal year 2007 and its discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Committee recommended to the Corporation's Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K.

The Charter of this Committee may be found at www.cubic.com/corp1/invest/governance.

Report, Discussion and Analysis

The following Discussion and Analysis is not "soliciting material," is not deemed "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is not to be incorporated by reference into any filing of Cubic under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Introduction

The Committee receives recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer regarding salary and bonus compensation for all elected corporate executive officers and for the senior officers of its two major business units. It evaluates these compensation elements annually and approves them, or makes alternative recommendations to the CEO. It receives input from the CEO on his salary and bonus expectations and acts independently to set such amounts. The Committee reviews available data with the Senior Vice President Chief Financial Officer and the Vice President Human Resources. This Report has been discussed with the Board of Directors and some senior managers.

The Committee also acts on managements' recommendations for the total amount of the bonus pool and the total annual payment to the Profit Sharing Plan. The total of these amounts do not significantly fluctuate from year-to-year.

The Committee has no role in consideration of equity-related awards since the Company does not offer sponsored equity arrangements. It evaluates and approves all awards under the Company's Transition Protection Plan, discussed later herein. The few additional perquisites offered to senior executives are modest and are not considered by the Committee to be material elements of individual compensation. These include annual physical examinations, reduced-premium term life insurance, an auto allowance, limited personal air travel, and for Walter J. Zable an annual amount for personal estate planning services. Pension benefits, 401(k) matching payments and profit sharing plan participations are equally available to all eligible employees.

Analysis

In order to attract, retain and motivate senior executives, most of our compensation evaluation focus is on the salary and bonus practices of organizations of similar size, in comparable industries, and concerning individuals with relevant responsibilities and experience. We do this to be fair within the organization and to our stockholders, and to remain competitive. While historically we have occasionally used formula-based bonus arrangements, in the last few years most executive bonus payments have been subjective. We believe this enables us to concentrate on individual efforts, contributions and results and avoids the award of windfall compensation.

The specific amounts to be awarded are annually tested against market data provided by three independent consulting firms having both a regional and national focus. These surveys include data from approximately 371 companies. We do not instruct the providers of this data to significantly vary their reports from a standard format. Our objective is to obtain data from a broad spectrum of technology and defense companies and also from public companies of similar size in sales. Historical compensation for the individual is also considered. Most annual executive salary adjustments are modest and in line with cost of living considerations. Annual bonus payments usually comprise less than 30% of total compensation for executive officers.

Our Transition Protection Plan assists in the retention and attraction of senior individuals by reducing their concern for financial security in the event of a job loss following a change of control. Awards to date have been for payment of five-year average compensation, and certain fringe benefits, for 24 months following a change of control. The 24-month period was selected to remain comfortably below the range at which onerous taxation would occur.

The compensation for independent directors is recommended by the CEO and approved by the whole board. The annual retainer ($22,000) and fees for attendance at board meetings ($2,000 per meeting) and committee meetings ($1,000 per meeting) are modest by any standard. Such directors have also received a one-time grant of an option, under our stock option plan, to purchase 4,500 shares of common stock at the closing market price the day after the grant. Employee-directors receive no additional compensation and no options.

Nominating Committee

Cubic Corporation has had a Nominating Committee, consisting of two independent directors, since 1991. The fiscal 2007 members of the Committee were Robert T. Monagan, Chairman and Raymond E. Peet. The Committee held one meeting during fiscal 2007. The Committee has a Charter, which is available at www.cubic.com/corp1/invest/governance. The Committee has not received a shareholder nomination for directors in the last nine years and has not received an unsolicited proposal regarding a candidate who possesses appropriate background and experience during that time. The Board consists of nine directors, five of whom are independent. The Committee's policy is to consider recommendations of the security holders which are received by the Corporate Secretary at least 120 days prior to one year from the date of the previous annual meeting of shareholders. Recommendations of candidates who have at least 20 years of management and defense or transportation industry experience with a company with sales of at least 75% of that of the Corporation, or who could bring appropriate diversity to the Board, or who possess other relevant qualifications (for example finance and accounting, marketing) would be preferred. If a vacancy in the Board occurs, the Committee seeks recommendations from the Board and senior management personnel. The Committee will also review any security holder recommendations on file. It screens and personally interviews appropriate candidates. Selected candidates meet with some additional Board members, certain members of management and the Chairman of the Board. The Committee evaluates responses and recommends to the full Board the name of any candidate it feels should become a nominee for election or appointment.

- (1) This Plan was frozen as of January 1, 2007; no additional benefits accrue after that date. The purpose of this Plan was to provide a modest monthly retirement benefit, to supplement social security payments, for all full-time U.S. employees who have completed one year of service with the Company. The Company has not granted extra years of credited service to any employee. The full benefit is available, upon retirement, to any employee who (i) has attained age 65, or (ii) is between age 55 and 64 and whose combined age and number of years of service equals 85. A reduced benefit is available at or after age 55 through age 64 if the employee has at least five years of service. The annual benefit is determined by adding total salary and bonus (not exceeding the ERISA cap in any year) during the time of participation and multiplying the sum by 3/4ths of 1%. Benefits are paid monthly. The monthly amount will vary based upon the form of benefit selected, e.g. a life annuity or a joint and 50% survivor annuity. The present value of the accumulated benefit is determined by the projected unit credit method. The interest rate used for computing present value was 6.25% and includes the following material assumptions: (a) retirement age is at present actual age, (b) retirement at September 30, 2007, (c) mortality taken from RP 2000 with projection to 2015. The Company has made annual actuarially determined contributions for all participants, generally of about 3% of participants' qualified remuneration. Plan contributions are distributed among various funds held by an insurance company.
- (2) Mr. Zable received $52,958 under this Plan in FY2007 which was required by IRS rules.

(1) No executive contributions were made in FY2007. The amounts shown have been deferred (and not presently taxed) under our Deferred Compensation Plan. The Plan permits selected key employees to defer (from time to time) up to 90% of their base salary and up to 100% of their bonus. These amounts are a general debt of the Company. The amounts earn interest at rates periodically set by the Secretary of the United States Treasury. The rate at the end of the current fiscal year was 5.75%. The Company makes no contribution to this Plan. Payment elections and withdrawals are permitted within guidelines established by the Internal Revenue Service. After retirement the participant may receive a lump sum payment or an annual distribution over 5, 10, 15 or 20 years. Annual revision of the selected payment method is regulated by IRS guidelines.

(2) Walter J. Zable, Walter C. Zable and Mr. Efland have not participated in this Plan.

Potential Payments Upon TerminationGeneral Policy: Severance Without Cause

The Company has a severance policy applicable to many of its U.S.-based employees, including the named executive officers. In the event of a Company-originated termination without cause, the eligible individual who has completed three years of employment with the Company is offered the opportunity to receive, in exchange for signing a general release, a lump sum payment of one week of base pay at their current rate for each 12-months of employment, and payment of medical and dental coverage under COBRA for up to 12 months. Outplacement consultation may be provided in the Company's discretion. In individual circumstances, a named executive officer may be offered alternative arrangements to be negotiated. These severance benefits are not offset by the Company's normal retirement benefits.

This chart shows, as of the end of the most recent fiscal year, the lump-sum severance payment, number of months of COBRA coverage and the approximate cost of that coverage, should a named executive officer be terminated by the Company without cause. Other than COBRA payments, this is in addition to any "Potential Payments Upon Change-in-Control", described below. Walter J. Zable and Richard A. Efland do not participate.

Name	Lump Sum Payment		Number of months of COBRA Paid	Cost of COBRA payment $
	# Weeks	$ Total
William W. Boyle CFO	24	230,769	12	18,038
Raymond L. deKozan Sr. Group VP	46	371,538	12	11,263
Walter C. Zable Vice Chair	44	338,462	12	16,760

Potential Payments Upon Change-in-Control Transition Protection Plan

The Company has adopted a Transition Protection Plan (the "Protection Plan"). The Protection Plan is intended to be made available upon specific approval of the individual by the CEO and the Executive Compensation Committee. It is intended to benefit executive officers and may be offered to other selected key personnel who are not executive officers. If there is any change of control of the Company (defined to include the acquisition by an unrelated party of sufficient shares of the Company to elect a majority of its Board of Directors), and within 12 months before or 24 months after such event a subject executive's employment terminates without good cause (as defined), or the executive resigns for good reason (as defined), then the Company would be obligated (a) to pay such executive a monthly amount for 24 months computed as the immediately previous five fiscal years' monthly average of salary and bonus and (b) to continue for 24 months welfare plans in which such executive participated. Miscellaneous additional benefits, including outplacement service may also be provided. The Protection Plan is Exhibit 10.2 to our SEC form 10-K filed for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007.

A "change in control" occurs when a "person" acquires sufficient shares of our voting stock to elect a majority of our directors, assuming 90% of outstanding shares vote; or a merger resulting in a substantial change in the directors; and certain other events.

A termination "without good cause" occurs when there is any involuntary termination of employment without a willful and continued failure of the employee to perform substantially his duties, or his gross negligence or breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit (etc.) or his conviction or plea of no contest or guilty to state or federal felony criminal laws.

A resignation "for good reason" occurs when the authority, duties, function or responsibilities of the employee are substantially reduced, his base-salary is reduced, his bonus participation opportunity is reduced by more than 50%, his job location is substantially changed, or the Company materially breaches the Protection Plan.

Following termination, to receive monthly payments the executive must not breach the Company's proprietary information policy and must not interfere with the employees, customers or suppliers of the Company.

The welfare plans in which the executive would continue to participate are health insurance (COBRA), dental and vision insurance, and group term life insurance, each to the extent to which the executive participated prior to termination.

In most cases, the entity making the payments would be the successor to Cubic Corporation.

CONFIRMATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Ernst & Young LLP has audited the Corporation's books and records since 1959 and are continuing as its auditors. Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be present at the shareholders' meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The Board is seeking your confirmation of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accountants for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2008. Our organizational documents do not require that our shareholders confirm the selection of our independent auditors. We are doing so because we believe it is a matter of good corporate practice. If our shareholders do not ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will investigate the reasons for rejection and reconsider whether or not to retain Ernst & Young LLP, but still may retain them. Even if the selection is confirmed, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may change the appointment at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

The pre-approval of services may be delegated to one or more of the Audit Committee's members, but the decision must be reported to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.
