Item 5.02 Departure of Directors, Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

- (b) Michael Francis, an independent director serving on the Board of Directors of Department 56, Inc. (the Company) since 2001, has notified the Company that he intends to resign from the Board of Directors effective with the closing of the Company's previously announced acquisition of Lenox, Inc. Mr. Francis is the Executive Vice President of Marketing for Target Corporation. Target Corporation is a customer of the Company's and, following the Lenox acquisition, will be a competitor of the Company. Due to the difficult conflict-of-interest issues that this situation would create, Mr. Francis tendered his resignation. Mr. Francis will continue to serve on the Board of Directors until such time as the Lenox acquisition occurs.
