SWS-Hilltop Transaction Update to Employees

To: All Employees

From: Hill Feinberg

Date: May 19th, 2014

RE: SWS-Hilltop Transaction Update

Dear First Southwest Employee,

I am writing to update you on the progress of our pending merger with Southwest Securities. Since announcing the deal, we have been working with SWS towards closing the transaction and developing a plan to create the leading Texas-based broker-dealer and 4th largest Texas-based bank by deposit market share.

The process to closing the transaction is expected to take several months and will consist of significant milestones. We recently filed our regulatory application. Later this month, we expect to jointly file the Form S-4/Proxy, which will need to clear comments by the SEC to become effective. The Form S-4/Proxy will contain detailed descriptions of the SWS shareholders meeting, the merger, certain documents associated with the merger and other related matters. Once effective, we will set a meeting date for SWS shareholders to vote on approval of the transaction, which we expect to occur in the third calendar quarter of this year. Following SWS shareholder approval, we will need to obtain regulatory approval to close the transaction, which we expect in the fourth calendar quarter of this year.

The combination of these firms will be a significant undertaking, and our goal is to efficiently integrate the businesses through the support of our collective organizations. We have established an Integration Committee (the Committee) to drive the process and facilitate decision-making. The Committee will be chaired by Jeremy Ford, President and CEO of Hilltop, and will have equal representation from SWS and First Southwest. The Committee will serve as a true working group that will draw from employees within both organizations to fulfill integration work streams. The mandate of the Committee is to maintain a thoughtful process that will result in a stronger and better positioned combined company.

I know that there are many questions surrounding how this merger will impact the way in which you serve your customers, as well as how this will affect you personally. In an effort to answer as many of these questions as possible, we have set up an email address (merger@firstsw.com) and phone number (214-525-9020) as a point of contact. Additionally, we will post a list of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) to the First Southwest intranet that we will update regularly. I will do my best to communicate with you often, especially when we accomplish the major milestones of this transaction.

We are excited about the positive impact combining our businesses and cultures will have on our shareholders, clients and you, our valued employees. While the timeline to close is a long process, we will remain thoughtful and diligent in our approach. In the meantime, we all need to remain focused on achieving our goals and serving our clients with the same passion and responsiveness that they have come to expect from First Southwest. As always, I thank you for your continued hard work and dedication.

Sincerely,

Hill Feinberg
