Vale reports a breach to the Feijão Mine dam in Brumadinho (MG)

Rio de Janeiro, January 25th, 2019 Vale is reporting that there has been a breach to the Feijão Mine in Brumadinho (MG), which occurred earlier this afternoon. The first information indicates that the tailings have reached the company's administrative area and part of the Vila Ferteco community. There is still no confirmation of any injuries. Vale has contacted the Fire Department and activated its Emergency Dam Response Plan.

Vale's main priority at this time is to preserve and protect the lives of the employees and members of the community.

The company will continue to provide information as soon as they are confirmed.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), and the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and in particular the factors discussed under Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
