Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On February 26, 2019, Ironwood Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ( Ironwood ) and Cycleron Therapeutics, Inc. ( Cycleron ), its planned research and development spin-off company, announced that Cycleron entered into a stock purchase agreement for a private placement of up to $175 million. The number of shares of Cycleron common stock sold in the private placement will be determined by dividing $250 million, the pre-money valuation of Cycleron, by the total number of shares of Cycleron common stock outstanding immediately following the planned spin-off, determined on a fully-diluted basis pursuant to the treasury stock method. The amount raised in the private placement is subject to certain potential reductions to preserve the tax-free nature of the spin-off.

The investors participating in this financing consist of both institutional and individual accredited investors, many of whom have been shareholders in Ironwood for several years. Peter Hecht, Ironwood's Chief Executive Officer and future Chief Executive Officer and board member of Cycleron, is expected to donate a portion of his shares of Ironwood common stock to a donor advised fund that is expected to divest these shares to invest up to $34.0 million in Cycleron as part of this financing. Mark Currie, Ironwood's Chief Scientific Officer and future President of Cycleron and board member of Ironwood, has agreed to invest up to $4.0 million in Cycleron as part of this financing. Dr. Currie and certain other investors may fund a portion of their investment through sales of Ironwood common stock. Drs. Hecht and Currie have agreed to not purchase Cycleron shares for at least two years from the closing date in order to preserve the tax-free nature of the spin-off.

Completion of the private placement is subject to certain closing conditions, including the listing of Cycleron common stock on the Nasdaq Global Market, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) declaring effective Cycleron's registration statement on Form 10, completion of the distribution, receipt of an opinion regarding the tax-free nature of the separation and receipt of aggregate proceeds of at least $150 million after giving effect to reductions (if any) to preserve the tax-free nature of the spin-off.

Cycleron has agreed to file with the SEC a registration statement covering resale of shares of Cycleron common stock purchased in the private placement.

The closing of the private placement is expected to take place immediately following Ironwood's distribution of Cycleron shares to Ironwood stockholders in the planned spin-off. The purchase agreement may be terminated by investors committed to purchase a majority of the shares if the private placement has not occurred by April 15, 2019, and any investor may terminate the purchase agreement with respect to their investment if the private placement has not occurred by May 15, 2019.

Investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, including statements about the completion, structure and terms of the proposed separation, the closing of the private placement and the leadership and boards of directors of each of Ironwood and Cycleron following the separation.
