PREDICTIVE SYSTEMS' SECURITY INTELLIGENCE SERVICES SOLD TO SAIC

- Sale Was Reflected in Company's Previously Announced Acquisition by INS -

NEW YORK, NY - April 11, 2003 -Predictive Systems, Inc. (Nasdaq SC: PRDS) today announced the sale of the firm's Security Intelligence Services business unit, which includes Information Sharing and Analysis Centers (ISACs) and Open Source Intelligence (OSI) services, to Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC). Total revenues associated with this business unit represented approximately $1.38 million in fiscal 2002. The closing of the sale to SAIC which is expected to take place early in the second quarter is subject to certain conditions, mainly the receipt of third party consents.

As consideration for the transaction, SAIC will pay Predictive Systems an aggregate of approximately 4.19 million shares of Predictive Systems common stock, and accordingly, Predictive Systems' common stock outstanding after the closing of the sale to SAIC will be reduced by approximately 4.19 million shares. As a result, Predictive Systems expects the consideration per share to be received pursuant to the previously announced INS merger to be approximately $0.46 per share, based on the number of shares and in the-money-options expected to be outstanding on the closing date of the INS merger. If the sale to SAIC does not close for any reason, however, the 4.19 million shares will remain outstanding and will be required to be included in the per share INS merger consideration calculation resulting in a decrease in the estimated price per share of the INS merger to approximately $0.42 per share. Furthermore, as previously disclosed, the consideration to be received by stockholders in the INS transaction is subject to additional adjustment based on Predictive Systems' net assets at closing.

Predictive Systems also announced the resignation of Shawn Kreloff, the company's Senior Vice President of Sales and Business Development who is leaving to pursue other interests. Predictive Systems thanks Mr. Kreloff for his dedicated service.

results may differ materially. Statements concerning the completion of the SAIC and INS acquisition, the expected consideration per share to be received in the INS transaction, and whether the purchase price will be adjusted based on Predictive Systems' net assets, among others, are by nature "forward-looking statements" (within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) that involve a number of uncertainties and risks and cannot be guaranteed. Factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially include the risk that the merger with INS or asset sale to SAIC may not be consummated in a timely manner, if at all, risks associated with estimating cash requirements and closing net assets, employee relations, risks relating to shifts in customer demand, and other risks concerning Predictive Systems that are detailed in its period filings with the SEC, including its most recent filings on Form 10-K and Form 10-Q.
