Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On December 5, 2008, Wuhan General Group (China), Inc. (the “Company”) notified the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) that the Company was in material non-compliance with Marketplace Rule 4350 as a result of the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ku Shaodong as a member of the Company’s board of directors and audit committee. The Marketplace Rule 4350 requires that a majority of the Company’s board of directors be comprised of independent members and its audit committee be comprised of three independent members. The Company received notice from Nasdaq on December 8, 2008 acknowledging this non-compliance.

Consistent with Marketplace Rules 4350(c)(1) and 4350(d)(4), Nasdaq indicated that it will provide the Company a cure period in order to regain compliance. The Company has until the earlier of the Company’s next annual shareholders’ meeting or November 30, 2009 to regain compliance. Alternatively, if the next annual shareholders’ meeting is held before May 29, 2009, then the Company must evidence compliance no later than May 29, 2009. The Company must submit to Nasdaq documentation, including the biography of the new director, evidencing compliance with the rules no later than this date. In the event the Company does not regain compliance by this date, Nasdaq rules require its staff to provide written notification to the Company that its securities will be delisted. At that time, the Company may appeal the delisting determination to a Listing Qualifications Panel.

Wuhan General is conducting a search for a new director who meets the requirements of Nasdaq and is available for appointment to the Company’s board of directors and audit committee within the cure periods allowed under the Marketplace Rules. The Company fully expects to regain compliance prior to the end of the cure period.

In accordance with Marketplace Rule 4803(a), on December 10, 2008, the Company issued a press release announcing the Company’s receipt of the deficiency letter from Nasdaq. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
