The Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% common stockholders are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms received by the Company and representations from certain reporting persons, the Company believes that during fiscal 2012 all filing requirements were satisfied.

(2) Represents amounts paid to Ms. Syms under the Syms Pension Plan following her departure from the Company. As of January 1, 2013, Ms. Syms draws $2,020.88 per month from her pension.

(3) In 2011, Ms. Syms received the benefits of a company car valued at $34,927, VIP health plan benefits of $38,734 and split dollar life insurance premiums of $110,401. Ms. Syms did not receive any of these amounts in 2012.

(4) Represents a car allowance of $6,000 per year.

Executive Compensation in Context

The Company had three different principal executive officers during fiscal 2012. Marcy Syms served as Chief Executive Officer during fiscal 2011 and until Syms Corp. emerged from bankruptcy and merged with Trinity Place Holdings Inc. on September 14, 2012. Lauren Krueger then served as Chief Executive Officer from September 14, 2012 until the effective date of her resignation on January 11, 2013. At that time, the Board of Directors elected Mark D. Ettenger as Chairman of the Board, a role in which he began serving as the Company's principal executive officer.

In 2011, Ms. Syms received her salary and certain perquisites noted above, and in 2012, she received her salary while serving as Chief Executive Officer and she began receiving monthly payments under the Syms Pension Plan following her departure. As of January 1, 2013, Ms. Syms had accrued $356,356 in benefits under the Syms Pension Plan.

Following the emergence of Syms Corp. from bankruptcy, Ms. Krueger was engaged by the Company to serve as Chief Executive Officer pursuant to an agreement with Esopus Creek Management LLC ("Esopus") under which Esopus received a consulting fee at the rate of $240,000 per year. Under that agreement, Esopus agreed to make the services of Ms. Krueger available for an initial term of one year. When Mr. Ettenger was elected as Chairman and designated as the Company's principal executive officer, the Board determined to pay him a retainer of $50,000 per month in addition to any amounts that he may be entitled to receive for his service as a Director.

The Company had two different Chief Financial Officers during fiscal 2012. Gary Binkoski served as Chief Financial Officer from March 23, 2011 until October 12, 2012 pursuant to engagement agreements between the Company and Alvarez & Marsal North America ("A&M"). Following the emergence of Syms Corp. from bankruptcy, the Company paid A&M an hourly rate of $550 for Mr. Binkoski's services as Chief Financial Officer. On October 12, 2012, the Board promoted Richard G. Pyontek from Director of Accounting and Reporting to Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer. He was also paid a bonus of $67,500 in fiscal 2012 under the Company's Key Employee Incentive Plan ("KEIP"), which was adopted to encourage certain executives to stay at Syms Corp. during its bankruptcy proceedings.

Laura McCabe Brandt is listed as one of the Company's named executive officers because she and Mr. Binkoski would have been the two most highly compensated executive officers of the Company in fiscal 2012 other than the principal executive officers had she been serving at the end of the fiscal year. Ms. Brandt resigned from the Company effective September 14, 2012. In addition to her salary, Ms. Brandt received $93,750 in fiscal 2012 as part of the KEIP and received $87,500 in fiscal 2011 as a bonus that was part of a management retention plan. In each of fiscal 2011 and 2012, she received a car allowance of $6,000 per year.

In all cases, both before and after the emergence of Syms Corp. from bankruptcy, the Company's compensation program has been designed to ensure that the total compensation paid to the Company's executive officers is fair and reasonable. The Company has sought to maintain a relatively simple compensation program to avoid the administrative costs and misalignment of incentives that are often associated with complex compensation plans and agreements. The Company has also focused on paying its executive officers in cash rather than in equity, which would be dilutive to the common stockholders.

The Company no longer maintains any equity compensation plans and did not otherwise make any equity compensation grants during fiscal 2011 or fiscal 2012. The only named executive officer to have held equity compensation awards of any kind was Ms. Syms, and her awards were canceled when Syms Corp. emerged from bankruptcy. Accordingly, there were no stock option exercises during 2012 and no equity awards of any kind outstanding at the end of fiscal 2012. The Company also does not have any retirement plans, deferred compensation plans, disability insurance programs or other traditional perquisites (other than health insurance and a life insurance policy, which are offered to all full time employees, and the pension plan under which Ms. Syms receives benefits but which was closed to new participants in 2006).

Following the end of fiscal 2012, on April 22, 2013, the Company and Mr. Ettenger executed an Engagement Agreement providing for Mr. Ettenger to serve as the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. The Engagement Agreement provides for Mr. Ettenger to serve as an independent contractor for a period of one year, with an automatic renewal for one additional year, subject to the right of either party to terminate the engagement at the end of the first year on 30 days' advance notice.

The Engagement Agreement provides for Mr. Ettenger to receive an annual fee of $400,000, retroactive to March 11, 2013. The Engagement Agreement also entitles him to receive certain incentive fees and performance fees in connection with the sale or other monetization of the Company's real estate properties based on pre-established threshold amounts for each of the properties. The incentive fees and performance fees are also generally payable on entity-level (rather than property-level) transactions based on the net proceeds from the transaction relative to the aggregate threshold amounts for all remaining unsold properties. Unless Mr. Ettenger's engagement is terminated for cause, the incentive fees and performance fees under the Engagement Agreement will be payable for transactions that close during the term of the engagement, that are under contract at the time of the termination of the engagement but that close after such termination, or that otherwise close within six months after such termination.

Mr. Ettenger will receive no benefits from the Company, but the Engagement Agreement provides for the Company to reimburse him for the actual cost of his health insurance and for up to $15,000 in legal fees associated with the negotiation of the Engagement Agreement. If the Company terminates the engagement without cause (including at the end of the first year), the Engagement Agreement provides that the Company must pay the annual fee for the remainder of the term or for three months, if longer.

Subsequent to the Board's approval of the Engagement Agreement and its execution by Mr. Ettenger and the Company, Mr. Cohen informed the Board that he is of the belief that, under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and the Syms Corp. Plan of Reorganization, his approval is required in order for the Company to enter into and/or perform its obligations under the Engagement Agreement. Mr. Cohen has not approved the Engagement Agreement and has indicated that he does not intend to approve it in its current form. The Company, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Ettenger are engaged in discussions attempting to resolve the issue, but there can be no assurance as to the outcome of those discussions.

B. DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Director compensation for fiscal 2012 is summarized in the following table:

Fiscal 2012 Director Compensation

Name	Fees Earned or Paid in Cash
Alan Cohen	25,000
Alan B. Miller	25,000
Marina Shevyrtalova	25,000
Andrew L. Sole	25,000
Bernie Tenenbaum	55,000
Henry Chidgey	45,000
Thomas Zanicchia	45,000

In September 14, 2012, the Board adopted a policy of paying $5,000 to each Director for each Board meeting attended, up to $25,000 per year, and reimbursing reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attending meetings of the Board and committees of the Board. There is no separate fee for committee meetings. Alexander C. Matina is not listed in the table because he did not serve as a Director in fiscal 2012. The fees earned by Mark D. Ettenger for his service as a Director are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table above for executives.

Prior to September 14, 2012, Syms Corp. had a policy of paying each non-employee Director $5,000 for each Board meeting attended. Additionally, each audit committee member received $2,000 per meeting attended and the chairperson of the audit committee received $4,000 per meeting attended. For other committees, each member of the committee received $1,000 per meeting attended. Travel expenses related to attendance were also reimbursed.

However, Mr. Matina and Ms. Shevyrtalova are affiliated with entities that own a significant percentage of the Company's Common Stock, and Mr. Ettenger was originally designated as a member of the Board of Directors by Marcato Capital Management, LLC, the largest holder of the Company's Common Stock.

Item 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Director Independence Generally

Mr. Ettenger has served as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer since April 2013 (having served as Chairman and principal executive officer since January 2013). In addition to Mr. Ettenger, there are four other members of the Board of Directors. Mr. Ettenger is not considered an "independent" Director as he holds management positions within the Company. However, the Board of Directors has determined that the other four Directors are "independent" in accordance with NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4200. The Board of Directors also determined that certain former Directors in the last fiscal year, namely Bernie Tenenbaum, Henry Chidgey and Thomas Zanicchia, who served on the Board of Syms Corp., were "independent" in accordance with NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4200. Although the Company is not listed on NASDAQ, the Board of Directors chose to utilize the NASDAQ Marketplace definition of independence in Rule 4200 for purposes of determining the independence of each Director.

Audit Committee Independence

As mentioned in Item 10, the entire Board of Directors acts as the audit committee for the Company. The Board of Directors believes that each of Messrs. Cohen, Miller, and Matina and Ms. Shevyrtalova is independent under NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4200, meets the criteria for independence set forth in Rule 10A-3 under the Exchange Act and satisfies the other audit committee membership requirements specified in NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4350(d)(2)(A). Mr. Ettenger is not independent in light of his service as an officer of the Company, but he serves on the audit committee because the entire Board of Directors acts as the audit committee pursuant to Section 3(a)(58)(B) of the Exchange Act.

Item 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING FEES AND SERVICES

Audit Fees

BDO USA, LLP billed aggregate fees of approximately $255,000 for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's fiscal 2012 financial statements and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Forms 10-Q for fiscal 2012. BDO USA, LLP billed aggregate fees of approximately $585,104 for the same services in fiscal 2011 in addition to the audit of internal controls.

Audit-Related Fees

"Audit-related fees" include fees billed for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit and not included in the "audit fees" mentioned above. BDO USA, LLP billed approximately $25,000 for audit-related fees for fiscal 2012 and $30,000 for fiscal 2011. These fees were for employee benefit related services.

Tax Fees

There were approximately $6,300 in fees billed by BDO USA, LLP in fiscal 2012 and zero billed in fiscal 2011 for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. These fees were for professional services rendered in assisting with responses to notices received from various taxing authorities.

All Other Fees

The "audit fees," "audit-related fees," and "tax fees" mentioned above are the only fees billed by BDO USA, LLP in fiscal years 2012 and 2011.

Pre-Approval Policy

Pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, before the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is engaged to render audit or non-audit services, the engagement must be approved by the Company's audit committee or entered into pursuant to a pre-approval policy. The Company does not have a formal pre-approval policy, but all audit and non-audit services performed by BDO USA, LLP were pre-approved by the Company's audit committee during fiscal 2012.
