PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

VisionChina Media Inc. (the “Company”) respectfully notifies the Securities and Exchange Commission that the Company is unable to file its annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2015 (the “Form 20-F”) on or before the prescribed due date of May 2, 2016 without unreasonable effort or expense, as it needs additional time to prepare and review its consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015 and notes thereto, as well as to complete its assessment of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting.

The Company’s management expects that the Form 20-F will be filed within the fifteen-day grace period permitted by Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Forward-Looking Statements

This notification on Form 12b-25 includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended by the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The words “expects” and “intends” and similar terms and phrases are used in this notification to identify forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the estimated timing for the filing of the Company’s Form 20-F. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect the Company’s forward-looking statements include, among other things, the time needed for the Company to finalize and file its Form 20-F. Unless required by law, the Company expressly disclaims any obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act (2) of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed ? If answer is no, identify report(s).
Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As of the date hereof, the Company has not yet finalized its consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015 to be included in the Form 20-F, nor the other disclosures required therein. However, the Company anticipates the following significant changes in results of operations from the last fiscal year will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements to be included in the Form 20-F. The Company estimates that revenues for the year ended December 31, 2015 were approximately in the range of $78.5 million to $79.5 million, a decrease of approximately 24.4% to 23.4% from the year ended December 31, 2014. The decrease was primarily a result of the Company's termination of certain unprofitable exclusive concession contracts related to advertisements in mass transportation systems. The Company estimates that net loss attributable to its shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2015 was approximately in the range of $19.3 million to $19.9 million, compared with a net loss attributable to shareholders of $31.1 million in 2014. The decrease in net loss attributable to shareholders was primarily a result of the Company's termination of certain unprofitable exclusive concession contracts related to advertisements in mass transportation systems.

The financial data presented above are subject to revision based upon the completion of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015.
