Edgar Filing: ACADIA REALTY TRUST - Form S-8

Registered herein are 1,600,000 additional common shares of beneficial interest, par value $.001 per share (the “Common Shares”), of Acadia Realty Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust (the “Registrant”), that may be issued pursuant to its Second Amended and Restated Acadia Realty Trust 2006 Share Incentive Plan (together with (1) previous versions of such plan, the “Plan”). Pursuant to Rule 416 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), this Registration Statement shall also cover additional Common Shares that may become issuable by reason of any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or other similar transactions effected without consideration that results in an increase in the number of the Registrant’s outstanding Common Shares.

The Registrant previously filed a registration statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-184117) with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 26, 2012 registering the issuance of Common Shares under the Plan. By (2) filing this Registration Statement in accordance with Instruction E to Form S-8, the Registrant registers the issuance of the 1,600,000 additional Common Shares approved for issuance under the Plan at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Registrant held on May 9, 2016.

Calculated pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (h) of Rule 457 under the Securities Act, the proposed maximum offering price per share of the Common Shares being registered is estimated solely for the purpose of determining (3) the registration fee, based upon the average of the high and low prices per share of the Common Shares, as reported on the New York Stock Exchange on December 5, 2016, which is within five business days prior to the date of filing of this Registration Statement.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

On September 26, 2012, Acadia Realty Trust, a Maryland real estate investment trust (the “Registrant”) registered 1,933,924 common shares of beneficial interest, par value $.001 per share (the “Common Shares”), to be offered or sold to participants under the Amended and Restated Acadia Realty Trust 2006 Share Incentive Plan (the “Original Plan”) pursuant to the Registration Statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-184117). The Second Amended and Restated Acadia Realty Trust 2006 Share Incentive Plan (the “Plan”), as approved by the Registrant’s shareholders on May 9, 2016, amended and restated the Original Plan, among other things, to increase the number of Common Shares available for issuance under the Original Plan by 1,600,000 Common Shares. This Registration Statement is being filed in order to register such additional 1,600,000 Common Shares which may be offered or sold to participants under the Plan. The contents of the Registrant’s Registration Statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-184117), as updated by the information set forth below, are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement in accordance with General Instruction E to Form S-8.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Registrant’s declaration of trust authorizes, and the Registrant’s bylaws obligate it, to the maximum extent permitted under Maryland law, to indemnify its trustees and officers in their capacity as such. Section 8-301(15) of the Corporations and Associations Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland permits a Maryland REIT to indemnify or advance expenses to trustees and officers to the same extent as is permitted for directors and officers of a Maryland corporation under the Maryland General Corporation Law (the “MGCL”). The MGCL requires a Maryland corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the Registrant’s declaration of trust does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is made, or threatened to be made, a party by reason of his or her service in that capacity. The MGCL permits a Maryland corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made, or threatened to be made a party to, or witness in, by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification and then only for expenses. In addition, the MGCL permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation’s receipt of a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and a written undertaking by such director or officer or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

The Registrant's declaration of trust authorizes the Registrant, and its bylaws require the Registrant, to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law, to indemnify (i) any present or former trustee or officer or (ii) any individual who, while serving as the Registrant's trustee and at the Registrant's request, serves or has served another corporation, real estate investment trust, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or any other enterprise as a director, officer, partner, member, manager, or trustee, from and against any claim or liability to which such person may become subject or which such person may incur by reason of his or her service in such capacity or capacities, and to pay or reimburse his or her reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of such a proceeding.

The Registrant's bylaws also permit the Registrant, subject to the approval of its board of trustees, to indemnify and advance expenses to any person who served a predecessor of the Registrant in any of the capacities described above and to any employee or agent of the Registrant or a predecessor of the Registrant.

In addition to the above, the Registrant has purchased and maintains insurance on behalf of all of its trustees and executive officers against liability asserted against or incurred by them in their official capacities with the Registrant, whether or not the Registrant is required or has the power to indemnify them against the same liability.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to trustees, officers or persons controlling the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.
